"Americans Must Rule America."

يمدين وهرام الداري مرجعين مراجع المراجع مرجعين

This is the captivating yet specious motto inscribed upon the banner of the new proscriptive party which glories in the cognomen of "Know-Nothings," in order to swell its ranks from the ignorant and unsuspecting in the community. Now, at the first glance, this looks very fair and patriotic ; but did it never strike any one that behind this rallying cry of the new organization was concealed the most aristocratic principle ever promulgated in this. free land-that within the petals of this fair rose lurked and rankled the deadliest poison ? Be it remembered that the whole meaning of the motto -"Americans must rule America." upon which the new party is founded, is the exclusion bedopted citizens from office-nothing more. The opinion entertained by these patriotic gentlemen then is, that those who fill the various offices in this republic are the rulers and not the servants or agents of the people ; that the office-holders are our masters and their constituency bond slaves; thus ignoring and setting themselves up in opposition to the whole theory upon which our republican system is based. Was this the idea of JEFFERSON and MADISON, and their immortal compeers, who, fresh from the perils of the Revolution, repudiated the "divine right" of Kings to rule, and laid broad and deep in our glorious constitution, the foundations of civil and religious liberty, and the inborn right of THE PEOPLE to govern themselves? Was not the precious blood spilt in the "time that tried men's souls," the price paid for the establishment of self-government and the great dogma of popular sovereignty ? And are we to be told now, by this new school of political philosophers, after sealizing for over half a century the proud position of a representative Democracy, that the maxima of our fathers were a fiction and a failure-that we must prepare our minds to acknowledge an aristocracy of office-holders-whether they be Congressmen or drunken policemen-with power to do as they list, beyond the above responsibility to the people, who make them what they are ? Out upon such cringing sycophants and parasites, who are unworthy to breathe the air of a free land-who have not learnt the first lessons of Republicanism-and who are not entitled-to the proud name of American citizen.

There is neither point nor force in the application of the precept, that "Americans shail rule America;" and it only falls from the lips of turbulent and base demagogues, as a cheat to delude their gullible followers. Americans always have, and always will rule America, so long as our laws, National and State, remain as they are. So long as the elective franchise is extended to the poor as well as the rich-so long as the doctrine of "no taxation without representation," is asserted and maintainedso long as religious tests are kept from our statute books-and men are left free to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences, with "none to molest or make them afraid"-we need not tremble for the subversion of our liberties, and Americans will continue to rule America, through their accredited agents chosen from all the walks of dying of that disease in equally large numlife, and from all religious persuasions. But bers. if in an hour of madness and folly, the people, inflamed by their Sectarian prejudices and bigotry, (the most dangerous foes to the peace and tranquility of a State,) should introduce the deadly Upas tree of Know-Nothángism and religious proscription into the councils of the nations to overshadow the land, and blast and wither the wholesome and pristine vigor of our institutions, from that moment we may date the downfall of the Republic .- Penn-

THE ESCAPE OF MISS BUNELEY .- The Fredcrick Citizen has a long letter from the Lady Superioress of the "Sisterhood" at Emnuitsburg. in relation to the escape of Miss Bunkley. We make the following extract:

"The statement put forth that letters written" to Miss Bunkley by her father, and others of her family, were withheld from her, or returned to the writers, is altogether untrue; they were invariably delivered to her. Her letters to her family or friends were always sent as addressed. On one occasion only, when, after her many professions of a desire to spend her life as a Sister of Charity, she spoke in a letter to her father of spending six months at St. Joseph's, I asked her meaning, and she replied that 'she did not wish her father to know her intention to become a Sister, though he suspected it.' I then told Sores .- Augustus Cook, a compositor, in the office of one of not bless her undertaking if she did,' and I adness at St. Joseph's and desire to leave."

She further states that there was no necessity of Miss B. escaping from a window, as all the doors when locked at night have the keys remaining in them on the inside. Her trunk, clothes, two watches, and the sum of \$2 $62\frac{1}{2}$. belonging to her, were delivered to her after her escape to Creagerstown, by two Sisters of Charity, according to her written request.

A CURIOUS SURPRISE .- A SEVEN YEARS' SLEEP.—A letter from San Francisco relates a curious incident that occurred there recently. Her Britannic Majesty's exploring ship Plover arrived at San Francisco a short time since, from the Polar Sea, where she had been icebound since 1847.

When she left San Francisco, seven years ago, it was a mere trading station, resorted to by a few vessels in pursuit of hides, and the town or place contained only a few abode houses. The captain and crew expected to find the same San Francisco in 1854 that they left in 1847. The captain, therefore, sailed into the bay without a pilot, and approached the city in the evening. He was much amazed at the nu-merous lights he saw. When he awoke from his dream of seven years, the next morning, he found a noble city occupying the site of the ancient San Francisco. He had known nothing

The Know Nothings had a ratification meeting at Worcester, Mass., on Monday evening, the 20th ult. One of the principal speakers was W. J. Watkins, a colored man, and one of the editors of Fred. Douglass' paper. He stated that nearly all the colored men in the State voted the Know Nothing ticket. That, says an exchange, fully accounts for the extraordinary strength of the Order.

EXTRAORDINARY OCCURRENCE. -At Cleveland, Ohio, a few days since, a horse in the stable of Mr. W. K. Adams, ran his tongue through a crack in a partition between two stalls. It was caught by another horse, and the first one drawing back, bit his own tongue completely off. It was found in the manger of the next stall. Probably such an accident never before occurred and never will again. SMALLPOX.-This disease has almost assumed the form of an epidemic in some of the cities. In Boston, last week, the deaths by it numbered fourteen, and in Cincinnati fifteen victims fell by it during the same time.

The Albany Atlas bitterly attacks the Rev. Washington Van Zandt, " who preached Clark and Raymond instead of Christ crucified, in the pulpit, the day before election.'

But, adds the editor, he is not so bad "as the preacher who traversed Schoharie county, proclaiming that Gov. Seymour was a papist, and had one of his daughters in a nunnery." The story told from the pulpits of Madison county that Gov. S. kept a grocery up stairs in his mansion, required the capacious maws of three of the cloth to give utterance to.

Whereupon says the editor:

"Our advice is, that when such men rise in the pulpit, and so far destroy its sacredness as to denounce by namesuch men as Gov. Seymour and other leading democrats, and to cast false aspersions upon them, the democrats in the congregation should rise in their seats, and, with all the respect due to the place, contradict the falsehood.

"There is no other way than this: If the church is to be turned into a political meeting room, either let the congregation have notice, so as to stay away, or let them have their full right of debate and discussion, as well as the stipendiaries of party, who throw out these political challenges from the pulpit."

Qualification of Jurors.

In a criminal case now on trial in the United States Circuit Court, Chief Justice Taney has decided the following to be the proper qualifications for a juror to try the issue : "If the juror has formed an opinion that the prisoners are guilty, and entertains that opinion now, without waiting to hear the testimony, then he is incompetent. But if, from reading newspapers or hearing reports, he has impressions on his mind unfavorable to the prisoners, but has no opinion or prejudice which will prevent him from doing impartial justice when he hears the testimony, then he is competent."

The general observance of this decision in our courts, coming as it does from so high a source, and as legally correct as it is in accordance with common sense, will have the happiest effect in doing away with the chicancry that in too many instances excludes men of honesty and intelligence from the jury box.

The fluid was situated in the left side of the chest, and consequent-Iv the heart very much displaced ; so much so, that it could be distinctly felt beating two --inches upon the right of the sternum or mediun line of the body.
