School Celebration.

To the Editor of the "Compiler." Sin :- (in last Monday, (the 28th.) I had bration of ROBERT A. LYTTLE'S. Teacher at Diehl's, where a stand was erected for the oc- Milford Beacon: casion. beautifully decorated with wreaths and istaction of all present. Yours. &c. A SPECTATOR.

The following is the concluding part of an Address issued by the Bishops of the Catholic Church, recently assembled in council at Baltimore, to the laity. The gentleman who communicates it to the National Intelligencer declares that he has for nearly forty years attended a Catholic Church, and that he has never heard, from pulpit or altar, a word or sentence conflicting or inconsistent with the sentiments and principles of this address. It inculcates true Christian charity and love:

Church Troubles in Boston.

The trouble in Christ (Episcopal) Church at Boston, in relation to the right of proprietorship and official authority, still continues. On Saturday the opponents of the rector. having resolved that he should not officiate on Sunday. placed heavy locks on the church door, and stationed constables to see they were not removed. This brought together a large crowd. and soon after the rector, Rev. Mr. Smithett, attempted to enter at the door.

The sexton, it is alleged, offered to open the door for him, but the rector, refusing to recognize his authority, would not allow him to do so, but proceeded to kick his way through the panels, and made his entrance in this manner. On the sexton's attempting to enter he was was no further violence nothing was done. Four sworn constables were subsequently placed on duty at the church to preserve order. The large padlock put upon the front door on Saturday by one party, on Sunday morning was wrenched off, probably by the other party. The rector's party remained in possession at last dates. Mr. Smithett preached on Sunday without interruption.

Will of the Late Czar.

A holograph will -- or, to follow the indorsenent, the last wishes-of the late Emperor Nicholas-written in 1844, has been published as St. Petersburg. The first clause is a kind of address to his family. After enumerating the various kinds of property belonging to the Empress, his wife, the Emperor expresses a wish that her majesty shall retain for her life the use of her apartments in the different palaces, and the clause concludes as follows:

"The legacy which I bequeath to my children is to love and honor their mother; to do everything to promote her tranquility; to anticipate all her wishes, and to endeavor to render her old age happy by their devoted attentions. Never must they undertake anything of dence and esteem of our tellow cuizens. Importance without first asking her advice and feet, making a total wreck of the whole mill.

Anti-Liquor Law Meeting in Boston.

The meeting on Monday evening, at Faneuil Hall, in opposition to the new Liquor Law, was large and enthusiastic. Delegations from New Bedford, Lowell, Cambridge, Worcester, and other places were present, accompanied by bands of music. Oliver Frost, of Boston, presided, assisted by fifty Vice-Presidents and ten Secretaries. The principal speakers were Isaac H. Wright, of Boston, and Edward A. Vose. Twenty resolutions, embodying the spirit of the meeting, were adopted. The following are the first and last:

Resolved, That the recently enacted so-called Maine Liquor Law is a compound of fanaticism, folly and political corruption.

Resolved, That we will protect the property the reputation and the freedom of the citizens of this Commonwealth, which are guaranteed to them by the bill of rights.

> SHOCKING CATASTROPHE. - The Fort Wayne (Ind.) Sentinel of the 19th ult., says: A melancholy accident occurred on Thursday afternoon last. Two little boys; sons of George Rapp, blacksmith, in the absence of their father, went into the blacksmith-shop and kindled a fire. The younger, a fine little boy about three years old, climbed on the hearth, and his clothes catching fire, he was so shockingly burnt that he died the same evening. When discovered he was in a most deplorable condition, his entire body being burnt to a crisp.

> FAMINE IN LOWER CANADA.—The editor of the Montreal Commercial Advertiser has been shown letters from ministers and others in the eastern and western townships, which describe the amount of want existing among all classes, from the scarcity of breadstuffs, as frightful in the extreme. In some parts scurvy has made its appearance.

> MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY .- Tom Thumb, the celebrated little great man, was married at Webster, on Thursday last, to a Miss Vinton, of Bridgeport, Ct. An attempt was made to keep it from the public, but somehow it leaked out through some of the company, who were a little indiscreet after imbibing pretty freely of Heidseick, which Dr. Kirkham had provided for the occasion .- Boston Herald.

CHOLERA AT NEW ORLEANS .- The New Orleans papers of the 26th ult. record several very sudden deaths from cholera. Mons. Godard, the celebrated æronaut, who was alive and well on the night of the 25th, was a corpse the next morning. Hugh Grant, a well known engineer, and late city surveyor, also died after a few hours' illness.

An Expensive Accident.—The cost of the Norwalk disaster to the New York and New Haven railroad has been $280,000, and there are still unsettled claims against the company outstanding. It will not probably escape liabilities and losses on account of that terrible affair short of $300,000.

A letter writer from New York says there is more chance of the price of flour declining one dollar in that city, than advancing twentyfive cents. If so, those interested had better make a note of the fact.

There are twelve railroads which terminate and pass through the city of Chicago, and it is said that every twenty-four hours ten thousand strangers arrive in that city.

HARD TIMES.—The receipts of Grisi's 17 concerts in Boston, amounted to $45,000. A mocking bird was sold in Philadelphia last Tuesday for $47, and a poodle dog for $25.

THE LOCUST BLOSSOMS .- The locust trees everywhere are very full of blossoms, which is said to be an unerring indication of an unusually heavy corn crop. We hope such may be the case, but we would like to have some knowledge of the reasons upon which it is
