

The Republican Compiler.

GETTYSBURG, PA. MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 15, 1855.

Should the weather permit, the Democrats of the Borough will have a Torch-light Procession THIS EVENING, in honor of the triumph of THE GOOD OLD CAUSE.

Now that the election is over, the Compiler will again present a general variety of reading matter, embracing every department within the scope of a newspaper. We shall spare no pains to make the paper still more acceptable; and, whilst it will be with us a leading aim to please, it will be a no less prominent purpose to instruct. A public journal properly conducted will do both.

There is room for a few more subscribers. "Who speaks first?"

"A ROUSER."-Capt. ISAAC LIGHTNER, of Mountion township, the other day, presented us with an Apple measuring 14% inches in circumference, and weighing one and a half pounds. Who can beat it?

The proceedings of the Teachers' Meeting will appear in our next.

CATTLE SHOW POSTPONED. - The Cattle Show and Agricultural Exhibition, which was to have taken place at Frederick, Md., on Wednesday last, has been postponed until the 24th inst

THANKSHIVIN DAY .- The Governor of Iowa has bened his proclamation appointing Thursday, November 22d, to be observed as a day of thanksgiving and praise. This is the third State that has named the same day.

DAT OF THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER IN VIR-GINIA -The Governor of Virginia, in view of the fact that the hand of death has been nearly stayed in the two stricken cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth, has usued his proclamation recommending that the 15th of November next be observed in that State as a day of thanksgiving, humiliation and prayer.

The citizens of Maryland will join those of Virginia, in observing Thursday, the 15th of November, as a day of thanksgiving.

The Yellow Fever is rapidly disappear ing at Norfolk and Portsmouth, and business is being resumed.

Home Again. Dr. Kane, the brave and daring pioneer of the Arctic Ocean, in search of Sir John Franklin, has returned with his companions—but without finding the object of his search.

SANTA ANNA IN WASHINGTON.—There is little or no doubt but that Santa Anna has been in that city for several days, and is privately quartered with Gen. Almonte.

Upon the result of the election in this county being ascertained, the 'stars and stripes' were thrown to the breeze in our principal streets, giving the town quite a gay appearance. The drain and fife; too, have contributed their stirring notes to the expression of the general joy-"Old Penelope" has been allowed to have her "say"-and, altogether, the Democrats of the Borough have had a happy time of it. But prove. There is nothing like "a pull altoall in a respectable, good humored way, as it gether." ever should be.

All the abuse which the Know Nothing leaders and speakers could indulge in against the editor of the Compiler before the election, could not "save their bacon"-it only contributed to their defeat, by disgusting every honest hearer. These villiflers had as well "make | dark | lanternites | advocate, and can see | no a pote of" this item.

THE COUNTY.

The First Full Democratic Proumple! Adams county "sends greeting" to her sister counties of the Commonwealth, that, for the first time in her existence, she can boast of a clear DEMOCRATIC VICTORY! Know Nuthingism, notwithstanding its vaunted strength tiring efforts of its desperate leaders-notwithstanding its appeals to the passions and prejudices of the fanatical and unlearned-and popular condemnation upon its prostrate peck. The people of this county have spurned. AT understood their attachment to the long-established and well-tried principles of the National Constitution. "Equal Rights" are dearly followed Tuesday's conflict will follow all you can't wipe it out!" similar attempts to invade them.

Let the designing and corrupt take heed, and learn well the lesson, that THE PEOPLE cherish a deep attachment to the principles of our republican system of government, and will allow no obstacle to prevent the unmistakeable expression of that attachment. If we do not mistake the signs of the times. the day of the demagogues in this county has gone by. They may as well "hang up their fiddles and their bows,"-success to them at any time is altogether out of the question .--They may rule a few disheartened Know Nothing "Americans" a little while longer, but that is the only kind they need ever expect to acquire authority over. The "sober second thought" has taken a permanent abode in this quarter:

The extent of the Democratic victory in this county will be ascertained by reference to the official vote, which we give. It will be seen that the majorities range from 105 to 273! -enough for all practical purposes-and enough to give Adams a proud position in the Democratic column of the State.

Look at the Returns!

In glancing over the official returns of this county, nearly every district will be observed to present features calculated to make profoundly glad the heart of every Democrat True, in many of the townships the Democratic vote was not out, but the figures nevertheless foot up beautifully. We are convinced, that with a full poll, our majority would have reached from 500 to 600. Honor to the staunch Democrats and patriotic and liberalminded citizens who contributed to the glorious result! May they ever continue to stand side by side in defence of our good old Constitution and the rights and liberties of the people!

"A Pull Altogether."

We cannot omit a word of praise of the gallant manner in which the Democrats of the Borough conducted themselves on Tuesday last. They knew that the Know Nothings would poll their every vote and leave no stone unturned to decoy and deceive outsiders into the support of their candidates : and hence set themselves to work to bring out the Democratic strength of the town, and show to our opponents that their boasted large majority was stall in the eye." And they "did do if," as the meagre majority of thirty for their candidate for Canal Commissioner, and six for their candidate for Treasurer, abundantly

In last Tuesday's contest in this county. the Democratic ticket received the support of a number of gentlemen who have heretofore acted with the Whig party. They are too honest to lend a helping hand in establishing principles so intolerant and proscriptive as the reason for, but danger in, the secret oathbound mode of warfare which that party has adopted. And so viewing the aspect of things political, they could not, as conscientious, patriotic citizens, act otherwise than as they have acted. They are of course denounced by the Know Nothing leaders, but that will not cause a solitary regret on their part. Their consciences approve their course, and, with honest men, that is everything. They see, too, that the Democratic party is the only organization which offers successful resistance to the encroachments which unprincipled and designing factions would make upon the sacred chartered rights of the people of this Union; and believing the time to have arrived when it becomes every man's duty to stand forth in defence of the Constitution and the Country, they cannot hesitate. The liberties of the is the Democratic party.

"You Can't Wine it Out!"

Immediately upon the nomination of the Democratic ticket, the Know Nothing leaders appeared to be exceedingly anxious to create the impression that one or two of our candidates belonged to the dark lantern order. They gave the report several starts in different quarbefore the election -notwithstanding the un- ters; but all to no purpose - it wouldn't go! The boys did make her talk beautifully. They know how to do it.

Death of Sam.

After the result of Tuesday, for all practical interests and purposes, "Sam" is virtually dead. True, he may writhe in agony for a short period, as a snake killed during the day is said to never become entirely destitute of muscular action until the sun goes down, but as a bona fide "power in the State" he is henceforth and forever dead in Pennsylvania. All good and Constitution-loving citizens will rejoice at his overthrow, and everywhere the hearts of faithful worshippers at the holy shrine of civil and religious liberty will be gladdened with exceeding great joy. In our free and enlightened Commonwealth the result could not have been otherwise, and we can scarce repress a smile at the folly of those would be shrewd ones who imagined that the so-called "American" party could reach more than an ephemeral existence. From such unfully combinations of intolerance with what feelings of pride and gratification do we turn to our own noble organization, and to the gallant band who acted in concert with us on Tuesday. The eternal principles of justhousands of generations of such contemptible organizations as Know Nothingism have passed away and been uttorly forgotten.

The Know Nothing leaders got up a meeting of their dispirited followers at the Court-house on Saturday evening last, to encourage them for another contest, and, we are told, an "open organization" was hinted at. IT IS TOO LATE! The people cannot be caught by such a trick, at this late day,

> For the Republican Compiler. TO THE PUBLIC.

The Election and its excitement being over, feel constrained thus publicly to notice a calumnious slander that has for some time past of which I no longer desire to remain, namely, that I had joined the so called American or Know Nothing party, and that I was, and am, a Know Nothing. I now, however, emphatically declare that I scorn the imputed slander -that I never was and am not now a political the Know Nothing lodges or councils, or to any Know Nothing, for admittance into their order: that I never did, and never will, act with that party, as I loathe its proscriptive principles and features, both as a man and a. as long as it maintains (and I hope it will ever maintain) true and sound republican principles.
