"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAU." TWO DOLLARS A-TEAR. BY HENRY J. STAHLE. -----A Family Newspaper---Devoted to Politics. Agriculture, Literature, Arts and Srieures, The Markets, General Domestic and Foreign Intelligence, Advertising, Amasement, &c. GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, AUGUST 27, 1855. 37TH YEAR. NO. 48. Pen and Scissors. WOULD YOU? The Patent Safe-A Machine to Gull TERMS OF THE COMPILER. The Man-Monkey in Brazil. A Story for Our Own Times. Greenhorns with. A venerable Hollander, after having occupied The captain of the French schooner Adrienne, Republican Compiler is published IT Eat sparingly, and dely the physician. Baby crowing on your knee. There are undoubtedly many who have and every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STAILE, all the offices of one of the principal cities of the who last summer was stationed at Pernambu-While you sing some little ditty. at $1,75 per annum if paid in advance-$2,00 republic with great honor, and having amassed co, Brazil, gives the following sketch of a tame some who have not read in the daily papers of JFAn idle man is a bolster for the devil. Pulls your hair or thumps your "ce," per annum-if not paid in advance. No sub- a large fortune in the most unexceptionable monkey :persons, coming from the country to our city, MT Homer lived one thousand years before Would you think it wasn't pretty ? scription discontinued, unless at the option of manner, finally formed the resolution of going . A short time ago I dined at a Brazilian Tell me, could you ? Christ. to terminate his days tranquilly at his country merchant's. The conversation turned upon ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates. seat. But, before retiring, he wished to take the well tutored chimpanze of Mr. Vanneck's, the publisher. until all arrearages are paid.

dispatch.

and Office on South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Court House.

Choice Poetry.

LIKING AND DISLIKING.

BY CHARLES SWAIN. Ye who know the reason tell me How it is that instincts still Prompt the heart to like --or not like --At its own capricious will? Tell mo by what hidden magic Our impressions first are led Into liking—or disliking— Oft before a word is said ?

Why should smiles sometimes repel us-Bright eyes turn our feelings cold, What is that which comes to tell us All that glitters is not gold ? Oh. no feature, plain or striking, But a power we cannot shun, Prompts our liking or disliking, Ero acquaintance hath begun !

Is it instinct—or some spirit Which protects us, and controls Every impulse we inherit By some sympathy of souls? Is it instinct ?—is it nature ? Or some freak or fault of chance, Which our liking or disliking, Limits to a single glance !

Like presentiments of danger, Though the sky no shadow (tings; Or that inner sense, still stranger, Of unseen-unottered things! Is it-O, can no one tell moo one show sufficient cause our liftings-and dislikings-Have their own instinctive laws

Select Miscellany.

"It Can't be Helped." "Can't be helped," is one of the thousand convenient phrases with which men cheat and guests from giving themselves up to their full deceive themselves. It is one in which the joy, rose and addressed them thus : helpless and the idle take refuge as their_last and only comfort ?--it can't be helped ! Your for the favor which you have granted me.-It energetic man is for helping everything. If is time I should retire myself, and leave you to he sees an evil, and clearly discerns its cause, your liberty. But before the ball commences, he is for taking steps forthwith to remove it. (which I have ordered to be prepared for those He busies himself with ways and means, de- who love the dance, permit me to acquaint you vises practical plans and methods, and will with the design I proposed to myself in invitnot let the world rest until he has done some- ing you to a repast, which appear d so odd.thing in a remedial way. The indolent man I have wished to give you an idea of our Re-

JOB WORK done, neatly, cheaply, and with leave of his friends and connections, and accord- a creole gentleman, whose stave had brought ingly invited them all to a feast at his house. him the monkey, which he had caught in the The guests who expected a most sumptions woods. Every one praised the accomplished repast. were much surprised, on entering the animal-giving accounts of its talents so woneating room, to see there a long oaken table, derful that I could not help expressing some hardly covered with a coarse blue cloth. On incredulity. My host smiled-saying that I very game of which they have heard so much-being seated, they were served on wooden was not the first who would not believe in The sharpers who practice the "patent safe plates, with salted herrings, rye bread and but- these results of animal, education until he had game" are keen fellows, and try to maintain an ter, with some cheese and curdled milk. Wood- seen with his own eyes. -- He therefore pro-en vases filled with small beer, were passed posed to me to call with him on Mr. Vanneck. round for the guests to serve themselves. The I gladly consented, and on the following can do it. When they see a person called by extreme oddity of the old gentleman caused se- morning we set out. The house of the creole cret murmerings among the company : but out lies on the road to Olinda, about an hour's ride ject to play upon, they learn his name. and of respect to his age and wealth, instead of from town. We proceeded along splendid showing discontent, they pretended to relish hedges of cactus shaded by bananas and palm their frugal fare : and some of them compli- trees, and at length observed its charming villa. mented him upon the cordiality of those good  $\Lambda$  negro received us at the entrance and took as to the parlor-hastening to tell his master of old times which he had brought to remembrance. The old man-who was not duped by our visit. The first object which caught our attention this feigned satisfaction-did not wish to carry the joke further, but, at a given signal which he gave, some servants habited as country- with great industry. Much struck. I watched women entered, bringing the second service. him attentively, while he, not paying any at-A white cloth succeeded the brown one, and tention to us, proceeded with his work. The door opened : Mr. Vanneck, reclining on an some pewter plates succeeded the wooden ones Instead of rye bread, herring and cheese, they easy chair, was wheeled in .- Though his legs were served with good brown bread, fresh beef. | are paralyzed he seemed bright and cheerful. boiled fish, and strong beer. At this unexpect- and welcomed us most kindly. The monkey ed change, the secret murmers ceased ; and po- went on sewing with great zeal.

lite invitations on the part of the old man be-I could not refrain from exclaiming. "How came more pressing, and the guests ate with wonderful !" for the manner and process of the better appetite. Hardly had they time to taste animal were those of a practical tailor. He this, the second service, when they saw a butwas sewing a pair of striped pantaloons, the ler enter, followed by half a dozen servants in narrow shape of which showed that they were brilliant livery, bringing the third. A superb intended for himself.

table of mahogony, covered with a beautiful An old negro now appeared-announcing Madame Jasmin, whom Mr. Vanneck introflowered cloth, replaced the old oaken one. A duced as his neighbor. Madame Jasmin was sideboard was immediately covered with the accompanied by her little daughter, a girl of richest plane and the most curious china, and twelve years, who immediately ran to the the sight of profusion of rare and exquisite monkey-greeting him as an old friend beginmeats. The most delicious wines were freely ning to prattle with him. -Jack furtively bassed around, while a melodious concert was heard in an adjoining room. Toasts were drank, and all were merry. But the good old peeped at his master ; but as Mr. Vanneck's glance was stern, the tailor went on sewing.

Suddenly his thread broke ; and he put the man, perceiving that his presence hindered the end in his mouth, smoothed it with his left paw, and threaded the needle again. Mr. Van-neck then turned to him, and speaking in the "I give you thanks, ladies and gentlemen, same calm tone in which he had conversed with us, said : "Jack, your work put aside and sweep the floor.' Jack hurried to the adjoining room and came back without delay, with a broom in his paw, thing that I would not have parted with for ten and swept and dusted like a clean housemaid. thousand dollars. I had spent years in invent-I could not perfectly make out his size, as he ing a new safe for fires, which I know would ## being "taken in and done for" by what is called "the Patent Safe Game," and as no idea of what the game is can be obtained from the mere statement of the fact, we present the following description of it, in order to inform our people in the country fully of the matter, bocause-cases are constantly transpiring of honest unsuspecting countrymen being fleeced by the appearance the very reverse of rogues. Three confidants generally play the games, but two them a "Sucker," who appears to be a fit sub something about him, such as the place where he came from, &c., (they have various ways of doing this, one of which is by searching the hotel register,) one of them, who is called the "Roper," goes up to him, names him familiarly, and shakes him by the hand. This at first rather astonishes the stranger, but the "Roper" looks so innocent, and is so obliging and kind that he soon disarms his suspicion, and gains his confidence. He then invites him to go and see the wonderful places about the city, and walks about until he arrives at a proper place. when Mr. "Roper," by looking down on the ip. and gazing upon it, with a look of intense curiosity, he says meditatively to his dupe. "Well, this is really a queer thing : I wonder what it can be used for," and pressing it all round, to his apparent surprise, out he pushes an interior plug. (that is, a plug within another concealed plug.) With well assumed wonder box : well, now, this is ingenious : and it has something in it, too." He then takes out a piece of white paper, shows"Sucker" the empty box, and throws the piece of paper on the ground. There is another piece of paper in the small chamber at the other end of the plug. but "Sucker" does not see this, and the plug is put back in its place.

A man is now noticed coming towards them attentively examining the ground, with despair depicted on his countenance. He attracts the "Roper's" attention, who says to his dupe companion, "This man has lost something valea-ble, let us put some questions to him." "You appear to be troubled in mind, sir ; have you lost anything ?" "Yes, sir, I have lost some-

If you owned "the baby," would you ?

Wife, with arm about your neck, Says you look just like the baby ; Wants some cash to make a "spec." And you would refuse her -- may be-

Could you ? should you ? If you owned "the cottage," would you ?

Little labor, little strife, Lattle care, and little cot :

Would you sigh for single life? Would you murmur at your lot ?

Tell me, should you ? If you owned "the cottage," would you ?

Health and comforts, children fair, Wife to meet you at the door, Fond hearts throbbing for you there : Tell me, would you ask for more,?

Should you ? could you ? If you owned "the ready." would you ?

A bachelor friend says the above "is all in than good onesis eye," and intimates most emphatically that he would.

NOT AFRAID OF HIS BOOTS. - On one of the ful, and wit good natured. Sound Scamers, the other night, the Captain, as usual, was looking around to see that every ground, discovers, accidentally, of course, a body was "tucked in" all right, when, going little neatly turned wooden ball, which he picks into the lower cabin, he spied a pair of big boots on the extremities of their owner in fearful contrast with the snow white quilt that a good school, but charges very high for tuisurported them. The considerate Captain tion. shook Mr. Boots gently, and intimated to him, in the mildest way, that it was against the rules of the boat for gentlemen to wear their boots in bed. As soon as the awakened ownhe says, "Ah, what is this?" and pulls it out or was able to comprehend the case, he re-entirely, unscrewing its lid. "A nice little marked very cooly,"Oh, it won't burt them: I guess ; they are an old pair. I'll risk 'em."

> Multion may play a mighty game-it may task the sinews of nations, and make the servile multitude automaton dancers to its own stormy music----hut sun and moon and stars. go forth on their sublume mission independent of its power, and its utmost efforts can not change the laws which produce the transient glory of the rainbow.

IT George Washington, in one of his messages to Congress, uses the following language : "To every description of citizens, indeed, let raise be given. But let them persevere in heir affectionate vigilance over that precions denository of American happiness, the consti- was found mounted on a hadder, with his lips tution of the United States. Let them cherish it too, for the sake of those who FROM EVERY ing his wife in Philadelphia "by telegraph." AME are duity secking a dwelling in our land."

TNever expect others to keep for you a secret which you could not keep yourself.

ITTHe who can suppress a moment's anger may prevent many days of sorrow.

IT Serve every one as much as you can, and compete with no more than you must.

TTI is a noble species of revenge to have the power of retaliation and not to exercise it.

DA man who is not ashamed of himself. need not be ashained of his early condition.

ITHer Vonderyderbushschraggerwegatzerman is not dead.

TTime, well employed, gives that health and vigor to the soul which health and retirement alford the body.

OT Men who cannot reason, resort to precedents, as if there were not more bad precedents

JTA cheerful temper, joined with innocence, will make beauty attractive, knowledge delight-

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER. -- A policeman was seen in Broadway during the late storm trying to arrest the rain.

TT Experience, says a German writer, koens

IT Some people open their mind as if to show how much filth could be stowed in a narrow place.

Take a pinch bl snuff. Pompey ?? "No, massa, tank you ; nose not hungry dis lime.' IPA young lady was discharged from one of the largest vinegar houses-in London. She was so sweet that vinegar was kept from fo-

- · S 🕰 menting. TTGirls who 'aint handsome hate those who_are--while those who are handsome hate. one another. Which class has the best time of it.

JTA horse with three legs arrived at Halifax last week in the brig Isabella, from Porto Rico-two "fore" and one "aft." Another Bargumism.

TELEGRAPHIO KISS .- The other day a man. pressed to the telegraph wires. He was kiss-spares himself all this trouble. He will not. public. Our ancestors rose to their state, and always walked upright, not on his four paws. save millions worth of property, and was on tion. "It can't be helped !" But it can be fathers have transmitted to us by their indus-helped. Every evil can be abated, every try and wise administration." nuisance got rid of, every abomination swept away; though this will never be done by the ejaculation of "It can't be helped !"

STRANGE MEANS FOR THE RECOVERY OF A DROWNED MAN .- The first mate of the British you.' ship Wreath was drowned at Panama on the night of the 20th of July, while attempting to inquired : "What shall I pay you !" get on board his ship. The body had not been recovered at the latest advices. In the account of the search for it the Panama Star records the following singular incident :- "The remark was made by some one that the most stander. probable way of finding hun was 'to bait a "That," replied he. "is John hook with a piece of pork and throw it over- Chief Justice of the United States." board.' This, whether accidentally or intentionally, was done from the Pacific Mail steamship Sonora, and during the morning a shark took the bait, was hauled on board, and when cut open, much to the astonishment of all, in reply. the monster's stomach was found half a pig. with the right arm of the missing man, with it was easily identified to be that of the mate. The arm appeared as though the flesh had been cut through to the bone, about midway between-the elbow and shoulder, and there the bone was forcibly torn from the shoulder joint, | near Oxford, met a grave old gentleman, with leaving the upper half quite bare."

FUNNY MISTAKE. -- While the police stationed at the Atlantic Docks in Brooklyn, were natroling their beats a day or two ago, they discovcied something lying in the water, which they supposed to be the body of a child. Word was dispatched to the Coroner, who arrived, and proceeded to have it taken out of the water : when, behold it was found to be the body of a good sized baboon ! The inquest was not held.

COMPORT FOR TOM-BOYS .- Dr. Smith, Mayor of Boston, in an address at a Ladies' Exhibition in Boston, said : "That the little girls he knew when a boy, who used to climb trees and fences with the boys, and who were called "Tom-hoys' by their mothers, were now, wherever found, leading women in society, with strong, healthy bodies and minds.'

Hydrophobia-Another Reported Cure.-A London paper says the following remedy for the bite of a mad dog, is reported to have been used by a person who was bitten by a rabid animal six times, and never used any other remedy :-- Dissolve a pound of common salt in a quart of spring water, and wash and squeeze the bitten part immediately after the infliction of the wound, for an hour, and then bind some salt upon it for twelve hours.

PRECEPT AND PRACTICE. -- Cleanliness is a virtue." said the moral newsboy, as he washed his hands in the gutter, and wiped them on the curb stone.

IFHow lew of us realize that as we rise [ " Pray, sr, do gentlemen ever anoke in your each morning, and commence our avocations, country (2) fliat we are only one day nearer our final school boy, you are vile and repulsive, and age. If it is permitted to an old man who is tray. He first presented the tray to Madame vicious, by reason of your neglect of cleanli- about to leave you, and who tenderly loves Jasmin and her daughter, then to us, like a ness. "It can't be helped !" Educate your children, train them up in virtuons habits, teach them to be industrious, obedient, frugal you may have remarked in the last service, and the last service and the tray. Mr. Vanneek took and thoughtful, you thoughtless communities ; | which is the present style of living, will defor they are now growing up vicious, ignorant, prive us of more than our ancestors have ac-

A DANDY AND HIS TURKEY .- Justice Mar-"can't be helped" people. Man is not help- shall was in the habit of going to market himless, but can both help himself and help others. self. and carrying home his purchases. Fre-He can act individually and unitedly against quently he would be seen at sunrise, with wrong and evil. He has the power to abate poultry in one hand and vegetables in the and eventually uproot them. But, alas ! the other. On one of these occasions, a fashionagreatest obstacle of all in the way of such ble young man from the north, who had rebeneficial action is the feeling and disposition | moved to Richmond, was swearing violently | plums. out of which arises the miserable, puling, because he could find no one to carry home his turkey. Marshall stepped up and asked him where he lived, and said, on being told-"That's on my way, and I will take it for

When he came to the house the young man

"O, nothing," said the Chief Justice; "it was on my way and no trouble." "Who is that polite old man who brought home my turkey ?" inquired this man of a by-

"That," replied he, "is John Marshall, "Why did he bring home my turkey ?" asked he.

"To give you a severe reprimand and teach you to attend to your own business," was the True genuine greatness never feels above doing anything that is useful, but especially, part of the shirt sleeve still remaining, by which the truly great man will never feel above helping himself.

> Three young, conceited wits, as they thought themselves, passing along the road whom they had a mind to be rudely merry : "Good morrow, fither Abraham," said one. "Good morrow, father Isaac," said the next. "Good morrow, father Jacob," said the last. "I am neither Abraham, Isaac nor Jacob," eplied the old gentleman, "but Saul, the son of Kish, who went out to seek his father's asses, and lo ! here are three of them !'

OBEVING ORDERS .- "Edward," said his mother to a boy of eight, who was trundling a go out of that gate into the street." "No, ma. I won't:" was the reply.

A few minutes afterwards his mother had occasion to go to the window. To her sur- exhibited his eleverness in waiting, at which of $100. prise she saw Edward in the street engaged in he acquitted himself as well as any man serthe very edifying employment of manufacturing vant. Going home my companion missed a dirt nies.

"Ilidn't I tell you," said she, angrily, unot to go through the gate ?" "Well, I didn't, mother," was the satisfactory reply. "I climbed over the fence."

""Sonny. I don't see anything growing about here, what does your father raise on his land ?"

"Wall, he raises hatmata iks, grass-hoppers bed-bugs, hop-tonds, tumble bugs, fat babies a double-breasted pig pen right under the top -dat am one comfort, Cuffy." winder.'

board of a steamboat, once stepped up to a term, a batch of eggs which had been depo-toreigner, and and foreigner, and said -

- Gentlemen do not smoke in public in any flemen meles, who walled out of their white uarry, ' was the labore reply.

He sits with his arms folded, and is ready, acquired liberty, riches and power, by living He was about three feet high, but stooped a my way to Messrs. Holmes & Butler's, the with his unvarying observation. "It can't in the frugal manner which you saw in the little. He was clad in linen pantaloons, a safe makers, to get one made; but, alas! I have be helped !" as much as to say -"If it is it first service. Our fathers preserved these great colored shirt, a jacket, and red neckerchief. lost the model ! It had the appearance of a ought to be, and we need not bestir ourselves blessings only by living in the simple manner At another hint from his master. Jack went small carved wooden ball; oh, sir, what shall to alter it." Wash your face, you dirty little of which the second service has retraced an imtray. He first presented the tray to Madame like aside to "Sucker," "I can stand this no longer : it pains me to see him. Friend," says he to the afflicted safe loser, "I think I know where it is," and taking it out of his pocket, out his watch, and showed it to the monkey ; thank you, thank you," exclaims the overjoy. it was just three. Jack went and brought a ed safe man. "But how," says Roper, "can and careless, a source of future peril to the na- quired by the sweat of their brows, and our cup of broth to his master, who remarked that such a thing as that answer for a safe ?" "Oh. the monkey did not know the movements of 1 put a prop under it, (that is, the large iron the watch, but that he knew exactly the posiones manufactured from this model,) and when tion of the hands when they pointed to three. a fire takes place the support has but to be and kept it in thind that it was then his masknocked away, and out it rolls down an incline ter required his lunch. If the watch was plane into the street." . "By all the powers," to feich the broth ; while if three o'clock was you have it made to hold something." "Oh. past without the lunch being called for, he got lidgety and at last ran and brought it : in this case he was always rewarded with some sugar says "Roper." (and aside to "Sucker" he whispers. "I'll bet him on that piece of paper.")

"You have no notion," said Mr. Vanneck "how much time and trouble, and especially how much patience I have bestowed in the training of this animal. Confined to my chair, however, I continued my task methodically. Nothing was more difficult than to accustom Jack to don his clothes; he used to take off his pantaloons again and again, until at last I had them sewed to his shirt. When he walks out with me he wears a straw hat, but never without making fearful grimaces. He takes a bath every day, and is on the whole very cleanly. "Jack," exclaimed Mr. Vanneck, pointing to me, "this gentleman wants his handker-chief." The monkey drew it from my pocket and handed it to me. "Now show your room to my guests," continued his master : and he opened a door at which he stepped aside to let us pass, and then followed himself. Everything was extremely tidy in the small room. There was a bed with a matress, a table, some chairs, drawers, and various toys : a gun hung on the wall. The bell was rung ; Jack went and reappeared with his master, wheeling?in the chair. Meanwhile I had taken the gun officer, and denying the imputation of gamb-from the wall, Mr. Vanneck handed it to the ling, solicits to be let go. This the policeman monkey, who fetched the powder flask and acquitted himself like a rifleman. I had already seen so much that was astonishing, that I hardly felt surprised at this feat. Jack now the putent safe game. placed himself at the open window, took aim and discharged the gin, without being the least startled by the report. He then went through the sword exercise with the same skill.

It would be too long to jot down all Mr. Vanneck told us about his method of educa- him $25 per month antil Sebastopol should ties of the animal, and its master's talents for | completing the sum of $200. When Sebastotuition. We stayed to supper, to which there small box of sweets, out of which he had regaled the monkey with almonds. Jack had from the balcony of the court-house, in Philamanaged to steal it from his pocket, and on delphia, cried out, lifting his eyes to Heaven :

being afterward convicted of the their he was "Father Abraham, who have you in your boseverely punished by his master.

Wer-Good mornin', Sambo : berry hot wedder. Sambo. Dey do say dat it am berry hot "No." "Have you any Independents or Sece-in de city, dat dey hab to take off de tops ob ders?" "No. no!" "Why who have you de houses to let in de air."

"Well, Clem, it can't get no hotter in our fall here are Christians believers in Christ." and other wegetables. Yesterday he raised house, cos de termometer got bang up to de +Oh, is that the case ? Then God help us all

> NATURAL CHICKLY RAISING. - At East Abing-Hoosierdorn : and model the caves of a barn by some high 1 minded biddy, became sum purty heated to 1 dum; touch signed table to tot hely and some

I have an in prestout itedian

Tet ancient or modern history he produced, they will not afford a more heroic dis- my part, I had rather have one laddie than twa play than the reply of Yankee Stonington to lasses." the British commander. The people were piling the balls which the enemy had wasted, when the foe applied for them. - "We want bulls; will you sell them ?"-They answered : "We want powder, and we'll return your balls."

MTA Vermont editor advises the young laasks, "Is this your model safe ?" "It is, it is : dies in those diggings-and we see no reason for its not applying clsewhere-to abandon the "good old way" of doing up matters in the courting line, and recommends this summary method : "When you have got a mon to the sticking point-that is when he proposes don't turn away your head, or affect to blush. or refer to Pa, or ask hun for more time---all shown to him at any other hour he did not go says "Roper," "that is a capital idea. I suppose these tricks are under tood now -but just look Another firm in Fution street. "ilversmithis, him right in the face, give him a hearty smack, use a hundred thousand dollars in silver coin yes, there is a box inside of it, and a paper in and tell him to go without delay and order the in a year. its chamber now." "I don't believe that," furniture."

> ATTEMPT TO STARVE A CHILD FOR HIS FOR-TNE. - A brute named John Blattner, and a but three had, middle names. They were "I'll bet there is no paper in it." "How much creature named Louisa Koch, of St. Louis, will you bet ? I'll put up $1,000." "I have were recently arraigned on the charge of atnot that much," (aside to ' Sucker," "I'll take tempting to starve to death Blattner's little Virginia. $100 from him,") "but I'll bet $100," and he son, Franz. aged eight or nine years. It seems takes out a number of bills, perhaps 550, and that Franz's mother died a short time since. a bank check for other $50, and says to Teaving a little property, which she possessed "Sucker" (for he has found out how much he has.) "will you loan me bills for this cheek until we get to my hotel ?" All this has been in her own right, to her son. Soon after her death. Blattner took home this woman Koch. and they together conspired to starve the boy done so honest and fair-like, that "Sucker' to death, for the sake of his little inheritance. pulls out his pocket-book, gives accomplished They accordingly tied his hands behind him "Roper" $50 in bills, and takes his check. and fastened him up in a room to die. But of the Christian era, wrote twenty-eight works Then the safe-man presses on the conical end the neighbors suspecting some foul play put on agriculture, which, by order of the Roman of the plug, which is connected with the other the police on the scent, and the child was Senate was mustated into Latin. chamber, takes it out, and from the other end found, after having been two days and nights pulls out the other piece of paper. The thing without food or drink. is done, and the safe-man having fairly won > the bet, marches off with the money. The "Roper" looks sad and crest-fallen, but is soon A SWIMMING BREAKPAST. - The London Diswatch, in noticing a swimming club at Maidrelieved of his grief, for up comes a person asstone, containing seventy-nine members, firstsuming to be a policeman, charges them with rate swimmers, &c., says :- "The first aquagambling, and makes a grab at them. "Roper' tic breakfast is to take place on Monday next, shouts "run" to his companion, and takes to at seven o'clock, when every member will be the people, £19,000. The reason of this difhis heels, but poor "Sucker" is held by the required to partake of the repast in the river."

BURYING BEES FOR THE WINTER --- Enoch E allows, when in his fright "Sucker" flies the Kalb, of Lovettville. Virginia, states that havshot bag, and in the whole process of loading city, and soon finds out that his check is worth- ing a swarm of bees last fall, which had no less; that the safe-man, policeman, and honey, and not knowing if they would live "Roper," were colleagues, and he the dupe of over the winter, he buried them air tight on the warm side of the hill, in a case sufficient to keep all dampness out, and, as soon as he PROFITABLE INVESTMENT. -On the 1st of uncovered them this spring, they were full of November last, an American, on a banter, de- life and vigor, and instantly went to work and posited $100 in the hands of an Englishman in are still working finely. this city, upon which the latter agreed to pay

37 There was a famous member of Parliation and training: the above facts, witnessed be taken. John Bull, as good as his word, ment who was a glutton at dinner, but who hoop in the front yard, "Edward, you mesn't by myself, bear sufficient evidence of the abil- has forked over each month, the last payment was remarkable for his neglect of all ablutions. His son was standing one day in the bowpol is taken the Yankee torfeits his principal window of a Club-house, in London, conversing came more ladies and gentlemen. Jack again only, so he is already a gainer to the amount with Lord Somebody, when the father passed down on the opposite side of the street. "Jack," said the noble lord, "what does make your

No SECTS IN HEAVEN .- The coldrated father's hands so dirty ?" "Well," said the Whitfield, when preaching on' one occasion affectionate young man. "I believe it arises of A lady disbeliever, to puzzle a phrenot-from the balcony of the court-house, in Phila- from a bad habit he has of putting them up to ogist, asked him --- What kind of people were his face.'

A WISE ANSWER. - You must not play with som ? Any Episcopaliaus ?" "No." "Any Presbyterians ?" "No." "Any Baptists ?" that little gurl, my dear," said an tajudicious parent. "But, ma, 1 like her : she is a good "Have you any, Methodists there ?" inthe girl, and I'm sure she dresses as pretty as I do: and she has lots of toys." "I can't then?" "We don't have these names here; help that, my dear," responded the foolish the fellow whom we see reported as having mother ; "her father is a shoemaker." "But fallen down drunk and making "efforts" to I don't play with her father - I play with her ; | raise himself by feeling upwards for the ground, she ain't a shoemaker.' to forget sectarian names, and to become REMARKABLE CASE OF SELF CONTROL .--- The ~ Hear one of our tripod brethren out in "Oh, for a tongue to speak the doom, The write half arres to heastly vile. As te an denno a printer's room.

Focat of the exchange papers on his life." I my not occur."

D Said a Scotch girl, "I dinna ken wha' mak's brother Will like the lasses so. For in the state of th

TTAn old lady, while including a few evenings since, in reminiscences of her girlbood, when she had lots of beaus, exclaimed : "Why the truth is, that at one time I was so happy that I was fairly uncomfortable."

Tr. What is the meaning of a backbiter ?" said a reverend gentleman, during an examination at a parochial school. This was a puzzler. It went down the class till it came to a simple urchin, who said, "P'raps it be a flea."

Some of the Uses of Species -One firm in Maidon Lane, New York, melts down in gold and silver $1,550,000 in the course of a year.

MIDDLE NAMES .--- Of the fifty-six patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence. Thomas Treat Paine, of Massachusetts, Richard Henry Lee, and Francis Lightfoot Lee, of PROFANE AUTHORES. -- Grace Greenwood has taken to swearing. She said recently of an old mill which had gone to decay, the water having dried away in the stream, dit wasn't wördi a dam.

IT Mayo, one of the most celebrated Carthagenian generals, about the commencement

SPORT IN KENTECKY .- Hunter -I sny, friond, is there anything to shoot about here?

Boy -- Wall, nothing just about here, stranger; but the schoomaster is down the hill, yonder ; you can pop him over.

The horses of Queen Victoria and the royal family cost £70,000 : the free schools for ference is said to be, because the horses are fed on corn, and the people on chaff.

Tr"Shall we take a bus up Broadway ?" said a young New Yorker, who was showing his country consin the wonders of the city. "(). dear, no !" said the frightened girl. "I would not do that in the street.'

TA Missouri editor announces that the publication of his paper will be suspended for six weeks, in order that he may vist St. Louis with a load of bear skins, hoop-poles, shingles, oak bark, pickled cat-fish, &c., which he has taken for subscription.

RATTLESNAKES. - These venomons reptiles seem to abound in Southern Oregon. Three men recently went to the mountains where dens of these snakes were known to exist in large numbers, and in a short time killed seven hundred of them.

TTA lady disbeliever, to puzzle a phrenotthose who have distructiveness and benevolence equality and largely developed?" "These, midain, are the persons that kill with kindness.'

TFA distinguished teacher defines "genius" to be the "power of making efforts." If so, must be an awful "gemus."

A MARKED TRAVELLER. - A snapping turilo Brunswick Telegraph tells a story which, it has been captured at Sanbornton, New-Hampsays 1-literally true of a young widow down shire, with 1805 and 1806 carved on its back. on the Kennebee, who said to an acquinitance Mr. David Clark, now of Franklin, was the who was condoling with her upon the recent person who carved the first date, and the shell death of her sponse, I hope you'll exert e my lot the furthe was then four and a thalf inches When the editor's out, and sted the not even is the fact is er jong always manes across by seven in length. Is fore years in nas grown but one mehlonger and welges

•·No."

Christians in deed and in truth."