TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR

A family Newspaper---- Denated to Politics, Agriculture, Literature, Arts and Sciences, The Markets, General Domestic and Foreign Intelligence, Advertising, Amusement, &c.

38TH YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, APRIL 7, 1856.

TERMS OF THE COMPILER.

The Republican Compiler is published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STAHLE. at $1,75 per annum if paid in advance—$2.00 per annum if not paid in advance. No subscription discontinued, unless at the option o the publisher, until all arrearages are paid-ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates. JOB WORK done, neatly, cheaply, and with

Office on South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Court House.

Choice Poetry.

ANGEL-MUSIC.

When the twilight weeps 'neath her szure veil, And the sweet flowers sigh as the day grows pale, Then an angel comes on her silver wings, And a golden harp in her hand she brings; Soft, sweet and low, Rich numbers flow,

And I hush my breath while the angel sings! Oh! the love-rays fall from her dew-filled eye, Like the soft star beams from the twilight sky. And she fans my brow with her fragrant wings, While she gently strikes on her golden strings! Soft, sweet and law,

Rich numbers flow, And I weep for joy while the angel sings!

Like the soft, south wind, when it woos the flowers, Like the glad bird's note in the love-wreathed bowers. Like the thrilling sigh of the wind's harp-strings, Are the rapture-tones that the angel sings! Soft, sweet and low.

Glad breathings flow, And I dream of love while the angel sings!

Like the plaintive voice of the mouning pine, Like the wild, wild wave of the heaving brine, Like the groans that sweep on night wind's wings, Is the strange, sad song that the angel sings! Dark, deep and low, Sad mounings flow,

And I weep over the lost while the angel sings! Then a lofty strain on the rich harp swells, And the soul of bliss in its music dwells: And the tide of song o'er the glowing strings

Flows fresh and free from the Eden springs!

Soft, sweet and low, Rich breathings flow, And I dream of Heaven while the angel sings! La Grange, Tenn

Select Miscellann.

Lady or Wife.

It makes a man of refinement unconsciously double up his fist, to be stopped just as he has parted from a friend, his mother or sister perhaps, with, "I say, who is that female?" But there is another vulgarism in common custom which quite as much needs' reformation—that of styling a man's wife his "lady." "Lady" does not mean "wife." It may mean a very different personage. Nor is every man's wife ipso facto his "lady." All are aware that the signification of the word has materially changed. That from designating a woman of high education and refinement of manners, it has come to signify "any one that wears a hat and feathers." It is for that very reason we object to its being used synonymously with wife.

Our idea of the matter may perhaps be best expressed by a story we remember to have seen. The wife of a Dean of the English her residence and made a triffing purchase, I will show you how to bow." A second larequesting it might be sent home. The grocer dy came along at the moment, and Hdeclined to send it, as the time was worth more than the purchase. Thinking to overpower him, she said with an assumption of erous ice threw up his heels, the wind took his stately dignity, "Sir, I am the Dean of ____'s scratch far away, the force of the fall jerked lady." The sturdy shopman with a low bow | the hat out of his hands, and there sat II ---replied: "If you were his Reverence's wife, ma'm, I couldn't do it." Now we beseech our young friend, John Smith, who is enjoying a honey-moon tour with his rosy-cheeked bride, for heaven's sake do not write your names at the hotels as "John Smith and lady," but as "Mr. and Mrs. Smith," or in plainer troit Advertiser. "Saxon, "John Smith and wife."

A REMARKABLE OLD LADY.—We copy the following from the Hartford Courant:

"Mrs. Polly Beeman, of Birmingham, Connecticut, is in her 92d year. Her husband, Tracy Beeman, died a short time ago. He was week of the epidemic, and was riding home at two years the senior of his wife. They had a pretty smart gait, was brought up by a man lived in the same farm-house 69 years. They running out of the house and inquiring: 'Say, had a family of nine children, the eldest of have they got the rale yellow fever in town? whom now is 73, and was married when she Oh, yes; there's no doubt of that, I reckon,' was fourteen. Of the grand children there are was the answer. 'And is it a fact that they've now 49, the eldest of whom is 56 years.— There are 150 great-grandchildren, and 18 it's bad enough to have one disease, without great-great-grandchildren. The family comes | another to help it along.' This filled the genof tough stock and enjoys iron constitutions. This venerable woman can call two hundred putting the switch to his horse, he was off to and thirty of her lineal pedigree around her Thanksgiving table. Their united ages now had followed each other consecutively, the first might have been an old lady of 1,700 summers at the day Adam woke up and ate forbidden fruit with his paramour. Our Connecticut old lady intends to take a long journey next week

TEN THOUSAND BLESSINGS .- A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette states that a clergyman in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, who lately [it." married a lady with whom he received the substantial dowry of ten thousand dollars, while the gastric mucous membrane communicating occuping the pulpit, he gave out a hymn, read the four first verses, and was proceeding to read the fifth, commencing, ·Forever let my grateful heart,12 when he hesitated, baulked, and exclaimed - Ahem! The choir will omit the fifth verse," and sat down. The congregation attracted by his apparent confusion, read the verse for themselves, and smiled almost audibly as they read:

Forever let my grateful heart His boun liess grace after, Which gives ten thousand blessings now, And bids me hope for more."

The following torst was given at a celebration of Washington's birth day, in a Southern city: "Woman-The centre and circumfetre and components, and yet not coincide?" | best friend. Let the mathematicians solve this question.

Girls Should Learn to Keep House.

No young lady can be too well instructed in but on this account sho needs no less knowledge than if she was obliged to preside personally over the cooking stove and pantry. Indeed. I have often thought it was more difficult to direct others, and requires more experience, than to do the same work with our own hands.

Mothers are frequently so nice and particu- me? lar that they do not like to give up any part of their care to their children. This is a great mistake in their arrangement, for they are often burdened with labor, and need relief. Children should be taught to make themselves in their power, and consider it a privilege to To fork back is a thing unknown to Africa."

Young people cannot realize the importance of a thorough knowledge of housewifery, but those who have suffered the inconveniences and mortifications of ignorance can well appreciate it. Children should be early indulged in God forbid!' their disposition to bake and experiment in cooking in various ways. It is often but a Bey; I you choose the French, after all. I great advantage to them.

Some mothers give their daughters the care of house-keeping cach week by turns .- It get it next year, for he loves justice !" scems to me a good arrangement, and a most useful part of their education.

Domestic labor is by no means incompatible with the highest degree of refinement and mental culture. Many of the most elegant and accomplished women. I have known, have looked well to their household duties, and have honored themselves and their husbands by so do-

A tailor having amassed a fortune by his trade, cut the shop and removed to the country to live in dignified leisure. His wife was a bit of a shrew, and apt, as all wives are, to find out her husband's weak points. One of these was a shame of his former occupation. and she harped upon the jarring strings, until the poor wretch was nearly beside himself. Her touch-word "scissors," spoiled his bonmots, and embittered his grandest entertainment; it was flame to tow. He stormed and wheedled ; the obnoxious instrument was brandished before his eyes. They were walking one day on the bank of a river bounding his

"You observe," said he, "the delta formedby the fork of the river. Its beauty decided me to close the contract.' "Very probable, my dear-it reminds one so much of an open pair of scissors."

One push, and she was struggling in the "I will pull you out if you promise never to say that word again," halloed the still foaming husband. "Scissors!" shricked his wife, and down she

"Scissors!" as she rose again. The third time she came to the surface, too far gone to speak; but as the waters closed over her, she threw up her, arms, crossing her fore fingers

MANNERS AT MARSHALL, MICH.—One day since "the prevalent ice," H- and Wwere walking upon the main street at Marshall, when the latter bowed to a lady acquaintance. H--- remarked, "that is no way to bow church, called at a grocer's some distance from | to a lady-wait till we meet another, and who wears a scratch, throwing his soul into the movement, raised his hat, but the treachhis eyes filled with tears, looking from hat to scratch, from scratch to hat, like a shaking Mandarin. "Hillo," said W--- "I can't do that, for my hair holds tight to my head." II collected his personal property, made for his office, and was "no more seen."-De-

> The southern correspondent of an exchange paper relates the following story of the yellow fever in Mississippi: "A gentleman from the country, who had been in Port Gibson some time during the first got the quarantine long with it? I'll swar, tleman on the road too full for utterance,' and however, had neglected the 'rudiments.' The the bung of a barrel.' incident was too good to keep, and so he related it. 'Haw, haw, haw!' roared the honest with my child's nose? she keeps a pickin' of brick floored the newsbringer, and he 'rolled.'

"Yes, marm; its probably an irritation of tress, as well as a master. a sympathetic titillation to the epithelium of the echœrian!"

"Thar. now, that's jest what I told Becky; she lowed it was the worrums!'

Charles-"Clara, ded poor Carlo have a pink ribbon round his neck when you lost him?" Clara- 'Yes, yes, the poor little dear, but that folly is without guilt. To commoni-have you seen him?" Charles-"No, not ex- cate those with which we are cutrusted, is alactly-but here's a piece of pink ribbon in the ways treachery, and treachery for the most Chesterfield having been informed by his ulated himself that he was not so tall by a foot dividual you can start. Like vinegar, the afas Sir Thomas Robinson.

rence, radius, diameter and periphery, segment A Wag having been told that the price and semi-circle, sine and tangent of all our afford had fallen—evolaimed, "This is the inst-time that I ever rejoiced at the fall of my

"Shaw." said a disconsolate and loving

Oriental Justice.

A certain Captain Baculard left Marseilles anything that will affect the comforts of a fam- for China, but being buffetted by the winds he in Vermont, as well as out West. The papers ily. Whatever position in society she occu- hauled up in the harbor of Tunis to await the furnish the following statement of the products pies, she needs a practical knowledge of the weather. The collector of the port came on of the farm of Mr. A. M. Clark, of St. Albans, duties of a housekeeper. She may be placed board. Capt. Baculard represented that he for the year 1855: in such circumstances that it will not be neces- was freighted for Canton, that be had nothing 7176 bushels grain estimated at sary for her to perform much domestic labor ; to do with Tunis, and that he only put in from 3230 lbs. wool, net. stress of the weather.

But the collector exhibited a determination Received from a dairy of 45 cows, that he should fork over. Capt. Baculard did fork over in a rage, but instantly repaired to the palace of the Bey. demanding justice. "Good Frank," said the Bey, "I am your friend. God is great. What do you want of "Your Highness," answered Capt. Baculard, your custom-house has robbed me. I have forked over-fork back." "Excellent_individual!" answered the Bev. in this country when we have dust we keep useful-to assist their parents in every way it. The original acquisition is a difficulty.

> "But shall I not have justice?" "Certainly: Every one has justice in Tunis. Will you have it in French or Tunisian fashion?' "Your Highness, I have had a lawsuit or two in France. Justice in French fashion!-

"But I don't press it on you," observed the 'troublesome help" they afford, still it is a will speak to your Consul. He loves justice! good man! Three of my subjects applied to him two years ago for indemnity, and they will

> I'm in a great hurry!' "Be it so, then. God is great. What is your cargo ?`

"French justice! never! Give me Tunisian.

"Marseilles soap, and twenty thousand cot-"It is well. Go away and be tranquil."

The Bey summoned the Vizier. "Vizier." said he, "there is no God but God, and Mawho appears to morrow out of doors, without soft. a cotton cap, will have a little transaction to settle with me."

There were twenty thousand Jews in Tunis. and not one single cap in the place. They all made their wills, when they learned through the officers of the customs that Capt. Baculard had them, and he immediately sold the invoice et two dollars the cap. He rushed to the palace and poured out his thanks.

"Not so fast," said the Bey, "I am not done yet. Call my Vizier. Proclaim," said the Bey, "that every Jew who keeps a cotton cap another hour will have trouble with me. God is great, and I am the lineal descendant of

The Vizier made a grand salute, placing his leg on the back of his neck, according to the custom of the Court, and retired. When Capt. Baculard returned to the dock, he found the twenty thousand Jews already awaiting him, caps in hand. He might have had the caps for nothing, but desirous to leave a name behind him for generosity and greatness of soul, he bought them at two cents apiece !

Pretty Good Eating.

The church in Billington a few years ago was earnest in the matter of reform, and banshed all drinkers of strong liquors from its communion. Old Deacon Manton had lived threescore years, taking his bitters three times a day, but he could not resist the pressure of he times; he submitted to the new measure, and resigned his favorité beverage without a word, but not without a groan. Next came the crusade against tea and coffee, and as the Deacon was never very fond of them, he yielded them more readily, and indeed rather made a virtue of taking the lead. But when a newpreacher came in, and lifted up his voice like trumpet against the use of tobacco, Deacon Manton felt called upon to take a stand against the radicalism of the church. He had chewed the weed forty years, and loved it too well to give it up without a struggle. At the church meeting he said: "I'll tell you what it is, brethren; when you went agin speritons likers I went agin 'em, too, and store-tea, and coffee, and all them sort of things; but now I say. you take rale good tobakker, and it's what I And he stuck to it. The most of the male brethren were of the Deacon's mind, and the lady-reformers had to give in. We were amused the other day at the naivette of a very dark African matron, who was exhibiting several rather fine-looking children, equally dark as herself. We ventured to admire an infant in her arms, rather ominously light in complexion, but she declared she could not bear him.

"Why?" we asked. "Because." said she, "he is too light, and shows dirt too easily."

Man exchange, noticing the present of a silver cup to a cotemporary, says : "He needs die of grief upon learning that such an act had make the woods resound with his pent up no cup. He can drink from any vessel that laughter. Reaching his destination, he must contains liquor, whether the neck of a bottle, request all persons who desired to contribute amount to 7,724 years; so that if this family tell it to a friend, a plain, honest man, who, the mouth of a demijohn, the spile of a keg, or

The following bit of gossip is from the John. 'Why, dod darn the all-fired fool to Cleveland Herald: Everybody says that the thunder, didn't he know that the quarantine affection which really detained Senator Dougbehind the iron horse.' She ought to have a was nothing but the black vomit? The last las in this city so long, was not all of the throat, but that the heart had something to do with it. How the matter stands, of course no-Doctor, kin you tell what's the matter | body knows, but somebody does say that that beautiful pair of bays, which the Senator sent on from Summit county, will soon have a mis-

> A very excellent lady sought to instruct her grandchild in relation to the provident care of Heaven; "Who gives you your daily bread?" asked she. "Dod!" replied the child: "but Uncle Peter puts the butter and sugar on."

To tell our own secrets is generally folly. part combined with folly.

The love of a cross woman, they say, hysician that he was dying by inches, congrat- stronger than the love of any other female infections of a high strong woman never spoil. It's the sweet wines that become acidulated; not the saur ones.

A young lady being asked by a boring politician which party she was in favor of, replied that she preferred a wedding party.

A Vermont Farm.

It would seem that there are some large farms

Cattle, sheep, and horses sold, 1,236 00 1,350 00

$9,055 00 Hay enough is cut on said farm to winter his stock, consisting of 671 sheep, 123 head of cattle and 56 horses; and the stock sold does not exceed the growth and increase.

PROFITS OF BROOM CORN.-A Virginia pa per states that Mr. H. S. Owen, who recently purchased Winchester's Island, containing 80 acres, for $6,000, has realized half that sum for his crop of broom corn this season. Mr. O had 60 acres, under cultivation, from which he realized 40,000 pounds of broom straw, and sold it at prices varying from $7.50 to $10 per hundred—averaging full $8. In addition to this, he gathered about 3,000, bushels of seed, worth 25 cents per bushel, or $750 for the lot or $4,000 for the produce of only 60 acres; which deducting for cost of cultivation, leaves $3,000 net.-Louisville Jour.

TO SOFTEN HARD WATER.-Water is frequently hard from holding in solution a quantity of carbonate of lime. It may be rendered rationale of the process is this: Carbonate of water containing carbonic acid. Any water, therefore, that contains carbonite of lime in unites with it, forming the insoluble carbonate of lime, which, together with the carbonate of homet is his Prophet. We love justice. We lime originally in the water, falls to the botlove the Franks. Proclaim that every Jew tom of the vessel, and the supernatint water is

REMEDY FOR TOOTHACHE. - Chainbers' Journal alludes to a discovery by Mr. Blundell. dentist of London, of a process for extracting teeth without pain, and to another process described by Dr. Roberts before the Scottish Society of Arts, for cauterizing the dental nerve. and stopping the teeth without pain, independent of the ordinary intimidating mode of holding a red hot iron before the patient's face. to the required extent by a small electric bat-

REMARKABLE ABSTINENCE FROM FOOD -Samuel Henly, who resides about two and a half miles from Spartapolis, in this county, has totally abstained from food for fifty-seven days! and he may yet survive for several days. For some time he has been in a rather melancholy mood, and about two months ago he refused to eat, and since that time has not taken anything 'except water; and strange to say, he is still alive, though reduced to a mere skeleton. Neither physicians nor friends can induce him swallow nothing, though he does every now starves to death. He is a respectable farmer. about forty-one years of age, and has a wife with. and six children. This is one of the most temarkable cases we have ever heard of. We have our information from the most reliable source, and the facts as given may be fully rehed upon .-- Rockingham (Va.) Virginian, 21st.

EARLY LOVE AND LATE MARRIAGE. - The Cincinnati Columbian relates the following: "A couple, each of whom was over seventy; the bands of wedlock, at one of our principal of life, but circumstances parted them. Each married, raised a family, lost a mate, and then | courts. re-married; and, finally, lost a second mate; call pretty good eaten, and I ain't going to quit and meeting their first love, they concluded to travel down the hill of life together and sleep tottering and white headed, but the fire of love still burned brightly in their hearts."

entertained his congregation with a spacy account of his recent military campaign at New Haven. He closed by appealing to his people to contribute the twenty-live rilles which he had taken the liberty of pledging from Plymouth church, to aid in arming the Kansas emigrants from Connecticut. He remarked been committed on the Sabbath, but he would one rifle or more, (price $25 each,) to confer with him after the service. The Rev. gentleman proclaimed himself good for one rifle, at least, and two if necessary .- N. Y. Jour. Com.

A GREAT CATTLE STATE .- The report of the Auditor of Indiana states that the value of the cattle, as returned by the several township Assessors from eighty-three counties, being all from which returns were made, was on the 1st of June last $7,578,200-nearly eight millions of dollars.

If any one can convince me that I am wrong in any point of sentiment or practice, I will altar it with all my heart, for it is truth

The Great God seems to have given that commandment-know thyself-to those men more especially who are apt to make remarks on other men's actions, and forget themselves:

When our desires are fulfilled to the very letter, we always find some mistake which renders them anything but what we expected. India rubber ladders don't answer as well as was supposed. There is a draw back connected with them ; you climb all day without getting up any. "It's all around my hat," as the hypocrite said when he put on mourning for his devoted wife.

THE NEW LICENSE BILL.

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senute and which bond and warrant shall be approved by House of Representatives of the Communwealth the said court and be filed in the office of the of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and clerk of the quarter sessions of the proper it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same. | county : and whonever a judgment for any for-That from and after the passage of this act it feiture or fine shall have been recovered or shall be unlawful to keep and maintain any house, room or place, where vinous, spirituous, jons of this act, or of any other law, for the obthereof, are sold or drank, except as hereinafter ed. it shall be the duty of the district attorney

Section 2. That no licenses bereafter issued institute suit thereon, and thereupon the same as o any vendors of vinous, spirituous, mait or brewed liquors, or any admixtures thereof, feet, and with the same costs as now provided either with or without other goods, wares and by law in the case of forfeited bonds and remercandize, shall authorize sales of said liquors cognizances, in the several counties of this quantity, be granted to the keeper of any beer iouse, theatre or other place of amusement.

Section 3. That breweries and distilleries aforesaid, until the applicant shall have filed a n all parts of the State shall be returned, class- the certificate of the city or county treasurer ed, assessed and licensed, agreeably to the that the license fee has been paid provisions of the act of tenth of April. Anno lime is insoluble in pure water, but soluble in water containing carbonic acid. Any water, than fifty dollars, nor shall such license au amount shall be granted for a less sum than of thorize sales by them of less than five gallons, fifty dollars. solution, contains free carbonic acid. When except malt and brewed liquors, which may Secretor 13. That all hotels inns, and than one dozen bottles.

this act.

Section 6. That licenses to yenders of vinous,

SECTION 7. That licenses for sales of liquors

of quarter sessions of the proper county, his. State for a less sum than twenty dollars, and make her, or their petition, at least three weeks before presenting the same in court, or to the THOSE TWENTY-FIVE SHARP'S RIPLES. -On board of licensers, as the case may be; and tion of this act, shall be assessed and returned; Sunday evening last Rev. Henry Ward Beecher | shall at the same time pay said clerk twenty- as provided in the sixth, seventh, eighth, and five cents for publishing notice thereof, and ninth sections of an act relating to inns, taveins said clerk shall cause to be published three and retailers of vinous and spiritnous liquors, times, in two of the newspapers of the proper | passed the eleventh day of March Anno Domini, city or county, a list containing the names of one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, all such applicants, their respective residences and those classified under the twelfth and four and kinds of license. If not more than one teenth sections of this act, shall be assessed newspaper be published in any city or county, and returned by the persons, and in the manthat he would not take up the contribution then said publication in it shall be sufficient; ner provided by law in the several counties of that evening, as some religious journals might but if no newspaper be printed in any city or this State, for the appraisement of mercantile county, then the publication shall be by print- taxes: Provided. That in the city of Philadeled handbills in such manner as the court may | phia and county of Allegheny, said assessment prescribe, and whether by handbills or adver- and returns shall be made by the board-of licourts as aforesaid; and in the case of hotels, cannot, in due course of law procure his astwelve reputable citizens of the ward, borough, the proper court may on inquiry, fix the avern is proposed to be kept; or if there be Philadelphia and the county of Allegheny. less than fifty taxables in any borough or Section 16. That, for the purpose of grant-ib be granted. four beds for such use.

The fall the delicate sensations the mind is capable of none, periods, will surpass that which attends the relief of an avowed enemy.

Whatever you would have your children in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied by said courts reals in the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied to the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied to the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied to the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied to the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise, shall be supplied to the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise and the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise and the sum of one thousand dollars where the otherwise and th that class, conditioned for the faithful observe ance of all the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the business of the principal obligor, and a warrant of attorney to confess indigment, conviction had for any violation of the provismalt or brewed liquors, or any admixtures servance of which said bond shall be condition of the proper county to enter up judgment and or any admixtures thereof in less quantities Commonwealth. The bond to be given by the in than one gallon, except as hereinafter provided : keepers of eating houses as aforesad shall, in an nor shall any license for the said sales in any all cases, be in the sum of five hundred dollars: 100 SECTION 11. That it shall not be lawful for and the clerk of said court to issue any license as a proceedings shall be had, and with the like ef-

Section 12. That the venders of vinous. Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty- malt, or distilled liquors, either with or withmne; entitled "An Act to create a sinking fund out other goods, wares, or commodities except and to provide for the gradual and certain ex as hereinafter provided, shall be classified and tinguishment of the debt of the Common rated as prescribed in an act to provide revenue. wealth;" and the owner, proprietor or lessee of to meet the demands on the treasury, and forms any and each of the said breweries and distil- other purposes, passed the fourth day of May, is letics shall be assessed and required to pay an- Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and a soft by the addition of a little quick lime. The neally before obtaining a license, double rates forty-one, and shall pay double the additional soft be process, is this: Carbonate of or tax assessed, agreeably to said act: Provided, rate or tax in the tenth section of said pate of quick lime is added, this free carbonic acid be bottled and delivered in quantities not less faverns, shall be classified and rated according to to the estimated yearly rental of the house and his Secreton 4. That the provisions of this act property intended to be occupied for said purpose of shall not apply to importers selling imported as follows, to wit: All cases where the voltage wines, braidy, liquors or ardent spirits in the ation of the yearly rental of the said house and original bale, cask, package or vessel as im- property shall be ten thousand dollars, more property shall be ten thousand dollars. ported; and said importers shall be returned, shall consultate the first class, and pay one at classed, assessed and licensed, as provided by thousand dollars; where the valuation of the an act to provide revenue to meet the demands yearly rental shall be eight thousand dollars, "if on the treasury and for other purposes, passed and not more than ten thousand dollars, the the fourth day of May, Anno Domini, one second class, and shall pay eight hundred ald and thousand eight hundred and forty-one, upon lars; where the valuation of the rental shalf the payment of double the additional rate or be six thousand dollars, and not more than tax in the tenth section of said act mentioned, eight thousand dollars, the third class, and it SECTION 5. That the provisions of this not shall pay six hundred dollars; where the val-as shall not extend to druggists and apothecaries untion of rental shall be four thousand dollars, Mr. Blundell's process is the application of ice who shall sell unmixed alcohol or compound, and not more than six thousand dollars; the to the jaw, which so deadens the sensibility or sell any admixtures of wine, alcohol, spiri- fourth class, and shall pay four hundred doless. that the tooth is extracted without pain. The tuous or brewed liquors in the preparation of lars; where the valuation of rental shall be process of Dr. Roberts is to cauterize by means | medicines, or upon the written prescription of two thousand dollars, and not more than foor of a wire applied to the patient's tooth perfect. a regular practicing physician : Provided, thousand dollars, the fifth class, and shall pay ly cold, and afterwards instantaneously heated That no druggist or apothecary shall sell or three hundred dollars; where the valuation keep for sale, under any name or pretence, any shall be one thousand dollars, and not upper preparation or admixtures as aforesaid that than two thousand dollars, the sixth class, and is may be used as a beverage; and any violation shall pay one hundred and fifty dollars; whereas of this section shall be punished in the man- the valuation shall be five hundred dollars, in ner prescribed in the twenty-eighth section of and not more than one thousand dollars the seventh class, and shall pay one hundred dole lars ; where the valuation of the rental shall ? spiritness, malt or brewed liquors as sforesaid, be three hundred dollars, and not more than " either with or without other goods, waves and five hundred dollars, the eighth class, and " merchandize, in quantities not less than one shall pay lifty dollars; and where the valuation gullon; to keepers of hotels, inns and taverns, tion of the rental shall be under three hundred to selling in quantities less than a gallon : and to dollars, the ninth class, and shall pay twenty wit keepers of cating houses for the sale of malt five dollars: Provided. That in the cities of to take any nourishment. He declares he can and brewed liquors and domestic wines, shall | Philadelphia and Pittsburg, no license granted of only be granted to citizens of the United under the twelfth and thirteenth sections of 3 and then take a drink of water. He will States, of temperate habits and good moral this act shall be for a less sum than seventydoubtless persist in this delusion until he character, and not until the requirements as five dollars, nor in other cities, townsports hereinafter provided shall have been complied boroughs, containing over two hundred taxables. less than fifty dollars.

Secreton 14. That no license shall be grantas herein provided shall be granted by the ed for the keeping of eating houses exception court of quarter sessions of the proper county, where they may be necessary for the accommod except Philadelphia and Allegheny, at the first | modation of the public and travelers, and shall ... or second session in each year, and shall be one only authorize the sale of domestic wines, in year. The said courts shall fix by rule or mait and brewed liquors; and all persons so standing order, a time at which application for licensed shall be classified and rated according to said licenses shall be heard, at which time all to the provisions of the twenty-second and persons applying or making objections for lt- twenty-third sections of an act to create a mi years of age, were a night or two ago united in censes may be heard; by evidence, petition, sinking fund; and to provide for the gradual remonstrance or counsel? Provided. That for and certain extinguishment of the debt of the hotels. They had been lovers in the spring time | the present year, licenses as aforesaid may be | Commonwealth, approved the tenth day of a granted at the third or earlier session of said April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and shall pay double the SECTION 8. That every person intending to rates required to be paid by said act : Pravided, 30 apply for a license in any city or county of That no such license shall be granted in the ? this Commonwealth, from and after the passage cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburg for a less ? together at its foot.' They were both fruit, of this act, shall file with the clerk of the court sum than fifty dollars, nor in other parts of the license and classified under the thirteenth secisement the first publication shall be at least | consers, as hereinafter prescribed; And providten secular days before the time fixed by the ed. That where any applicant has not, and if ans of taverus, and eating houses, the petition sessment, rating and classification, before his shall embrace a certificate signed by at least application for license during the present year, at or township, in which such hotel, inn, or amount of his license, except in the city of a township; by six such citizens setting forth ing licenses to parties, enumerated under the that the same is necessary to accommodate the sixth section of this act, in the city and county public and entertain strangers or travelers; of Philadelphia, and county of Allegheny, the and that such person is of good repute for judges of the district courts, in and for said a honesty and temperance, and is well provided counties respectively, shall immediately after with house room as hereinafter prescribed, the passage of this act, appoint three temperates I seek, and that can hurt nobody; it is only and conveniences for the accommodation of and reputable persons, citizens of said countiested persisting in error or ignorance than can burt strangers and travelers: Provided, That where and in no manner interested in or connected there shall not be sufficient time between the with the liquor business, who shall constitute: passage of this act and the next session of the a board of licensers for their respective countries said court thereafter in any county to file pe- ties; and the persons so appointed shall meeting tition and make publication as aforesaid, the at the district court room on the Monday next > said court shall order a special or adjourned following their appointment, and shall make session at an early day at which licenses may oath or affirmation before one of the judges of to said courts to discharge their duties faithfully SECTION 9. That no person shall be licensed and impartially, and shall then and there, in: to keep a hotel, inn, or tavern, in any city or the presence of said judge, divide themselves at county town as aforesaid, which shall not have into three classes by agreement or lot, with a for the exclusive use of travelers at least four term of service of one, two, and three years, bed-rooms and eight beds, nor in any other respectively from the first Monday of February parts of the State at least two bed-rooms and last, and annually thereafter in the month of January; the said courts shall respectively no-Section 10. That before any license for the point one person of like qualifications to fill? sale of liquors under the provisions of this act the vacancy caused by the expiration of any shall be granted, such person applying for the term of service as the same shall occur, and in same shall give a bond to the Commonwealth serve for a period of three years, and any vector of Pennsylvania, with two sufficient sureties, cancy in said board from death, resignation have in the same of any thousand the

Section 15. That all persons applying for