Business Cards. DAVIES, & HALL,

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, BOUTH SIDE OF WARD HOUSE. Dec 21-75.

SAM W. BUCK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. - TOWANDA, PENNA

Office-At Treasurer's Office, in Court Hous W. H. & E. A. THOMPSON, • ATTOBNEYS-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, P. in Mercur Block, over C. T. Kirby's Dru. Ali business intrusted to their care will be attended to promptly. Especial attention give to claims against the United States for PENSION BOUNTIES, PATENTS, etc; to colle

BEVERLY SMITH & CO. BOOKBINDERS,

And dealers in Fret Saws and Amateurs' Supplie Send for price-lists, REPORTER Building. Box 1512, Towands, Ps. L. HOLLISTER, D. D. S.,

Successor to Dr. E. H. Angie). OFFICE—Secondor of Dr. Pratt's office. Towanda, Pa., January 6, 1881. Madell & kinney, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. Office-Booms formerly occupied by Y. M. C. A 2,18,80 O. D. KINNEY II, J. MADILL.

TOHN W. CODDING, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Office over Kirby's Drug Store.

THOMAS E. MYER ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, WYALUSING, PENN'A.

Particular attention paid to business in the Ophans' Court and to the settlement of estates.
September 25, 1879. DECK & OVERTON

ATTORNEYS-AT LAW, TOWANDA, CA. BENJ. M. PECK D'A. OVERTON, DODNEY A. MERCUR, ATTORNEY AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA., Solicitor of Patents. Particula ment of estates.

Office in Montanyes Block May 1, '79.

OVERTON & SANDERSON, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW TOWANDA, PA. JOHN F. SANDERSON E. OVERTON, JR. H. JESSUP,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, MONTROSE, PA. Judge Jessup having resumed the practice of the law in Northern Pennsylvania, will attend to any legal business intrusted to him in Bradford county. Persons wishing to consult him, can call on H. Streeter, Esq., Towanda, Pa., when an appointment

HENRY STREETER, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Feb 27, '79

L. HILLIS. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. [nov11-75.

TIRAM E. BULL. SURVEYOR.

ENGINEERING, SURVEYING AND DRAFTING. Office with G. F. Mason, over Patch & Tracy. Main street, Towarda, Pa. 4.15.60. ELSBREE & SON, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. TOWANDA, PA. N. C. ELSBREE.

TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW AND U. S. COMMISSIONER, TOWANDA, PA. office-North Bide Public Square.

ANDREW WILT,

Office—Means' Block, Main st., over J. L. Kent's store, Towan: May be consulted in German.
[April 12, '76.]

W. J. roung, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA. Office-Mercur Block, Park street, up stairs.

I clau and Surgeon. Office at residence in street, first door north of M. E. Church.

D. PAYNE, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

to 12 A. M., and from 2 to 4 P. M.

Special attention given to (DISPASES THE EYE

MRS. E. J. PERRIGO, essons given in Thorough Bass and Harmony ultivation of the voice a specialty. Located at J. Vanfleet's, State Street. Reference: Holmes Passage. Towanda, Pa., March 4, 1880.

W. RYAN, COUNTY SUPERINTENDE O lice day last Saturday of each month, over Turn & Gordon's Drug Store, Towanda, Pa.

Towanda, June 20, 1878. S. RUSSELL'S

INSURANCE AGENCY TOWARD WILLIAMS.

PRACTICAL PLUMBER & GAS FITTER.

MIRST NATIONAL BANK,

TOWANDA, PA. CAPITAL PAID IN This Bank offers unusual facilities for the trans the greed of ever-watchful enemies. garnered in the hearts of the people, action of a general banking business.

N. N. BETTS, Cashier JOS. POWELL, President.

HENRY HOUSE, Meals at all hours. Terms to suit the times. Large

WM. HENRY, PROPRIETOR.

can strongholds. They have a ma-hinery which is cohesive in its pow-her grief to confirm her selection by majorities relatively greater than in Presidential years. Iowa makes a rid themselves of a form of Bourbon rule which the same wherever it obtains, were, until recently, divided as to policies; but in the rush of tinguished citizen called to the point of danger, have buried from sight an example of harmony which has been wisely imitated in nearly all other States. There is a needed unity of watchfulness, to the end that the present, and at least the near future of our country may be guarded from possible calamity.

dutiful? When, in the past, sacri-

Proffer in the second of the s

Reputer.

COODRICH & HITCHCOCK, Publishers.

REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

$1.00 per Annum in Advance

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1881.

VOLUME XLII.

which was the friend of slavery, in a division. great section the author of rebellion, Dermayin. This poem is said to have been trans- in yet other sections its aider and enough for all. Its national deeds premacy. These rejected leaders, ated into Japanese, by order of the Emperor, and abettor-and in all times subsequent and declarations are not forgotten; unable longer to plunder the State ts hung up embroidered in gold, ir the Temple of to our greatest civil crisis the persisting latest enunciation in this State and rain the Republican party, at ), then Eternal One i whose presence bright-All space doth occupy-all motions guide. Unchanged through time's all-devastating flight Thou only God! There is no God beside! Being above all things! Mighty One! Whom none can comprehend, and none explo Who filest existence with Thyself alone, Embracing all,-supporting-ruling o'er-Being whom we call God-and know no more May measure out the ocean deep,-may count he sands, or the sun's rays—but God, for Thee There is no weight nor measure : none can mou Up to Thy mysteries. Reason's brightest spark.

o trace thy counsels infinite and dark: And thought is lost ere thought can soar so high, Even like past moments in eternity. Thou from primeval nothingness didst call First chaos; then existence-Lord on Thee Eternity hath its foundation; all Sprung forth from Thee-of light, foy, harmony. origin,-all, all beauty Thine;

Thy word created all, and doth create Thy splendor fills all space with rays divine Thou art, Thou wert, and shall be glorious, great Life-giving, life-sustaining Potentate. Thy chains the unmeasured universe surround Upheld by Thee, by Thee inspired with breath. hou the beginning with the end hast bound, And beautifiy mingled life with death! As sparks mount upward from the fiery blaze, So suns are born, for worlds spring forth from

And as the spangles in the sunny rays Shine round the silver show, the pageantr of heaven's bright army glitters in Thy prais A million torches lighted by Thy hand, Wander wearied through the blue abyss; they own Thy power, accomplish Thy comi All gay with life, all eloquent with bliss-What shall we call them? Piles of crystal light A glorious company of golden streams? Lamps of celestial ether burning bright? Suns lighting systems, with their glorid beams? But Thou to these art as the moon to-night. Yes, as a drop of water in the sea All this magnificence to Thee is lost What are ten thousand worlds compared to Thee And what am I then? Heaven's numbered hos Though multiplied by millions and arrayed In all the glory of sublimest thought Is but an atom in the balance; weighed Against Thy greatness—is a cypher brough Against Infinity! What am I then? Naught. Naught !-- but the affluence of Thy light divine Pervading words, hath reached my bo Yes, in my spirit doth Thy spirit shine, So shines a sunbeam in a drop of dew. Saught! but I live, and on hope's pinions fly, Eager towards Thy presence ; for in Thee I live, I breathe, I dwell; aspiring high, Even to the throne of Thy divinity; I am. O God! and surely Thou must be! hou art! directing, guiding all. Thou art!

Direct my understanding then to Thee; Control my spirit, guide my wandering heart Though but an atom midst immensity. still I am something fashioned to Thy hand I hold a middle rank 'twixt heaven and earth On the last verge of mortal being stand. Close to the realms where angels have the

A STIRRING APPEAL.

Just on the boundaries of the spirit-isnd!

Address of the Republican State Committee.

To the Electors of Pennsylvania: Ours is "a government of the people, by the people, and for the people "-of the people, since all authority springs from them; by the people, should be respected and obeyed; for nation.

and the result was confessed on all his bread by the sweat of his brow, sides to have been fairly reached. It yet far too good to oppose, and of all showed both an electoral and a pop | men the last to be selected as the ular majority for a Republican Pres | victim of spites against others. There | 18:4. ident and Vice President. The bullet was at least fairness in the hissing of an assassin has robbed the people and explosion of the shell which of their personal choice, and in his struck him at Gaines' Mill; there is 18. S. M. WOODBURN, Physi- s ead they have secured by constitu- neither generosity nor manliness in 1880. tional and acceptable methods his the attempt to crush him with misdistinguished colleague. Since that election events have crowded thick B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office and fast, but the on-looking world Republican in its make-up and charover M. E. Rosenfield's, Towanda, Pa.
Teeth inserted on Gold, Silver, Rubber, and Al.
The saw a Republic, in every material racter; we know it as such; the world view, unshaken by calamity; our knows it as such. It can therefore. view, unshaken by calamity; our knows tas such. It can, therefore, Treasurer handed over the office to of milk. own people saw, through the instru- only find support in Republican ma- the Republican incumbent a very mentalities of our laws and Constitu- jorities. We have no other method large sum of warrants were unpaid tion, a faithful reflection of their will of support; the world abroad recog- and constituted a floating debt. This airy daffodil, and the romantic maiin the more immediate change inci- nizes no other, and no persuasion of has all been paid, and at this moment dent to the death of their President, secret enemies, of demagogues, or ample funds are held to meet every geous Autumn leaf. and they had almost permitted their any apparent apathy of the open foe legal demand on the State. political vigilance to relax and take should be permitted to lure us from an indifferently easy air, when it was the one direct object—support of the Republican party has steadily less aroused by a partisan act on the part National Government and the ad- sened the burdens of the people. In of the political organization which ministration thereof. This withheld 1866 the flour-mill tax on real estate, did not represent the people in the and chagrin and disaster will quickly producing an annual revenue of $1, struggle for governmental rolicy. succeed each other. The man who 000,000, was taken off. In 1871 the For the second time in our history can be persuaded to lose one battle tax on offices, trades and professions, pear in the Ohio Valley with straws waiter, I.—" "a prize had been drawn in the lot- in the hope that he can more easily amounting annually to $75,000, was in their hair and a hankering after tery of assassanation" by a common win the next does not live to see how repealed. In 1873 the taxes on horses hot cotiee. Possible hurricane on foe; and, in both cases, that foe was false is his philosophy.

quick in the search for every cumulaive profit. The Democratic party did seek a partisan profit from the that experience, in its greed for pow. er, repeated the attempt but a week Andrew Johnson's betrayal of the ides that the legal expression of the will of the people must be respected was compensated after a of administration specially dear to chiefly to our farmers, by repealing visit of the season.

Struggle of many months, the recent all. President Artiur has vowed struggle of many months, the recent betrayal of a public trust by the Democratic Senators was, so far as Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Repairing Pumps of all kinds, and all kinds of Gearing promptly attended to. All wanting work in his line should give him Dec. 4, 1879.

Dec. 4, 1879. defeated, and while the will of the brief administration to correct abuses people has not been fully guarded or people has not been fully guarded or propose the general welfare, to their policy guaranteed, the Republi and promote the general welfare, to amounting to $16,800,000, the State DEMOCRATIC BOURBONISM. The saddest of all deaths, the legal shall profit by his example and expesuccession, the theft of the second rience." place in the gift of the people, and its partial restoration have transpired laration calls for direct encourage-With confusing speed; yet not so ment from Pennsylvania. Support fast but that the reflecting man could of the Republican cause and ticket leaders, into whose hands power will howling dervishes. be thrust by failure to hold Republi-

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED. The statesmen of the century have been members of the Republican parer, which permits no freedom of ty. It has counted in its ranks opinion, which never divides, and names which have become immortal, which grinds on until its own force and are so confessed of all the earth breaks it. The power of selection -Lincoln, Seward, Chase, Sumner, still rests with the Republicans of Garfield !- names which are nurtured Pennsylvania. Ohio has risen from in our party's traditions even more tenderly than in historic pages. It is the party of reform, for it is progressive and never looks backward most intelligent choice with unanimity. The Virginians, struggling to stantly seeks a more perfect freedom it is the party of liberty, and con-True, some have wearied of its good work; some have straggled in the march of progress; others have regarded their bruises more than the events have thrown away every idea goal beyond; some have even fallen of faction, and are now ready to by the wayside, but the earnest and place themselves in the column of the active still march on and gather progress. The Republicans of New as they move. York, in natural solicitude for a dis-

You can on the 8th of November next so shape your ballots, citizens of Pennsylvania, that they will prove every dividing issue, and now present the voice of order, promoter of stable government in the State and the Nation. If they are cast as the mere waifs of passion, the double-edged instruments of faction, the world may be justified in forming a different opinion of our people-for their character will at least seem to have Shall we, as Pennsylvanians, be less changed from the sturdy and steadfices were called for have we ever, in stood off? A claim to patriotism mental slavery more humiliating to The State is amply secured. but mocks the term when it will not sacrifice convenience, comfort, even itself captive to every sensation. happiness and life, for the country's weal. A profession of fealty to ad-The Finances of the State. mittedly just political principles is but a sham and a pretense when it you should be fully informed coal not strong enough to bid us carry will not sacrifice something to unity | cerning the manner in which the Re- our appeal beyond the lines of our and when it will not blend a personal publican party has managed the party-into the counting rooms of purpose into the one which moves for the common good. When public 1860—the first year that trust was gates of our ship-yards and rolling dangers quick succeed each other, committed to it. For a period of mills, the shops of our myriads of when but a single life stands between | twenty years the Democrats have | workmen and the homes of the quiet approved government and a revolu- only had charge of the State Treas- and non partisan—there to ask that tion in politics, there ought to be no ury three years, in 1863 under W. a Government so careful of its reroom for mere personalties, none for V. McGrath, and in 1878 and 1879 sources, so honorable in meeting its the detraction of friends, none for under A. C. Noyes. In 1861 the debt obligations, so charitable to the lame, the creation of faction, and there of Pennsylvania was the largest owed the halt and the blind, so liberal to ought to be universal reprobation of by any State in the Union, and $3,- its schools and yet so just to allcounsels which are openly confessed 000,000 was then necessarily added shall be perpetuated? to be in the interest of the enemy. to the enormous load to enable our Good soldiers do not stop to dress troops to march to the defense of the Committee; mere bruises when the battle is on, nation's life. But the crushing load nor do they march out of the line by has been manfully borne and honora either flank at the beck of the foe. To admit that any considerable ed to its redemption, is now one of bly paid until the debt, less available securities in the Sinking Fund pledg number of Pennsylvanians will be the smallest owed by any State in ess solicitous of the national good debt. The total reduction since 1861 than those of our neighboring States | has been $19,033,420 84, and the presis to belie our past history. The ent debt is $21,561,989.65. The Sink-Administration of President Arthur ing Fund amounts to $8,000,000 from its very beginning needs at the making the net debt $13,561,989.65 least the support of all Republican | The following table will show the States, and of none more than that reduction which has been made from established voluntary and legal forms, which has proved the Kevstone to should be respected and obeyed; for Republicanism, as she has to the Republican control of the Treasury,

DEBT.

$37,964,902 02

40,575,420 60 40,443,052 86

22,190,668,86 315,048 00

LESSENING THE PEOPLE'S BURDEN.

When the last Democratic State

While thus reducing the debt the 000 has been taken off our great coal be seen from the annexed table:

$320,056 87

INCREASE. REDUCTION.

1,803,345 8 1,854,205 9 855,620 9 1,479,485 0 472,295 1 1,702,879 0 3,813,175 8

1,504,672 7 1,230,186 5

315,047

628,679

$19,033,420 8

$19,353,477 4 220,056 6

the people, in the fact that whatever Union. That support can only be and the attention of voters who reis thus done should be done for their extended through ballots cast for gard facts is invited to it? welfare. Accepted maxims are these. General Baily, the standard-bearer They were given shape by the spirit of the party — a gallant soldier, of our customs and laws and direct wounded while heading his troops, expression by a martyred President at a time when they had just been sanctified by the best blood of the stars of a General—now a modulation less. est, quiet citizen—not a politician, There was an election last year, not an officeholder—one who earns sles professedly aimed at others. Our National Administration is WHAT THE PARTY REPRESENTS.

The Republican party represents 1879 the tax on coal, yielding annumade our government what it is | many years. Relief to working-men, that "All the noble aspirations of my lamented predecessor which found industry for the past year. But this study the defects we criticise most severeexpression in his life, the measures creditable record does not stop here. devised and suggested during his While the debt was disappearing, cans of the Senate have at least removed a glaring temptation to further tain friendly and honorable relations generous hand and gave a lavish aid assassination, and for a time checked with the nations of the earth, will be

His faithful adherence to this dec-never yet bowed to the ductrine politicians who are now counseling State Treasurer. Able leaders came forward in that crisis and the Repub The Republican party is liberal licans immediately gained their su-Jeddo. It has also been translated into the Chinesse and Tartar languages, written on a piece of rich allk and suspended in the Imperial Palace at

to our greatest civil crisis the persisits latest enunciation in this State and ruin the Republican party, at tent foe of every advance toward a points unequivocally to a reform in once became "Reformers." They rich allk and suspended in the Imperial Palace at horact belief in the Republican party, at tent foe of every advance toward a points unequivocally to a reform in once became "Reformers." They a plank which received the warm commenced an attack upon the finan-

Pekin. It is a noble composition, worthy of these honors.]

herent belief in slavery, it opposed support of 251 representatives in cial management of our party, it beemancipation, civil rights, equal sufState Convention assembled; while ing the subject least understood by frage, the planting of the school-that of the Democratic party plays the average voter. For half a genhouse in the places where it was with dangerous recklessness on the eration these "Reformers" have kept most needed; and instead of favoring edges of communism. Must these the State ringing with denurciations and fostering those who suffered for declarations in representative con- of a work which outside our borders their country, it has, by every insidi | vention be held less potent than those is looked on and commended with ous agency, sought to reward those of the self-seeking, the irresponsible, universal praise. The Republican who betrayed it. This is not true of and the noisy on the rostrum? Only voter has been told each year that all Democrats, but it is true of the barbarous tribes wildly follow their our State was systematically and constantly robbed, and that this unending robbery was performed by the State Treasurers the results of whose work is a part of this address. Each year official facts have been present-"Reformers" keep up the assault, as though the Republicans of this State were without the advantages of common schools and common sense. The original projectors of this movement have long since "reformed" themselves into the Democratic party; but the "Reformer" of to-day exhibits the same lofty contempt of facts officially promulgated each year by the fiscal officers of the State Government, from which the figures here submitted have been taken. On the question of official peculation by the Treasurers charged with this crime, the following comprehensive exhibit of their work would seem to be conclusive to all who consider arguments and respect truth. Of the moneys collected and expended during the last seventeen years the total is as follows: For ordinary expenses of the State Gov-

Of this vast sum only $18,660.94 are not now available, but the Attorfast to that which is weak and vaci- ney General is pressing suits to relating. Let us remember, Pennsyl cover it, and will recover it from either hatred, sullenness or despair, vanians, that there is no form of the bondsmen of ex State Treasurers.

> its victim than that which yields Do not these facts carry us safely "Well, my ring? I could not come beyond the assaults of demagogues? myself the instant I got your letter." ly, "has any fellow got a quarter." ly, "has any fellow got a qu It is considered important that falsehood and slander? Are they finances of the Commonwealth since all merchants and manufacturers, the By order of the Republican State

THOMAS V. COOPER, Chairman. -----

The Michigan Vennor. THE WEATHER FIEND OF THE LIMI KILN CLUB INDULGES IN PREDIC-TIONS.

WASHINGTON, October 12, 1881. September forty-one were fully verifiwas a miss, but as there were 8,000 ered, sir." course. Very respectfully, Your obedient servant, 2 General HAZEM. When the applause had subsided nanded in and read: Sunday-Sort of a cross between bad day to go fishing and a good day to hunt woodchucks. Monday - A twenty-five pound chunk of ice begins to have a slight effect on the constitution of a quart

Tuesday-Frost takes the starch out of the high-nosed tulip and the dens wander forth to gather the gor-

Wednesday-Cloudy or clearing or partly cloudy or clearing weather. with some clouds and clear spots; good day to grub out old stumps or sit around the post office. Thursday-Pic-nics played out is and cattle, producing a revenue of the Upper Missouri, but it may end $50,000 a year, was taken off, and in in wind. Friday-Increased temperature all lieve in the principles which have our people has been remitted in as barrel as a foundation to begin on. Saturday-Lower barometer. Areof the people, by the people, and for the people." It represents ideas amounting to $750,000, has been extended by abolishing the tax on ocof administration specially dear to cupation; $350,000 has been remitted, up, and the plumber makes his first the law taxing live stock, and $700,-

It is generally in ourselves that we

The seeing good in all even when we know none are all good, makes life happier, the heart far kindlier.

pride without sense, from pedigree worn out, and from all rich relations, deliver ns! If a man has nothing to do you may be pretty sure that Satan is looking out for From snaix in the grass, from Aunt Mary," said Will with a laugh, to the Centennial Exhibition, as wil FINE connections are apt to plunge you

nto a sea of extravagance, and then not us! to throw you a rope to save you from THERE is hope for a man as long as he Amount for the Centennial Exhibi-Ir there is one thing more than another ... 1,000,000 00

$27,207,139 47 fast but that the reflecting man could give some little thought to the fact that if this Government of ours is to the fact of the Republican cause and ticket as the other.

A CRITICISM OF THE REFORMERS.

MONEY and fame are two things that will do it; support of any other means the our own, and women committees decook is not dishonest, and I have unclassed.

A CRITICISM OF THE REFORMERS.

MONEY and fame are two things that will do it; support of any other means the other.

MONEY and fame are two things that we have the condemnation. The Administration of the Princess Louise:

We don't like to tell all we know; but they do say that Lorne is carrying on hair as a vatermelon, entered an Austin as the other. Towards, July 2, 172-27.

A FEW COPIES OF THE ROAD

LAWS case is bed at this ones.

Towards, July 2, 172-27.

A FEW COPIES OF THE ROAD

A LAWS case is bed at this ones.

Towards, July 2, 172-27.

A FEW COPIES OF THE ROAD

A FE

The Champion Thief.

The Vienna correspondent of the London Globe says: "Last week a certain Hungarian countess well known for her riches and beauty (the same spirited lady who last year seconded her brother in a duel) graced with her presence the performance at the Aresa, or summer theatre. On one of her fair fingers my lady wore two splendid diamond rings exactly like each other. During an entr'acte there preented himself in her box a big fellow in gorgeous livery-six feet of the finest flunkey imaginable. Quoth he, in finest Hungarian, "My mistress, Princess P—, has sent me to beg of your ladyship the loan of one of your rings for five minutes. Her highness has observed them from her box opposite, and is very anxious to examine one more close ed disproving these charges, but the ly, as she wishes to have made after the pattern." Without an irstant's to "Jeames," who bowed with respectful dignity and retired. The performance over, the two great ladies met on the staircase, and the countess begged her friend to keep the ring at her convenience. "What ring, my dear?" Denouement! Tab-leaux! The; "powdered menial" was no flunkey at all, but a sthief, and the ring was gone. The police were informed of the impudent trick. Justice seemed to have overtaken the culprit in a few strides, for next morning the countess, whilst still en robe-de-chambre, received a letter informing her that the thief had been caught and the ring found on his the man stoutly denies the charge once to the police station or send a treasure? the duplicate ring by bearer." To els, a slight mistake came to light. ed for twenty-five cents.

Struggle With a Porter-House Steak. "This is the porter-house, is it?" asked the sad passenger, sitting at | be had every day." the corner table in the restaurant. and times a day, porter-house steak, sir; same as you ordered, sir." from between the horns this year?"

asked the sad passenger, with the in- his intention of buying the book.

tonation of a man who wanted to know. "Sir ?" said the waiter. last year," the sad passenger went on, asked me to pay fifty cents to Mr. with the air of a tired man indulging Jennison, the apothecary, you know. in pleasant reminiscences of the past; She will not be home until late this trifle lower down then. Last year run up to grandma's and get a quar-The following tribute to the zeal you cut your porter-house steaks ter she owes me for some eggs I sold | began Bro. Gardner, as Samuel Shin and industry of the Lime-Kiln Club from the curl in the forehead and her-my little bantam's eggs. Aunt finally quit poking the fire. 'Ebery Weather Bureau elicited hearty ap the sirloins from the shin. But I Mary will not mind if I do borrow a day of my life I meet men who were plause when read by the Secretary : think this comes from between the quarter from her for a little while." brought up too softly. As boys dey years to live on this earth. Ah, here antees for the coming week were the guests are through with them?" then.

The waiter looked puzzled. "Why, with 'em, sir." "Possible?" said the sad passen- it as soon as she comes in."

ger; " what becomes of them?". The waiter looked nervous. eat them up." The sad passenger looked up with he exclaimed; "cannot accept your and a thousand miles away. He dim- tryin' de goody-good plan on-dat be honest and pious, who are doing statement without proof. They may ly heard some one ask him about youth fur de las' twenty y'ars, an' business in every community, and hide them under their chairs, or see Aunt Mary's money, and he gave a dis am de legitimate result. He every day appropriating to their own crete them in their napkins, or they dreamy answer; and his father had didn't want him to work, kase work use the fruits of other men's labor by may carry them away in their pock- to speak to him three times before he is hard. He didn't wan't him to resping the benefit of the newspaper ets to throw at burglars, but I can- realized it was bed time. not believe they eat them. Here, let Of course he for a moment forgot look down on him. De boy am to- support, and yet they would be terrime see one of them seat this, and I all about the borrowed quarter. Con- day a loafer, neither grateful fur what bly shocked if they should be charg-inscribed: "Positively no trust," new cook, who makes such nice cake an' coaxed an' bought off, an' his and went to the cashier's desk to tell and pie, is not honest, and mamma mudder libed to see him a loafer an' the boss to look out for that man at has got to discharge her?" said his his father has foun' him a ingrate.' issues and purposes which are worthy ally $700,000, was repealed. Thus the most active effort of all who be. $15,000,000 of tax on the homes of eight gallons of water into each cider and for the formula of the corner table, as he didn't seem satisfied with his steak and had askthe corner table, as he didn't seem sister Jennie, the next morning.

> Josu Billings' Prayer-New Revision.—From tu many friends, and from things with lace ends, deliver

From a wife who don't luv us, and children who don't look like us, deliver us! From wealth without charity, from deliver us! nails in our boots, from tor processions and from no rum, deliver or you would be fifty cents poorer From pack-peddlers, from young folks in luv, from old aunts without money, and kolery, deliver us! From newspaper cells, and pills which most people detest it is the obliga-tion to be just to those with whom they faint, and men who flatter, deliver

CHESTER ALLAN ARTHUR. BY EDWARD N. POMERCY.

ARTHUR I the nation's heart goes forth to thee Thy honest manhood we beheld and trust: We saw thee speechless, smitten in the dust, And recognized thy grief's sincerity; For thou didst pray as carnestly as we.

Harsh were our words before; but these we thrust Into oblivion now. There let them rust. Thou hast bought up the opportunity. High the position thou art called to fill; And hard as high; but thou dost take it well

Seeking for aid where none e'er sought in Anxious to do God's and the people's will. That future ages may thy wisdom tell, May Heaven assure thee strength of heart

Marion, Mass.

Borrowing a Quarter-

Three city boys were on their way home from school, and, as there were from a circus to a dog-fight.

lie Thorn.

gar Denny and Will Farnham. person. "Only," added the note, the bookseller's window, three pairs his employer needed it. Unlucklily. of eager eyes gloated over the treas. he did not lose. So he borrowed Neither Edgar, Charlie or Will $7,000!" draw the second ring from the finger had ever read the wonderful book; and intrust it to the messenger-a but one of the latter's cousins had do?" fine fellow in full police uniform—to- done so, and had retailed one or two "What could he do? He confessgether with a handsome "tip" for of the stories to Will, and he in turn ed his dishonesty, but he could not the glorious news, was the work of a had repeated them to his two friends. make restitution. So he was sent to beauty was between 30 and 40; of moment. Only when my lady an And to think that all this—roc's State prison, and died there, overhour later betook herself radiant to eggs, one-eyed caliphs, sparkling jew- come with humiliation and contrition. the police station to recover her jew- els, genii, palaces—might be obtain- You see, Will, what an honest man Anne of Russia, who at 38 was > before you can get to your father's you accuse the cook?" store. A bargain like that isn't to

"If Tom Baker sees it he'll buy it, "Yes sir," said the waiter, with sure pop. He's always got money," the weary air of a man who was tired sighed Edgar. "If he hadn't been of great injustice to cook, and of of having to tell the same lie a thous- kept in, like as not he'd have bought great trouble to your mother. It is it before this." Suddenly Will's face brightened. fault, but difficult, nay, impossible "Do you cut porter-house steak Putting his hand in his pocket he to forsee what calamities may result

"A dollar,! Where did you get it?" asked Charlie, in amazement. "'Tisn't mine; it's Aunt Mary's "It seemed to be a trifle tenderer She gave me a dollar this noon, and but I remember now, it was cut a everling, and in the meantime I can barrels of whiskey stored there that week the predicted cloud burst prob. "Butchered to make a Roman holaway to "run up to grandma's." iday." sighed the passenger. "He "But you boys may look at i away to "run up to grandma's." just as bad. When I see a man "But you boys may look at it whom eberybody dislikes I realize week the predicted cloud burst probwould be more likely to make a Rowhile I am gone, if you'll bring it to dat he was brought up on de goodyman swear. Well, it was time he me before supper," he remarked gragood plan as a boy. was killed. He hadn't many more ciously as he left them.

"Oh, well, it can't be helped now."

the upper Lake region. Tramps ap- will believe you. Trust me, good scious of "good intentions," he felt has bin done in the pas', nor carin' ed with stealing wood from their But the waiter pointed to a placard "Isn't it too bad, Will, that our y'ars ago he was cried ober, run after the same, the only difference being

"Yes, it is a pity. What has she taken ?" "Not very much; but as mamma of Philosophy were again working says, it shows that her principles are in loving harmony, and that this not good. She or some fairy (for committee had been called upon to there was not a person but her in the room from the time you went there What are the Thingness of Things? until mamma went in and discovered

"Yes, on a little blue mat." "That is where I saw it," said Mrs. Farnbam. "Then it was lucky for your purse a quarter of you.

"What do you mean? I lent you the bureau?" asked his mother. "Yes, ma'am. I borrowed the instead of twenty-five."

other."

NUMBER 22

pose you explain now," interposed his father, a little sternly. And Will told the whole story, adding, "You see, Aunt Mary, I didn't know that grandma was going than five men to pursue the track of

"Oh! it is all right. You are welcome to the money," answered his having been killed by himself shall

"I disagree with you, Mary," exclaimed Mr. Farnham, quickly. "I think there is is a great principle at stake, and that Will did not do right. There is but one step, one very little to a fine of not less than $25 nor step, between borrowing, without its more than $50. owners permission and stealing." 'Oh, papa, cried Jennie, horrified at the word, "our Will wouldn't school-house, it shall be lawful for

"I sincerely hope and firmly be-lieve that he would not; but no one can tell what he may do under strong temptation. The clerk who borrows his employer's funds fully intends to hesitation the countess handed a ring at least two hours before dark (and restore them. Yet how often we read ing with intent to kill is hereby rebefore supper time), they were quite of a clerk or cashier involving himready to stop and look at anything | self beyond recall, just by 'borrow rom a circus to a dog-fight. ing 'a few thousands to speculate "Oh, boys, just look!" cried Charwith. I once knew s gentleman, highly educated and very intelligent, "What? Where?" exclaimed his whom I would have trusted with my companions. They were now in front whole fortune, such implicit confiof a secondhand bookstore; and point dence did I and all who knew him ing to a thick green covered volume have in his thorough integrity. He in one window, Charlie exclaimed: | had a few hundred dollars invested | "Why, there's the 'Arabian Nights' in real estate, and felt himself honest -real good, not torn a bit, marked (as our Will did) when he 'borrow-'only twenty-five cents!' Full of ed' a less sum from his employer's funds to invest in some stock that "Oh!" said, or rather sighed, Ed- was sure to sell at a high price. Even if he lost all he knew he could Three faces were pressed close to repay it in a day or two, long before > tables turned, and he lost-lost "Poor man! What did he did may be led into by borrowing anthought to be the most beautiful "I say, remarked Edgar, doubtful- other man's goods without permis-lows" amounted to just seven cents. at once! But I can understand now "Perhaps, if I tell papa about it, why you say there is such a little and culminated between 30 and 45; he'll buy it for us," suggested Charlie. step between borrowing without "Pshaw! Somebody'll snap it up leave and stealing. O'l mamma, did "No, I only suspected her. I waited to be very sure.". "There it is, Will! You came very near being the innocent cause drew out a dollar bill and announced from it. Abstain from all appearance of evil, is a good motto for boys as well as men."-Frances E. Wadleigh, in Christian Register. Bro. Gardner On Bringing Up Boys. 'If I had a boy to bring up wouldn't bring him up too softly, horns. I used to live in a boarding. So the treasury of marvels passed were kissed an' petted 'an stuffed To the Lime-Kiln Club: Out of house where they cut the porter-house into Will Earnham's possession, and with sweet cake 'an cried ober. As forty-two predictions made by your minds me of them. Animal dead this ate arrangements for reading it aloud, to spend money, dress like monkeys, turn and turn about. At every street loaf on de streets 'an look down on ed. The prediction that Cairo would "Dead," echoed the astonished corner they paused to look at "just honest labor. As men dey am a failed. The prediction that Cairo would be visited by a waterspout in August waiter; "course, sir. He was butch one more picture," and it was with a ure. People who doan hate 'em an' violent effort that Will tore himself avoid 'em feel to pi'y 'em, an' dat's

'If I had a boy I'd rub him agin customers by going after them." And years to live on this earth. Ah, here Unfortunately he got to his grandis the brass tip from one of his horns. mother's just a little while after she his shoulders. If he got sugar he'd he does business would be unknown, Dropped into the steak, no doubt, had left home for a two days' visit to airn it. If he got time for loafin' it the railroad over which he ships his and the stove-pipe was replaced, the while you were slicing it off. What one of her sons; so the little ban-would be only arter his work was goods would be unheard of if it were following plump up and down guar- do you do with these steaks when tam's eggs could not be paid for done. If he was ugly or obstinate not for the newspaper, which he says I'd tan it outen him instead of buyin' does him no good. him off. If you want to make a selsir," he said, "they ain't nothing left Will said to himself. "Grandma is fish man, humor de whims of a boy. of 'em when customers get through certain to give me the quarter in a day If you want to make a coward, for when a man refuses to contribute to or two, and I'll tel! Aunt Mary about bid your boy to defend his rights. the support of the paper on the I'd teach my boy dat all boys had ground that it "does him no good," When he got home his mother told rights, an' dat while he had no busi- he might just as well refuse to pay him to put his aunt's change on her ness to trample on de rights of odder his taxes for the support of the courts What!" he said; "the customers bureau, and then run to the grocer's boys, no boys had de privilege of and the police force, on the ground and get some sugar for tea. After takin' him by de nose. Las' night an' that he never breaks the law and supper he betook himself to his new old man libin' up my way was turned does not need any officers. There an air of interest. "Incredible!" book, and soon was a thousand years out doors by his boy. He has been are men who believe themselves to dress plain fur fear people would without contributing a cent to its > Giveadam Jones said he was pleased to be able to report that the Lime-Kiln Club and the Concord School aid the School in solving the query They had long; been estranged beand the goose hung high.

homes, and the first day it was on an share in the general destruction generated lows farm it ate half a mile of barbed by the baggage-smasher.—Boston Transwire fence and wanted more. It is almost cript. "What do you mean? I lent you no quarter!" was the surprised reply.
"No; but I borrowed it."
"Did you lay but one quarter on the bureau?" asked his mother.

"What do you mean? I lent you impossible to teach a New York goat to eat grass or clover, when he has been brought up from earliest infancy on corset rods, tomato cans and wrecked hoop the bureau?" asked his mother.

A LEADVILLE man in one week was attacked and scratched by a catamount, brought up from earliest infancy on corset rods, tomato cans and wrecked hoop skirts.—Hawkeye.

The Game Laws.

It is high time that some other inerest besides a "ring," composed of half a hundred sportamen, had a say regarding the game laws of this State. Game is something in which all are interested, and any law on the subject should serve all alike. The present Legislature will be asked to repeal all laws and provisions and substitute the following: Any keeper of a hotel, restaurant or boarding-house who substitutes mutton for turtle in making turtle soup shall be fined not less than $50, and in default of payment shall stand committed to the cooler for the term of thirty days. Any public eating house keeper who advertises quail on toast, and then substitutes ham on biscuit, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than $25.

away, and I thought I could get the one poor, lone rabbit with evil intent. Any duck hunter who buys birds be deemed guilty of piracy, and punished accordingly.

Any person or persons discovered capturing deer or elk by means of pound nets or seines shall be liable It a fox, on being routed from cover and pursued, takes refuge under a the teacher to dismiss the school and lend his assistance in the capture. That section of the amended law of 1879 requiring all persons to give coons 400 feet the start before pursu-

Any person or persons firing over twenty consecutive shots into a flock of decoy ducks shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than $5. Any person who shall, after the passage of this act, knowingly falsify as to the number and size of fish taken by him at any time within the past two years shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and punished by thirty days in the County Jail without relief .- Detroit Free Press.

When Women are Most Attractive.

An interesting paper entitled and declares the ring to be his own. or eager eyes growed over the mean again, and won; and yet again. And Blake has brought facts to show that To clear up all doubts, pray come at old boy is not the "Arabian Nights" so on, until one fine morning, the the fascinating power of the sex is oftentimes retained much longer than is generally assigned. She tells us of Aspasia, who between the ages of 30 and 50 was the strongest intellectual force in Athens; of Cleopatra, she gained the heart of Octavius; of of Madame Becamier, who, between 25 and 40, and even later was the reigning beauty of Europe; of Nion de' Enclos, whose own son-brought up without knowledge of his parentage—fell passionately in love with her when she was at the age of 37, and who on her 60th birthday received an adorer young enough to be easy to commit an apparently trifling her grandson. These facts, the representatives of many others, establish that the golden decade of fascination is the same as the golden decade of thought; that woman is most attractive to, and most influential over man at that period when both man and woman are nearest the maximum of their cerebral force. The voice of our great prima donnas is at its very bost between 27-and 36; but some retain, in a degree, its strength and sweetness even in its silver decade.

The voice is an index of the body in all its functions, but the decay of other functions is not so readily Local Papers. The Printer's Circular makes the following sensible suggestion concerning that important institution, the local newspaper: A large portion of the people do nothing to support their local papers, yet reap the benefit every day of the editor's work. A man will say, "Advertising does not pay in business; I have to

The local paper is of advantage to what happens in de fucher. Ten neighbors. But the principle is just that in one case the law can reach them. and in the other it cannot, but, morally, it is just as dishonest to steal the fruits of your neighbor's benefit of this country. "GESTICULATION," says the eminent it) took a quarter out of Aunt Mary's cause they could not arrive at the ing a lost art." On, it is, Mr. Barrett, is same conclusion on: 'What Use-bureau?"

But animosity had lessness is use?'

But animosity had correct, Lawrence parrett, is ing a lost art." On, it is, Mr. Barrett, is lessness is use?'

But animosity had correct in the lessness is use?'

But animosity had correct in the lessness is use?' given place to a spirit of forgiveness friend who is stupidly giving something and the goose hung high enterprise as to steal his fuel or chickens. Too much credit cannot be given the local paper for the work it has done and is still doing for the

THE most beautiful feature about the American system of baggage-checking is found in the fact that the passenger is A New York goat came West with a made to carry in his pocket a piece of was kicked by a mule. And a local edi-LORNE appears to want to get his wife tor remarked that he had "been somehome, and so gets the Baltimore American to say: "To the Princess Louise: "-St. Louis Globe-Democrat.