Interview between Gen: Jackson and Hon. Stephen A. Douglass.

The following notice of an interview between Gen. Jackson and Judge Douglass, of Illinois. may be found in one of the recent histories of the old Hero, and possesses unusual interest:

of August, 1844, we visited the Hermitage. (only twelve miles distant) in company with one was injured. Had the accident occurred Judge Douglass, of Illinois, and some of our fellow-citizens. The Hermitage was crowded with people from almost every State, who had been invited thither by the venerable patriot the day succeeding the convention. Governor Clay, of Alabama, was near Gen. Jackson, who was himself sitting on a sofa in the hall of his residence, and as each person entered. Gov. Clay introduced him to the hero, and he passed along. When Judge Douglass was thus introduced to him, Gen. Jackson raised his brilliant eyes, and gazed for a moment in the countenance of the Judge, still retaining his hand. "Are you the Mr. Douglass, of Illinois, who delivered a speech last session on the subject of the fine imposed on me for declaring martial law at New Orleans?" asked Gen. Jackson. "I have delivered a speech in the House of Representatives upon that subject.

was the modest reply of our friend. "Then stop;" said Gen. Jackson, "sit down here beside me! I desire to return you my thanks for that speech.-You are the first man that has ever relieved my mind on that subject which has rested on it for thirty years. My enemies have always charged me with violating the constitution of my country by declaring martial law at New Orleans; and my friends have always admitted the violation, but have contended that the circumstances justified me in that violation. I never could understand how it was that the performance of a solemn duty to my country-a duty which, if I had neglected to perform, would have made me atraitor in the sight of God and man-could properly be pronounced a violation of the Constitution. I felt convinced, in my own mind, that I was not guilty of such henious offence; but I could never make out a legal justification of my course, nor has it ever been done. sir, until you, on the floor of Congress, at the late session, established it beyond the possibility of cavil or doubt. I thank you for that speech; it has relieved my mind from the only circumstance that rested painfully upon it. an official act which I view as a violation of the constitution of my country, and I can now go down to the grave in peace. with perfect consciousness that I have not broken at any period of my life the constitution of my coun-

HENRY A. WISE ON HARD SHELLS AND SEA FISH.—The following amusing passage occurs in a letter written in October by Hon. Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, to the National Democratic Meeting in New York: You must not wonder that your Democratic friends in Virginia are often confused by names and things in New York. We wish to see a united democracy there on the old grounds of Jefferson and Jackson. We hear of hard, and soft, and half-shells, and the ideas we form of them can be best illustrated by a subject of natural history. We have in our waters, gentlemen, a crustaceous animal called a crab, a sea fish, with fins and claws at both ends, and it can run either end foremost. Poke at him this way, and he runs that—that way, and he runs this! He is remarkable, gentlemen, for his transformations. At one time, catch him and crack his claw, and his shell is hard, very hard, hard enough for barnacles to grow upon his back, and it will not separate or be detached from the inner cuticle. In that state he is the hard crab proper. At another time, catch him and crack his claw—when he is hard be sure to crack his claw, gentlemen—and you will find that, though his outer shell is stillvery hard, yet it will separate, and can be detached from the inner cuticle or film-over the muscles. He is then called the "peeler;" his shell will peel off from, without breaking, the inner shell. Later, catch him, and you need not crack his claw to see what he is, for his outer shell is then opening at every suture, and the crab is swelling out of its hard and taking upon itself its soft shell. In that state he is called a "buster," bursting its shell; and, as "peeler" or "buster." he is very fat, and a bait fit to catch the very "monarchs of the deep" with! Later still, he has slipped out of his hard shell, by a sort of peristalic motion, and left it along the strand, and has become wholly a soft crab. In that state he is good bait too, and is preyed upon by hard crab and other fishes, and he is inert, and can hard-Iv crawl out of harm's way. Then, again, this same crab, gentlemen, begins to harden from soft to hard again, as he had before softened from hard to soft. Found in this, his second intermediate state, he has become poor but more negligible is not so great for bait, and he is a great so gentlemen. On the 22d ult., by the Rev. J. But this I do say, that I think I can see you are democrats; that I can distinguish you, annistakably, by the platform of principle you have put forth, and I am anxious and ready to stand by and with and for any portion of the democracy of New York who will unite on the platform of civil and religious liberty, as defined by the constitution and bills of rights of our State and federal governments, and as defended by our State sovereignities and our federal Union. I cannot, and will not, unite with any Wilmot proviso, with any dark-lantern, or with any sumptuary-law

"Where DO THE SPONGES GO?"-They are too large to be concealed, and too remarkable to be overlooked; and yet, year after year, we are shipping-from twenty to thirty tons of sponges-or about twenty-five millions of separate sponges to the New York market-without any knowledge of what becomes of them. We have seen cloth, hats and shoes-all said to be made of the sponge—but we don't believe a word of it. The demand and the price for this article have steadily increased with the supply. Twelve and a half cents per pound were given for them but five years ago, and now, though the quantity shipped has steadily increased, forty cents per pound are readily obtained, and the demand increases. The value of the last year's shipment has been $15,-000 .- Key West (Florida) Key of the Gulf.

CHURCH TOWER BLOWN DOWN. - HOUSE CUT ix Twain. - Early Saturday morning the tower of the new Episcopal Church in Hudson, N. Y., the tower or steeple being upwards of 200 feet high, was blown down by a gale of wind. It fell with terrific din, and in its descent cut While attending the Nashville convention a frame dwelling literally in twain. The inhabitants had just arisen, and fortunately no ten minutes before, several would have inevitably been crushed to death, as the steeple fell in such a manner that the beds they had vacated were pulverized. The building was cut in two as cleverly as could be done by mechanical means.

A JUDGE ELECTED BY SEVEN VOTES .- The office of Special County Judge in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., was vacant at the late election, but the fact-was overlooked, and no provision made for it. A half dozen wide awake gentlemen in Canton discovered the omission, and on election day seven voles were cast for William and credits which were of Dr. Daniel Baker, H. Sawyer, Esq., and the board of county canvassers have declared him elected. TOBACCO FAMINE IN FRANCE. - An unusua! circumstance has created no little sensation at Bayonne. During the last few days there have been no cigars nor tobacco for sale. The stocks of the various dealers and that of the depot became completely exhausted, owing, as was said, to the inundations having prevented the expected arrivals. The smokers grumbled bitterly, and then proceeded to purchase all the tobacco that could be found in the neighboring villages. The supply obtained was but scanty, and when it was exhausted messengers were dispatched as far as Dax, by railway, a distance of seventy-five miles, to obtain a fresh store. - Galignani's Messenger.
