CARRIER'S ADDRESS TO THE PA-TRONS OF THE *REPUBLICAN COMPILER," Jan. 1, 1855.

KIND PATEONS :----

The Carrier with this brief address Now greets the Patrons of the Press-This tribute at your feet I lay, And wish you all a happy day. Since last to you my call I paid And kind congratulations made, The wheel of Time kept rolling on. And now another year is gone. Gone with its pleasures and its cares ; Gone with its hopes and joys and fears ; Gone to Oblivion's gloomy main ; Gone never to return again: The aged its rapid course regret, But soon their vain regrets forget ; The young wish for the old year's flight And hail the New Year with delights Remorseless Time thus glides away, And in his footsteps leaves decay. He on his ruins smiles, and never Ceases his onward march forever. The past year many changes made, Its mar on every hour is laid ; It dimmed the bright and flashing eye, And crushed fond hopes as it passed by ; It passed o'er plains where battle raged And hostile hosts in strife engaged. It saw the angry ocean roar And thousands sink to rise no more ; It saw in Europe battle rage, It saw the Turk with Russ engage In-deadly conflict ; and proud France And England join to try their chance. The Russian Bear bids Turk defiance, And growls with rage at the alliance. The battle now has just begun And blood will soon in rivers run. How it will end no one can know, The future that can only show. Whoever beats right well may boast, For they will have a Turkey roast. But there's a land of summer showers-Of peaceful plains-of fields and flowers ; Where war's shrill trumpet has not come-It claims the name of FREEDOM'S HOME. That region, Patrons, is our home, A truly richly favored one : The land which Washington set free, And made the home of Liberty-But thirteen States at Freedom's birth, . Made us a Nation of the Earth. With Time, our course was onward-on, And now we number thirty-one. Our shores, two mighty Oceans bound, And in their grandeur thunder round Our land; and to the world They bear our stars and stripes unfurled. The Sandwich Islands, too, we'll get, And then the sea our States will deck, And soon on lovely Guba's Isle, Our stars and stripes will float in style. Let France forbid our onward course,

And England put her threats in force ; Rightly we'll rule Columbia's shore, And scorn the British Lion's roar. Our star of glory now is bright, And Nations look to us for light; Thus may it brilliant ever be, And guide the world to liberty. Our ship of State rides boldly on, Ase'er it did in good times gone : Democracy still faithfully Guides her o'er stormy Faction's sea. So, too, we find our native State, In all her Institutions great : Her laws are just, and right secure, To all alike-both rich and poor ; She is the Keystone of the arch, She stays disunion in its march. True to the Union may she stand An honor to our happy land. When Penn first found this region wild, Where roamed in joy the Savage child. He planted freedom's banner here. Where the oppressed his heart might cheer. No tyrant here might chain the mind. But all a happy home might find ; And here upon this favored sod Might, as they thought fit, worship God. But now those happy days are past, And this sad time has come at last, -When Freemen meet at dead of night, To rob their brethren of their right. This, Patrons, is a burning shame-A base burlesque on Freedom's name. Arouse, and ere it be too late, Redeem your loved, your native State ! Old Adams too which we love best, We must confess is richly blest; Her sons are brave, her daughters fair, And pleasure reigns supremely there. Soon we will see the Iron Horse Make giant strides upon his course; And this will be, when those times come, The greatest place in Christendom. Proscription here has met defeat, The Whigs and Know Nothings are beat-Then let our banner float on high, For we have won a victory. Another year has now begun, Whose rapid course will soon be run; Then let us all with courage strive, To do our duty while we live. And now, kind friends, I end my lay, May you enjoy this New-Year day ; And when your bearts beat high with joy. Oh, then make glad the Carrier boy.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY : Sir, -It is not my wish to become notorious, neither is this letter written for the mere sake of writing, but to say, that your Ointment cured me of one of the most dreadful cutaneous diseases that fiesh is heir to, and which was considered by all who knew me, to be entirely beyond the reach of medicine. For nine years I was afflicted with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine I had ever heard of, I resigned to despair all hope of being cured ; but a friend brought me a couple of large pots of your Ointment, which caused the sores on my legs to heal, and I entirely regained my health, to my agreeable surprise and delight,
