PHILADELPHIA, July 17 .- A serious accident is reported as having occurred on the North Pennsylvania Railroad this morning to an excursion train containing the Sunday school of St. Michael's Church. The report is that the locomotive exploded and set fire to ; ing man. the cars. Several lives were lost. The accident occurred near Fort Washington.

SECOND DESPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, July 17, 11 A. M .- The accident was a collision. It occurred about 7 o'clock, between the down train and the Exthe city, some making the number of killed odge to some profit. from fifty to sixty, others say two hundred lives have been lost.

THIRD DISPATCH. PHILADELPHIA, July 17, 21 o'clock,-The latest accounts from the scene of disaster re-

FOURTH DESPATCH. The excursion train contained eleven hundred children, parents and teachers. The train came in collision at a curve near Fort Washington, with the down train; the latter was going very slowly. The excursion train was going very rapidly, endeavoring to reach the stopping place. Both the locomotives were crushed and three cars of the excursion train, together with those that were consumed by fire. A number were crushed beneath the ruins so that extrication was impossible. The scene was most heart-rending.

The names of the killed are as follows :-Rev. Daniel Sheridan, chorister of the church, body not recovered; Hagh Campbell, Barry Kelly, James McIntire, John Dogan, Edward Hall, Jno. Rivers, James Hickey, Wm. Barnard. Henry Harris, Mary M. Lain, Catharine McBurk, Ellen Clark, Sarah McGrugan, Kate McGirr, John Brady, Margaret Meaney, John McQuire, James Carney and Henry Harrison, the engineer of the up train.

In addition to the above, seventeen bodies were counted beneath the ruins of the cars, mostly consumed; eleven men and women and two children were consumed in one car. The total killed is 39 and the number wound-

The Democratic party in New York, as in days gone by, will now be united-and when united, who ever knew them to be defeated.-New York will now cast her vote for James Buchanan and John C. A know Nothing Quarrel.

A pretty warm controversy is going on just now, between the Fillmore and Fremont parties, on the subject of Mr. Fremont's religious belief. The Fillmore papers, which represent all that is left of the bigotry of Know Nothingism, are positive in their assertions that papers, on the other hand, remembering that the bolting Know Nothings have accepted Fremont as their Presidential candidate, and fearing the effect which such a charge may have upon these "dark lantern" allies, deny it altogether, and brand it as an unqualified falsehood. So the question stands; and beyond the fact that when "the gallant explorer" ran away with Col. Benton's daughter, a Rovery conclusive has yet appeared to settle it. With such a quarrel, Democrats-have no concern, and no sympathy. To them a man's religious belief is an affair between him and his Goil, with which they have no right to moddle. They are content to abide by the Con-The correspondence of the Pennsylvan- stitution, which expressly forbids religious tests as a qualification to any office. But the fact that the political organizations in opposition to the Democratic party, are actually making the religious opinions of one of their candidates a subject of bitter dispute, is another proof of their factious, dangerous, and antirepublican character. Fremont a good Know Nothing .- The Bos ton Bee of the 28th June contains an account of a regularly called nativist meeting in Roxtry, on the 27th. It is headed-"Ameri canism in Roxbury." The proceedings are described as "enthusiastic." Mr. Keith, Know Nothing State Attorney for the distriet, said Mr. Fillmore had been his preference, but seeing now no hope of electing him, he should, for the purpose of preserving the power and inductee of the American purty in State matters, go for Fremont. Messrs. Seth Bliss, H. J. Shedd, and Col. Wolcott, all of the "secret order" party, spoke to the same effect. Mr. Ransom, Know Nothing State Auditor, and one of the proprietors of the Ber, in reply to a question asked by one of the brethren, who was not sure of Fremont's soundness as a mativist, said he had very recently conversed with him, and was enabled to say-"Col.
