

A Sensible Whig.
Mr. Oliver, of Missouri, was elected to Congress as a Whig, but at Washington, at the commencement of the session, he stood solitary and alone. Those members who had been Whigs were so no more. They were enlisted under the Black Republican and Know Nothing banners. In this state of affairs, Mr. Oliver determined to do what Mr. Clay, at Lexington, in 1850, anticipating the ruin of the Whig party, as a national organization, said he would do. "Whenever," declared the Kentucky orator and statesman, "the Whig party shall become merged into a miserable, sectional Abolition party, I will renounce it forever, and in the future act with that party, regardless of its name, which stands by the Constitution and the Union." "Now," responds Mr. Oliver, "there can be no doubt of the fact, that the Democratic party is national; and I assert my conviction to be, that it is the only party in America that can overthrow Abolitionism, uphold the Constitution and the Union, and that it will do so if all truly national patriots unsheath their swords and rally under its ample banner, with the high resolve to conquer, or to fall gloriously on the field of strife."

Rifle Religion.
In a late number of the Boston Mail we find a well-timed and well-written article on the subject of "rifle religion"—having reference to the recent subscriptions taken up by the Rev. H. Ward Beecher in one of his churches for the purchase of Sharpe's Rifles, to send to Kansas. We make room for the following extract:
"The clergyman has his place, and there he is respected and honored. It is for him to speak of things spiritual, not temporal, and when he forgets the sanctity of the pulpit, and imitates the rancor of the forum, his general influence is then impaired and his sacred mission insulted. In the political arena he has no place. Let him, in the retray of his study, ascertain what opinions he may on the political questions of the day. On each recurring election let him exercise the citizen's noblest privilege—the right of franchise—and vote for those candidates whom his judgment considers most worthy to hold office. But here he must stop. His political principles, predilections, & prejudices should never find voice in the pulpit, for there it is his only duty to interpret rightly and calmly God's messages to man."
"Least of all should the preacher inculcate doctrines which the Bible universally condemns. He who is appointed to speak of peace should not breathe accents of bloodshed. But there are those, we regret to say, who think otherwise. A recent instance at New Haven, and examples of which each day's news brings us accounts, prove how some clergymen interpret their duty. It is disgraceful to the American pulpit that such things should be, and if these men persevere in their proscribed career, society will soon fearfully realize that they do not 'preach peace, but a sword!'"

Terrible but Successful Surgical Operation.
The New York Mirror says:
"Dr. Carnochan, of this city, one of the most eminent surgeons of this or any other age, has recently performed an operation for neuralgia of an almost incredible character. The patient, a gentleman of this city, had been tortured with neuralgia in the face for more than twenty years, and had submitted to all sorts of operations by various distinguished physicians and surgeons, with no permanent relief, when he called in Dr. Carnochan, who undertook the novel and hazardous operation of trepanning the cheek-bone and chiselling out the root of the inflamed nerve which caused all the suffering. The patient was thrown into a state of insensibility by inhaling chloroform; and the operation, which lasted nearly an hour, was performed in the presence of several physicians. When the nerve was cut off the patient jumped up mechanically, but on recovering his consciousness he had no memory of pain. He is now doing well, and for the first time in many years can eat and sleep in peace."

Antidote for Poisons.—A correspondent of the London Literary Gazette, alluding to the numerous cases of death from accidental poisoning, adds: "I venture to affirm there is scarce even a cottage in this country that does not contain an invaluable, certain, immediate remedy for such events, nothing more than a dessert spoonful of mustard, mixed in a tumbler of warm water and drank immediately. It acts as an emetic, is always ready, and may be used with safety in any case where one is required."

Three inches of snow at Pittsburg, on Monday.
Holloway's PINK PILLS, undoubtedly the best medicine on sale in the Union.—The extraordinary power possessed by these Pills has rendered them justly a universal favorite with the citizens of the Union, owing to its presumed efficacy in all diseases of the liver and stomach. For the cure of sick headache, bile and indigestion they are also unequalled; and for all female complaints, whether of the daughter entering into womanhood, or the mother at the term of life, their effect is infallible, as they speedily remove all such complaints from the system.

John Tyler Lecturing on the Dead of his Cabinet.—The South Side (Va.) Democrat states that Ex-President Tyler, is about to deliver a lecture upon "the dead of his Cabinet." The Democrat says:
"In that Cabinet were the accomplished Legare, the elegant and erudite Upshur, the brilliant Gilmer, and those twin giants of their age, Webster and Calhoun. Scarce ten years have passed since the illustrious galaxy of statesmen, jurists and scholars filled the offices of the Cabinet, but one by one the nation has put on mourning for them, and he who gathered them around him to bear with him the great responsibilities of his time, and share the heavy duties of his post, lives still to speak their eulogium. Need we add that it will be a tribute worthy even of these mighty dead?"

Afflicting Dispensation of Providence.—A letter received in Washington, from Mr. Robert Boyd, a well known and respected citizen of Taylor county, Va., dated April 17, states that on Sabbath morning, 6th inst., his youngest son was taken sick, and the same night another son was taken in the same manner. On Monday, the 7th, a daughter, eleven years old, was taken as the others. The youngest boy died at 10 o'clock on that day; and on Wednesday, the 9th, the other son and daughter, were laid in one grave. On the day they were buried, two other children were taken ill, and on the 13th one died, making a loss of four children in one week.—But this was only a portion of the cup of bitterness.—On the Saturday before the death of his last son, the fires which have been raging so extensively lately in Virginia broke out about two miles from his residence, and in an hour Mr. B. was stripped of all he possessed; house, barn, wheat, hay, oats and corn-cribs. The dying boy was removed hastily to save him from the raging flames, and when brought back there was not a bed to lay him on to die.—Washington Star.

Horrible Accident in the Crimea.—On the night of March 17th a shocking accident occurred on the slope above Kadikoi in the burning of some wooden huts, occupied by men of the commissariat work corps. Notwithstanding prompt assistance, sixteen men perished in the flames. They were, doubtless, suffocated by the smoke. Their bodies were charred past all chance of recognition.
