

Br heyny is STMLLE.
 $37^{\text {TII }}$ YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, JANUARY $29,1855$.
NO. 18

| TIE YOUNG REBEL.  A Tale of the Carolinas.  bx J. N. sandrrs. |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  |  |
| the yar 1780 , sat an old man. his wife, and |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| country now! Congress needs every arn thatis capable: ah! me, I wish this oid wound I |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| The old lady ceased kniting and gazed in-quiringly at her boy. and it was evident, fromuie cxpression of her face, that parioitim and motherly niffection were at viriance in her |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| lige when vorir country needs your services so Twice before this $I$ have espoken to you upon |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|   say, is one quarter composed of boys of David |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| ".What will not woman) do" he a t latet mut |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| lean him that ho has a son who possesses the spiri feel that I amin called upon to act., no long- |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| light showed that the family had not retired, and he resolved to pay her a visit before his departure. |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| departure. words alone when he entered, and a few words acguainted her of his determination |  |  |
| She harst into tars. chat "May, Mary,", he said, "you must not in. man me. At tirst 1 I resolved to leave you |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|    |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| dreadful defeat at Camden I feel that every man is wanted by our zounryy Goo then.daracest, and may Good be with you: $1y |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  approccling footsteps, wrung her hand and was |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|    hat as the interenening country was filled with the eteny. he hnout here would he consider- able address recuired to eflec his purbose. abe address required to cifted his pripose. play mates, who prounised to follow him as soon |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  | A Whonesale Thers.-The Whithall ( N . |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| Night found him near a !onely farm-house.   |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  | has stoen a stream of water num a |
| same political creed, and was immediately   |  |  |
|    | A man with blanched check now rushed |  |
|  |  |  |
| to find what he supposed a new recruit for his party. drank without stint; and became more |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| led by Major Wilson. celebrated for his toryismand ruthlessiness. were to start early the ensu- |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| to be assured that no mercy sould be shownhis friends; he also knew enough of the character of the Manoo to suspect that sonne strong |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  nearer honice. He accordingly teet himself todiscorer fiom his half inetriacel companion | Long and desperate was the batte. |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| discorer from his half ineloriated companion the truit. Nor was it long before success |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| theres these fellows' sioter. wixcd thp withl the |  |  |
| is ecry pretty they say, and the Major, whenshe was down heet on a visit lasty yer-tereore |  |  |
|  |  |  |
| the war-wanted to mary leer but she would have notuing to say th him. Ever sincet he has |  |  |
|  now. Thank Heaven! there's no law any |  |  |
|  |  |  |
|  |  |  |

