Mr. Fillmore wells as that the Fremont par- Californian, of June 14th, has the following ty labors to accomplish Disunion. This is nurrative: the substance and superstructure of all his the dishonoring spectacle.

An election for State officers, and for the proached and set fire to the house. State Legislature, and members of Congress, Tuesday of October next. The Democrats nominated a full State ticket in March; laid his mother what he should do. She directed down a strict and stern platform; met every him to take his brother and sister-the formissue without hesitation; and grappled all sorts of sectionalism and fanaticism without deavor to find shelter in the house of a Mr. gloves. The unanimity with which all this Thomas, who resided two miles distant. The was begun and consummated, attracted general attention. No name was placed upon the ticket nominated by the Democratic State Convention that was not as sound as the resolutions themselves. So much for the Demo- deavoring to shoot him, and was only precratic party. How was it with the opposition? They, too, assembled in State Convention, and placed their ticket in nomination. his destination, only to be disappointed by Observe the composition of the Convention. It was composed of Abolitionists and Know-Nothings exclusively. Such disunionists as Wilmot and Jessup controlled it from the first to last. An invitation was extended to the met by a friendly Indian, who took the chil-Old Line Whigs to take part in this Conven-

But it was scouted and scorned. Not a single Old Line Whig meeting was held in the State to choose delegates to this Abolition full-blooded abolitionists was placed in nomination. T. E. Cochran, of York, B. Laporte, of Bradford, and Darwin Phelps, of Armtrong, were put upon this fusion ticket. The first is known for his violent and upscrupulous opposition to the Constitutional rights of the South: the second is Wilmot's own immediate representative, and like Wilmot, a traitor from the Democratic ranks, because of the principles of the Constitution; and the last is well known in Western Pennsylvania as one of the most offensive members of the Abolition and Know Nothing party. Both Laporte and Phelps were members of the last legislature; and both distinguished themselves in that body for their extreme and bitter support of the whole Abolition programme. The ticket, as it stands, is an out and out Fremont, Johnston, and Wilmot ticket, committed to all the infamies of the Black Republicans; and, as a conse quence, pledged to the idea of dissolving the American Union-the great basis and foundation of the sectional movement organized to elect John C. Fremont to the Presidency. Such are the relative positions of the Democratic and Fusion parties in Pennsylvania, Up to this moment no single step has been taken by the opponents of Fremont known as the supporters of Millard Fillmore, to nominate a Fillmore State ticket; and, if such a ticket should be fixed upon, it will be settled only to be withdrawn in favor of the Abolition ticket. Mark the prophecy!

The object of the Fillmore leaders in Pennsylvania is to assist the Abolitionists to elect their State ticket in October, so as to claim a victory over the Democracy. To establish this fact, there is at hand abundant proof. We have yet to see any objection made to the State ticket by the Fillmore press. On the contrary, in many of the counties, the Fillmore leaders are now engaged in making such an arrangement as will give them the county offices, or the members of the Legislature, or the candidate for Congress, in return for their votes for the Know Nothing. The Democrats are cordially State ticket of the Abolitionists. And the laturated upon Buchanan and Breckinridge. ter do not hesitate to exult in the prospect of The Know Nothing State Council has declar-electing their Abolition ticket, with the aid of ed for Fillmore and Donelson with great unathose who rally round a candidate for Presi- nimity, and will support that ticket. Freedent pledged against Fremont as a man who is in the hands of the enemies of the Constitution and the Union.

There have been so many of these corrupt combinations in Pennsylvania since the Abolitionists and Know Nothings have usurped and driven out the Old Line Whigs, that it will be hard work for a few corrupt men to try over the same game, in a more profligate manner and with more unblushing effrontery than heretofore. There was intense mortification among the Whigs after each of these plots had been carried into effect; and thousands have sworn never again to be made the sport of the gamblers that rule in the opposition ranks. They have seen that such demagogues as Johnston, and Wilmot, have regarded them as so many chattels, to be used as circumstances may suggest; and we can hardly suppose that now, with their eyes open to this new effort making to betray them, and to degrade them, they will tamely and uncomplainingly submit to another humiliation and outrage.

They Wince Under It.

If, as the fanatical Abolitionists maintain, a negro is as good as a white man, his equal in every possible respect, why should they object to being styled Black Republicans? They profess to have no prejudices on the ground of color or complexion, and why then do they look upon it as degrading to be designated by this appellation.

A man is known by the company he keeps. If from choice a white individual associates with the blacks, why should he object to the name black? If negroes ought to be placed upon an equality with ourselves, what disgrace as attached to those maintaining this theory, if we call them negroes? We do not exactly understand their objection to the designation which has been applied to their party. We fear that their professions about negro equality are not exactly sincere, after all the breath they have expended in advocating the position.—Pennsylvanian.

"Wanted-A few Kansas Murders."-A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from Kansas, says in reference to a Kansas company on the road: "I almost hope to hear that some of their lives have been sacri--ficed, for it seems as if nothing but that would rouse the Eastern States to act." The Christian gentleman must be what the Taunton (Mass.) Gazette calls a "Kansas outrage manufacturer, discouraged for want of material."

> Three Persons Poisoned by a Surgical Operation.—The Geneva (N. Y.) Gazette relates the following singular occurrences: Dr. John Potter, residing at Prattsburg, Steuben county, brother of Dr. Hazard Potter, of this village, well known as one of the most skillful surgeons in the State, was called upon to dress a man's arm which had been mutilated in the cog wheels of some machinery. He made every effort to save the arm from amputation, and in this, at the sacrifice of his own life, he has probably succeeded. The arm having maturated, he called on his brother, Hazard Potter, of this village, to assist in pening it. During the operation he by some accident cut himself slightly, and allowed some of the virus from the arm of his patient, to mingle with the blood. This in a few days had so poisoned his entire system that no earthly power could save him. He died on Friday last. While attending his funeral, his brother Hazard, who had a slight scratch on his hand at the time of performing the operation, and who had also become poisoned the virus, felt an itching about his fingers which proved to be the workings of the poison, and although attended by all the physicians in Geneva-his-life is despaired of, Another man who assisted in dressing the arm was poisoned and has also died.

Each book purchaser containing 45 Acres, more or less, about 7 gets the value of his money in the book, and acres of which are Woodland, and 10 acres on account of the great number sold, becomes a share helder in much valuable property. A certificate will be presented to each book purchaser entitling the holder to an interest in the above valuable property. As soon as the books are all sold, notice will be given to the stockholders and a convention will be held at Newville, at the Institute's Hall, when a committee will be chosen, to whom the property will be delivered, to be distributed among the shareholders. All the articles that can, will be exhibited at the Institute's Fair on the 12th August. From the very flattering manner in which this Joint Stock Association is received and patronized, and from the number of tickets already sold, it is confidently believed that other persons concerned, that the Administration Accounts hereinafter mentioned will
