

Democratic State Nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR, WILLIAM BIGLER, of Clearfield Co. ... FOR SUPREME COURT, JEREMIAH S. BLACK, of Somerset Co. ... FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, HENRY S. MOTT, of Pike Co.

Democratic County Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR, MOSES McCLEAN, of Gettysburg. ... FOR COUNTY CLERK, JACOB BUSHEY, of Hamilton.

Wood Wanted.

Those of our patrons who intend paying their Subscription in Wood, are requested to "bring it along" as soon as they can.

Governor Bigler

Has issued an address to the people of Pennsylvania, in which he sets forth what he has done since his first election, as well as what he will do if re-elected.

How to Vote.

The Prohibitory Liquor Law will be voted for or against on a separate ticket—also Judge of the Supreme Court.

The Third Exhibition of the Hunters-town Classical Institute will take place on Thursday evening next, at 6 o'clock.

We are indebted to Mr. JOHN NOEL for a pair of mammoth Peaches, about the size of goose eggs. They were the finest that have fallen under our notice this season.

The York Pennsylvanian, of Saturday last, says the cholera has not appeared there—false report.

The Pennsylvania State Fair, at Philadelphia, last week, attracted an immense crowd of persons. The display is said to have been very fine.

The Angel Gabriel blew his horn in Philadelphia, the other night, and was judged as a nuisance.

The Lancaster Herald says the Hon-

Thaddeus Stevens, the great leader of the Anti-Masonic party, has joined a Know-Nothing Lodge there. "So we go!"

Caution.

We would advise our Democratic friends throughout the county to beware of the slanders and falsehoods of the opposition, which will, doubtless, be freely circulated between this time and the election.

Democrats of Adams County,

Be up and doing! Your ticket is a good one—you have seldom, if ever, had a better—and it becomes you to give it a hearty and active support.

The Documents.

The Star cautions the public against lying documents, which, it says, are being spread all over the county.

There is now a fair chance for a Whig majority on joint ballot, (in the Legislature,) at Philadelphia, it is thought, will send a full Whig and Native delegation.

Here we have the open declaration that

Whiggery and Nativism are to out-strip the Democracy on joint ballot in the Legislature—and yet the Star pretends to say that the Whig party has had nothing to do with "developing the Native American party."

The election day is close at hand, and we therefore devote the greater portion of our paper to the discussion of political subjects.

Political Bargaining.

A close observer of the movements of the Whig Know Nothing leaders of this county cannot resist seeing a state of things in the highest degree humiliating and disgusting.

We saw the assembling of a Whig County Convention, and the hardest struggle in it was the contest for the Legislative nomination.

But whilst it seems certain that Whig Know Nothing leaders are playing this game with Col. Neely, the Know-Nothing candidate for Prothropancy has been hauled off, and the candidate upon the Whig ticket for that office is to receive the vote of that oath-bound, prescriptive order—and it is also currently rumored that the same arrangement is being effected with the office of Register and Recorder.

In Franklin county, the same system of "bargain and sale" is being practiced. The attempt has been made to force Mr. Crawford, one of the Whig nominees for the Legislature, to decline, so as to make room for Mr. Stambach, who tried but couldn't get the Democratic nomination.

And yet it is a common street rumor, believed by everybody, that one of the Committee which framed this pledge is President of a Know-Nothing Council, that one of the candidates who signed it is President of another Know-Nothing Council—and that another of the candidates is a member of the order in good standing.

Know Nothing Whigs are, just now, particularly and desperately anxious to get up "street rumors," to prejudice the Democratic candidates, but why don't they give the names of the persons of whom "street rumor" says such things?

Our Party all Safe. The Whig presses are endeavoring to prove that the Democratic party is about being annihilated. This, however, has been the case almost from time immemorial.

A Know-Nothing Lodge in York county broke up and burned the books and papers. This is the beginning. A secret order based upon such intolerant principles cannot last.

As to William F. Walter, it was rumored that the Know-Nothing placed him upon their ticket. He repeats the declaration, however, that he has no connection with them.

The only important item in the latest European news is that the Crimea expedition had sailed 74,000 strong, with seven hundred ships, and would be before Sebastopol on the 10th.

Very strong efforts are made to unite the Democratic party of New York.

Henry S. Mott.

While the Locofoco press is denouncing the Know-Nothing, and circulating the report that Judge Pollock is a fellow-member, with a view to injure him, the Philadelphia News re-

Henry S. Mott has written such a letter in denial of the charge that he is a Know-Nothing, as James Pollock dare not write. The moment he does, his membership in that order will be proven beyond all doubt or cavil.

The Chambersburg Spirit has an article on this subject, from which we copy the following: "It hits the nail right on the head."

Democratic votes must be had, and this brings to the question, how are they to be got? Know-Nothingism furnishes the hope, and to that the Whig leaders address themselves.

All the Democratic nominees of Berks county sign a pledge solemnly declaring that they are not, directly or indirectly, connected with any Society, Order, or Lodge, known as, or commonly called "Know-Nothing," or "Sons of the Stars of '76," or having any other name or organization, one of the objects of which is to prevent any citizen or class of citizens of this country, from obtaining office or public trust under the United States Government.

Questions for Whigs to Answer.

Some of the whigs pretend to say that whiggery is not identified with Know-Nothingism—that the Know-Nothing is composed of members of both of the old parties.

WHIG CONSCIENCE.—The Inquirer of this city, says that "the sale of the Public Works on the most favorable terms," is a Whig principle in the present crisis.

How true is this extract from the Philadelphia Argus! The Whigs of this State have been making the sale of the public works a political hobby for years, and now since they have rode it almost to death, they are ungrateful enough to push the animal off its legs.

Break Up.

A Know-Nothing Lodge in York county broke up and burned the books and papers. This is the beginning.

The Lancaster Independent Whig,

Thaddeus Stevens's paper, takes the part of Know-Nothingism very warmly. Think of it!—The organ of the great leader of Anti-Masonry defending swornly-secret Know-Nothingism.

Samuel Hinks is the candidate of the

Know-Nothing for Mayor of Baltimore. Freedom tp. Sept. 25, 1854.

Mr. Robison.

KNOW NOTHINGISM EXPOSED!

The Whig candidate for Congress stumbled a part of this county last week, but from all we can learn, his eloquence was not calculated to stir up the old Whig fire to the boiling point—too much rant for that.

In his speech at the Court-house, on Friday evening, he denied that he was a Know-Nothing, but would not say a word against that order.

But let us examine Mr. Robison's denial of being a Know-Nothing. The last McConnellsbury Democrat contains a full exposure of Know-Nothingism in Fulton county, by Mr. William Connor, who, fully comprehending its character and designs, has felt it necessary to expose it from beginning to end.

All the Democratic nominees of Berks county sign a pledge solemnly declaring that they are not, directly or indirectly, connected with any Society, Order, or Lodge, known as, or commonly called "Know-Nothing," or "Sons of the Stars of '76," or having any other name or organization.

Old Berks.

All the Democratic nominees of Berks county sign a pledge solemnly declaring that they are not, directly or indirectly, connected with any Society, Order, or Lodge, known as, or commonly called "Know-Nothing," or "Sons of the Stars of '76," or having any other name or organization.

Questions for Whigs to Answer.

Some of the whigs pretend to say that whiggery is not identified with Know-Nothingism—that the Know-Nothing is composed of members of both of the old parties.

WHIG CONSCIENCE.—The Inquirer of this city, says that "the sale of the Public Works on the most favorable terms," is a Whig principle in the present crisis.

How true is this extract from the Philadelphia Argus! The Whigs of this State have been making the sale of the public works a political hobby for years, and now since they have rode it almost to death, they are ungrateful enough to push the animal off its legs.

Break Up.

A Know-Nothing Lodge in York county broke up and burned the books and papers. This is the beginning.

The Lancaster Independent Whig,

Thaddeus Stevens's paper, takes the part of Know-Nothingism very warmly. Think of it!—The organ of the great leader of Anti-Masonry defending swornly-secret Know-Nothingism.

Samuel Hinks is the candidate of the

Know-Nothing for Mayor of Baltimore. Freedom tp. Sept. 25, 1854.

To the Editor of the "Star."

DEAR SIR:—With your permission, I have concluded to address you a few lines regarding your "few words for your Catholic Friends," as contained in your paper of last week.

With me my country is next to my Creator; and I care no more for men or names, than I do for threats or insinuations.

I have always voted with and adhered to the Whig party, because I had always considered it above all others best calculated, as it was intended in letter and in spirit, and while it openly, fearlessly and firmly arrayed itself against every faction that sought either publicly or secretly to disseminate doctrines calculated or intended to infringe on the rights and privileges of any class or portion of citizens.

I presume, are not now its doctrines, and as this is the time in particular, when I consider such doctrines indispensable and practically necessary, I can not but think and see and feel that the conservative Whig party is no longer true to its promises and its boasted antecedents.

It is true, you maintain that "the Whig party all over the country—conservative and true to its principles—moves on in its accustomed policy, unheeding the new organization, and nominating its candidates as usual, without stopping to inquire whether they be Know-Nothing, Catholics or anything else—the only qualification being their orthodoxy as Whigs."

But you say "the Whig party—conservative and true to its principles—moves on in its accustomed policy, unheeding the new organization," &c., cannot stop to make any inquiries concerning the "order of the day."

But again you command us to "vote as our judgment and conscience approve." This is both a regal and consoling sentence, and worthy of being engraved in letters of gold, and while we shall endeavor to obey it to the letter, we must do so with the rest that they say Parly did with his soul—"risk it."

But again you command us to "vote as our judgment and conscience approve." This is both a regal and consoling sentence, and worthy of being engraved in letters of gold, and while we shall endeavor to obey it to the letter, we must do so with the rest that they say Parly did with his soul—"risk it."

But again you command us to "vote as our judgment and conscience approve." This is both a regal and consoling sentence, and worthy of being engraved in letters of gold, and while we shall endeavor to obey it to the letter, we must do so with the rest that they say Parly did with his soul—"risk it."

Personal Correspondence—Almost a Duel, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24th.—A sharp personal correspondence has occurred between Senator Cooper, President of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, and Morton McMichael, Esq., editor of the Philadelphia North American.

It is intimated that the correspondence will be published in case of any repetition of the changes in the North American.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that

Dr. JOHN W. STUBBS, of Frederick, Md., while on a gunning excursion near Emmitsburg, on Tuesday last, met with his death.

HEALTH OF PITTSBURG.—The Pittsburg

papers of Tuesday all concur in saying that cholera is rapidly disappearing from that city. There were 345 deaths from cholera, since which number 345 were from cholera.

To the Editor of the Compiler.

DEAR SIR:—I find an appeal to the Whig Catholics of Adams county, and to that appeal, I, as one of that class of citizens, feel it my duty to reply.

I have watched the movements of the political parties for the last few months with an anxious eye, and with sorrow. I have seen the Whig party, which I once loved to serve and honor, which once was governed by principle and guided by our Constitution, and which once recognized Catholic Whigs in no other light than fellow citizens, departing from its exalted position, and creating a party which has for its object the proscription of citizens who have been so unfortunate as to be born on the other side of the Atlantic, as well as Americans who cannot conscientiously worship God as that party dictates.

I have always voted with and adhered to the Whig party, because I had always considered it above all others best calculated, as it was intended in letter and in spirit, and while it openly, fearlessly and firmly arrayed itself against every faction that sought either publicly or secretly to disseminate doctrines calculated or intended to infringe on the rights and privileges of any class or portion of citizens.

I presume, are not now its doctrines, and as this is the time in particular, when I consider such doctrines indispensable and practically necessary, I can not but think and see and feel that the conservative Whig party is no longer true to its promises and its boasted antecedents.

It is true, you maintain that "the Whig party all over the country—conservative and true to its principles—moves on in its accustomed policy, unheeding the new organization, and nominating its candidates as usual, without stopping to inquire whether they be Know-Nothing, Catholics or anything else—the only qualification being their orthodoxy as Whigs."

But you say "the Whig party—conservative and true to its principles—moves on in its accustomed policy, unheeding the new organization," &c., cannot stop to make any inquiries concerning the "order of the day."

But again you command us to "vote as our judgment and conscience approve." This is both a regal and consoling sentence, and worthy of being engraved in letters of gold, and while we shall endeavor to obey it to the letter, we must do so with the rest that they say Parly did with his soul—"risk it."

Voters Remember,

That persons may be decoyed into a secret political, oath-bound association, by false representation, but there can be no obligation to remain when they discover the real character of the same, and see, as every man must, that they are controlled entirely by whig leaders, and composed mainly of whig forces, for the ultimate benefit of the whig party!

But again you command us to "vote as our judgment and conscience approve." This is both a regal and consoling sentence, and worthy of being engraved in letters of gold, and while we shall endeavor to obey it to the letter, we must do so with the rest that they say Parly did with his soul—"risk it."

Personal Correspondence—Almost a Duel, &c.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24th.—A sharp personal correspondence has occurred between Senator Cooper, President of the Sunbury and Erie Railroad, and Morton McMichael, Esq., editor of the Philadelphia North American.

It is intimated that the correspondence will be published in case of any repetition of the changes in the North American.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that

Dr. JOHN W. STUBBS, of Frederick, Md., while on a gunning excursion near Emmitsburg, on Tuesday last, met with his death.

HEALTH OF PITTSBURG.—The Pittsburg

papers of Tuesday all concur in saying that cholera is rapidly disappearing from that city. There were 345 deaths from cholera, since which number 345 were from cholera.