Ex-Presid of Fillmore. - A correspondent of the Buff, Democracy (a whig paper) asinto the of Ler of Know-Nothings, at his resi- petitors. dence, in that city, in January last, by a committee appointed for the purpose, whose names he gives. The Albany Evening Journal, in commenting upon this statement, remarks that Mr. Fillmore was formerly an ardent anti-masonic politician, and was originally elected to office by that party.

ENGLAND AND AMERICA. - An able nrticle in the last number of the Westmintser Review, upon the Constitutions and Governments of the various countries of the earth, says that it is "no longer England, but the North American Republic, that has become the pole-star to which, from all sides, the eye of struggling nations turns." A significant admission to come from an English source.

Bound for the Penitentiary .- We see it stated that the good people of Walden, Vermout-not satisfied with having voted down the Know-Nothings at the recent electionhave arrested the leader of the order in that town, and have had him bound over for violating the statute law of the State, against the administration of extra judicial oaths. He is to be tried in June.

Manure Excavator.

THE subscriber, having purchased the Patent Right of HURSH'S PATEN'E MANURE EXCAVATOR for all of Adams. county excepting Oxford Conowago, Barwick and Mountjoy townships, will sell either the machines or township rights, as purchasets may prefer. The Excavator also answers an admirable purpose in unloading hay, by horse power, requiring but one horse and two hands to unload a load of hay in ten minutes, and carry it to the highest part of the barn. The attention of farmers is invited to this valuable improvement, as it is one of the cheapest and most usoful ügricultural implements ever in-H. G. CARR. troduced.
