

Local Matters.

THE FOURTH.—The "Independent Blues" announce that they will celebrate the 80th anniversary of our Independence, (Friday next), at FRANCIS BREAN'S, and invite the public to participate. Hon. MOSES McCLEARY will deliver the Address, and C. X. MARTIN read the Declaration. The day will no doubt be ushered in by the firing of cannon, martial music, &c.

DROWNED.—On Sunday evening last, Mr. DANIEL E. L. MEHRING, while on a visit to some friends in Mountjoy township, expressed a desire to bathe, and shortly after started to Black's dam, in company with a couple of acquaintances. On reaching the creek, the latter requested to be excused from bathing and withdrew, while Mr. MEHRING dived himself of his clothing and proceeded to bathe. After waiting a few minutes, they returned to the bank of the creek, where they found Mr. MEHRING's clothes, but he was nowhere to be seen. The alarm was at once given to some persons in the vicinity, and after some time Mr. MEHRING's body was found a short distance from the place where he had entered the water. An inquest was held on the body by JAMES McLENNY, Esq., the jury rendering a verdict of accidental drowning.

Mr. MEHRING had been pursuing his studies at the College in this place for several years, and was a member of the Senior class.—Star.

SCHOOL-HOUSE.—We understand that the School Board of this Borough has determined to put up a large central building of sufficient capacity to accommodate all the Schools. Two lots have been purchased from Mr. S. FAUNSTOCK, opposite the Jail, which, with the lots already owned by the Board, are intended for the building, play-grounds, &c. All the School buildings now owned by the Board, will be sold.

The Schools will not be re-opened until the 1st of October next.

HANOVER BANK.—Notice is published in the Hanover papers, that application will be made to the next Legislature for the incorporation of a Bank, to be called the "Bank of Hanover," with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, and the privilege of increasing it to two hundred thousand.

On Tuesday last, BENJAMIN SCHRIVER, of this place, shot a dog supposed to be mad.

Answer to last week's Arithmetical Question.—One and seventeen twenty-eights days.

Further from Kansas.

St. Louis, June 23.—A letter to the Republican, dated Westport, June 17th, says Colonel Sumner has put the principal roads leading to Kansas in a state of blockade, and has also driven out of the Territory Buford, Jones, Shelby and other leading Missourians.

Another letter dated Kansas city, June 10th, says Colonel Sumner intends to arrest every person under indictment in Kansas. He declares that neither General Lane nor any other armed person shall enter the Territory excepting over his dead body.

St. Louis, June 28.—Gov. Shannon arrived here last night to meet his wife. He denies that he had resigned, and will return to Kansas in about a week. He reports all quiet in the territory.

Mum! is the Word.

Our readers are aware that a delegation of prospective Know Nothings waited upon Col. Fremont in New York to interrogate him respecting his opinions with regard to the principles of that anti-American faction. They are aware that the report was made that he declared that his sympathies were with them warmly and strongly. This policy demanded should be contradicted, and a denial was duly made by the Committee that Mr. Fremont "made any pledges." Upon this the New York Sun remarks as follows:

"Mr. Fremont possibly may have given no pledges, but he most certainly (if our information be correct,) made some pretty strong declarations. Quite a number of the Massachusetts delegation waited upon him, and as we learn he did most unequivocally declare that he sympathized with the principles of the American party, and that if he received the nomination of this Convention he would accept it without regard to the Philadelphia Convention; and that, if elected, he would not appoint foreigners to office."

Mr. Fremont is willing to make strong declarations, but he is unwilling to have his opinions published. He is willing to shake hands with the party who would proscribely of foreign birth, but thinks it had policy that the fact should be known. Every person of common understanding knows that if he had not made satisfactory declarations to the Know Nothings, they would never have given him so large a vote as they did in their Convention as their candidate for the Presidency.—Exan.

Senator Broadhead.

The subjoined paragraph is going the rounds of the Know Nothing and Abolition press: "Broadhead and Buchanan.—The Washington American Organ of the 11th says: 'Senator Broadhead, of Pennsylvania, openly declared a few days ago, in this city, that Buchanan could not carry Pennsylvania as well as any man living.'"

We give the above in order to show the true character of the so-called political intelligence promulgated by the enemies of the Democratic party. At the time stated in this peripatetic misrepresentation, Senator Broadhead was not in the city of Washington, and had not been there for three weeks prior to the 11th inst. So far from indulging in any speculations, at the period named, of the character quoted, he addressed the Democratic mass meeting held at Easton, Pennsylvania, on the 7th, and the Democratic mass meeting held at Philadelphia, on the 10th, warmly supporting the nominees and platform of the Cincinnati Convention.

Home Brewed Enthusiasm.

Mr. Greeley speaks of the enthusiasm with which the nomination of the "enterprising young man" by their Convention, was received. Enthusiasm when—where—at what time? If he means inside of the hall, it may be true; but if he means outside, he has stated what is not so. There is no sort of enthusiasm anywhere for the Black-Republican ticket—never knew a nomination in our whole lives which fell from a platform so utterly lifeless and cold. It cannot be successfully galvanized by any sort of metallic preparations.—The poor thing will die before it is a month old unless "material aid" be afforded.—Penn.

The Nomination of Fremont.

The Philadelphia Evening Journal, neutral in politics, expresses the general opinion in that city as follows:

The Republican Nominations.—A few hours ago the action of the Republican Convention, assembled in this city, was looked to by hundreds of thousands of people throughout the North, with intense interest. The principal purpose for which the body was convened has now been accomplished, and whatever may be the effect elsewhere, it is quite certain that the nomination of John C. Fremont for the Presidency, has occasioned in this community a very general feeling of disappointment. Save in the Convention itself, and a small outside circle of his personal and political friends, the demonstration of enthusiasm with which the announcement of the candidate is received, is in this locality anything but encouraging.

The cause required and deserved a very different champion and leader in the contest that is coming, and our conviction is, that it has suffered greatly, if not fatally, in the estimation and sympathies of very many earnest friends, by the injudicious choice which has been made. We speak, of course, only with reference to the impression it has produced here. That, however, is not only unmistakable, but it is pretty significant of what will be the prevalent sentiment of Pennsylvania. For the sake of the great principles and interests which were at stake, there are many who will deeply regret a result which, in their judgment, has imperilled, if not doomed to disastrous defeat, a cause whose prospects were before so bright and animating.

The New York Commercial Advertiser, an opposition paper, says:—

"The bright, enterprising young man" has been rewarded for handsomely exploring the Rocky Mountains by a nomination for the Presidency. Of course no one expects that he will be elected in this 'Year of our Lord' to that high office. The people of the United States, or any considerable proportion of them, are not likely to pass by men of years, and experience, and wisdom—recognized statesmen and leaders—and place a young man, without antecedents as legislator or statesman, in the high office of Chief Magistrate. We do not believe the Republican leaders have any anticipation that Col. Fremont will be the next President of this Republic. He will serve, what alone could be expected from their candidate, to keep the 'conglomerate mass' (thus one of their own speakers designated the party) together through the campaign, and that is the object for which he is nominated. We will not do the Convention the injustice to suppose that if they really believed their nominee would be successful, they would have passed by so many senior and more eligible citizens, and put forward so young a man, and one so entirely without antecedents."

Claiming the Germans.

The following will show in what way our German fellow-citizens may be expected to support the Republican nominees. The Buffalo Democrat & Westchester (German) hoists the Democratic Presidential ticket, with the following remarks:

"We publish to-day the platform of the Republicans, and postpone for the present expressing our opinion more fully concerning it. The reader will discover from it, that in accordance with our previously expressed views, we cannot support this platform, for the reason that the most important question before the American people, to be decided in the coming election, is entirely neglected. The Republican platform says everything for the maintenance of the equal rights of all citizens, but nothing of the right to become citizens."

"The Republican candidates please us just as little as the platform. Fremont has distinguished himself in his tours of discovery, but as a statesman, he has not had the slightest experience, and it appears to us extremely dangerous in the present critical situation of our Republic to entrust the government to such a man. Under these circumstances, we do not hesitate to recommend our readers to support the Democratic-Republican candidates, Buchanan and Breckinridge."

"The Democrat, Pilot, Leader, and the four German papers, of St. Louis, have raised the Buchanan flag."

"Some of the papers have a rumor that Jenny Lind is about to re-visit the United States."

"HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, the most powerful Remedy for all diseases affecting the intestines.—These Pills are pronounced without hesitation by all who have tried them to be one of the most efficacious remedies ever made known, they act so directly upon the affected parts that it is impossible any disease of the stomach or bowels can resist their searching influence, and so they thoroughly pass through and cleanse the system, removing all traces of disease. It is a remarkable fact, that these Pills seldom fail to restore the patient to health even after every other remedy has been used unsuccessfully."

"THE SECRET TREATY.—By the Baltic we learn that Russia is much exercised respecting a secret treaty entered into between France, Great Britain and Austria. We have it in our power to explain this treaty, which is merely a mutual obligation between the parties named to patronize the new Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 205 and 207 Chesnut Street, Philadelphia."
