So We Go!

Mr. Leigh, a member of the New York Legislature, recently renounced Know Nothingism, in the following language:-

"Mil. Leigh: I came here, and stand before you, the representative of 50,000 men. I do not come here as the representative of a band of midnight conspirators, who assemble in the dark four (in Secret halls, barred and bolted and sentineled,) when good men are at the faiiile hearth, or engaged in pursuits of honest infinitry; or works of benevolence and mercy.

"In what I say, Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to be understood as denouncing all who belong to this Order. Af I did so, I should denounce myself; and certainly a man should respect himself. I know very many good ditizenssome of the very best-who are attached to that organization; and it was under the influence of some of these, my warm personal friends, that in an unguarded moment, I connected myself with the Order. But, as an atonement, I here, in this Capitol and before the free representatives of a free people, and in the sight of heaven, under the American flag that now proudly waves over us, and in the presence of the great Washington whose memory I revere, before whose portrait I now stand, say, that in doing so, I did a dishonorable act, of which I most heartily repent, and ask the country to forgive me; and I here before heaven and my countrymen declare myself absqived from all connection with and allegiance to the fraternity.' A host of others who are now restrained from leaving the Order by the promises or daths they have taken, will soon learn that a promise or oath to do that which is unjust or inlawful, is neither legally nor morally binding. They will then hasten to repair the injury they did to themselves and to society when they became members of this proscriptheir membership and using their influence to the country. Know Nothing Objects and Tactics.

It is said there is more rejoicing in the Know-Nothing wigwams over the initiation into "the it will retain its position without change. Order" of one Democrat, then there is over that of minety and mine Whigs who need no renovagreat object of the founders of Know-Nothingism is to distract and prostrate the Democratic party, and thereby destroy its influence and crush its power. To accomplish this, they have not scrupted to appeal to the worst and most inalignant passions and prejudices in man's nature; and rather than fail in their unhely purposes, they would willingly array citizen against citizen in a war of races or of hests and follow where they lead, but to proselyte a democrat, and by his defection weaken both heaven and earth, and leave no stone un-

But can such bold, bad men, in a free and enlightened country like ours, succed in effecting their nefarious designs, and in trampling upon the civil and religious liberties of a numerous and respectable body of citizens? Will the people aid in elevating to power hosts of corrupt and troken down politicians, and windy and hypocritical clerical demagogues, who only flatter to deceive and who only seek for power that they may betray? Will they permit the old Democratic party, which has faithfully advocated their interests and jealously guarded their rights for more than three quarters of a century, to be prostrated and trodden under foot by a horde of selfish and unprincipled men, banded together for a common purpose and bound to secrecy by wicked and unlawful oaths? No, God forbid! the neople may for a time be deceived and led astray, erring thro' ignorance and not from any want of patriotism, but when reason shall have resumed its sway, and the "sober second thought' shall influence men's conduct, the reaction will be terrible. Then will the demagogues who have sought to win for themselves honors and power by pandering to the baser passions of human nature, bigotry and intolerance, be driven back into their original insigficance, and their names consigned to merited oblivion, or only remembered with loathing

With the disruption and prostration of Know-Nothingism, then again will the Democratic party, purged of its rotten and unworthy members, and restored to its pristine strength and parity, go on as in days of vore, conquering and to conquer, advocating and defending, as it has always done, the rights and interests of the people, as well as the true principles of republicanism .- Carlisle Volunteer.

The Know-Nothings of New Hampshire have nominated for Governor, Ralph, Metcalph. Will it be believed that this same individual, now the nomince of a party bound by secret oaths to war against citizens on account of their religion; actually voted in 1852 for the following resolution:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Rep--resentatives in General Court convened, That the provisions of our State Constitution commonly called the Religious Test, which makes the profession of a certain religious faith an eascalial qualification for certain offices, is unjust, unlirepublican, contrary to the spirit of the present age, and when the proper time arrives for again calling a convention to revise the Constitution, we will spare no efforts to induce the people to assent to the abrogation of a princi-ple which should find no place in the Lonstitu-tion of a free State."

"Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has again, for the third time lately. "defined his position." on the slavery question. The following is given as a brief programme of his the late exciting debate in the Senate, on Friday night week. He wishes the fugitive act repealed; slavery in the District of Columbia abolished; the William proviso established; all new slave States excluded ; all connection between the general government and slavery abolished, and agitation of slavery continued . until these objects are accomplished. He miderstands these views to correspond with those of the Know-Nothings as a party, so far as they have taken any position on the question.

The Morning Heald exults over a Know-Nothing victory achieved in Johnstown, Canbria Co., Pa. Is the editor aware that one of the justices of the Peace elected by the K. N.S. Ban Lishman, born on the turf of Erm, in la resident of ordy about thelve years more owntry? And is he also aware that nearly all the na oralized citizens of Johnstown voted the know-Nothing ticket! These are facts, and go far to illustrate the "gionous triumplis" over which our neighbor boasts .- Harrisburg Pa-

The York Pennsylvanian, a Temperance paper, is "down on" the Promiseory Know Nothings. It says they would sacrifice Prohibition on the moment they supposed it would interfere in the least with Know Nothington. Interfere in the least with Know Northington.

House, New York, dated Jan. 5th 1854. To Professor Holloway, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York. Sir,-It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to-no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when I was at last recommended to take your Pills. After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as ever I was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others. I remain, Sir, yours respectfully.
