At'10 o'clock the procession marched around the Diamond and was arranged in ranks at the Southeast Corner, when the Flag, intended for the Independent Blues, was presented to them by Mr. SAMUEL A. HOLMAN in behalf of the Ladies, and received by Capt. Reco, in behalf of the company. The Flag is a most beautiful one, and reflects the greatest, credit upon our fair friends. We are glad to have secured a report of both the addresses upon this occasion, and here with present them to our readers:

THE PRESENTATION SPEECH. CAPTAIN !-

I am commissioned by the Ludies of Gettysburg to present to the "Independent Blues" this emi blem of our National Sovereignty. In the performance of this duty allow me to observe that they desire in this manner to express their regard for vourselves; their approval of the object of your organization, and their devotion in our happy and Heaven favored land. Their sphere is not amid the rude commerce of camps, and the soul-hardening struggles of political power, but in an humbler path they would ondeavor to relieve, by their kind attentions, the harsher spirit which engenders in the fierce conflict of life, You have an evidence in this gift. that you are not alone in the belief that your purpose, is as prudent as it is patriotic. War appears to be as much the usual condition of mankind as peace-and he is a short-sighted patriot, who would not prepare for those dangers which are liable at any time to befall his country --while reason and experience prove that a disciplined soldiery is far more effective than the untrained bravery of the line. But there is an intention manifested on the part of the givers which you will no doubt, appreciate as highly as any in the gift. It is an expression of gravitude for the blessings, with which a kind Providence has favored us. Here is the Ensign of Freedom. We would be unworthy of favor did we forget the meaning of those words. For almost 79 years our National Flag has been floating in the breeze. to National greatness, and now upon this our with you, to make a mingled offering at the shrine | (Three cheers.) of treedom. It shall be our endeavor to MERIT this compliment, and should we succeed in our efforts, then again will there be attributable to FRMALE INFLU-ENCE, the triumph of order, peace and good will, And let not such an aspiration, emanating as it does from a MILITARY corps, be deemed an anomaly: for though the soldier is often called upon to mingle in scenes of blood and carnage, yet he bears no rancor in his heart-whilst he strikes, he pities and would spare And although in times gone by "the pride and pomp and circumstance of glorious war' marked the path way to glory and renown, in our own times in this age of general intelligence, civil-zation and christianity, a chaplet of olive receives much more homage than the laureled wreath of the victor.

THE MARCH FROM TOWN TO THE GROVE. The Procession then marched through the principal streets, proceeding down Chambers burg street to Washington, up Washington to Middle, up Middle to Liberty, down Liberty to York, up York to Baltimore, and out Baltimore to "Spangler's Grove." A sudden shower at this time seemed to mar the festivity of the day, but it only lasted for a few moments. and the weather during the remainder of the day was delightful.

Before dinner a public meeting of the Milifollowing officers were chosen:

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York. Sur,—It with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to ir form you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my ship, to me, but all to no purpose; and had given commended to take your Pills. After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for

I remain, Sir, yours respectfully. (Signed), JOHN JOHNSON.
