

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1855.

-
	TERMS	0F	THE	ĆOR	IPIL	ER.

37TH YEAR.

every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STANLE, at $1,75 per annum if paid in advance-$2.00] the publisher, until all arrearages are paid.

dispatch.

ly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Court House.

Choice Poetrn. ALL'S FOR THE BEST. BT M. F. TUPPER.

All's for the best! be sanguine and cheerful, Trouble and sorrow are friends in diguise. Nothing but folly goes faithless and featful; Courage forever is happy and wise. All's for the best, if man would but know it; Providence wishes us all to be blest. This is no dream for the pundit or poet: How the the best. Heaven is gracious, and all's for the best

All's for the best ; see this on your standard,

Soldier of sadness or pilgrim of love. Who to the shores of despair may have wandered, so A way-weared swallow or heart-stricken dove. AW: for the best! he a nan but confiding; But items to be a nan but confiding; Providence ten lerly governs the rest: And gor frail bark of his creature is guiding; Wisely and wearily all for the best.

All's for the best ; then fling away terrors, Meet all your fears and your fees in the van; And, in the midst of your dangers and errors. Trust like a child, while you strive like a man.

All's for the best:-unclasped, unbounded. Providence reigns from the east to the west

Ind. by both wisdom and mercy surrounded, Hope, and be happy, and all's for the best

Select Miscellany.

The Sight of the Dying.

The late Abner L. Pentland, of Pittsburg, remarked, when he was dying. --- Mother, I can see a great distance !" Doubtless this is the experience, beautifully expressed, of every one w. o comes with a chastened faith to a calm death-bed. In his progress through ordinary life, the vapors that float in the mental atmosphere render the vision imperfect, and he cannot see far off ; but as he draws near eternity, the air grows purer, and the light brighter. the vision clearer, and screnity pervades the whole being; the vista of futurity opens the eyes of the soul ; he beholds the gates of heaven, the river of life, its glad waters kissing the footsteps of the throne of God ; the glories of the new world grow brighter and brighter upon him. With Stephen, he beholds Jesus at the right hand of his Father; and, as he dwells with rapture on those enlivening sights, the earth and all its scenery grows dim about

From the Washington Union, The Republican Compiler is published A High Example, Dedicated to the American Clergy. Excilement in Feltzer's Court .- The most pro-"I have spaken apenly to the world; I have ductive source of quarrels among neighbors, is per annum if not paid in advance. No sub- always taught in the Synagogue, whither all, the practice of keeping pet animals. In Feltzer's scription discontinued, unless at the option of the Jews resort; AND IN SECRET HAVE I SPOKEN | court, reside two families -- houest well-bred NOTHING. -- Jesus (hrist, John zviii. people of congenial tastes and habits, except.

Job Work done, neatly, cheaply, and with this grand and impressive sentiment, that we a partiality for dogs, while the Wilsons, at a dancing a jig." These and like expressions, noon, when I seed a feller a travelin', an' sez I, hesitate whether to regard it in the light of an hesitate whether to regard it in the light of an invocation to liberal and public action, or as an No. 8. show a decided preference for cats. We have observed that the poorer people appeal of heavenly inspiration against future are, the more pets of this kind they choose intolerance. It refers undoubtedly to the past, to keep. As mere chroniclors of passing events, but it may also be reproduced for the present. we state the fact, and leave it for philosophers There was a significance in the circumstances to find out the why and wherefore. The Hopkinses keep four dogs, of various that led to this declaration. The Saviour was about to suffer and die for his belief. He was sizes, ages and sexes. The Wilsons entertain forth and crucified.

offered up as a sacrifice to a relentless religious six cats, embracing, as we suppose, similar proscription. Inflamed bigots demanded his varieties. At first, the human portion of the ife upon weak and wicked reasons. They two families were on the best possible terms, overawed the civil power, and compelled-a con- but the cats and dogs, having a constitutional viction against justice and law. He had unc.m. | antipathy to each other, frequently indulged in little bickerings, or small acts of mutual sciously offended a proscriptive and cruel order. aggression. Mark how, before his accusers and judge, and

Yesterday afternoon, one of the "Hopkins in reply to the Roman Governor, He scorns the do s," who was threatened with opthalinia, in imputation of secresy ! The cherished exconsequence of a severe scratch in the right pedients of his foes-secresy and intolerancehow He repudiates and rebukes them! It was eye, received a few evenings before, from the in such a frame of mind that He was carried paw of a masculine mouser belonging to the Wilsons, observed the tail of his feline enemy

City Police Report.

projecting from a cellar-window : and, forget-We are told that many clergymen belong to ful of the laws and usages of civilized warfare the secret order of the present day-the "Sanhedrim" where political offenders are doomed he immediately took the appendage between unheard, and religious opinions graduated and his teeth and began to chew it. as a sailor would a piece of pig-tail tobacco. prescribed upon pain of disfranchisement. We

The unfortunate owner of the tail, who, (as know that many of them openly encourage these doctrines. and that pulpits, from which may be guessed,) was not far off, uttered a should emanate only calm councils and peace- shrick which brought all the other "Hopkins ful precepts, are now made by fanatical clergy- dogs" to the scene of action. As for the Wilmen to ring with the prejudices and passion of sen cats, they behaved as others of their species generally do; that is, they showed no fanaticism and the threats of excited partisans. sympathy for the sufferer, and selfishly kent This we know, and read of daily: and it is in out of the way. But several of them who had condemnation of such an example that we been on visits in the neighborhood, and made hold up the dying words of the Saviour of man. an effort, on the first alarm, to get home, were The history of the Saviour, apart from his intercepted on the way, and so outrageously direct and chief connection with religion, furnishes many sublime lessons and warnings: but malireated by the dogs, that their cries for nowhere is his character so luminous and so quarter resonneed through the whole court .--Out rushed all the Wilsons to the rescue : viz. grand as in his sufferings for the sins of others, Mr. Wilson, with the tongs; Mrs. Wilson, with the shovel; Misses Polly, Ellen and Sohis toleration of different opinions, his universal charity, his welcome, to the stranger, and nis discouragement of all secret and clandestine phronia-Wilson, with sticks of wood ; Master Neddy, Billy and Tommy Wilson, with hearthproceedings, especially when these 'interfere bricks; Mr. Wilson's mother, with the stamp with established rights and laws. How many of our modern preacher-politicians think of this of a corn broom : and Mrs. Wilson's sister, while bounding on the crusade against all who with a slop-bucket.

This timely reinforcement, so well armed worship God in a way that differs from their. and equipped for battle, soon turned the tide own? Will it be out of place if we introduce, for the edification of these reverend leaders, the of victory against the dogs, who began to show their inclination to an inglorious retreat, when following passages from the sermon on the Mount? We hope these teachings have not the door of No. 5 being thrown open, out salbeen forgotten in the new zeal of the clergy for lied all the Hopkinses, except Mr. Hopkins "Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall the party led on by the intrepid Mrs. Hopkins, and the brats kin plant or let it alone, jest as who was armed with a pressing board, reani-

- From the Spirit of the Times. The War in Europe outdone -- Tremendous

-, OF TENNESSEE.

"Hold that ere hoss down to the yearth." 'He's a spreadin' his tail to fly now."-"Keep eyed. funny sort of a genius, fresh from some bridle reins, cruppers, martingales, straps, dad,' sez I. circingles, and red terretin, who had reined up in front of Pat Nash's grocery, among a crowd of wild mountaineers, full of fight and mean whisky. "I say, you durned ash cats. jist keep your shirts on ! You never seed a rule hoss till I rid up; Tarpoka is jist next to the best boss. that ever shelled nubbins. an' he's dead as a sull worm, poor old Tickytail."

"What killed him, Sut?" says an anxious ingnirer. -

"Why, nuthin', you 'tarnal fool; he jist Suncon Paul, an' Cashus, Henry Clay, an' gals, an' Catharine Second, an' Cleopatra Anthony, an' Jane Lind, 'an' Tom Bullion, an' the baby, an' the prospect, an' main herself, or at all disturbing the owner. all left without are hoss to crap with. That to he slashin' about in, warn't it ? I be durned if I didn't feel like sorter stealin' a hoss sometimes. Well, we waited. an' rested, an' wished; and waited, until well into strawberry time, hopin' some stray hoss mout come along, but dog my cat, ef eny sich luck as that ever cums what dad is, he's so dratted mean, an lazy, an' ugly, an' savage.

"Well, one nite, dad he lav awake all nite a snortin' an' rollin', an' a blowin', an' scratchin', and a whisperin' at mam, and next mornin' says he. 'Sut, I'll 'tell you what we'll do : T'll be horse myself and pull the plough. while you drive me. and we'll break up corn himself, who mas absent from home. However groun', and then the 'old quilt' (that's man) tet, 'and pealed bark, and maps an' me made geers fur dad shape. (dad wanted it kurb, as he sed he hadn't | that's all." work't for sum time, an' mite sorter feel his oats and go to cavortin.) Well, when we got the bridle all fixed on dad, he chomped the bit ist like a hoss. (we allers sed so when he warn't down a gap, and it made dad mad : he wanted and a laugh in his sleeve. to jump the fence on all fours, hoss way. I hitched him into the gopher, and away he went, dad leanen forard to his pullen' rite peart. and we made sharp plowin', dad goin' rite over the sprouts and bushes same as a rule hoss. the only differ was he went on two legs. Presmistresses of the field, and the Hopkins' dogs ently we cam to a sassafrae bush, and dad, to keep up his karracter as a hoss, bulged squar into it, and thru it, and tore down a hornet's nest nigh onto as big as a hoss head, and all the tribe kivered him rite strate. He reared and kicked once or twice, and fotched a squeal wus nor ara hoss in the district, and sot into runnin' away, jist as natural as ever you seed. I let go the lines and hollered, . Woa. dad. woa !' but ve mont as well said woa to a locomotive to a bush, he'd clar the 'top of it.' gopher an' slap, that sounded like a waggon whip, and a he cam to the fence, he busted rite thru' it. tarin' down nigh in o seven pannels, scatterin' stuck on the splintered end ov a broken rale. and nigh onto a pint of hornets staid with the shirt, stingin' it all over, the balauce on 'em. about a gallon an' a half, kept on with dad. He seemed to run jist adzactly as fast as the hornets could fly, for it wur the titest race 1 with nothin' on yearth but the bridle, an' uigh unto a yard of plough line sailin' behind.

need any currien for a week or so. T wish I Sut Lovengood's Daddy "Acting Horse." may never see to morrow (dip) if I don't minnie you (dip) when I do get out,' sez dad, Better say you wish you may never see ano-ther bald hornet, if you ever play hoss agin," sez Ti-nud knowin' dad's unmollified unture. I broke from them parts, and suffer cam to the globe, is 40.344. Of these, 17,820, sie in the

There is such comprehensive pertinency in that the Hopkinses, who reside at No. 5, have him what he is." "Wo. Shavefail." "Wo a dancing a jig." These and like expressions, 1 noon, when I seed a feller a travelin', an' sez I, phere. They are distributed as follows: In were addressed to a queer looking, long legged. What was goin 'on at the cabin this side the Great Britain. 7.774 miles : in Germany, 5, short bodied, small headed, white haired, hog kreek when you passed it ?"_wWby nothin' 340 miles ; in France, 2 180 miles ; in Belgium; much, a man was sittin in his door, with zara 532 miles in Russia 422 miles in Italy, 170 bench legged clothing store, and mounted shirt on, and a woman was greasin' his back miles; in Sweden, 75 miles; in Norway, 12 on "Tarpoke." a nick tailed, how-necked, an'arms, an' his head was about the size of a miles ; in Spain. 60 miles ; in Africa. 25 miles; long, poor horse, half daudy, half devil, and ten gallon keg, and he hadn't the first sight ov in India, 100 miles ; in the United States. 21.enveloped all over in a perfect net-work of an eye-all smooth.'. That main was my 528 milles : in the British Provinces, 1827

"Been much fitin' in this neighborhood, lately 3' soz the traveller. rather dryly.

"Not with speaking or pursonally or par ticulery,' sez I. Now boys, I hain't seen dad since, and would be feared to meet him in the next ten years. Let's drink." And the Inst I saw of "Sut," he was stooping to get in at the doggery door, with a lightily, mixed crowd at his heels.

A Thanksgiving Turkey.

A contriver of ways and means residing died so, died a standin' up, at that. - Warn't Down East, some years ago, being in want of, 333. The number of unles in course of conthat good pluck? Froze stiff; no not that a tarkey wherewith to be thankful according. adzactly, but starved fust, and then froze ar- to law, on the last Thursday in November, set terwards, so stiff that when dad and me pushed his wits to work to produce one without labor. him over, he just struck out so (spreading his love or monoy. Furkers as everybody knows arms and legs) like a carpenter's bench, an' are foud of apples and apple trees for their we waited seventeen days for him to thaw couch, and our hero, going in the stillness of afore we could skin 'im. Well, that we was the night, singled out a line fat goulder from a -Dad an' me (counting on his fingers)-Dad. tree with belonging to one of his neighbors. and me, and Sall, and Jako. (Fool Jake we While reconnoitering the roost, he heard the call him, fur short.) an' Jonas. an' Phineas. [feathered bipeds say distinctly "quit! quit! an' me, an' Callinia Jane. Sharlottecan, an' quit!" But considering these as words of quit!" But considering these as words of course, he did not regard them a feather, but Noah Daniel Webster, an' me, an' the twin taking a bit of red yarn from his pocket he made it fast to the leg of his intended, prize, and retired without further alarming the brood,

The next day he went to his neighbor's house was a nice mess for a 'spectable, white family with the following integrogatory :---. You hav 'nt seen no stray gobbler here; 'linve ye ?'' The neighbor answered that he had not "but there might possibly be one among his turkeys, and asked him if he should know, the turkey on seeing him.

"Oh, yes, yes." said the witty man of in ventions, "I should know him very well, by a bit of red yarn he had around his right leg.? Accordingly the whole flock of turkeys were assembled, and the man deeply regretting his loss, and declaring he would not have taken a silver dollar for the bird, began to examine the whole lotates W

"Linbhle, Golhle, Gobble," sold the inlignant turkey, taller than the rest by a head. "Ah ! that's be," said the man, springing, they please "- So out we goes to the pawpaw up as he spoke, "that's the very identical turkey: don't you see he's got the mark on f woman! if you desire health, respectability woman! if you desire health, respectability neighbor taking two onids of nig tail, in two and declining years that will not make your a and they becam him nitely : then he would neighbor, taking two quids of pig tail, in two musance, forswear consets. If you wish to minutes, fand yet I'll be darned, and toasted I found tit's a little forked piece of iron, sorter alive, if that don't look as much like a gobbler keep your clear complexion, or to obtain constit I found it's a nittle torken piece of non, sorter anye, it time done tore as many. However, as it you are careful about a prease that sugar like into a pitchfork, ye know, and we bent of mine, as two white beans. However, as not be offensive, abandon corsets. If you and twisted it sorter into a bridle bit, suafil, the critter belongs to you, why, take him,

The Railways of the United States.

NO. 17

The Merchants' Magazine contains an elaborate article in relation to the railways of the United States, as well as of the world Finn it, we learn that the number of miles of rails way now in operation upon the surface of the niles, in the Island, of Ouba, 359 miles, in a Panama. 50 miles : in South America, 60 miles. The longest railway in the world is the Illinois Central, which, with its branches, is 731miles in length and has been constructed at a cost of $15,000.000. The number of miles of rallway in the United States, exceeds the rest of the world by the amount of 2,712 miles and

The total number of railways completed in the United States, is 271; the number of rails ways in course of construction is 174: the number of miles in operation, -21,528, which have been constructed at a cost of $616.766,struction is 16.738. Second Lad quart

The State of Massachusetts has one miletofte railway to, each seven square miles of fits geographical surface, Essex county, in that State, with a geographical surface of 400 square miles, has 150 miles of railway facility which is a ratio of one mile of failway to each three squary miles of its surface, fight a bacan we

The Sin of Tight Lacing. Corsets are beginning to make a direful show in the millnery windows. Subst waists are exhibited in the streets by pills, cadiverous, grave-yard looking darlings, as if the contraction of the yital, portions of the lody, indi-cated sense or patrician origin. For several years past the use of corsets has been reputitited. much. Findeed. to the benefit, both moral and physicals of the females populations . It is to be regretted that the silliness of fashion is now to step in and make our mothers and hiture mothers the delight of dectors and adder-" takers. Iso the figure improved thy shing pinched in at the waist? Does any ong the lieve that such distortion of the frame will increase the matrimonial attraction ? No one but a stupid ignorannis would admire such disfigurement - a kind of vapid puppy, not fit to be trusted alone in the streets. No longer ago than yesterday we saw a sensible looking clorks pinkhed up in corsets to such an extent . that she could not utter, a sentence of ten words without mainful exertion. Her Innes. nutkt have been damaged beyond cure if she remained in that barness six hours." Young him, and like Elisha's servant at the gates of Damascus, he is instantly environed with troops heaven. of angels, come to take him up over the ever-their country.

Speak not, rather than speak ill.

temporal and worldly affairs : - be called the children of God.

lasting hills, in the chariot of the Ford of Hosts. is set upon a hill cannot be hid.

Interesting Facts upon the Eyes & Ears. The organ of vision is considered the most giveth light to all that are in the house. delicate organization in the human frame; yet, many who have been born blind, have been enabled to see by surgical operations, and the Father in heaven.³ following is an interesting fact concerning one of that class. A youth had become 13 years of age, when his eyes were couched by the surgeon. He thought scarlet the most beautiful the poor, and taught "peace on earth" to all color: black was paintful. He fancied every ob- mankind, illustrate his adherence to these ject touched him: and he could not distinguish truths. Going to Jerusalem, on one occusion. by sight what he perfectly well knew by feeling, he sent some of his disciples forward to a village for instance, the cat and dog .- When his second to prepare supper and lodging. The people. eye was couched, he remarked that the objects however. fearing that he was going to the temple ed only parti colored surfaces, and a miniature disciples, who applied to their Master, asking absolutely astonished him, sceming to hum like if they should not call fire from heaven to deputting a bushel into a pint.

Stanley, the organist, and many blind musi- the intemperate and misguided zeal of his cians have been the best performers of their disciples, saying, 'Your zeal is not of God, betime: and a schoolmistress in England could | cause it is not according to knowledge." How discover that two boys were playing in a distant many of our political clergy have forgotten the corner of the room, instead of studying-al- good Samaritan when they rail at Catholics, or though a person using his eyes could not de- rave against the people of the South, or hur! tect the slightest sound. Professor Sanderson, | their anathemas against those who refuse to acwho was blind, could in a few moments, tell | cept their ideas of Bible construction? how many persons were in a mixed company, That there are numbers of pious and God-fearand of each sex. A blind French lady could dance in figure dances, sew and thread her own needle. A blud man in Derbyshire, England. has actually been a surveyor and planner of we are grateful to be able to admit. They see curately as the eye to others; and the late Jusroom for the first time, after speaking a few on the sea of political polemics, the decay of words, said. "This room is about twenty-two feet long, eighteen feet wide and twelve high." all of which was revealed to him with accuracy through the medium of the ear. Verily: "We are mysteriously and wonderfully made."

THE MINIE RIFLE - The Cleveland Herald is informed by an intelligent officer of the army that the Minie Rifle ball is being adopted into our service, upon an improved plan. Instead to be made with a cavity, into which a portion of the charge of powder will be forced, and its manuscripts and autograph letters, by Messrs. armories is to be abandoned, and our troops with bayonets.

THE CLOCK IN ST. PAUL'S. LONDON.-A writer in the Foreign Quarterly thus describes uncert, signed and sealed, appointing the poet the machinery of this great London clock :- an excisemen, produced £5 12s. 6d. The other "The pendulum is fourteen feet long, and the letters and poems, all holograph, sold for high weight of the end of it is one hundred weight : prices. Among these our space only allows the dial on the outside is regulated by a smaller us to mention the following : Lot 222, letter to one within : the length of the minute hand on R. Cleghorn, with the first stanzas of "The the exterior dial is eight feet, and the weight | of each, seventy-five pounds ; the length of the hour figures, two feet and two and a half inches. The fine toned bell which strikes, is clearly distinguishable from every other bell 241, part of a letter to Mrs. Dunlop, containin the metropolis, and has been audible at the distance of twenty nules. It is about ten feet 25. 6d.: 244, part of a letter to Mrs. M'Lehose, in diameter, and is said to weigh about four and a half tons. The bell is talled on the Heaven. C7 10s.: 250. "The Brigs of Ayr," death of any member of the royal family, of the Lord Mayor. Bishop of London, or the Dean of the Cathedral. The expense for build it ing the cathedral, was over a million and a half pounds sterling.

Vulgarians always value people accord ing to their success. To men worth 10,000 dollars they bow twice as low as to one who only lays claim to five thousand. If you want an ignoranus to respect you, "these to de alt " -10s. - London Times. and wear watch seals about the size of brickbats.

"Blessed are they that are persecuted for mated the drooping courage of the Hopkins" righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of dogs, and the fight as historians often say "now became general." The Wilsons had the

"Ye are the light of the world. A city that advantage in numbers and in minitions of war. but the Hopkinses, including the dogs, were "Neither do men light a candle and put, it superior in that "indomitable courage" which is characteristic of the canine and Anglo Saxunder a bushel. but on a candlestick; and it on races, so the event of the day, for sometime. remained doubtful. But at last, Mrs. Hopkins "Let your light so shine before men that having received a shovel-thrust in the face. they may see your good works, and glorify your from Mrs. Wilson, began to fall back, at which a cry of exultation was raised by all the Wil-Many instances in the wonderful carcer of the sons, and the entire rout of the Hopkins party Son of God, who dwelt among the lowly and seemed inevitable. At the nick of time, little George Hopkins raised the inspiring cry of "Daddy is coming !" The effect was magical. Half the Wilsons immediately retreated, and the other half seemed to become nerveless. Daddy Hopkins wrenchwere not so large in appearance to this, as to of Jernsalem, refused to afford him the necessa- cd. the tongs from the hand of Wilson, and the one opened at first. Pictures he consider- ry accommodations. This greatly offended the ferociously demolished the corn broom in the hand of Wilson's mother. This was the final triumph ; the Hopkinses remained masters and stroy such inhospitable people. He reproved wagged their tails triumphantly.

But all parties, victors and vanquished, were up this morning for a breach of the peace, and gave security for their own good behaviour. and the good behaviour of their dogs and cats. The office was completely thronged with Hopkinses and Wilsons, and the Hopkins' dogs, all of whom attended to witness the upshot of the legal proceedings.-Sunday Mercury.

ing men in the ranks of the American clergy who deplore and protest against this sad pros-The number of processes through which titution of sacred functions to political purposes, a needle goes in its manufacture, is as follows: 1, wire received; 2, weighed; 3, guaged; 4. roads, his ear guiding him as to distance as ac- and they feel whither it is tending and where cut ; 5. rubbed : 6. counted : 7, poin'cd : 8. it must end: and they know that when the washed : 9, cut back : 10, pointed at the other tice Fielding, who was blind, on walking into a teachers of religion are once fully embarked up- end ; 11, examined ; 12, counted ; 13, washed 14, weighed: 15, annealed: 16, stamped: 17, national morals will mark also the approach of pressed; 18, spitted; 19, piled; 20, broken national dissolution. To these men the nation 21, heads piled; 22, oil burnt off; 23, softlooks in such a crisis as the present. They straightened: 24, evened: 25, counted; 26. have a duty to perform, at least as high as that hardened : 27. evened : 28. stropped ; 29, temto which they are primarily dedicated. They | pered ; 30, weighed ; 31, examined ; 32, pickmust save the American people from being lost in ed for crooks; 33, hard-straightened; 34, the dangers of intolerance by recalling the Amer- counted : 35, scoured with seven emeries. ican clergy to a sense of their duly to God and washed and evened between each ; 36, washed and dried; 37, weighed; 38, evened; 39, headed : 40. weighed ; 41. ground at the point : AUTOGRAPHS OF ROBERT BURNS -At the 42, weighed ; 43, scoured with one emery and sale of the late Mr. Pickering's collection of glazed : 44, weighed : 45, washed and dried : 46, weighed : 47, evened : 48, headed : 49, explosion does the whole work of spreading the Sotheby and Wilkinson, in Wellington street, picked for waste set; 50, weighed by count ; ball, so as to completely stag or fill the rifled were some highly interesting relics of the poet 51, set: 52, examined; 53, weighed for drilbore of the gan, and drive it on its mission Burns, which realized extraordinarily high tlers : 54, blued : 55, drilled : 55, rubbed : 57. of death. The manufacture of muskets in our prices. The greatest attraction was lot 277. weighed from drilling : 58, examined : 59. being the celebrated "Scots what hae wi' Walrounded by finishing; 60, finished once; 61. are to be armed with the improved Minie rifles lace bled," written in a fine bold hand. as if rubbed : 62, finished again ; 63, rubbed : 64 the subject had inspired the very handwriting examined : 65, counted in 25's ; 66, papered :

of the bard : this sold for thirty pounds, and [67, labelled ; 68, tied up ; 69, collected ; 70, was purchased for America. The original docpacked up.

Mr. Cooper. in his "Dictionary of Surgery," gives the following infallible cure for corns, which may be found very valuable at this particular season. Take two ounces of on runnin'. Kerslunge into the kreek he went. fum ammoniac. two of yellow wax, and six I seed the water fly plum above the bluff from Chevalier's Lament," £5 2s. 6d.; 225. letter drachms of verdigris ; melt them together, and to Mrs. Dunlop, thanking her for friendly critspread the composition on soft leather; cut away as much of the corn as you can, then there's nary hoss ever fonled durn'd fool icism. "Not the blasting depredations of a canker toothed caterpillar critic." £5 12s. 6d.; apply the plaster, and renew it every fortnight this the corn is away.

ing "Auld lang Syne." and other verses, £9 Boiled Potatoes should never be covered thar war dad's fald head. for all the yearth, with a dish after coming from the pot in which like a péeled onion. a bobhin up an' down, and they are conted. as they will assuredly be the hornets sailin' an' a circlin' round turkey £6 5s.: 276, "On Cessnock Banks a Lassie come "soggy." Better allow them to remain buzzard fashion, an' every once in a while one, dwells." and "Auld lang Syne." on one leaf, in the pot, after pouring off the water, placed and concetimes ten, 'ud make a dip at dad's 10 10s. In the same sale three autograph as near to the fire as will keep them moderate- head. He kept up a right peart dodgin' under. letters, addressed by Dr. Johnson to Ryland, ly hot. Potatoes are spoiled by tight cover sold for £12 16s. (id.: a collection of letters to) placed over them after boiling.

Lord Ligonier, Master General of the Ordnance, j Delamparter, the murderer of officer Ferproduced seventeen pounds; and Joseph Ritguson, of Pittsburg, died lately in Missouri, son's Bibliographia Scotica, with an autograph fioin a lever brought on by remorse. note to George Chalmers, requesting him to deliver it into the hands of Walter Scott, £10;

cation.

"I seed now that he war aimin' for the swimmin' hole in the kreek, whar the bluff is over twenty-five feet perpendikler to the water, an'

it's nigh unto ten feet deep. - Well, to keep up his character as a hoss, when he got to the bluff, he jist leaped off, or rather he jist keep war I was. Now, rite thar. boys, he overdid the thing, if that was what he was arter, for enough to loye over 'em', such a place; a cussed mule mout a done it, but dad warn't a acting inule. I crept up to the edge and looked over sometime arter, an' the water was kivered with drowned hornets. . What on yearth are yer see these cussed (dip) infernal varmints

(dip) atter me ?' 'What,' sez I, 'them are hoss ⁺ nite, an' I'll feed ye. I sorter think you won't upon it.

He said no more, but caught the turkey, and handed him over-as he supposed-to his rightful owner. The other thanked him for his trouble, and after inviting him to come and about.) then I put on the geers, and out dad take a thanksgiving supper with him; telling tion of the human race, and corsets are famous and me goes to the field. I a femilin' dad by him he should be as welcome to a bit of the the bridle, and a totin the gopher plough on unkey. as though it were his own, he marched my back .- When we cam to the fence. I let off triumphandly, with his prize under his arm,

Rather Suspicious.

Sam .---- Julius, when you missed your dog, how did you find out what he went to?...

Julius -- Why. you see, Sam, I was (walkin at de north end, de odder day, and saw a large string où sassengers hangin outside de door ob a butcher's shop. 'I walked by two or three times, and de fourth time I whistled-and lor, gosh o'mighty, Sam, de way dem, sussengers curled up was a kaushun to this child. I didn't want to hurt de man's feelings, but I knew what had bekome of de dog.

Poor Boy's COLLEGE. - The Printing Office Gewhillicans ! how he did run ! When he cum poor boy. has graduated more useful and conall : p'raps he thought there mout be another more intellect and turned it into practical, usesettlement of bald hornets in it, and that it ful channels, awakened more mind, generated was safer to go over than thro', and quicker more active and clevated thought, than many done ; every now and then he'd paw the sides of the literary colleges of the country. How of his head with fast one fore leg and then many a dunce has passed through these coltother, then he'd gin hunself an open handed leges with no taughtle proof of fitness other than his inanimate piece of parchment : hinrunnin' all the time, and a carrin' that gopher self, if possible more inanimate than his leather and yelling to the wall. Stannard was made jist about as fast and as high from the yearth diploma! There is something, in the very as ever a gopher was carried, I swar. When a tinosphere of a printing office calculated to mwaken the minds and inspire a thirst for knowledge. A boy who commences in such a and a breakin' the rales mitily, and here he school, will have his talents and ideas brought left gopher, geers, single-tree, and klevis, all out ; if he has no mind to draw out, the boy mixed up. not woth a durn. Most of his shirt himself will be driven-out.-N. Y. Glube.

DR. JOHXSON'S COURTSHIP .- While Dr. Samuel Johnson was courting his intended wife. in order to try her, he told her "that he had no property : and moreover, he once had an old uncle that was hanged." To which the ever did see. - Doun thru' the sedge grass they lady replied "that she had no more property all went, the hornets making it sorter look than he had : and as to her relatives, although like smoke all roun' dad's hald head, and he she never had one that was hanged, she had 'a number that deserved to be !"

> WHAT NEXT? - The celebrated Dr. Hines has turned up at New Orleans. The Delfa says : "The celebrated Dr. Hines will deliver a lecture on Saturday evening, at the American Theatre. The subject of the lecture is rather a startling one: Penitentiary crueitics and murders ? As the doctor has had quite an extensive experience of penitentiary life, having been sundry times an involuntary guest in those institutions, and being, withal, a person of intelligence and profound erudition, his lecture cannot fail to be an interesting one."

lapse of ages. Another replies that it all de- of decided ability and large landed in cresis. pends on the kind of ages selected. Those from 18 to 25 it puts down as extra hazardous.

IPI hold it to be a fact, says Pascal, that if persons knew what was said of each other, thousand and sixty. there would not be four friends in the world. This is manifest from the disputes to which ye doin' in thar, dad ?' sez I. 'Don't (dip) indiscreet reports from one to another give rise.

()n the line of railroad now building an age of improvement. flies thar-ye aint really feared are ye ?'- from Kenigsberg to the Lake of Constance, over Well. dad, you'll have to stay rite thar till two thousand horses are continually employed paper forming his letter had cost him five shill-

-if you are careful about a breath that shall ... would not be acquainted with the most awful disense, such as would make death welcome instead of terrible, do not girille yourself with corsets." It is nobody's business, you may say, but your own ... There's the missakes his is every body's business to prevent, the deteriorain that work." Avoid the corseled female, gentle wileseeker: an you would a pentleme. Make pourself, agreeably to stout which's multifaces that look as if, they were not galvanized into existence. N. P. Post. 1. F is another deal H with TAL Guilford Connection is a stone house which is the oldest in the United States. It was mised in the old Indian war before the res ofntion, as a fort, Alwart tronty milescenst of the stone house, on the "Homininasuck" river, lived a man whose name was Stanpard. By some means he had mide himself about tous to the Indians, and they therefore seized him and held a council, at which it was determined to burn him. 'A hot fire was accordingly made and a stake, and Stamard, with his arms." bound with thongs behind him, waited to be has indeed proved a better College to many a cooked, while the Indians went through with poor boy, has graduated more useful and con-spicuous members of society, has brought out ing a "puppone" from the back of a squaw, tosted him into the middle of the fire, and the long-legged Yunkee leaned for the stone house. Whether he made his mile in 2.40, more or less, we know not: history and tradition are silent. The doors of the stone house closed in ution Stannard fust as the whole tribe came howfing safe, but the papunse was rejusted & an and an

> A GREAT FIRE IN LAPAYETTE, INDIANA --Two Men Burned to Death .-- On Monday inght week a fire broke out at Lafayette, Indiana, in the block of buildings oc-upied by. Messrs. Rose & Son and E. M. Weaver & Co., which destroyed the warehouses of those gentlemen, and the stores of two or three other persons in the same block. The warehouses were full of produce, and the damage to property caused by fire, it is thought, cannot fall short of $50,000. Mr. Rose, the proprietor of one of the warehouses, and an Irishman attached to the establishment of Messrs. Weaver & Co., are reported to have perished in the flames. Both were in their stores at the time the fire broke out, but were unable to effect their escape. 👘

A COSTLY FLOWER. - The New York Mirror says : "A Fifth avenue young lady, well known in fashionable society, was the recipient, on New Year's day, of the most elegant flowergift we have ever seen in this or any other country. It was made in the shape of an elab-orately wrought table, with an octagonal base, enclosing a canary bird suspended under the central liasket in a beautiful cage. The flowers were of the richest and rarest-native and exorie-and we are told that the cost of this TPAn exchange paper asks very innocently, supreme piece of folly was nearly $200! The if it is any harm for young ladies to sit in the party who sent it is reputed to be a financier

> Three hundred and twenty six Revolutionary Pensioners died during the past year. The number now on the pension roll is one

> CTA Yankee in Iowa has just taught-ducks to swim-in hot water, and with such success that they lay boiled eggs. Who says this is not ings.

