AS DAGUERREOTYED!

The Proceedings of the Grand Council of the Supreme Order of the Star Spangled Banner, Commonly called Know-Nothings, which Met on Tuesday week, and Adjourned on Wednesday Night, at Twelve O'clock.

The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian lays before the public a complete exposure of the proceedassembled in that city on Tuesday week.- The Convention, it will be perceived, adjourned. from one place to another to escape the reporter word. of the Pennsylvanian; but it seems he went supposing everything to have been done snugly and secretly, than they were startled by the appearance of an Extra Pennsylvanian, with the subjoined EXPOSURE !

The Grand State Council of Know-Nothings met in this city on Tuesday, the 3d of October, 1854, at 10 o'clock, A. M. After several un- EVER," and "BUNKER HILL" for "21." successful attempts to organize, the Convention adjourned till 1 o'clock, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION, 1 O'CLOCK, P. M.-Convention re-assembled in the Franklin Hall, in Sixth street, below Arch.

A member stated that it was necessary to adjourn to the room of the American Mechanthat the disclosures already contained in that paper, were of such-a character and so near tion was lost-on the ground that the national the truth in their details, that it has become ! a matter of the greatest importance to guard would hope to preserve their organization from and seizing upon the ballot-boxes. immediate dissolution. Already had thoualarmed at the certainty of the exposure.

A resolution to adjourn to the Mechanics' Hall was then carried.

MECHANICS' HALL .- The members then proceeded to the Mechanics' Hall, where they remained for some time in a state of confusion, displaying the greatest bitterness of feeling. The following persons were then elected offi-

of Delaware county. Secretary-THOMAS L. GIFFORD, Esq., of Philadelphia.

Treasurer --- ALEX. -CUMMINGS, Esq., of Philadelphia.

Marshal-C. F. MUENCH, Esq., of Harrisburg.

The following are the names of some of the members from different counties and towns : | was restored. -Perry county, Dr. JENKINS ; Allegheny, JOHN man of the Dauphin Lodge.

The resolution which was carried will be published after the election.

At this stage of the proceedings of the Council, a most disgraceful altercation took place between the Presidents, of the York Springs council-and Huntingdon council. Une of the gentlemen is a clergyman and the other a lawyer. They freely used the most opprobrious epithets towards each other, calling one another "liars !" "scoundrels," &c. The discussion grew out of matters connected with their respective Lodges. The clergyman told the lawyer he had no influence, and the lawyer called him a "d-d liar!" The clergyman retorted by calling the lawyer "a "pettifoging scoundrel !" 'It was some time before quiet
