

Violent Storm--Loss of Property and Life.

We begin to receive accounts from various directions of the effect of the storm on Monday afternoon. The Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday has the following:

During the high wind which accompanied the storm yesterday afternoon, a large four-story brick building on the north side of Third street, which was in progress of erection and nearly completed, was blown down, and the ruins falling on two small frame tenements adjoining on the east, they were completely crushed, and the inmates overwhelmed in the fall of masses. A large crowd quickly gathered around the scene of the disaster, and many went to work with a will to rescue those who were under the ruins.

The house immediately adjoining the building was occupied by a Mr. Gammell, with his wife and child. Mrs. Gammell was soon taken out of the ruins horribly crushed, and with life totally extinct. Jane Gammell, a child aged ten years, was found lying by her side with a broken thigh.

The house next door was occupied by Mr. Penner. Mrs. P., who was within a very short period of her confinement, was found under some timbers with her back badly hurt and her foot crushed. Mr. James Henson, who was in Mr. Penner's house at the time of the accident, was badly injured in the side. Wm. Mowley was found under some ruins where Mr. Gammell's house stood. He was seriously bruised about the head; both eyes were closed, and one of the eyelids much lacerated--he had also a gas in his side.

Two carpenters named Jas. Rice and Jas. Fay were working on the roof, and although they fell the entire distance to the ground, escaped with but slight injuries.

The thunder storm which passed over Boston and vicinity on Monday afternoon was very severe. At Watertown the steeple of the Orthodox church, 180 feet high, was blown down, and buildings were struck by lightning in West Cambridge and other places. The engine-house of the Worcester railroad was struck and set on fire, but was speedily extinguished. Several barns were also struck, and with their contents entirely consumed.

Later from San Francisco and Nicaragua.

NEW ORLEANS, July 25.--The steamer Grenada arrived last night from San Francisco, with California dates to the 5th inst.

There has been no abatement of the excitement at San Francisco. The Vigilance Committee still holds its sessions. All the arms collected by the law and order men have been seized by the Committee, and Mr. Durkee, a member of the Committee, has been arrested by the State authorities on the charge of piracy in seizing the arms belonging to the State, which were on board a schooner.

Judge Terry of the Supreme Court has been arrested for stabbing a policeman attached to the Committee, while employed in making an arrest.

The Committee appears to be firmly established in power.

The Governor remains at Sacramento.

From Nicaragua--President Walker was inaugurated on the 12th inst.

Ex-President Rivas still remains in possession of Leon.

It is reported that many of the natives consider the inauguration of Walker as an act of usurpation, and have declared against him. Among the deserters are Col. Mendez and Gen. Chillon.

There is much sickness among Walker's troops, and frequent desertions.

The steamer Illinois, for New York, has on board $1,640,000 in gold.

Another Steamboat Disaster.

WATER FALLS, Vt., July 30.--The steamer John Jay was burnt yesterday on Lake George, near Garfield. Several of the passengers and crew perished. The bodies of four females have been recovered.

SECOND DISASTER.

WATER FALLS, Vt., July 30.--There have been five bodies recovered from the disaster to the steamer John Jay on Lake George yesterday. They have been recognized as those of Mrs. Helenary of New York; Miss Henshaw of New Orleans; Mr. Metcalf, of Cherry Valley; Mrs. Irving, of Boston, and C. A. Fleet, of Brooklyn.

Among the saved are J. A. White and wife, of New Orleans; J. H. Brazz, Miss Todd, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Susan E. Spangler, of York, Pa.; and the captain and crew of the boat. It is supposed that there is another body under the wreck.

The boat was burned to the water's edge. The fire, it is said, was occasioned by the choking of the smoke pipe, which drove the flames into the fire room, setting the boat almost instantly on fire. A despatch from Albany says that Miss Sherman, of that city, was lost--making the whole number six.

Great Fire in Boston--Nine Lives Lost.

Boston, July 30.--A fire occurred at North street yesterday, rendering eighty families homeless. Two dead bodies were recovered from the ruins this morning, making nine lives lost by the fire.

The buildings were mostly occupied by Irish families and sailor boarding houses. By the falling of the walls Charles A. Warren, a freeman, was killed, and three others were injured. A woman and five children were taken from the ruins, their bodies being so deformed as to defy recognition.

It is rumored that other occupants perished in the flames. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

Insurrection in Spain.

A formidable insurrection, in consequence of the forced resignation of the cabinet, and the appointment of a new ministry, has broken out in Spain. The insurrection commenced at Madrid on the 16th, when the National Guard, assisted by the citizens, fought the regular troops for 24 hours with much loss on both sides, but the affair was finally suppressed. One account says the insurgents have proclaimed a Republic. Gen. Napata, the President of the Cortes, headed the insurrection.

Another account says the insurrection was not suppressed. General O'Donnell had been appointed to the municipality of Madrid, and had declared Spain to be in a state of siege. He had also dissolved the National Guard.

The latest dates from Madrid are said to be entirely subdued.

The National Guards were being rapidly disarmed. The Queen reviewed the garrison troops on the 17th.

Later dispatches to the London Times, dated Thursday evening, indicate a different state of affairs. They say that the insurrection at Saragossa, Aragon and Catalonia was successful, the garrison siding with the people.

Robbery of Tom Thumb's Jewels.

The valuable jewels presented to Tom Thumb in his travels in this country and Europe, several of them from crowned heads, were all stolen, together with the case containing them, from the Melodion, at Cincinnati, on Monday night. The case, which is two feet long by eighteen inches broad, had been placed near the piano. The contents consisted of watches, diamond rings, pins, &c., of the value of twenty thousand dollars, which sum, however, it is said, but poorly represents the value set upon them by their owner. [See report.]

Political Items.

After the manner of the New York Herald, the Boston Atlas, the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, and other Black Republican Division Journals.

A train of 67 cars, all loaded with passengers, was recently passing from Turkey Island to Gooseberry Beach, when a vote was taken on the Presidential question. There were 1,116 passengers aboard, and, strange to say, when the tellers reported the count, it appeared that Fremont and Dayton had received 3,777 votes. Buchanan, Pillsbury, Gerrit Smith, and Commodore Stockton had, several times, "I cannot account for the extraordinary phenomenon."

As a train of cars was recently passing into the Tunnel, on the Allegheny Mountains, the locomotive was thrice heard to shriek "Fremont and Dayton." The shriek was distinctly heard at Harrisburg, one hundred and fifty miles distant!

At a barn-raising on Hockberry Hill, in Cob-Apple township, at which 249 farmers were present, a vote was taken for President, when 737 voted for Fremont, and the rest declined to vote at all, preferring to wait until next November. Not a solitary one of these farmers had ever voted before, or ever intend to vote again!

At a swine-killing in Porkopolis, Grant county, State of Bacon, thirteen hogs were recently killed, and on the bladders of each one, when inflated to sell to the Snuff-makers, there were distinctly visible the words "Fremont and Dayton." The bladders have since exploded.

At a well-digging on Water Summit, Arid township, Dry county, near the Thirsty line, on the 31st of January last, whilst they were raising one of the diggers from the bottom, the rope broke, and the man fell back again, a distance of 60 feet, and was killed. Had he lived until November, it was his deliberate intention to have voted for Fremont.

Seventy-six Germans recently casually met in a cigar store, near Smoke-town, in Wood Valley, when it appeared that all were for Fremont, except eighty-nine, and those were Irishmen and Americans.

Seventy-nine Fremont papers are received every day at the office of the New York Herald, and, strange to relate, they are all for Fremont. There is not a Fillmore or Buchanan paper among them. "Straws show which way the wind blows."

The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin is evidently going to support Fremont. Only about a year ago, the editor professed to be a Democrat. Then he supported the Temperance ticket. Then he joined the Know Nothings, and has not returned the Order yet. Now the paper is advocating the Black Republican, although under the garb of neutrality, the better to deceive. The concession of the Bulletin is among the most remarkable events of the nineteenth century.

"Der Tageliche und Wockwochenliche Freisheitskämpfer," the largest, handsomest, most ably conducted, most extensively circulated German paper, out of the United Kingdom of the Netherlands, has offered to come out for Fremont, provided eleven thousand dollars can be raised! Negotiations are in train, which, it is believed, will accomplish the result. If so, the editor will hoist the Fremont flag, surely.

Forty-nine children were recently born in Prolific Valley, near Multiplication X Roads, in a single day. Thirty-one of them are girls. They all intend to vote for Fremont next November.

Eighteen thousand, seven hundred and sixty-nine railway cars, fourteen thousand steamboats, sixteen hundred stage coaches, and eleven hundred and seventeen omnibuses, are to be built, between now and November--exclusively for the accommodation of Fremont and Dayton voters. The good cause is bravely advancing! Pennsylvania.

Up with the Negro--Down with the White Man.

In the Wisconsin State Senate, lately, a bill was passed extending the right of suffrage to the negroes of that State--years 16, may 7. While this process of elevating the negro to political privileges is going on with Black Republicanism, the same faction, in its Know Nothing shape, is combating for laws which will degrade white men who are born without the country, or those of Catholic faith, born in, or out of it, to the condition of helots. Massachusetts, the head-quarters of Black Republicanism, has moved first in persecuting the foreign-born white man to a position beneath her negroes.

Abolition "shrieks for freedom" are not made for men of white blood. The negro, only, is the object of its sympathy, and for this they agitate, trampling upon law and Constitution in their zeal for his elevation. In its labors in this regard, our German foreign citizens are especially invited to assist Abolitionism--to elevate the negro and degrade their own countrymen. Some of the leaders claim to repudiate Know Nothingism, but it is only where the latter will not incorporate Abolitionism among its tenets. Black Republicanism, as represented in the National House of Representatives, has five members who endorse Know Nothingism where it has one who repudiates it. The latter is an acceptable article of faith with the great mass of Abolitionists, but they require, with the white man's degradation, the medal of honor to the negro.

It is thus "freedom shrieks" and to a participation in this Republican labor, white men of foreign birth are asked to lend a hand. Massachusetts having favored the negro, now moves for the proscription of the foreign born white man. Wisconsin Republicanism has taken the first step only, but give it power, and the last step will be taken.--Springfield (Ill.) Register.

A Bare-Faced Fraud.

The Democratic National Committee within the last few weeks have discovered a deliberate, and well laid scheme, the purpose of which is palpable, and that is to obtain money under false pretences. It is a circular, purporting to come from an official in the Post Office Department, named Perrin M. Brown, addressed to Postmasters throughout the Union, asking them to contribute from three to five dollars, according to the emoluments of their offices, to be used for electioneering purposes. This is a bold, deliberate, and dastardly swindle, put into operation by a disreputable scamp or scamp, and it is decidedly fortunate for the Democratic party that it has been nipped in the bud. The Washington correspondent of the Pennsylvania says: "The employees in the City Post Office here, have, for some time, kept a strict watch, having thereby to nab the scoundrel when he presented himself to inquire for letters for the above-named individual. I have just been informed that a man did yesterday, call at the City Post Office and inquire for letters for Perrin M. Brown; and that while the clerk stopped back to inform one of the assistants, the scamp, suspecting something, sloped and has not since been seen."

Acquittal on a Charge of Murder.

WASHINGTON, July 25.--The trial of young Jarboe, for the shooting of Nally, the alleged seducer of his sister, was concluded this evening. A recess had been taken until quarter past five o'clock. The jury then retired, and returned in twenty minutes into a crowded court room, when John Scrivener, the foreman, announced a verdict of "Not Guilty." This was immediately followed by an irrepressible burst of applause, which was severely condemned by the court.

When the words "not guilty" fell from the foreman's lips, Jarboe's father fell upon his son's neck quite overwhelmed, and then withdrawing a few feet burst into tears. It was an affecting spectacle, and crowds rushed forward to congratulate young Jarboe. The jury were then dismissed.

Wonderful Escape.

The Rochester Union notices a singular escape on the Central Railroad, near Lockport. A small boy, son of Mr. Richardson, was struck by the locomotive, and thrown a distance of 85 feet by actual measurement. The fireman said he first saw the child in the air some fifteen feet from the ground, and supposed it was a dog. Though at first insensible, the child has nearly recovered.

Over one hundred lives were lost in England recently by an explosion of fire damp in a colliery.

ABSENT OF A CRY--A fellow was arrested on Tuesday morning for cutting a purse out of the pantaloons of a stranger. The latter complained much of the damage to his unbecomingly, when Mayor Vanx, who is known as a man of taste, advised the sufferer to obtain a better pair at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 225 and 227 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
