

REPUBLICAN COMPILER

GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY-MORNING, MARCH 10, 1856.

For President,
JAMES BUCHANAN,
 (OF PENNSYLVANIA.)
 Canal Commissioner,
GEORGE SCOTT,
 (OF COLUMBIA COUNTY.)
 Auditor General,
JACOB FRY, JR.,
 (OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.)
 Surveyor General,
TIMOTHY IVES,
 (OF POTTER COUNTY.)

Democratic Ticket.

We have raised the names of the candidates nominated by the 4th of March Democratic State Convention to our mast head, and shall hereafter, say something in regard to the merits and fitness of each. We should do so now, but that we are prevented by want of room, our columns being crowded by the doings of the Convention. We may say, however, that the ticket is well received by all lovers of a wise and economical government, and will triumph handsomely.

The Convention was one of the most able and respectable we ever saw assembled at Harrisburg, and good feeling prevailed throughout. The resolutions, prepared and offered by that unflinching Democrat, Hon. J. N. DAWSON, of Fayette, contain true doctrines, such as must and will be sustained by a constitution loving people. Read the proceedings.

Virginia Democratic State Convention.

A telegraphic dispatch, dated Baltimore, March 3, says:

The Democratic Convention of Virginia adjourned on Saturday evening, after adopting a platform, which re-affirms the rights of the States, deprecates the granting of the public lands for internal improvements, opposes any increase in the duty on imports, endorses the Cincinnati Convention to nominate the candidate most likely to be elected, denounces the views and purposes of the American Order, and endorses the present National Administration.

The delegates, although uninstructed, are said to be in favor of Mr. Buchanan.

Municipal Elections.

Know Nothings Routed.—At the borough election in Hollidaysburg, held on the 15th ult., the Know Nothings and Black Republicans were completely routed. The Democrats and old-line Whigs elected all the officers save one, and that one barely slipped in by two majority. Know Nothingism in old Hollidaysburg is evidently on its last legs.

Chicago, March 5.—M. Dyer, the Democratic candidate for Mayor of this city, was yesterday elected by 400 majority. The council stands four Republicans to five Democrats.

Rochester, March 4.—At our charter election to-day Hon. Samuel G. Andrews was elected Mayor by 2,186 majority. Mr. Andrews was run on the Republican, Citizens' and Reform ticket. The ward officers elected are nearly all anti-K. N.'s by large majorities.

Scranton, March 4.—Charles F. Williston, Democrat, was to-day elected Mayor of this city by about 100 majority.

Utica, March 4.—Alick Hubble, Republican, is probably elected Mayor of this city by about 100 majority.

Oswego, March 5.—At the election for Mayor to-day the vote resulted thus:—L. B. Croker, (dem.) 834; Mollison, (K. N.) 670; Childs, (Rep.) 431.

Know Nothingism is not a whit better now than it was the day Ned Buntline first gave it existence in some dark cellar in New York. At that time it succeeded upon falsehood and deception for support, and they are its main stay still. Sworn as its members are to the business, and constituting the class of politicians they do, reformation is not soon to be expected, if ever.

They tell us that their dark lantern movements are abolished. We do not believe a word of the declaration, if it is intended to apply equally to the managing, or third degree members. That they have held several meetings in this Borough within the last two weeks there are good reasons to believe. The testimony is infinitely more reliable than the repeated and apparently candid denials of these self-constituted managers. We take it that they were caught—and so will the reader, when informed that considerable numbers of them were seen congregating, in a quiet way, at two different places, on two different nights, under aspects exactly resembling their original dark lantern movements. Such are the facts as we have received them from a truthful quarter, and the rumors on the street in reference to the fixing of a borough ticket at such caucuses certainly do not tend to invalidate them.

We say to our friends in town and country—to all opposed to the trickery of Know Nothing politicians—be on your guard! That they have laid traps to deceive the honest and unsuspecting at the spring elections there is every reason to conjecture, may believe—and hence the necessity for caution. Settle good tickets, bring out a fair vote, and thus disappoint the dark lantern tricksters.

Well sold.—J. D. Price recently sold 5 acres of land, lying between Carvertown and Smithburg, to Mr. Geo. Winters, for $150 per acre, cash.

Manchester 37 below zero this morning.

Who are Americans Now?

We have heard of no efforts for more than a year to find out "who struck Billy Patterson." A more difficult problem has taken its place: "What is Americanism?" It is strange, remarks the Washington Union, that in a country where all are Americans, no one can be found who can tell "who is an American." Every locality has its peculiar notions on the subject, and when the various conflicting opinions are compared, they are found to be almost as numerous as the States of the Union.

Three national councils have been held by delegates, all of whom claimed to understand the subject thoroughly; but on each occasion, when they came to compare notes, each man had cause to doubt his own identity as an American, or to regard his brother delegates as impostors.

The two first councils were acknowledged failures, leaving the question as unsettled as before. The delegates to the last council were so eager to have this matter settled satisfactorily that they anticipated their regular day of meeting, and spent four days in a most laborious effort to ascertain who they were and what they were; in other words, who were "Americans" and what was "Americanism." The result was an abrogation and repudiation of all their former charts and foibles and tomfooleries, and the adoption of fifteen new planks as the true tests of "Americanism," and consequently it is now to be understood that whoever can stand on all these planks is a genuine Simon-Pure "American"; "Provided, nevertheless, (in the language of the 14th plank.) That a majority of those members present at any meeting of a local council when an applicant applies for membership in the American party, may, for any reason by them deemed sufficient, deny admission to such applicant."

It would look, from this, like the question was still open, and, after all, that it is to depend upon the vote of a majority of each local council "who are Americans." This is bringing the privilege of "Americanism" to a new and a strange test. A native-born citizen, devoted to the constitution, scarred all over with wounds in defence of his country, prepared to subscribe to the fifteen articles of the last creed, may be told that he cannot be an "American" unless five out of nine of his neighbors who constitute the majority of the council present, no one of whom ever aspired higher in the service of his country than to claim a lion's share of the spoils and to distinguish himself in denouncing and slandering better men than himself, shall consent that he may enjoy the privileges of "Americanism" and bear the name of an "American."

It will be observed that the applicant may "openly avow the opinions and principles" laid down in the platform and may "subscribe his name" to it, but this council of inquisitors has the right, "for any reason by them deemed sufficient," to exclude him from the party.

If the majority of the council present happen to have prejudices against long noses, or red heads, or large feet, no long-nosed, red-haired, or large-footed man can be an "American."

If the majority happen to have special use for all the spoils within their locality, and desire no competitors from without, they can readily exclude every dangerous applicant as a barbarian not fit to be an "American."

If the majority happen to be men having no special sympathy with honesty, they may shut the door against an honest applicant, and decide him unworthy, on account of his honesty, to be an "American."

On the other hand, the majority at the next meeting may be on the other side of the several questions indicated, and they may exclude all snub-nosed, black-haired, small-footed applicants, and so on, reversing the test of "Americanism" at each successive meeting, according to the accidental whims, caprices, or prejudices of the majority present. And let it not be forgotten that every "local council" throughout the Union is vested with this singular power of determining who shall and who shall not be Americans. We apprehend that the last national council has proved as complete a failure as its predecessors in their effort to define Americanism, and to determine who are Americans.

FILLMORE A KNOW NOTHING.—In the New York K. N. State Council at Canandaigua, on Wednesday week, the statement made in the Philadelphia Convention that Mr. FILLMORE was not a member of the Order, was contradicted by the President of Council 171, of Buffalo, who gave the assurance that he himself was present when the obligation of each of the degrees was administered to Mr. FILLMORE, and that he is a member of the Order in good standing. Humiliating!

STILL THEY COME.—JAMES M'CARON, Esq., District Attorney for Jefferson county, and a young man of ability, renounced the dark lantern party, at a Democratic meeting in Brookville, on the 11th ult. He expressed a determination to act with the Democratic party hereafter.

The Annual Commencement of the Medical Department of Pa. College took place in Philadelphia, on Wednesday last. Rev. Dr. BACHTER conferred the degree of Doctor of Medicine on 37 graduates—among them, Drs. T. T. TATE and F. W. VANDERLUGT, of this place. Prof. BIDDLE delivered the address to the Class. We are gratified to learn that this institution is in a prosperous condition. No medical school in the country has an abler or better appointed faculty.

The Governor of Louisiana has offered a reward of $1,000 for such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the persons who broke the ballot-boxes at the seventh and 9th precincts in New Orleans on the night of the 5th November, 1855.

There is nothing new from Europe.—Affairs between England and this country are in a fair way of adjustment, and peace between Russia and the Allies is still probable—if anything more certain than by the previous arrival.

LOCAL ITEMS.

COUNTY MAP.

Messrs. A. D. BYLES and R. P. SMITH, of Philadelphia, who have for several years past been engaged in the County Map publishing business in New York and Pennsylvania, intend shortly to commence surveys of this (Adams) county, with a view to publish a MAP thereof—a something long desired, and which, we have no doubt, will be well patronized by our citizens. All the public roads and township lines, and the locations of the mills, taverns, places of worship, post offices, school houses, country stores, smith shops, wheelwrights, &c., are to be marked, and the names of the property holders generally given. The size of the map will be about five feet, handsomely colored and mounted, at five dollars per copy. We suppose that the county will be canvassed for subscribers. Put us down for one, anyhow.

FACTORY BURNT.

The Woolen Factory of Messrs. T. & D. WARREN, of this place, located on Middle creek, in Freedom township, a short distance from the Emmitsburg road, was destroyed by fire at a late hour on Saturday night, the 1st inst. The contents, including valuable machinery, &c., were also consumed, so that the loss is a total one. The building and machinery were insured in the Cumberland Valley Company for $21,000, which will cover part of the loss of the Messrs. WARREN. The tenant, DANIEL LEE, also has an insurance of $1,000, in the State Mutual Company.

Circumstances of a suspicious character appearing against LEE, he was arrested on Monday, on the complaint of the Messrs. WARREN, and committed to jail to answer the charge of having fired the building.

SAD AFFAIR.

On Saturday evening last, an altercation occurred between WM. TATE and LEVI WEAVER, in Chambersburg street, in which the former received serious injury in the left side, from a pocket knife in the hands of the latter. Not being thoroughly acquainted with the particulars, we forbear giving any now. WEAVER was arrested, and committed for trial by Justice BRINGMAN. TATE is doing as well as could be expected.

RAILROAD TO TANEYTOWN.

A meeting of the citizens of Taneytown and vicinity recently took place at the house of Wm. Fisher, in that village, at which Messrs. James Piper, Upton Scott, Mr. Buffington, Mr. Longley, W. W. Dallas, James Cronis, James McAllister, Samuel Gault, R. J. Jameson, and Thomas Radisil, were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions towards the construction of a Railroad from Taneytown to Littlestown.

ALARM.

The alarm of fire, on Saturday evening, was caused by the burning of a chimney in South Washington street.

SNOW.

Several inches of snow fell yesterday and last night. "Will it never whoa?"

ONE WAR SWALLOWING ANOTHER.

Since the war with the United States has broken out in the English press our own papers have not had a single battle in Kansas, though every day before that the most alarming reports of engagements were reported. As the Philadelphia Ledger observes, there never was an instance in which a foreign war so completely swallowed up domestic insurrection. If the foreign war should cease as suddenly as it has broken out, we shall probably have some more bloody operations on paper in the excitement journals.
