

Towanda, Pa., April 6, 1882.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Got settled yet?

Sunday next is Easter.

The weather is still capricious.

Get your good clothes ready for Easter.

There will be a number of weddings hereafter, shortly.

Public sales are not numerous in this county, this spring.

Some twenty building lots were sold in Athens last week.

Mrs. Harrison Allen, of Smithfield, died on Sunday night.

Sunday was a beautiful day, warm and balmy as a day in June.

The new Bank building at Athens will soon be ready for occupancy.

Vendor says we are to have more snow before winter comes.

Pennsylvania has 382 Lodges of Free Masons with a membership of 34,836.

E. J. Angle spoke to the students of the High School on "text books," Tuesday.

Liscomb Stone has moved his watch and jewelry business from LeRoy to Canton.

The Hantley man appeared in full dress, "spear-tailed coat" and the etcetera.

New boys are not allowed to cry their news on the streets of Owego on Sunday mornings.

None of our correspondents have yet given us notice that Spring has reached their localities.

The Year objects to General Kane as a delegate to the State Convention from McKean County.

W. G. Westmore, of Leona, is going to run his churn power by the help of a large black bear.

This Chestnut street water pipes have been repaired, and now we hope for a better and dryer street.

John Van Dyke, of Canton, is building a handsome residence on Center street, that village.

William Brown, of Burlington, has sold his house and shop in that village to a party in Albany.

Mrs. Susan Whiggin, of Windham, fell down the stairs in her residence recently, and broke her wrist.

Drydock, Susquehanna County, is troubled with incendiaries. That little village had three fires last week.

The man who tops his paper to economize, ought to cut off his nose to keep from buying handkerchiefs.

Mrs. Foster, of Windham, fell off of the verandah of her residence, one day recently, and fractured her arm.

Any one having long news which he will send to the editor, is desiring of a future barren as Ingulf's heaver.

A water pipe which will not leak or get out of order, is earnestly desired by the Towanda Water Works Company.

The country schools are coming to a close, and then the pupils will have several months to forget what they learned in school.

D. V. Spruce has removed his barber shop to the Mercier Block, on Park street, where he has the best shaving parlor in town.

Trains on the D. & W. Railroad now run as fast as Elmiras. The first passenger train reached that city on Sunday last.

The bridge works at Athens, have each work already contracted to keep them running to their full capacity for a year to come.

The large barn on the J. M. Ward property, north of Locust Avenue, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday night last.

Seventy-five employees of the Erie railroad have been discharged at Susquehanna, and it is reported that more will be retired soon.

R. S. Edmiston, of Milan, has gone to Illinois to purchase another Norman stock horse, said to be as good as the one he owns at present.

Only a girl and a very little one of that, but the home of N. H. Betts is happy. We don't smoke but our congratulations still the same.

We received some local this week for which we could not find place, having almost the same from other sources already set up. Try again. Such accidents don't often happen.

The Advertiser says that trailing arbutus is reported to be in bloom. There is room on our table for a large amount of this best of spring flowers.

J. O. Foston Sons have just purchased a house to be used exclusively for the funeral of young people. It is finished in white, and cost $1,300.

He that is fluky let him be fluky still. He has not the courage to do Stodges's bath rooms when everything is in first-class shape for those who believe in cleanliness.

The meetings of the Young People's Christian Association, at West Granville, are well attended, and a source of much benefit to all who attend and take part in them.

The Crandall Manufacturing Company, of Monroe, have decided to move their large toy manufactory from that place to Elmira. This will prove a serious loss to Monroe.

John Allen, formerly of Long's mill, Troy, has bought an interest in the steam mill of M. L. Rockwell, at Canton, and will move there soon to run the establishment.

Something is wrong in public sentiment when a minister show will fill the hall, and a lecturer like Robert J. Burdette is obliged to see three hundred vacant chairs.

Hazel Kinnear we mean the young lady-smoked cigarettes and came near setting the Ward House on fire. For an innocent peasant girl Hazel is a trifle fast in some of her habits.

An exchange advertises the play of "My Sweetheart," for Monday evening. In Towanda it is played with full troops and all the scenery on Sunday evenings and Monday mornings.

The clergymen are leaving Bradford—the city not our country. Possibly they feel that the necessary ten men to save a six-sailed city are not there, and they wish to escape the coming storm.

THE CREOLE QUARTETTE.

Children give a Concert in the M. E. Church next Tuesday evening.

Some malicious person last week entered the basement of Frost's Sons paint shop, and turned the faucets in several barrels of oil and varnish, allowing the contents to run to waste.

The Ladies of the Church of the Meast, at (University), will hold a social at the residence of Mrs. Miles Shores, on Main Street, Tuesday evening, April 11th. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Two of the Harlequin comedies to be performed at Athens and Waverly, at Athens last week. The comedies says are fine ones, but think they will prove quibblesome when there are bad roads.

There is to be a musical convention at Luther's Mills, commencing April 12th, and closing with a concert Friday evening, for the benefit of the Sabbath School, to which an admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

We have shipped to the local editor of the Reporter a sample of the Glen Valley oil. Of course we can't prevent him from making light of it.—Athens Gazette.

We won't make anything of it until we receive it.

The Bradford Sunday News says that "My Wife's Company" gave a very pleasing performance in the wicked city of Bradford. Almost any kind of a show is good there; but Towanda can't be taken in so easily.

The following post-masters were appointed in this county last week: N. B. Rhinevald, Powell; S. W. Wilson, Luther's Mills; E. Z. Griggs, Foot of Plane; J. O. Nichols, Mountain Lake; S. N. White, Evergreen—Bradley.

The editor of the Monroe Record wants us to send him 100 copies of our paper at $11.75 per dozen. We regret that the lateness of our receiving his order prevents our filling it. We have less than 9,000 down on hand.

Says the Athens Gazette of last week: "Charles Rice, of Henric, has rented the Exchange Hotel, and proposes to run it up in first-class shape. He will also run a Harlequin coach to train for the accommodation of the traveling public."

We frequently get notices of death with obituary poems; and while we always publish death notices, poems are charged on the subscribers. We would be glad to publish obituary notices, but we have no room for them.

John Daugherty, of Monroe, had a small fire Wednesday morning. It caught by the chimney and burned down through two rooms doing about one hundred dollars damage. Like so many fires, it was probably caused by a defective fire.

Says the Troy Gazette of last week: "Report comes from Granville of a serious case, the exposure of an infant and death from the exposure. The matter should be investigated if the reports circulated are true, and some one should be punished."

The night policeman's term will soon expire, and we understand that he will not be re-engaged, from the fact that the borough is not able to stand the expense. He has been a very efficient officer, and has done away with much of the night disturbances.—Athens Gazette.

A correspondent from Farmer's Valley offers a name for the Democracy in the county, and says it is no secret. We omit it—but will send check if we think it fills the requirements. He says he was converted to Republicanism by a camp meeting at Petersburg in 1864.

It is speaking very mildly to say Burdette's mustache was a very absurd affair. It was too much waxed and very unbecoming to him; but his bright pleasant eyes and his splendid lecture made us forget that he was mutilated by something he wasted much time in nursing.

The Smithboro Cemetery Association are laying out a new cemetery on land purchased of David Melroy, about a quarter of a mile east of the village of Smithboro. The location is fine and the association intend it shall be as fine a cemetery as there is in Southern New York.

A correspondent writes as follows: "A few years ago Canton had two flourishing temperance lodges, and was the banner temperance town in the county. Now there are two twinning establishments, three licensed hotels, two saloons and a wholesale liquor store, all doing a flourishing business."

The fashions for men's spring clothing do not indicate any very marked change in the style of cutting. Trousers are to be a trifle smaller in the leg, cut straight and small at the bottom. Vests are to be cut high, without collar. Coats are to be buttoned high, and of about the same length as at present.

The Elmira Sunday Tribune denies the report of its consolidation with the Sunday Telegram. We also deny that the Tribune is to be consolidated with the N. Y. Tribune.—Waverly Advertiser.

George Dillan, proprietor of the Troy Steam Mills has built an addition to his establishment, in which will be placed at once all the necessary machinery for carding, carpet weaving, garment dyeing, etc., to be run under the management of J. G. Loveland, late proprietor of the Troy Woolen Mills.

Says the LeRoyville Advertiser of last week: "Seneca Arnold has put a new man on his stage route between this place and Towanda. He will be found both reliable and prompt in doing business entrusted to his care. Seneca demands that all business entrusted to the care of the driver must be written, or he will not be responsible. Remember this."

The duties of the genuine dyed-in-the-wool, simon-pure editor, are multifarious and multitudinous. His work is not only to "do a little writing," as is sometimes supposed, but to call to clean, to select, to discriminate, to decide, to foresee, to observe, to grasp, to explain, to elucidate, to infer, to boil down, "to be, to do and to suffer," and several hundred other duties, with a large number of districts yet to be heard from.

Athens is getting to be a "rushing town." Just read what a correspondent writes about the way they put up dwellings here. They build them up in great haste, in carpentering that has been accomplished in many years in this place, is the building of a large and commodious house up town. The building was commenced yesterday morning and this afternoon the family are moving into it, having everything completed except the bay window."
