Burning of the Steamboat City of Newark.

Four Lives Lost—Remainder of the Passengers Rescued.—The burning, on Tuesday morning, of the steam ferry boat City of Newark, plying between New York City and Newark, N. J., in the bay off Robin's Reef, was rather a frightful affair, and came near being a very serious one.

Capt. Gedney, of the Achilles, says: "When he reached her he boarded, putting the bow of the tug on her starboard quarter; upon this portion of the boat there were mostly women and children, who were almost unmanageable from fright and suffering, some having their eyebrows burnt off, others their hair singed, and some their hats burned and hair singed; they were tumbled over the bows into the tug very unceremoniously; some of the crew of the tug took the small boat and assisted all they could in the rescue of those on the forward part of the steamer. The only accident was with those in the small boat, which, owing to the rush of people, was once capsized and all who were in her turned into the water, three or four of whom, Captain Gedney thinks, were drowned—a man, two children and a woman—though he is unable to state positively as to any; that is the impression of those who were by."

A lady passenger who was on board with her little boy says: "Every thing was in the wildest confusion. The stern of the boat was so crowded that in order to escape the flames I was obliged to climb over the railing and walk along the edge of the boat outside, holding myself on by the railing and holding my boy at the same time. By this time the awning on the upper deck had caught fire, and the cinders were dropping down upon us. My dress was badly burned. Just before the Thomas Hunt reached us a boat had been lowered, and I saw several men and two women jump into it. The boat immediately capsized, and I think both of the women were drowned. One of them was a stout Irish woman, and the other a young lady in a pink dress. An old gentleman, whose name is Samuel Powers, a farmer from Westmoreland county, was rescued by Capt. White, of the Thomas Hunt, just as he was sinking the third time. The railing of our boat, to which the cable was fastened, came near giving way; and if it had, there must have been a great loss of life, as the passengers were all crowding up against it, preparing to jump on board the Thomas Hunt."

Charles Lunels, one of the hands on board, stated that a woman tried to jump into the little boat, and fell in the water, whereupon he leaped in to save her, and was dragged to the bottom.—He succeeded in rising with her to the surface of the water, but was dragged back again, and almost drowned, so that he had to tear himself from her to save his own life.

The burning steamer was then towed to the Jersey flats, where she now lies sunk in about 15 feet of water. The boat cost about $15,000, and is insured for only $5,000.

Steamboat Explosion and Loss of Life.

MONTREAL, June 10.—The explosion of the boilers of the Grand Trunk steamer near Longueuil occurred this morning at one o'clock. The boat is a complete wreck. The number killed is estimated at twenty, and the wounded between thirty and forty. Killed—two engineers, Mr. Malden, mail conductor, Mr. Hunter, the pilot, a boy, two firemen, one woman, Mr. Scofield, an engineer, and Henry Ballery. The captain of the boat was severely injured, and is not expected to live.

Major Johnson and lady were thrown into the river, but escaped. Fifty passengers remain unaccounted for.

Burning of U. S. Military Asylum in Kentucky.—We have private information to the effect that the U. S. military asylum at Harrodsburg, Ky., was burnt down last Sunday week. This is one of the asylums the site of which was selected by Gen. Scott in 1852 under a special commission of the government. The cost was $100,000. The fire was communicated accidentally.—Lynchburg Virginian.

An English Filling Station Rewarded.

The British East India Company has just voted Lord Dalhousie, late Governor-General of India, a pension of $25,000 a year, as a mark of its appreciation of his services during his administration, by which four kingdoms, besides lesser territories, were added to the company's possessions, and an annual tribute of twenty-two millions was imposed upon the inhabitants. One of the English Journals, speaking of this matter, attempts to gloss this act of flattery by showing that misrule and revolution had ruined the country, and that to save it, it was necessary to appropriate it. "A wrong was done, but a great benefit was conferred." After the avowal of this doctrine as good political morality, we expect that the British Journals will begin to praise Walker. His conduct is certainly more justifiable than Dalhousie's, for Walker was invited into Nicaragua by the people, and he assists them to maintain their own government, whereas the rulers of Punjab, Pegu, Nagpore, and Oude had to be conquered before their territory was seized upon.—Sun.

The Testimony.

The testimony taken by the Congressional Committee in the Brooks and Sumner case shows that the first blow did not stun Mr. Sumner, and that he was not knocked down, but was "jerked down" by Mr. Brooks, after which no blows were struck.

The Western Agriculturist says a pinch of gunpowder given to a chicken with the gapes will effect a certain cure in a few hours.

Further from Kansas—Peace Established with the Sioux Indians.

St. Louis, June 9.—An extra Westport Times of the 5th says reliable news has been received of the burning of the town of Bernard, Kansas. The free State men on the night of the 3d destroyed from twelve to fifteen thousand dollars' worth of property. A company of three hundred abolitionists, the same account says, captured the town of Franklin, being opposed by fifteen pro-slavery men.—Three persons are reported killed. The fight lasted an hour.

The Congressional investigating committee are still here. The steamer Gray Cloud has arrived from St. Pierre, after an absence of nearly one year, bringing intelligence of the adjustment of the difficulties with the Sioux Indians, according to the stipulations of the council of March last. The Indians delivered up twelve prisoners, horses, mules, &c., and promised obedience to the government. The operations against the Sioux Indians had accordingly been closed. Gen. Harney set the prisoners free after a few days detention only.

Further from Kansas.

CHICAGO, June 11.—The later arrivals from Kansas confirm the accounts of civil war in that territory. Twenty-one Missourians, Carolinians and Alabamians have been killed in different engagements, and several Free State men wounded, but none killed. The U. S. troops generally disperse the forces after the battles have been finished.

Gov. Shannon's proclamation has produced no effect.—Gen. Robinson has been removed from Leecompton to Leavenworth. The reported death of Marshal Donaldson is incorrect.

Further from Kansas.

St. Louis, June 12.—The latest news received from Kansas states that Marshal Donaldson was still alive. Col. Sumner, with United States troops, was dispersing all the armed bands of both parties, and some prospects of peace prevailed.

A letter to the Democrat, dated Lawrence, June 6th, says: Mr. Upton, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the investigating committee, was detained prisoner for one day by Buford's men. Whitfield's command of three hundred men, near Prairie city, were ordered to disperse, and did so, but re-formed again, and a strong company of United States troops were watching, ready to intercept their movements.

"Statement of an Eye-Witness."—We see travelling the rounds of the Republican papers a statement furnished the Boston Journal by a Dr. Bunting, of Montreal, who claims to have been an "eye-witness" of the assault upon Senator Sumner. The following is a part of this statement:

"While the assault was progressing, Mr. Keitt stood with one hand flourishing a large cane to keep off any person disposed to interfere, with the other hand holding a pistol behind him partially under the flap of his coat, but which Dr. Bunting saw very distinctly projecting from between the flaps of his coat. During the attack Senator Douglas stood within five feet of Mr. Sumner, in a free and easy position, with both hands in his pockets, his hat on, and making no movement towards the assailant."

It is hardly necessary for us to inform our readers that every word of this is false. Senator Douglas was not in the Senate chamber when the assault was committed, and Mr. Keitt occupied no such position as is attributed to him. The Dr. Bunting who makes the statement is an impostor, swindler and villain, altogether too well known in this city to need an extended notice from us. We expect to hear of him next as "Lieutenant-Colonel" Bunting, direct from Kansas, where he was an eye-witness of the "burning of Lawrence?"—Providence (R. I.) Post.

Egg Powder.—A patent has lately been taken out in England, for the manufacture of Egg powder. The process consists in taking fresh eggs, breaking them, and placing their matter in proper shallow trays, where they are subjected to a stream of moderately-hot air to evaporate all the moisture. When perfectly dry, they are reduced to powder, in a proper mill, and are employed for the making of pastry, &c. The air for drying the eggs must not be allowed to exceed 130 deg.; the object is to evaporate the moisture, and not to coagulate the albumen, so as to render the egg powder soluble in water. This manner of preparing eggs for market, might be pursued by some persons in our distant rural districts, says the Scientific American, with as much profit as preparing and drying fruit.

Stone Pipes.—Lined oil-hold upon stove pipes when warm (not hot) and kept at a low temperature five or six hours, will impart a fine lustre. One gill will serve for a half dozen joints.

THAT SECRET TREATY.—By the Baltic we learn that Russia is much exercised respecting a secret treaty entered into between France, Great Britain and Austria. We have it in our power to explain this treaty, which is merely a mutual obligation between the parties named to patronize the new Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 205 and 207 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS, will cure Asthma and all disorders of the Chest.—Henry Vincent, of Solina, Alabama, was almost a martyr to asthma for nineteen years, which literally took him to pieces, and made him as thin as a skeleton, so that he neither enjoyed rest by night or by day. He tried many things for the cure of this complaint, but they did not benefit him. About three months ago he commenced taking Holloway's Pills, and well rubbing the Ointment into the chest night and morning. Immediately he gave these remedies a fair trial, he was able to sleep at night. By persevering with them for only seven weeks, every symptom of his disorder left him. His friends who have not seen him for some time, now hardly know him, he has so wonderfully improved.

The New York Day Book, speaking of the disposition of the abolition journals to deal in exaggeration and falsehood when treating of Kansas affairs, makes the following palpable hit:

"The Tribune and Times are in the position of the enthusiastic youngster who confidently assured his mother that he had seen more than a thousand cats. Upon being kindly told that a thousand cats were a great many, he immediately reduced the number to five hundred; but being told that this was still a very extravagant figure, he reduced it still lower, and lower, until he got down to one cat, and upon being very closely questioned in regard to this, he finally concluded if it was not a cat, it was something as black as a very black cat. So with the 'total destruction of Lawrence,' 'its smoking ruins,' 'its desolate wastes,' &c. The latest story 'not told to the world' four buildings have been destroyed, and only two men killed, and one of them accidentally. By to-morrow we shall have another version. In the mean time, we presume, the large majority of the Tribune readers will religiously believe Lawrence has been burnt to cinders and all its inhabitants butchered by the 'border ruffians.'"
