A FAT HEN. -Mr. E. Goff. of this city, recently found that one of his hens, from which he procured an egg a day, could not walk about with facility, and on the 6th instant she came to a stand and rolled. She could no longer run about. So Mr. Goff cut off her head, and, on stripping the feathers, he found almost a solid mass of fat. Her claws were even puffed out with fat. She was small in size, but so solid in grease, that she weighed, when dressed, geren and a half pounds.—Hartford Times.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

FELLOW CITIZENS: - A sincere belief in the existence of God, and a just conception of His attributes lie at the foundation of true religion and civilized society.-The free declaration of this belief becomes a Christian people.

This Almighte and Beneficent God has greatly blessed the Commonwealth and her inhabitants during the year that has just closed.

An humble acknowledgment of his goodness and mercy, and an open manifestation of gratitude to Him, is an act of homage eminently becoming a people so highly favored.

The blessing of peace he has bestowed upon us. Our relations with all other States are most amicable, and the tumult of internal strife has not been heard in our midst. All the great interests of the penple have been eminently prosperous, except only the agricultural, which, in parts of Cumberland township.

of the State, has suffered from the GEYER to Miss SARAH ANN YEINGST, both of Adams drought. cept only the agricultural, which, in parts drought.

with the exception-of a few communities, which claim our sympathies, the blessings of health have prevailed. Our institutions of government have been perpetuated, and civil and religious liberty enjoyed by the people. The cause of Education and Christianity has been advauced-the arts and sciences have progress. ed, and the moral and physical condition of the country been improved. The devastations of war which are now so sorely afflicting the people of Europe -the desolations of famine and the ravages of pestilence, have not been permitted to invade our favored Common wealth.

These manifold blessings are the gift eam convictions of duty therefore, and in conformity with the wishes of many good citizens, I. William Bigler, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do

October 28th, 1854. THE LANGUAGE OF A GENUINE DEMOCRAT. The following extract is from a letter written by a democrat of Pennsylvania recently defeated in his effort to be re-elected to congress: "I might have been re-elected with an overwhelming majority had I joined the sect-in and the quality of Timber thereon, are not fact, its support was tendered to me if I would equalled on the South Mountain. Persons in join them : but I spurned the offer, preferring want of Tunber Lots, would do well to attend, a thousand defeats upon democratic principles as the lots WILL BE SOLD. to one triumph upon 'know-nothingism.' - I Attendance given and terms therefore nailed my flag to the mast, and was by determined, if I fell, to fall fighting in its defence. I did fall, and my glorious principles fell with me. But, thank God! they will one day rise again, and appear in still greater power and splendor than they have ever yet done.—

Democracy can never be crushed. It is the grand foundation upon which our government and our country rests. While know-nothing purpose of cultivating a taste for the fine arts ism will be hissed at as treason, democracy will be honored and cherished."
