The Way it Works.

Mr. Meacham, of Vermont, just elected to Congress, is a Congregational, and Mr. Sabin, his colleague, is a Baptist Preacher. Mr. Knowlton, of Maine, is a Free Will Baptist, Rev. John J. Pearce, from this State, is a Methodist Preacher. Added to these we might say that the Rev. Stephen Miller is an applicant to Mr. Pollock for Flour Inspector of Philadelphia, with good hopes of success: among the aspirants for United States Senator. Will any man tell us that Clerical gentlemen are no aspirants for political honors? Do we son by an accidental death, and it is thought Preachers have lately espoused with so much zeal the cause of "Know Nothingism," "anti-Nebraskaism." and every other ism? Instead of being at home attending to the spiritual welfare of the people, and battling against the onward march of infidelicy, we find them hunting after seats in Congress and other legislative bodies, to mingle in the strife which politics always creates. We remember very well what a tirade of a buse was heaped upon Mr. Muhlenberg, when a candidate for Governor, because The had at one time been a Preacher.

Jesus answered Pilate and said, "My kingdom-is-not-of-this-world .-- If-my-kingdomwere of this world then would my servants fight that I should not be delivered to the Jews." The reverse of this rule seems now to be the case, and it is being acted on with a zeal worthy of a better cause. -Buller Herald.

The Faith of Know-Nothingism.

An election for Trustees in one of the Methodist Churches of this city took place a few days since, at which was demonstrated the pernicious influence of the Secret Order of Know-Nothings. One of the candidates was an estimable member of the Church, and among the most liberal in its connection in a pecuniary point of view; but he had the misfortune to be born abroad. If we mistake not, he held the official position in the Church at the time, for which he was again a candidate, and had given the highest satisfaction by his strict attention to its duties. Within the last year, however, the fell spirit of proscription had entered its congregation, and a determination was manifested to have him defeated. He was supported by the more intelligent and respectable portion of the membership, and would have been elected had it not been for the insolent and unwarrantable conduct of one of Mayor CONRAD's Police Officers, who belongs to the same denomination of Christians, but not, we believe, to the same Church. This Police Officer, (as we have been $\frac{i}{1}$ informed by a gentleman upon whose word the most implicit confidence can be placed) stationed himself at the door of the Church, on the day of the election, and questioned every voter whom he had every reason to believe belonged to the Know-Nothing Lodges, as to what candidates he intended to vote for. When informed by WILLIAM YEATTS, of Tyrone township, aged 65 years the person questioned that he intended to vote for the proscribed Trustee, the Policeman in-stantly threatened to have the delinquent Know-Nothing arraigned before the Order, on the charge of voting for a foreigner. By such cote of interference and intimidation on the cote of interference and intimidation on the the charge of voting for a foreigner. By such acts of interference and infinidation on the part of the Policeman, the foreign born, but worthy Trustee, was defeated by four votes. In the votes of the Policeman in the foreign born, but worthy Trustee, was defeated by four votes. It has since been ascertained, that more than that number of illegal votes were polled for his opponent, and the election is to be contested on that ground. We ask the public, whether | Corrected from the la a fearful crisis has not arisen in our affa when even our religious friends, who are v ded to the same Church, and kneel at the s altar in praise of the one living God,

Three children of Mrs. Brown, resid. ing in Pine street, St. Louis, Missouri, by a most remarkable coincidence, were scrofulously inclined, the eldest (Jane) most particularly so, and the mother finding such to be the case, did all in her power to relieve the sufferer, but in vain; she became worse, the blood of the others was equally impure, and they all three were so bad at last, as to become quite an object of horror to their friends. The mother, about eight weeks ago, put them thro' a course of Holloway's Pills and Ointment, and strange, yet true it is, that their blood became thoroughly purified, and the scrofulous symptoms disappeared. They are now all three in excellent health, to the astonishment and delight of their affectionate parents.

Order of Know-Nothings ? Are Policemen to be tolerated, who are so depraved in heart, or so stupid in mind, as to carry the bitterness of their feelings, even up to the footstool of Deity, and seek to hurl a perishing soul from the communion of the Church, merely because he was born in another land? Are no rights sacred against the invasion of this proscriptive order ? Will they not leave Protestants the choice of their own Church officers? These are things to be pondered well before the right to think is attempted to be taken from us. Will the Mayor inquire into the matter? We shall see. - Pennsylvanian.

A Great News Depot.

At Mr. Holloway's establishment, near Temple Bar, there is the most extensive, the most complete, and the most extraordinary collection of newspapers in the world. Mr. Holloway, it should be known, advertises his Pills and Ointment in about 2,000 Foreign newspapers, and in nearly every English paper. Probably the year of the Great Exhibition, and the calls of foreigners from distant climes, first gave him the idea of collecting the papers sent him; but, be this as it may, it is now carried out by his own private enterprise, in a manner compared with which, the collection of the British Museum is a mere ridiculous farce. In a suite of lofty apartments are the newspapers of every civilized country in the world properly and systematically arranged in convenient portfolios; and "the stranger in London, whether from the United States, New Zealand, the Cape, Australia, China, Hindoostan, Persia, or elsewhere, may, by visiting Mr. Holloway's museum, at once become acquainted with the latest intelligence from his own country.-There is every facility and accommodation for reading and extract. Several clerks are kept constantly employed in receiving, sorting, and arranging the papers; and the whole establishment is conducted in a manner which for order, comfort, and celerity, is a perfect contrast to the arrangement, at the British Museum. Any gentleman from the country wishing to look at newspapers from any part of the globe where newspapers are printed, may, by calling at Mr. Holloway's, be instantly put in possession of the requisite intelligence. Of course this museum, so useful and so unique, attracts great attention, and many distinguished men are often to be seen there-inembers of Parliament, newspaper editors, foreigners of eminence, &c., &c.
