

Local Matters.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. John Hoke is having put up a large and well-arranged back-building on Carlisle street, and intends to erect a commodious two-story brick building on the site now occupied by the law-office of D. Wills, Esq., on Centre Square. These improvements will add much to the appearance of that portion of the square.

Who's next?—We understand that Mrs. Irwin is about having a handsome two-story brick dwelling erected in York street, between the residences of Judge Russell and Samuel Hunter.

DIED.—A stranger, apparently deranged, came to the Almshouse on the 6th inst., where he died on the 14th. MICHAEL LAWLER is supposed, from a memorandum found in a pocket book, to have been his name, and Chester, Pa., or Washington, D.C., his residence. He was probably 25 years old, six feet high, stout, and of fine personal appearance.

STRIKE.—The hands on the Gettysburg Railroad struck for higher wages, (from $1 to $1 1/2 per diem,) on Friday last; but we are informed that work will be resumed this morning at the old wages.

THE SHARES in the Ridgway Farm and Coal Company have been raised from Two Hundred Dollars to Three Hundred Dollars after the first of June. This has been done in consequence of the great rise in good Elk County Lands within the past year. It forms a fine tract of the best Coal as well as Farming Land, and the property in the vicinity is selling much higher. It is principally bought up by Coal Companies. In a short time it will no doubt be taken out of the market altogether by Capitalists. The Company sells at the old rates until the 1st of June.

THE WEATHER is getting warmer, and we would again remind our Council and citizens of the necessity of taking precautionary measures for the protection of the public health.

LARGE EGGS.—Mr. C. DAUGHTERY, of Hamilton township, a few days since, placed upon our table, four hen eggs, the like of which are rarely seen. The largest measured 7 1/2 by 6 1/2 inches in circumference, and the other three were not far behind it. The "yield" of a common chicken, at that.

"BOZ."—T. B. PETERSON, 102 Chesnut street, Philadelphia, has favored us with a copy of DICKENS' "Seven Poor Travellers." It is, of course, a highly readable story, as all DICKENS' are.

Our friend J. W. B., at Boston, has our thanks for late papers of that city.

If you want a glass of that delicious and healthy beverage, pure Mineral Water, fresh from the fountain, call at PLANK'S Confectionery, in Chambersburg street.

Fire in the mountains in the neighborhood of Caledonia, was observed from this place yesterday.

Take a walk to the Cemetery one of these fine mornings or evenings, and enjoy the enchanting prospect there afforded. Nature is, indeed, full of beauty.

The new German Reformed Church, at Hanover, was dedicated yesterday.

The Summer Session of Pennsylvania College will commence on Thursday next. Students are arriving.

Orphan's Court to-morrow.

For the Compiler. Arithmetical Questions. No. 15.—If A and B can build a certain wall in 10 days, A and C in 16 days, and B and C in 20 days, then how long will it take all working together to build the wall. Also, how long will it take each of them to do it, working alone.

Last Week's Questions. ANSWER TO No. 13.—27.721, or 25,201. No. 14.—Twenty-five forty-ninths, nine forty-ninths, sixty-four forty-ninths, the sum of which is ninety-eight forty-ninths=2.

(Communicated.) When JEROME S. WHITE lay on his death bed, about an hour before he died, he suddenly said: "Mother, I hear such cheering music," and never spoke again. Mother, I hear such cheering music, Coming from the realms above, Through the misty, far-off regions, Speaking of a dying Saviour's love! Mother, I hear such cheering music, As his sands are running low— Give, oh! give me life eternal, And to my Saviour let me go! Mother, I hear such cheering music, By angels borne, with Heaven's decree, Opening wide the vaults of Heaven, Bidding a weary soul go free. Good Liquors.—Under the new law, tavern keepers and others are prohibited from keeping or selling adulterated liquors. In Bucks county, we see that Judge Smyser propounded the question to the witnesses vouching for applicants for license, as to the quality of liquors sold. We are not informed what will be the practice of the Judges in Chester county; but we submit whether a specimen of the liquor would not be a more certain test than the opinion of one or two witnesses. The question propounded by Judge Smyser was, "does the applicant keep good liquor?" Now, it must be evident that this is rather an uncertain test. Hardly two men will agree as to the quality of the article. What may be considered "good liquor" by one man, would be condemned as bad by another. Applicants for license, who would be on the safe side, could settle the question, in case of dispute as to the quality, by producing the article! What stronger evidence could be adduced to the Judges?—West Chester Record.

Violence in the United States Senate Chamber. Immediately after the adjournment of the U. S. Senate, on Thursday, while Senator Sumner, of Massachusetts, was still in the Senate Chamber, Mr. Brooks, a member of the House from South Carolina, entered, and approaching Senator Sumner, accused him of libelling South Carolina and his grey-headed relative, Senator Butler—and upon saying this, struck him with a gutta serena cane several times, which felled him insensible to the floor. Messrs. Crittenden, Toombs, Murray, and others, interfered, and prevented further damage. Mr. Sumner was taken to his room, and medical aid at once summoned. Mr. Brooks was arrested shortly after, and was taken before Justice Hollingshead, who held him to bail in $500 to answer. A despatch from Washington says: there are various opinions on the subject, and quite contradictory. Many are applauding the act, whilst others are denouncing it. In regard to the cause of the affair, the Baltimore Sun says: "The cause of this outrage both upon the Senator and upon the sanctity of the Senate hall, we appear, 'words-spoken-in-debate' by Mr. Sumner in a very elaborate, and evidently well studied speech, which he delivered on Monday and Tuesday last, on the Kansas and slavery subject, and in which he indulged, directly, in such character of personal allusions and comparisons as to call forth from Mr. Cass immediately thereafter the declaration that 'he regarded it as the most un-American and unpatriotic speech that he had ever heard upon that floor, and he hoped he might never hear such another there or elsewhere.'" It also elicited denunciatory rejoinders from Messrs. Douglas, of Ill., and Mason, of Va., as shown in the sketch of the debate given in the Sun the following day. Mr. Sumner had spoken of the Kansas measure as the crime of crimes, and treated its friends as the blackest of criminals; and as showing in part the alleged provocation for the present assault, we make the annexed extract from the more full report: "Before entering upon the argument, I must say something of a general character, particularly in response to what has fallen from Senators who have raised themselves to eminence on this floor in championship of human wrongs; I mean the Senator from South Carolina (Mr. Butler,) and the Senator from Illinois (Mr. Douglas,) who, though unlike as Don Quixotte and Sancho Panza, yet, like this couple, sail forth together in the same cause. The Senator from South Carolina has read many books of chivalry, and believes himself a chivalrous knight, with sentiments of honor and courage. Of course he has chosen a mistress to whom he has made his vows, and who, though ugly to others, is always lovely to him; though polluted in the sight of the world, is chaste in his sight—I mean the harlot, Slavery. For her his tongue is always profuse in words. Let her be impeached in character, or any proposition made to shut her out from the extension of her wandroness, and no extravagances of manner or hardihood of assertion is then too great for this Senator. The frenzy of Don Quixotte in behalf of his much abused Dulcinea del Toboso is all surpassed. The asserted rights of slavery, which shock equality of all kinds, are cloaked by a fantastic chain of equality. If the Slave States cannot enjoy what, in mockery of the great fathers of the Republic, he misnames equality under the Constitution—in other words, the full power in the National Territories to compel fellow-men to unpaid toil, to separate husband and wife, and to sell little children at the auction-block—then, sir, the chivalric Senator will conduct the State of South Carolina out of the Union! Heroic Knight! Exalted Senator! A second Moses come for a second Exodus!" Mr. Sumner was better at last accounts, and it was presumed he would take his seat in the Senate in a few days. Committees to inquire into the facts of the assault were appointed in both Houses on Friday—Mr. Cass heading the Senate Committee, and Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, that of the House. Mr. Stuart gave notice in the Senate of a resolution, declaring it out of order for any Senator in debate to use language reflecting discourteously upon the conduct or motives of any other Senator, &c.

Arrival of the Quaker City—Letter from Havana—Rumored Spanish Expedition Against Walker. New York, May 22.—The steamer Quaker City arrived here at midnight last night. She brings dates to the 18th. There were rumors at Havana that the Spanish Government was to fit out immediately at that port an expedition to proceed to Costa Rica to operate against Walker in Nicaragua, and that a distinguished Spanish officer had already been dispatched to the scene of future action. Whether rumors state that Vera Cruz was to be blockaded and bombarded by the Spanish forces in order to enforce the payment of certain claims due from Mexico to the Spanish Government.—This movement, it is said, is to proceed immediately. Unusual activity was prevailing among the Spanish men of war at Havana in getting ready for sea, which would seem to give credence to the rumor.

An Eagle Hatched and Nursed by a Shang-hai.—About six weeks ago, Mr. R. Cameron, of Butler county, procured a bald eagle's egg, and deposited it beneath a "setting hen," and in a short time a fine, lusty eagle-picked the shell, and made his appearance, with less pain and pomp than the "enfant de France." The Cincinnati Commercial says: The ploverian nurse fowl is, we are informed by Mr. Cameron, apparently at times very much astonished at the eccentricities of his royal highness, the infant bird of Jove, whose keen, unflinching eyes, and stout, sharp, crooked beak, and appetite for fish and flesh, are slightly terrible, and beyond her appreciation. Still she attempts to relieve his wants with true maternal devotion, and in trying to induce him to take a promenade clucks at him vainly by the hour. His legs are not serviceable, and disclaiming to crawl after her, he looks with eager aspirations, as becomes his illustrious race, skyward. He is very fond of fish, and luxuriates in rats and snakes, though he is not yet strong enough to skin them for himself. The quantity of skinned garter snake that he consumes is queer, he being competent to dispose of almost his weight in that article of prepared snake.

It is stated that Thomas R. Borden, Esq., one of the most respectable citizens in Greene county, Alabama, was shot and killed by his own son, while lying in bed on the morning of the 28th ult. The son was not suspected until the day of the funeral, when he departed with his father's horse and $4,000 of his money. He was, however, pursued and arrested.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, an invaluable Remedy for Dropsical Symptoms.—Mrs. Emma Hunter, of Houston, Texas, aged 45, last fall was thrown upon a bed of sickness, her feet and legs began to swell, steadily indicating leprosy at this period of life. Her husband became greatly alarmed, as it was feared that she could not recover, so dreadful was the attack. After trying many remedies without benefit, Mr. Hunter at last put her under a course of Holloway's PILLS, which she took for about three weeks, and the swelling considerably diminished, he continuing them for five weeks more, she was completely cured. These Pills will also cure all bilious and liver complaints in a very short time.

MISS M'CREEARY has just returned from the cities, and is now opening the best selected and most fashionable assortment of Millinery and Fancy Goods ever brought to Gettysburg, consisting in part of Nonopolitan, Straw and Fancy Bonnets, Caps and Cap Trimmings of every description, Veils, Nets and Blousons, of all colors, Embroideries, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Hosiery, Summer Dress Goods, Shawls and Mantillas, Mourning Goods, together with an assortment of fancy articles for the toilet too numerous to mention, which she invites the ladies to call and examine. Miss M'Creeary will also carry on the Millinery business in all its branches, and hopes from the experience she has had and a desire to please, that she will be able to give general satisfaction. East York St. directly opposite the Bank. Gettysburg, April 14, 1856. 3m

Flour! Flour! THE undersigned continues the Flour business as heretofore. He sells by the barrel or any smaller quantity. By taking small profits he can buy as high and sell as low as anybody else, and by always endeavoring to keep none but the best, he hopes to merit and receive a continuance of liberal patronage. WM. GILLESPIE, Oct. 8, 1855. At the Post Office.

New Millinery. MISS LOUISA KATE LITTLE wishes to inform the Ladies of town and country, that she is now prepared to execute Millinery in all its branches, in West Middle street, a few doors below Mr. George Little's store.—Work done cheaper than elsewhere in town. Please call and see. April 21, 1856.

Notice. THE undersigned, having disposed of his Store, and intending to leave town about the middle of May, hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to him to make payment by that time, as all accounts then unsettled will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. J. S. GRAMMER, April 21, 1856.

Mackerel, CODFISH, Salmon, Herring, Pork, Hams and Sides, Shoulders, Lard and Cheese, constantly on hand and for sale by J. PALMER & CO., Market Street Wharf, Philadelphia. March 31, 1856. 3m

Jewelry! Jewelry! J. L. SCHICK has now on hand a large and splendid assortment of Jewelry, comprising everything in that line—Breastpins, Ear-Rings, Finger-Rings, Chains, &c. &c.—all of which he is selling at the lowest living profits. Call and examine for yourselves—no trouble to show goods. April 21.
