Know-Nothing Bets and Calculations. In summing up the result of the recent election in Virginia, the editor of the Washington Globe tells some homely truths. He says:

"We have been a close observer of elections throughout the length and breadth of the United States for thirty-one years, and never saw one before that so convulsed the people of the District. They used the 'fool's argument' freely, and many of them have been ruined.—The know-nothings' were confident of success, and het two to one on the result. It is believed that they lost in this District more than $100.000 on the result. We are told by persons who ought to know that those living on the square next west of our office lost $41,000. They based their bets on calculations that they had 72.-(100 in their order in Virginia, which, without any outsiders, would give them 15.000 majority over the largest vote ever cast in the State. But the best calculations of wise men have often failed; and, it is, therefore, not surprising that a 'know-nothing' calculation shall prove to be fallacious. They had a brilliant calculation behind this, which was, that if they should carry Virginia, by a large majority, then all the drift-wood would float out into their current, and they would elect their candidate the next President of the United States. This calculation would have been a good one if their first contingency had happened. But as that has proved erroneous, we think we may safely say that the 'Old Dominion' has 'scotched the snake' and killed it."

The Examiner on Pollock Again!

The Independent Whig took the Lancaster Examiner to task for criticising Gov. Pollock's appointments: and alleges, on the authority of the Harrisburg Herald, that Mr. Darlington was himself an applicant for office, and feels sore because of his disappointment. Of course this is all gammon-and the Examiner of Wednesday pitches into them, Governor and all, in the following caustic strain:

The Harrisburg Herald is published by the Rev. Stephen Miller, Gov. Pollock's Flour Inspector, and is regarded as the Governor's organ. We now pronounce its assertion that the editor of this paper was an applicant for office under Gov. Pollock, a wilful and delibalthough we can hardly be brought to believe the Governor has got so low as to resort to such means of defence. Nevertheless, he is responsible for the language of his organ, and unless he causes it promptly to retract, we shall be obliged to exhibit the Governor of Pennsylvania in a very humiliating position.

The editor of the Examiner did feel an interest in the success of one or two gentlemen who were applicants for appointment to inspectorships—gentlemen whom we knew to be qualified for the respective posts for which they applied-whose long and unremitted zeal in behalf of Whig principles, and whose un-flinching fidelity to the Whig flag in the darkest hours of adversity, seemed to entitle them to remembrance in the day of prosperity. They were original "Pollock-men," too: the men who "set the ball in motion" which carried the present incumbent into the executive chair. When these gentlemen were all passed coldly by and the most lucrative office in the inspectorship of flour was given to a canting, of his well as hypocritical preacher like the publisher of the elsewhere. Herald, to the exclusion of meritorious practical men-when other lucrative offices were bestowed upon locofocos who left their party because they were not considered worth the fodder for which they incessantly bawled-we felt vexed and mortified, and as is our custom, expressed our thoughts in plain language. The Governor's organ can only reply by fabricating the mean falsehood that our remarks were owing to disappointed personal aspirations.

If the publisher of the Herald holds the flour inspectorship in consideration of "bearing false witness" against those who dare to speak boldly their opinion of the acts of his master, it is perhaps well he got it. A high minded man would not hold the office on such terms; and the Governor probably knew he was getting a proper instrument for the duty required to be performed.

Remains of the Past-Extract from Whig "Hard Cider" Song of 1840.

One of our democratic country contemporaries has recently come across a whig hard cider song book of 1840 memory. From one of its effusions it makes the following eloquent extract, which we commend to the attention of our readers as a specimen of whig blarney of Irishmen then very common:

"Here's to our fathers and mothers, Likewise to ould Ireland too. Down with Martin Van Buren, And up with Old Tippecanoe!"

The whigs who sang that song in 1840 are now know nothings? It takes the whigs to make political sonnets .- Cin. Enq.

ABOLITION BLASPHEMY.—It makes the blood curdle in the veins to read the horrible blasphemies of some of the Abolition Leaders of the Know-Nothing Order. Here is one that is to appear in our columns, were it not to show the public the true character of these abominable infidels. Henry Ward Bercher calls Garrison "my dear brother Garrison," and Garriwhich says, "If God has the power to abolish slavery, and does not, he is a very great scoundrel." Such are the blasphemous sentiments uttered by the abolition organ, and yet movement, and endorse his actions by their

A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBIL-ITY, OF 10 YEARS' STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Copy of a Letter from Capt. John Johnson, Astor

House, New York. dated Jan. 5th 1854. To Professor Holloway, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York. Str. -It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when I was at last recommended to take your Pills. After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as ever I was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others."

I remain, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) JOHN JOHNSON. These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacions
