- Law Decisions.

Judge Thompson lately decided that where a married woman re-publishes a will made by her before marriage. The will must be present, and the same formality observed as if the will was then first executed. The act of 1848 requires books and periodical articles under the signathat such a will be executed in the presence of ture of "Kirwan" have earned a world-wide two witnesses, neither of which shall be the husband.

Judge Hare lately suspended an atterney from practice six months for speaking to two jurors upon the subject of a case after the Court had committed it to them to form a verdict.

The number of persons whose lives have been sacrificed by burning buildings is put down at one hundred and seventy-one.

There have also been forty eight steamboat accidents, killing five hundred and twentyfive.

During the year six hundred and eighty-two murders were committed, and eighty-four persons were executed. In the State of New York alone there were seventy-four murders and seven executions, and in California sixty-four murders and fifteen executions.

DEATH OF MARTIN VAN BUREN .--- It is with no small degree of regret that we announce the death of the celebrated lion Martin Van Buren. He died a few nights since in the menagerie Rooms of Raymond & Co., who are wintering their stock of animals in this city. The lion was presented to Martin Van Burn. during the time he was President, by the Emperor of Morocco, who also sent the President, at the same time, a pair of full blooded Arabian horses. As "Kirwan" opposed to the Know Nothings. If there is one man in the United States whose sincerity in opposition to Catholicism is unquestioned and unquestionable, it is the Rev. Dr. Nicholas Murray, of New Jersey, whose reputation: When such a man, therefore, takes ground against the Know Nothings, his position challenges attention and respect. In a late work entitled "Parish and other Pencil-lings," he puts himself in decided antagonism ad committed it to them to form a verdict. to that secret organization. He devotes a Judge Smyser recently charged a jury that chapter to the consideration of "Popery in the United States," and after viewing the subject in all its bearings, he comes to the conclusion that Protestants have no cause for alarm on account of the Catholic emigration to this country. He says:

Let, the Irish and continental papists come: we have room for them all. We hope that some such resolution will be passed. A great noise has been raised throughout the country about foreigners holding office. and we should like to see the matter settled by an official communication from the President himself. The Senator from Boston.

The Nashua (N. H.) Gazette-referring, we suppose, to Dr. Barker, the recently-elected State Senator from the Boston district in Massachusetts-gives the following specimen of the stuff from which know-nothing dignitaries are niade :

"A native of New Hampshire, he early 'left New Hampshire for New Hampshire's good. A veteran office-holder, he clung to the spoils with the tenacity of death to a deceased African. He must have been cousin-german to the man who, when asked how he contrived to hold office under all changes of government, answered, that 'an administration must be d-----d smart to change quicker than he could.' The vicar of Bray was an absolute know nothing to this political weather-cock. A professed democrat on the eve of Polk's election, fancying that Clay's chances were best, he joined a Clay club, and as a reward for his eleventh hour apostacy was deputed to go to the whig head-quarters to get the result of the voting in New York, which it was anticipated would go for the great embodiment of whig principles.-But on the way, our new-fiedged proselyte encountered a tremendous democratic torch-light procession, rending the welkin with cheers for Polk, who had carried New York by a tremendous majority, and thus achieved the victory : whereupon, abandoning his new friends. he purchased a torch, rushed into the democratic ranks, and bawled himself hoarse with cheering 'Polk and Dallas.' He held office under Polk, voted slyly for Saylor, held over under Fillniore, promised to vote for Scott, and did vote for Pierce. Being disappointed of the Russian mission or the Havana consulate-we forget to which he aspired -he finally withdrew the light of his spectacles from the Pierce administration, and denounced it, and has been chosen to a highly honorable office-let us call is a senatorship—by the know-nothing or pure American party. Hurrah for new men! Down with old party hacks! Nor is this a single instance. The elect of the secret party display many characters of much the same stamp.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR SCROFTLA.-Nicholas Longworth, the famous millionaire and winegrower of Cincinnati, publishes the following cure for scrofula :---

Put 2oz. of aquafortis on a plate, on which ou have two copper cents. Let it remain from 18 to 24 hours. Then add 4 oz. of clear, strong vinegar. Put cents and all in a large mouthed bottle, and keep it corked. Begin by putting 4 drops in a tenspoon full of rain water, and apply it to the sore. Make the application three times a day, with a soft hair pencil. or made of soft rags. If very prinful, put more water. As the sore heals apply it weaker.

I request editors, in all parts of the Union, and abroad, to copy this, and to re-publish it quarter yearly; it may save many lives. N. LONGWORTH.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Nov. 18, 1854.

-P. S. Capt. Harkness, of our city, the first person cured by this remedy. applied it without water, and he informed me that he thought it would burn his leg off; but the next day it was cured. His was a small sore, and had been attended to for months by one of the best physicians, without any benefit.

A GIRAFFE DROWNED .- On the 30th ult. monster giraffe, belonging to the menagerie of Mr. Van Amburg, while being removed from the steamship Philadelphia at New Orleans, fell overboard and was drowned. It is said to have cost $15,000.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, --- Debilitated Constitutions. --- The wonderful power possessed by these Pills, is such. that they perform the most satonishing cures by restoring health when all other means fail; cases of debilitated constitutions by likeir use are completely invigorated, the delicate and weak are made strong. The daughter centreing into womanhead, or the mother at the turn of life, alike derive unspeakable benefit by the use of this mighty medicine. It is also re-commended to the Citizens of the Union as an effectual remedy for general derangements of the system.
