

Troubles in Kansas. Sr. Louis, Nov. 30.—Accounts received here from Independence, state that three free-state men attempted to drive Mr. Coleman, a pro-slavery settler, from his claim near New Hickory Point. Coleman killed one of his assailants, when a mob gathered, drove him and several other settlers off, and burned their houses. The ringleaders in this affair had been arrested. Gov. Shannon had called out the militia, and many Missourians had gone to offer their services to restore order.

The people of Lawrence are under arms, and have five pieces of artillery. A number of houses have been burned in Douglas county, and several families driven to Missouri. The law and order people of the territory are rallying in large numbers to assist the Sheriff in the execution of the laws. Sixteen houses have been burned at Hickory Point, and a number of citizens are missing.

Latest from Kansas—The Border Troubles—Civil War Unhappily—Call from Gov. Shannon on the President for Military Aid. Sr. Louis, Mo., Dec. 3.—Later advices have been received from Kansas, of a startling character. Gov. Shannon has telegraphed to the President the condition of affairs: One thousand men had arrived in Lawrence and rescued a prisoner from the Sheriff of Douglas county, burned several houses and destroyed other property. The President is asked by Gov. Shannon to order troops from Fort Leavenworth, to aid him in the execution of the law. Dispatches from Weston announce startling intelligence from Atchison. The free State officers had taken possession of important papers, and an attack on Atchison was anticipated. Word had been sent to Weston, for fifty armed men.

Further from Kansas. Sr. Louis, Dec. 6.—Accounts from Kansas state that 800 men, armed with Sharp's rifles, assembled at Lawrence and declared that they were willing the sheriff should peacefully search for the escaped prisoners. They would not commence hostilities, but act on the defensive to the last. Pomeroy had escaped from his captors, and is now in Lawrence. It is said that the pro-slavery party have 300 men in Franklin, and 200 in Leecompton and Douglas, and that a fight would ensue before the matter is settled.

From the Phila. Argus, Nov. 28. HENRY J. STAHLER—THE ADAMS DEMOCRACY.—Our excellent and worthy friend, H. J. Stahl, of the Gettysburg Compiler, opposed in upon us yesterday, with cheating intelligence from the Adams Democracy, who bore themselves so gallantly in the recent contest, and contributed so largely to our triumph. Mr. Stahl's present visit is on an errand characteristic of the man, and at the same time expressive of the sentiments of the gallant Democracy of Adams. Every one who ever reads the Compiler, knows how staunch and true and unflinching it is: and when told that the Democracy of Gettysburg have recently lost "Old Penelope"—the old cannon they have been in the habit of firing for the last forty years, on the occasion of Democratic victories—it will surprise no one to learn that our country conferee is on the hunt of another, with a good round sum in his pocket to pay for it; and agreeably to instructions given him in setting out on his pilgrimage, he is determined to have a good one—a brass one—that can talk. "Old Penelope" was burst on Tuesday week, in firing a salute in honor of recent Democratic triumphs. We say unhesitatingly that the Democrats of Gettysburg loved that gun. She had done their talking many a year, and a justification was nothing unless "Old Pen" was about. They loved her not only for her good qualities, but for what she had suffered in their behalf. We think it was in 1844, just before the election, that somehow she was taken from under lock and key by somebody—to the owners unknown—but no sooner did the news of her disappearance spread among the Democrats of the town, than they assembled, and on the spot subscribed about $100 for the purchase of another. Before the Committee, however, were ready to depart to procure the gun thus ordered, "Old Pen" was found at the bottom of a neglected well, in an out-of-the-way part of the town. Instantly the drum and file struck up—the Democracy assembled in mass—and in half an hour's time she was hoisted out of the well, and placed upon stout poles, carried around the Court-house on the shoulders of rejoiced and rejoicing Democrats, to the lively strains of martial music. It was a happy time, which few who shared its excitement will ever forget. She has since then assisted the Democrats in exciting over many a brilliant triumph; but most glorious of all are those over which she has recently had occasion to thunder. She lived to see Adams county Democratic, and ended her days in giving expression to her joy. We wish our friend Stahl abundant success in procuring a successor to "old Penelope."

Dr. Kane's Expedition.—The Washington Union, speaking of the charts of the expedition in search of Sir John Franklin, says they show a larger range of discovery than had been anticipated from the preliminary report: "Many have been exhibited to the Secretary of the Navy, and subjected to the National Observatory and Coast Survey. Dr. Kane has evidently material in reserve. The area of the open sea, by a careful revision of the work, has been found to exceed four thousand miles, or more than one thousand in excess of the original estimate. This large body was absolutely and entirely free from ice. The scientific materials of the expedition will be published under the direct charge of Dr. Kane, who has been detailed for that duty by the Navy Department. The Smithsonian Institute and Coast Survey have both volunteered their aid in furtherance of this object."

CUMBERLAND, Nov. 21.—The death warrant of Frederick Miller, convicted of the double murder of Dr. J. F. C. Hadel, and Henry Graef, was received here yesterday and read to the prisoner to-day in the presence of the Rev. Mr. Meyer, his spiritual adviser. He says he is ready to die. He made some important admissions to-day in regard to several swindling operations in Pittsburg and Somerset county, Pa. He seems more penitent now than on any former occasion since his arrest, and the presumption is by those who visit him in his cell, that he will make a full confession as the day of his execution draws nearer, which is set down for Friday, the 4th day of next January.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday week, a young man named Samuel Brown, in the employ of Capt. C. T. Campbell, of St. Thomas township, Franklin county, in attempting to draw the rubber of a wagon containing 13 cords of wood, slipped in some manner under the wheel, which passed over the lower part of the body, causing his death in less than two hours.

THE LAW OF DESCENT OF PROPERTY.—At the recent term of the U. S. Circuit Court for Rhode Island the court sustained the position that upon the death of a grandchild, without children, intestate, his grandfather will take the ancestral estate, rather than the uncles and aunts, though the estate came into the family through the grand maternal branch, the wife of that grandfather.

JOHN VAN BUREN'S LAST.—Mr. Jno. Van Buren has written a letter to the Albany Atlas, recouping one or two aspects of his own recent history, defining his position and making certain offers for the future. He makes the proposition that if the Halls and Sells of New York will unite and send a single delegation to the Democratic National Convention, he will not hold any office, State or National, for ten years from this date, and so far from considering this a privation or sacrifice, he will make the proposition a good consideration for promising to pay annually for the same period, to the Democratic State Committee, $250 toward the legal expenses of election. He says he makes the proposition in good faith, and to prove, as unfounded, the assertion of his enemies that he is seeking to secure his own personal success.

The Scientific Bulletin of Paris announces an important discovery by M. Vergnes, by which mercury and other metallic substances absorbed into the system may be expelled instantaneously by an electric bath. This discovery appears to be a fact beyond doubt, having been tested before the "Academy of Science," and pronounced a reality.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS unquestionably the most efficacious Remedy in the Union for Asthmatic Complaints and Coughs.—The number of cures these wonderful pills have effected in all parts of the Union, more particularly in cases of asthma, long standing, and coughs, leave no doubt upon the mind of all who have used them that they surpass any thing of the kind ever made known; by a persevering use of this valuable remedy, the sufferer is quickly restored to health, after every other means have failed; and it is a truth beyond dispute, that there is no case of bilious disorder, or liver complaint, but that will quickly yield to the powers of this mighty medicine.

Mrs. PARTINGTON on STRENGTH.—There came a certain lady, neat and trimly dressed, and like her immediately interrupted her interesting son.—"I saw," said she, "I know why Mr. Spokes here refers to that telegraph, it is to old Ezekiel Lynde son James who was awful proud and stuck up after he got that nice spike-and-span-bran-new suit at Blackwell & Wilson's. He spiked street corner of Franklin Place." "No," replied that he had heard of the "old," and that he was "out" for a "new rig," himself, whenever it met the views of the governors.

To Fanny Fern's 1,000,000 Readers. A NEW BOOK COMING!—We have the pleasure of announcing that we have in press, and shall publish about the 1st of December, a new work of fiction, entitled ROSE CLARK, a Romance, by FANNY FERN. The last work, and first continuous tale of this brilliant and fascinating authoress, "Ruth Hall," achieved a success unexampled in the annals of letters. In the language of a leading periodical, it "created a more profound sensation than any which has been issued during a quarter of a century." But it is unnecessary to allude to the merits of "Ruth Hall," judging from the number of copies of it we have sold, we judge that everybody in the United States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press; Rose-Clark, we can only say we regard it as in every respect, a greater, better work, and we are confident it will not only sustain, but even increase the reputation of its distinguished authoress.—We have reasons for thinking "Rose Clark" will make a greater sensation than did "Ruth Hall."

It will form an elegant 12 mo volume of over 400 pages. Price $1.25, on receipt of which copies will be sent by mail post-paid. It will be for sale by all book sellers. See Any newspaper giving this advertisement three insertions, and sending us a copy of paper with advertisement marked, will receive an advance copy of the work, by mail, post-paid.
