Another New Movel!

TITORKS of fiction are now considered as part and parcel of all intelligent households; and scarcely a family will be without our new novel entitled "The Fireman!"-the most interesting work of fiction from the press of 1856. The reader's attention is caught with the first chapter, and "finis" stares him in the face before the interest lessens. The book is like a moving panorama of ever varying, always admired succession of new and pleasing scenes and exciting incidents, each chapter being more interesting than its predecessor.-A feature that adds to its lasting merits, is the fact-of its high moral tone-not a single sentiment being inculcated that the most fastidious moralist could object to. "The Fireman" will be a large 12mo.
