

The November Court of this county commences on Monday next.

The Cemetery Opening and Sale.

The opening ceremonies of EVER GREEN CEMETERY took place on Tuesday last, on the grounds, attended by an unexpectedly large number of ladies and gentlemen.

In the afternoon, a public sale for choice of lots was had. The bidding was quite spirited, (evinced an earnest interest in the enterprise.) and resulted in the sale of about 120 lots, realizing about $100 in premiums.

The general interest, manifested on the occasion was of an extremely gratifying degree, and proved the successful establishment of Ever Green Cemetery "a fixed fact."

Look out for bills of the Planters' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgia, dated at Dalton, -Pittsburg Dispatch.

We have been looking out for any kind of a bank-bill—but the only bills we can get our hands on are bills for paper, ink, "store goods," and such like.

Those of our patrons who have been prompt in their payments, (and we have many such,) have our most grateful thanks.

The widow of Alexander Hamilton died at Washington on Friday last, aged 97 years.

A bridge over the Balt. and Susq. R. Road, 5 or 6 miles from York, was consumed on Wednesday. It was called Fissell's Bridge.

Hon. J. B. DANFORD, of this place, has been selected by one of the Jurors at the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania—to convene shortly at Philadelphia.

The attention of Teachers is called to the advertisement of KELLER KURTZ in our paper to-day. The Reports he offers are just the article for Teachers.

The beautiful estate of Antrim, in Carroll county, Md., belonging to Col. Ege, was sold on Friday week, to Col. Piper, of Howard county, for $30,000.

DEPARTURE.—John M. Cooper, Esq., Editor of the Valley Spirit, (Chambersburg,) left that place a few weeks ago, having in contemplation a visit to the State of Texas, for the benefit of his health.

Among the names spoken of for the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator, are Governor BOILER, WILSON M. CAMPBELL, Esq., and Hon. JOHN L. DAWSON.

FILIAL AFFECTION.—A singular exhibition of filial affection is related to have transpired recently in Detroit, Michigan.

An attempt to burn down a Catholic church in Williamsburg, New York, was made on Thursday night last, by a procession of disorderly persons.

LARGE BANK ROBBERY.—A clerk in the Marine and Fire Insurance Bank agency, in Macon, Georgia, it is stated, has stolen and run off with $10,000, mostly in $10 notes of that institution.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—There was a slight fall of snow this morning here—the first of the season.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Edw. G. Ingraham, Esq., an eminent lawyer and U. S. commissioner, died in this city this morning.

We are indebted to the last Sentinel for the marvellous intelligence that—specific is all going!

Late European News. The steamer America arrived on Thursday, with one week's later news from Europe.

Austria and Russia are on the point of actual war. Mr. Soule, the American minister, was refused permission to pass through France on his return from England to Spain.

California News. The steamer Yankee State has been wrecked, with the loss of fifteen persons, and all her specie on board.

There has been a fight on the Pacific between an allied French and English fleet and a Russian garrison. The British Rear Admiral Price, in command of the fleet, was killed during the engagement.

Terrible Railroad Accident. We mentioned in our last the occurrence of a horrible accident on the Rock Island Railroad, Illinois, by which some forty persons were severely injured, some of them so much so as to cause their death shortly after.

A later dispatch than that given by us last week, announces the painful intelligence that among the dead are Mrs. MARGARET LAUGHLIN (wife of Wm. C. Laughlin, of Gettysburg, Pa.) and her two children!

FATAL CASUALTY.—On Monday the 6th inst., several workmen engaged in digging ore on the land of Mr. EUGEN LEFFRE, in Union township, Adams county, commenced undermining an embankment of the height of fifteen feet, when a slide of the top took place, causing a large quantity of earth to be precipitated on the spot where the workmen were engaged.

MELANCHOLY EVENT.—Mr. Jacob Wolford, of Berwick township, was killed instantly on Wednesday week. He was engaged in quarrying limestone on the land of Mr. Jacob Bucher, near Abbottstown, in company with a man named Ziepling, when the earth caved in above them, crushing him to death instantly.

A LAST HOME FOR THE PRINTER.—The Savannah News says that previous to the death of the late Samuel Chapman, editor of the Savannah Journal and Courier, a few weeks since, that gentleman purchased a lot in Laurel Grove Cemetery, to be appropriated especially as a place of burial for printers.

KANSAS TERRITORY.—A letter to the Buffalo Advertiser, dated Fort Leavenworth, October 7th, says that a great change has taken place in that part of Kansas territory west from Fort Leavenworth.

A grand jury in Canada attributed the recent loss of life on the Great Western Railway to the culpable carelessness of the conductor and engine on the gravel train of St. Lawrence. Witnesses have been tested for that purpose.

New York Election. The Empire State is coming out very well, especially considering her "SMYDUP" character. It seems certain that FLETCHER, Democrat, is elected Governor, by a handsome majority.

The Butler Herald, edited by Capt. Jacob Ziegler, than whom no public speaker can more delight Gettysburg Democratic audience, says of the political somerset of REAR FRAZER: "Alas! how have the mighty fallen!"

It is false at the start—says on the road, and false when he stops. His pretensions to "free soilism" are all gammon, for what cares he about "niggers," especially the male portion?

How Ministers of the Gospel, who have for years, in this county and elsewhere, been preaching agencies, can effect such a complete somerset as to go deliberately into the pulpit and preach in favor of Know Nothingism, is a mystery to us.

Constitutional Clubs are being talked in Philadelphia, to protect the Constitution against Know Nothingism. The Lancaster Intelligencer says this may be well enough, provided the movement is not intended to accomplish something else than appears upon the surface.

The entire Russian Army, scattered throughout the Empire, and actually available for a European war, according to the New York Tribune, amounts to 612,000 men and 1200 guns—viz: 520,000 Infantry, 62,000 Cavalry, and 30,000 Cossacks.

The Question Stated. Is Judge Pollock eligible to the office to which he has been elected? The Constitution of the Commonwealth provides that "no religious test shall be required as a qualification for office."

Heroic Conduct.—Commenting upon the conduct of the crew of the Arctic, the New York Express gives the following forcible description of the heroic conduct of the brave fellows lost in the Birkenhead:

The circumstances connected with the loss of the British steamer Birkenhead, on the coast of Africa, not many months since, are still fresh in the memories of all.

DEATH OF A WOMAN.—About ten days ago a woman aged about 80 years, (name not given) died in the neighborhood of the Water Works, Lebanon county, who, a short time before her death, owned a small farm near the township of North Union, with a home she lived as long as she lived, and also her own children. This, if true, is horrible.

Sale of the Public Works. We took occasion, says the West Chester Republican, some time during the last campaign, to warn Democrats not to be led from the support of Democratic men and measures, under the delusion that the opposition were favorable to the sale of the Public Works and the Democrats opposed to it.

Passengers in Railroad Cars. A snit was recently decided in the Marine Court of the city of New York, which settles the right of passengers to their seats, after having temporarily left them.

It is therefore settled in New York, that passengers in railroad cars who temporarily leave their seats are entitled to them.—It is very annoying to be suddenly dispossessed of a seat after having occupied it nearly to your journey's end.

Fire in Baltimore. One of the most disastrous fires which has visited that city for several years, with one or two exceptions, took place on Saturday night week, partially destroying one of the finest piano manufactories, and at one stage of its progress boldly threatening to destroy an entire square.

The stable of the Eutaw House, and a cooper shop formerly occupied by Mr. Jacob Green, were pretty considerably damaged—loss, $2,000.

Heroic Conduct.—Commenting upon the conduct of the crew of the Arctic, the New York Express gives the following forcible description of the heroic conduct of the brave fellows lost in the Birkenhead:

A chap in Los's Haven has invented a machine to make a... A fly-blow but west spalls Tunes-ec... -10 s.c.

Look at This Picture! We invite all our readers to look at the spectacle presented below. If, after such an exposure of Know-Nothingism, this secret political organization can any longer blind the honest and unsuspecting people to the dangerous character of its doctrines, then is the dispensation of justice a mere sham, and our Courts a positive evil, alike dangerous to the citizen and destructive of the glorious principles of our Constitution.

KNOW NOTHING IN COURT. DISCLOSURES UNDER OATH.

At the criminal term of the Court of Common Pleas, now being held in Lowell, Bishop J. presiding, the following scene was enacted yesterday (Friday).

The case on trial was the Commonwealth vs. Michael Reardon, for rape. District Attorney Train for Government, B. F. Butler and Daniel Needham for defendant.

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Mr. Snow, having denied that he did, and stoutly persisting in the denial, the question was put in a different form, when he was finally driven to the wall, and asked leave of the court to consult counsel.

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

Do you belong to a secret society, popularly called Know-Nothing?

To the Editor of the "Star." Dear Sir:—In your last you again resort to your wonted watch-words, Catholic, Foreign vote, &c. &c. You could not inform your readers of the simple fact that a new Postmaster had been appointed at Bendersville, without implicating and ridiculing the Catholics!

Look at Ellsworth, at Newark, and at other places. Are they not monuments of folly and bigotry, the results of fanaticism such as you have been for some time manifesting, though on a smaller scale? And who are the sufferers, the real sufferers? Not the Catholics, as some imagine, for "blessed are they that suffer for justice's sake," but the Constitution, the Republic, and the dignity of the Nation, both at home and abroad.

Suppose the case were reversed, and that some clannish Catholic editor would arraign the voters of any particular Protestant sect, say the Lutheran, both before and after the election, after the manner that you have the Catholics, would you not look upon it as impudence in the superlative? Most undoubtedly you would, and if I knew myself, I would go with you, heart and hand.

When Mr. Snow again took the stand, the question was again asked, upon which he promptly replied:

I cannot answer that question without criminating myself and subjecting myself to punishment.

Again and again was the question urged by the ingenious counsel for the defendant, every time assuming some new form, but bearing the same fearful visage to this disciple of the secret order, until at last, having detained the court more than two hours and exhausted every body's patience, he replied, "I do."

How long have you belonged to it?

Ans. About four or five months.

Is it a secret society?

A. Yes.

Did you take an oath, or obligation, in joining that society?

A. I did take an obligation.

Was it in the form of an oath?

A. I do not know.

How was it administered to you—did you hold up your hand when it was administered?

A. I did.

Did you call upon God to witness the obligation?

A. I think I did—"So help me God" were the last words.

Are there different degrees in that society?

A. There are.

How many have you taken?

A. Two.

Does Dr. Norman Smith, (a witness in this case,) belong to that society?

A. I have seen him at the meetings.

Have you ever seen John A. Gardner, (another witness) at the meetings of the society?

A. I have.

What is the form of the initiation?— A. I shall not tell, as it will criminate me and expose me to punishment.

Here the Court remarked to the witness that he had a right to protect himself. If he had taken an oath contrary to law, he was not bound to criminate himself. But, said Judge Bishop, this is a startling revelation that men take obligations in secret societies which are regarded by them as of higher authority than those administered in this court.