Choice Poetry.

☞ The following happy poetical effusion, from the gifted pen of Miss L. Paine, though first published some twelve years ago, is timely, and may again be read with pleasure.

The Merry Sleigh.

Jingle, jingle, clear the way,
'Tis the merry, merry sleigh,
As it swiftly sends along,
Hear the burst of happy song;
See the gleam of glances bright,
Flashing o'er the pathway white;
Jingle, jingle—now it whirls,
Crowded full of laughing girls.

Jingle, jingle—fast it flies,
Shooting glances from roguish eyes;
Careless mothers! ill be bound,
Little bodies when they wound;
See them with capricious pranks,
Mingling how the drifted banks.
Jingle, jingle—'mid their glee,
Who among them cares for me?

Jingle, jingle—on they flow,
Caps and bonnets white with snow,
And the faces swimming past—
Nestling through the fleecy blast;
But a single robe they fold
To protect them from the cold.
Jingle, jingle—'mid the storm,
Fun and frolic keeps them warm.

Jingle, jingle down the hills,
Over the meadows, past the mills,
Now 'tis slow, now 'tis fast,
Winter will not always last;
Every pleasure has its time;
Spring will come and stop the chime.
Jingle, jingle—clear the way,
'Tis the merry, merry sleigh.

What is a Year.

What is a year?—'Tis but a wave
On life's dark rolling stream,
Which to us quickly grow that we
Account it but a dream:
'Tis but a single earnest throb
Of time's old iron heart,
Which throbs now and strong as when
It first with life did start.

What is a year?—'Tis but a turn
Of Time's old brazen wheel;
Or but a page upon the book,
Which time must shortly seal.
'Tis but a step upon the road
Which we must travel o'er,
A few more steps and we shall walk
Life's weary road no more.

What is a year?—'Tis but a type
Of life's all changing scene;
Youth's happy morn comes gaily on
With hills and valleys green;
Next summer's prime succeeds the spring,
Then Autumn with a tear;
When comes old Winter—death and all
Must find a level here.

Select Miscellany.

A PARAGRAPH ON CATS.—Bayard Taylor, in his "New Volume of Travels," gives the following humorous description of the cats of Aleppo:

"The other remarkable thing here is the hospital for cats. This was founded long ago by a rich cat-loving Musselman, and is one of the best endowed institutions in that city. An old Mosque is appropriated to that purpose, under the charge of several directors, and here sick cats are nursed, homeless cats find shelter, and decrepit cats gracefully purr away their declining years.

"The whole category embraces several hundreds, and it is quite a sight to behold the corridors and the area of the mosque swarming with them.—Here, one with bruised limbs is receiving a catplasm; there, a cataleptic patient is tenderly cared for; and so on through the long concatenation of feline diseases. Aleppo, moreover, rejoices in a greater number of cats than even Jerusalem. At a rough guess, I should thus state the population of the city: Turks and Arabs, 70,000; Christians, of all denominations, 15,000; Jews, 19,000; dogs, 12,000; cats, 8,000."

RELIGIOUS BIGOTRY.—O'Connel describes religious bigotry in the following nervous language: "She has no head, and cannot think—no heart, and cannot feel. When she moves it is in wrath—when she pauses it is amidst ruin—her prayers are curses—her God is a demon—her communion is death—her vengeance is eternity—her decalogue is written in the blood of her victims—and if she stops for a moment in her infernal flight it is upon a kindred rock to whet her vulture fang for a more sanguinary desolation."

BREAD BAKED BY STEAM.—We have before us a huge loaf of bread, baked by steam, at the State Farm School in Monson. Messrs. Blanchard & Kimball, of this city, have, after a course of experiments, made an oven which is successfully heated by steam, and which now does all the baking for the Monson institution. It is said to bake meats very finely, and the bread is certainly baked excellently well. The steam surrounds the oven, and can be maintained at a given temperature with great evenness. The success of this experiment would seem to show that large hotels and all public institutions, can do nearly every variety of cooking by steam. Steak cannot be broiled over live coals, nor chestnuts roasted in the ashes by steam, but all the rest, we believe, is provided for.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

HARD FOR THE DOG.—The Pittsfield Eagle says great regard for the comfort of his fellow-passengers, but not much for his dog, was manifested by a Frenchman who took the cars at Pittsfield for New York. The animal was a valuable one, and he did not like to leave him, nor did he like to take him into the cars to the discomfort of the passengers, so, procuring a stout cord, he attached one end to the dog's collar, and the other end to the back of the rear car. The train went into Bridgeport with a brass collar and a dog's ear attached. Considerable dog was strewn along the track.

NEGRO NONCHALANCE.—A New York negro was brought up before the Mayor of Philadelphia, one day last week, for stealing chickens.

"Well, Toby," said his honor, "what have you got to say for yourself?"

"Nuffin, but dis, boss: I was as crazy as a bed-bug in blazes, when I stole dat ar pullet, cos I might hab stole de big rooster, but I nebber done it. Dat shows clusively to my mind dat I was laboring under délirium tremendous!"

Notwithstanding this logical defence, Toby was committed to jail.

A SMART BOY.—A little boy of our acquaintance recently attended church, and, after listening attentively to the parable of the wise and foolish house-builders, said to his mother, on the way home, "I don't think that man was so wise, after all."

"And why not, my son."

"Why, if his house was built on a rock, where could he find a place for his cellar?"

"Sure enough, sonny, where could he?"—that idea never struck us before.

☞ A fashionable lady at a watering place had a favorite lap-dog, which she called Percharce.

"A singular name for your beautiful pet, madam; where did you find it?"

"Oh," drawled she, most exquisitely, "it was named from Byron's dog. You remember where he speaks of it, and says,

"Percharce my dog will howl!"

FASHIONABLE FADS IN PARIS.—A writer alluding to the perfect mania in extravagance which appears to exist in Paris, mentions that even the fans now in use are marked by elaborateness of workmanship, and cost as high as 2,000 each. $25 or $30 is considered the merest trifle for one of these highly decorated, carved and enriched articles.

His CLOTHING is all of his own manufacturing, and well made, of the very best materials, and none of your CITY-MADE TRASH, which has been put together in a hurry by crushing the poor seamstress with a mere pittance for her labor, or done with the loop-stitch of a Sewing Machine, which if one stitch gives way the whole seam is gone.—We give fair wages, have our work well done, and made of the best materials, and our young ladies come in with the garments with smiling countenances and cheerful hearts. New Principle! No Poison!

Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure,

OR, ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA,

FOR the Prevention and Cure of FEVER and AGUE, or CHILL FEVER; DUMB AGUE, and other INTERMITTENT and REMITTENT FEVERS; also of BILIOUS FEVERS, accompanied by TYPHOID SYMPTOMS; TYPHOID FEVER, YELLOW FEVER, SHIP and JAIL FEVER, GENERAL DEBILITY, NIGHT SWEATS, and all other forms of disease which have a common origin in Malaria or Miasma.

This subtle atmospheric poison, which at certain seasons is unavoidably inhaled at every breath, is the same in character wherever it exists,—north, south, east, or west,—and will every where yield to this newly discovered ANTIDOTE, which neutralizes the poison, completely purifies the system, and thus entirely removes all the cause of disease.

The proprietor distinctly claims these extraordinary results for its use:

It will protect any resident or traveller, even in the most sickly or swampy localities, from any Ague or Bilious disease whatever, or any injury from constantly inhaling Malaria or Miasma.

It will instantly check the Ague in persons who have suffered for any length of time, from one day to twenty years, so that they need never to have another chill, by continuing its use according to directions.

It will immediately relieve all the distressing results of bilious or ague diseases, such as general debility, night sweats, etc.—The patient at once begins to recover appetite and strength, and continues until a permanent and radical cure is effected. And as a proof that it is also

WORTHY OF PUBLIC CONFIDENCE,

Because of its

Singular and Entire Harmlessness,

The following certificate from one of the most celebrated chemists in the United States is attached to every bottle:

New York, June 11, 1855.

"I have made a chemical examination of "RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE," or "ANTIDOTE TO MALARIA," and have tested it for Arsenic, Mercury, Quinine, and Strychnine, but have not found a particle of either in it, nor have I found any substance in its composition that would prove injurious to the constitution.

JAS. R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist."

This allows of its

FREE USE AS A PREVENTIVE,

by which all persons may thus be sure of entire freedom from the above named diseases, no matter how sickly the season or swampy the locality.

☞ PROOFS OF EFFICACY are frequently published, and the confidence of the public is asked only in proportion to its actual merits wherever introduced and used. These only are relied upon to prove its worth.

One or two bottles will answer for ordinary cases; some may require more. Directions in German, French and Spanish, accompany each bottle. Price one dollar.

A Marvellous Remedy for a Marvellous Age!

Holloway's Ointment.

THE GRAND EXTERNAL REMEDY.

By the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, disorders of the Liver, affections of the heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthmas, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes freely through bone or meat of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum & Scorbutic Humors.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

Sore Legs, Sore Breasts, Wounds & Ulcers.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Prof. Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, dispatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

Piles and Fistulas.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions	Piles	Sores of all kinds
Burns	Rheumatism	Sprains
Chapped Hands	Salt Rheum	Scalds
Childblains	Skin Diseases	Swelled Glands
Fistulas	Sore Legs	Stiff Joints
Gout	Sore Breasts	Ulcers
Lumbago	Sore Heads	Venereal Sores
Mercurial Eruptions	Sore Throats	Wounds of all kinds

 Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80, Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States, and the civilized World, in Pots, at 25 cents, 62½ cents, and $1 each.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

Diamond Tonsor.

JOHN W. TIPTON, Fashionable Barber and Hair Dresser, can at all times be found prepared to attend to the calls of the people, at the Temple, in the Diamond, adjoining the County Building. From long experience, he flatters himself that he can go through all the ramifications of the Tonsorial Department with such an infinite degree of skill, as will meet with the entire satisfaction of all who may submit their chins to the keen ordeal of his razors. He hopes, therefore, that by his attention to business, and a desire to please, he will merit as well as receive, a liberal share of public patronage. The sick will be attended to at their private dwellings.
