Mr. Fillmore, in a speech, at Albany, Washington's Warning Voice to the Black Rethe other day, gave Northern Know Nothings and Black Republicans several severe but deserved "raps over the knuckles." In this quarter they don't like the speech "at all, at all"-won't even allude to it-and this even on the part of the very editors who a few months ago, were careful to publish every word that fell from Mr. Fillmore's lips or pen. Among other things, Mr. Fillmore said, at Albany: But this is not all, sir we see a political party presenting candidates for the Presi dency and Vice Presidency, selected for the first time from the free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by suffrages of one part of the Union only, to rule over the whole United States. Can it be possible that those who are engaged in such a measure, can have seriously reflected upon the consequences which must inevitably follow, in case of success? (Cheers.) Can they have the madness or the folly to believe that our Southern brethren would submit to be governed by such a Chief Magistrate? (Cheers.)-Would be be required to follow the same rule prescribed by those who elected him, in making his appointments.

If a man living south of Mason and Dixon's Line be not worthy to be President and Vice President, would it be proper to select one from the same quarter, as one of the Cabinet Council, or to represent the nation in a foreign country? Or, indeed, to collect the revenue or administer the laws of the United States? If not, what new rules is the President to adopt in selecting men for office, that the people themselves discard in selecting him?-These are serious but practical questions, and in order to appreciate them fully, it is only necessary to turn the tables upon ourselves.

Suppose that the South having a majority of the Electoral votes, should declare that they would only have slaveholders for President and Vice President; and should elect such by their exclusive suffrages to rule over us at the North. Do you think we would submit to it? No, not for a moment. (Applause. And do you believe that your Southern brethren are less sensitive on the subject than you are, or less jealous of their rights? (Tremendous cheering.; If you do, let me tell you that you are mistaken. And, therefore, you must see that if this sectional party succeeds, IT LEADS, INEVITABLY TO THE DESTRUCTION OF THIS BEAUTIFUL FAB-RIC REARED BY OUR FOREFATHERS, CEMENTED BY THEIR BLOOD, AND BE-QUEATHED TO US A PRICELESS IN-

It seems to me ir nsaible v what those engaged in this, can he contemped at the awful consequences success. weep f it breaks as under the bonds our Unia rate ind spreads anarchy and civil through the he hand, what is it less than morasson and the Law and common sense hold a man responsible for the natural consequences of his acts, and must not those whose acts tend to the destruction of the government, be equally held responsible? (Applause.) And let me also add when this Union is divided, it will not be divided into two Republics or two Monarchies, but broken into fragments and at war with each other.

Who is John C. Fremont, the Black Republican Candidate for the Presidency.

According to Horace Greeley, he is a young. John's size and personal appearance, according to a member of the Philadelphia Convention, which nominated him, is much like that of our Hon. Billy Patterson, except that he is younger. His chief pursuit in life has been that of a Surveyor and Engineer, and in this capacity, at the head of a corps of Engineers under the pay of the Government, he has distinguished himself by his bold adventures in exploring the country in the region of California and the Rocky mountains. But it would seem that patriotism was not the motive of his adventures among the gold regions, for instead of swelling the Treasury of the Government, he had regard to his own pocket, and has made himself a millionaire, and according to some reports, the richest man in America, by his speculations in California gold mines. What his political views are, or his political principles, if any he favors, has not been made known to the country by anything he has ever said or done himself.

It must be confessed by every candid man, that Fremont has no qualifications for the discharge of the arduous and responsible duties of the chief magistracy of this great Republic. -If elected, he would of necessity be the mere creature of managing, designing and unprinci-pled politicians behind the screen, who would use him as a mere stool pigeon for their purposes of plunder and self-aggrandizement .-His nomination is a public demonstration of the humbuggery of the tricksters who have banded together in the fusion for power. It looks like a "woolly horse" speculation all over. The people of this country cannot be thus bamboozled.

The Mariposa Millionaire.

The Boston Post thus speaks of the Black Republican candidate for the Presidential

Col. Fremont can no more stand a political canvass than Pratt or Mellen, and the sort of political poetry which his rash adventures have invested him with will fade away in the burning light of truth and common sense. By the time that the people are ready to vote for the next President Col. Fremont's laurels will be withered and fallen, and he will be known only as a rash young man who scaled the Rocky Mountains, ran away with Col. Benton's daughter, and acquired a position in the political world through the influence of his captured father-in-law—a young man who did not well for others even in his own special character and forte as an adventurer that can endure fatigue and subsist on dog flesh, having sacrificed the men of his command to his rash ambition. His gold mines upon the Mariposa have dazzled the eyes of the higher law politicians, but their stated value is somewhat apocryphal and the land is covered by some thousands of settlers whom it will be impossible to dispossess. He does not now realize enough from them to pay the taxes, it is said, and but for his backers, Palmer, Cook & Co., at San Francisco, could not retain titles to those estates which have given him the rep-utation of being "the richest man in the world."—Being politically in the hands of a corrupt set of wire-pullers and financially in the hands of his bankers, he will make but a poor figure as a candidate for the Presidency. Mr. Fremont will of course, pledge himself to any platform which his political managers choose to place him on; but his opposition to the introduction of slavery into California does not amount to much, as an indication of free soil principle. Slavery is adverse to his interests in California, as well as these of every miner, and therefore he opposed it. If his Mariposa estates were adapted to the cultiva-tion of cotton and sugar, he would doubtless have no objection to slave labor in California.

ET The Cincinnati Commercial, a leading fusion paper, speaking of the Platform of the Philadelphia Convention, says: "It is an unsafe collection of truisms, platitudes and fallacies -a thing over which the drill womay . Claverscol, or Lorgh, the judicious releve, and the aufriends . Throthy, we

Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, thus warns the country against the Black Re-

One of the expedients of party to acquire influence within the particuar districts is to misrepresent the opinions and nims of other districts. You cannot shield heart-burnings which spring from these misrepresentations; they tend to render alien to each other those who ought to be bound together by fraternal affection."

Good for Lewis Cass---Letter to the Boston Ratification Meeting.

WASHINGTON, June 14, 1856. GENTLEMEN-I cannot attend your ratification meeting on Tuesday evening, but I carnestly hope that it will be a numerous and successful one.

We have fallen on evil times, and every true hearted American should come to the rescue of the Constitution and the Union in their hour of danger. Let a voice of fidelity to our glorious institutions go forth from old Fancuil Hall, as a voice of encouragement went forth in the days of our fathers and helped them on in the great work of which those institutions are the consummation. Their work, now our heritage, is in peril. Let every Democrat come to the rescue and the Union will be safe. Our nominces are worthy of our claims; they are the representatives of that great party of Washington, and Jefferson, and Jackson, which knows no country of the most powerful Remedy for all disorders affecting the intestines—These Pills are pronounced without hesitation by all who have tried them to be come of the most office and the m native of South Carolina, and the son of a Frenchman, who had not been in this country long before he died, leaving his son then quite that if every portion of the Republic were left ing industric, and so they thoroughly pass through and that if every portion of the Republic were left to manage its affairs in its own way, without external interference, and if more charity and less virulence were exhibited; more of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and less of Sharpe's Rifles, issued from the arsenals of some of the churches; that the good old day of peace and fraternal regard would soon return to cheer the land.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully, your obedient servant, -Lewis Cass.

Horrible Murder.

On Sunday evening last, just before sunown, in East Pensborough township, Cumberland county, Mr. John Kissel, au old bachelor farmer, was shot dead while carrying his milk to the spring-house. The perpetrator of the deed must have been behind the springhouse, and when Mr. Kissel came within a few feet of him, he discharged a load of shot in his brain, and relieved him of his money. No clue has as yet bee cobtained of the villain who did the deed. The deceased was a very eccentric man, living entirely alone, and some distance sions, in a large wallet fascened upon the inside of his vest. It is said by his neighbors that he had at the time some four or five hundred dollars and perhaps a great deal more.

remarkable fact, that these Pills seldom fail to restore the jatient to health even after every other remedy has been used unsuccessfully.

and fair principles. Each book purchaser gets the value of his money in the book, and on account of the great number sold, becomes a share holder in much valuable property. A certificate will be presented to each book purchaser entitling the holder to an interest in the above valuable property. As soon as the books are all sold, notice will be given to the stockholders and a convention will be held at Newville, at the Institute's Hall, when a committee will be chosen, to whom the property will be delivered, to be distributed among the shareholders. All the articles that can, will be exhibited at the Institute's Fair on the 12th August. From the very flattering manner in which this Joint Stock Association is received and patronized, and from the number of tickets already sold, it is confidently believed that the property can be delivered to the shareholders in a few months. Removal! Removal! THE ORIGINAL & ONLY OLD STAND, Newly Refitted, Re-Modeled, Resuscitated, and RNEY & BRO. have removed their large and carefully selected Stock, to the Original old House formerly occupied by them, No. 67 West Market street, adjoining Hantz, Frick & Co's. Hardware store, and directly opposite the residence of Gen. Michael Doudel, York, Pa.

This house was opened by them for business purposes some ten years ago, as a wholesale eardy factory, foreign fruits, fancy goods, notions, &c., &c., in very large variety. Their superior and unequaled personally made by them daily, and of course always fresh, has been acknowledged by all long ago, the best and finest work ever offered and sold in York. Understanding their business as they do-in this branch especiallythey have every facility for prosecuting it to the best advantage, and can offer facilities superior to any other house here or elsewhere, as regards low prices, variety and particularly superior quality.

Candy and Confectionary,

The success and patronage with which they have met heretofore, is gratefully appreciated, for which they return again, as formerly, their sincere acknowledgments and thanks, and trust, by strict and prompt attention to business, a continuance of the liberal patronage hitherto extended to them.
