He addressed the students as being in the lower departments of knowledge, and Troy, in a Northern direction, and six-

not yet having entered into the rythm and music of algebra and geometry. They had not parsued the history of thought. He would call their attention to a subject saw and planing mill on the grounds. He would call their attention to a subject which is a practical crystalization of all the knowledge they acquirs in school. Teachers have found that pupils in studying arithmetic often mistake the rule for the principle. It is aw easy thing to commit, but it is harder to use the eyes of one understanding, and know for our process. We had sawer M. A. Porter to of our understanding, and know for our selves. The student should see for himdeal out fun and facts, manage to use object of all study, the object of all inveshours of every day, and by using part of tigation should be to understand. God the night to good advantage.

Our merchant, Jerry Ryan, has been confined to the house for some weeks ownever designed this world as a prison, but to be the home and dwelling-place of man. It ought not to be a prison. God has made it fair an I beautiful. It affords enjoyment. It is useful. Those who go through it with their eyes shut make a sad business of living. We need not look for glorious sunsets. ORPHANS' COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order issued out of the Orphans' Court of Bradford County, Pennsylvania, the sindersigned, administrator of the centre of Adolphus communication in the Tisings last week caused considerable excitement. The boundaries of the village were given, and the names of the principal families. The writer seems to have a special antipathy for some parties about town. Among others Silas Zone, "that literary fellow who writes for the Athens Gazette, and the licensed hotel." Last week Mr. Zone presented a card to the public, stating that he is not a candidate for any office. He thinks that he was not endowed with natural ability enough to be School Director, neither has be the proper appreciation of the (Wilde) lily and sunflower to be a candidate for Collector; but he arduous duties of Justice of the Peace.
