

To the Editor of the Star.

DEAR SIR—You will pardon the liberty I have taken in addressing you another letter on the subject of Catholics, Know Nothings and politics...

When on your recent tour North, you recollect that, owing to defective manuscript hastily dashed off, your Niagara letter contained some historical blunders, which, on your return home, and at the suggestion of your tutor, S. you willingly and promptly corrected...

At its last sitting, in May last, in that city, took this very subject matter into consideration, and on the 13th day of the same month, the Prelates that composed the said Council, issued a Pastoral Letter, in which, among other things, they exhorted all under their charge to "Respect and obey the constituted authorities, for all power is from God, and they that resist, resist the ordinance of God, and purchase for themselves damnation..."

This you were well aware of when you penned those startling lines concerning the individual opinions of Mr. Brownson, but instead of halting it as a rebuke to those who had been prating so vociferously about the "temporal power of the Pope," "obedience to a foreign potentate," and "no allegiance to any Government," you had the effrontery to respond to it somewhat in this manner:—"But the whole history and practice of the Catholic Church here and elsewhere negative the patriotic sentiments contained in the said Pastoral—that Archbishop Kenrick and the rest of the Prelates are subject in all things to the Pope—must come and go at his bidding, and acknowledge him as infallible..."

Yes, sir, this is the summary manner in which you disposed of the Patriotic, American and conservative sentiments of the dignitaries of the Church some time ago; now you are heard loudly calling on this same American Catholic Church for rebukes and disavowals and definitions, with all the apparent sincerity and devotion of the Pharisee.

Again very respectfully yours, W. For the Compiler.

Ma. Editor:—I perceive that the editor of the Star of your place is threatened with a release of a bargain entered into before the last Presidential election, on the part of the Democratic party and the Catholic Priesthood...
