

Maine! Maine!
Oh, have you heard the news from Maine?
Good news and true—Maine's Crisis.
Late news received from the wild cat district in Maine, give most undoubted assurance that T. J. D. Fuller, Democrat, is elected to Congress instead of Milliken, Fusionist, as before reported.
Also, that Morrill, sore head Democrat and Fusionist, is not, as at first reported, elected by eleven thousand of a majority, but defeated by more than one thousand votes. This is good news and true.

Obstructing a Railroad—Strange Freak.
PROVIDENCE, Oct. 3.—An old man named Lyman Hawes committed a strange freak today, which caused no small excitement. He erected a house of boards on the tracks of the Providence and Worcester Railroad, and placed within the same a keg of powder, and then nailing himself in the house, swore that if the trains attempted to run through the building he would blow all to atoms. His wild and determined threats and the obstruction caused a detention of two hours to the trains, but finally a crowd of about one thousand persons assembled and smashed in the door of the building and seized Hawes and dragged him to jail.
The police speedily demolished the house, and the trains passed on. The excitement was so great that it was with difficulty the people were deterred from injuring Hawes.
The reason given for the strange freak is that Hawes formerly owned the land through which the road passes, and conceiving that he had not been allowed enough for it by the commissioners, endeavored to revenge himself in the manner stated.

The Sunbury (Pa.) Gazette says the Know Nothing Lodge in Northumberland county has disbanded.

Worth Reading!—To Sufferers from Scrula.—Wonderful case of Scrofulous Ulcer, cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Mary Ann Johnson, of Batavia, New York, was afflicted for eight years with a scrofulous ulcer on her calf, which effected the bone; she resorted to all kinds of remedies, but obtained no relief, until she had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills. The Pills thoroughly cleansed and purified the blood, and although the wounds were in a most dreadful state, yet by continued applications of the Ointment, they have perfectly healed, and her health is completely restored.
