

Letter from Abbotstown.---More about the "Flare-Up."

ABBOTSTOWN, Sept. 6, 1856. Mr. Editor.---Our quiet village was annoyed this day by one of the most disgraceful and disgusting political gatherings that I ever witnessed in my life.

We all expected a respectable meeting, as every preparation had been made and the day was fine; but as soon as the "du da" delegations made their appearance, we were satisfied that disorder and rowdiness would supplant order and decency.

The appearance of the delegation with Fremont flags and banners struck the Fillmore delegations with surprise, and a collision was immediately discovered. But a few minutes passed, when it became evident that the Fillmore men were to be swallowed, or all to have "nigger faces" and "woolly heads."

Here lay a pole with a flag bearing the names of "Fillmore and Dotson." Over these were a dozen small flags, with the names of "Fremont and Dayton." One shout for Fillmore---another for Fremont!

Here began a row in the bar-room, in which a lawyer of your place and the editor from Hanover were the combatants, and had it not been for the lawyer's "border ruffians," who turned it almost into a fistfight, the editor would have come off victor, for the professional man seemed greatly in need of argument to get along.

Shout after shout went up for Fremont---then for Fillmore---when the crowd left the bar-room, the Fillmoreites to the pole, and the woollies to another corner of the yard and began drumming. Here the negro party remained for more than an hour, shouting for Fremont, and taunting the poor fellows who were putting up the pole.

The pole raisers went to work again, and in another hour the pole was up, and the flag flying over the Fremonters' heads. The Fillmore men formed a procession and marched around the pole, whilst the woollies drew up a wagon alongside another house, and were about to organize another meeting.

A "union" (r) meeting was announced, and organized by putting an ex-State Senator, now a Fremont man, in the chair. The performance began by a sermon from Mr. McCaughy. His text was taken from Beecher's rite theology, 1st chapter. For about forty minutes he held the few persons around the stand in awful "noise and confusion," fearing that all would finally get into the bar-room.

With all his "shrieks for freedom," the cheers wouldn't come. There was not one from beginning to end. His harangues about compacts, laws, ordinances, the constitution, &c., made no impression here other than that he is an orator of not more than ordinary stamp.

might perceive upon examination that it is a wolf in sheep's clothing, and that of the deepest dye of Abolitionism, and only policy or cowardice prevents him showing his colors.

For the Compiler. Mr. STABLE:---I observed in the Scraper's sheet, called the Star and Banner, a notice of a small communication written by me for the Pennsylvanian, concerning hired emissaries travelling the country endeavoring to convert Catholics to Fremont.

He says that we had to send it far off to have it published. I would say to this man of many principles, that where a thing is already known by the masses, it would be nonsense to have a newspaper to tell the fact over.

It is no more unlikely that emissaries should travel for the purpose indicated, than that others of the same Fremont party should be engaged in the work of buying up presses, &c., which has been charged time and again.

The editor of the Star should be the last to stamp the assertions of others like this. People who live in glass houses should not throw stones---and especially should this editor, who was first a Whig, then a Know Nothing, and now a Know Nothing Fremontier, be satisfied with his own weakness, and rejoice if no one sees fit to notice it.

Men who have acted as inconsistently in politics as he has, prove themselves either weak-minded---objects of our compassion---or unprincipled demagogues, not worthy of the countenance of honorable men.

I do not make any pretensions as a writer, but poor as I am at it I could give my opinion of the Star and Banner in a legible hand.

Maj. John Hill, of Westmoreland, formerly for many years a member of the State Senate, was thrown from his carriage on Friday last week, and so much injured that he died in a few hours.

THE UNION MUST BE PRESERVED! ONCE MORE UNTO THE BREACH! DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

ALL WHO FAVOR THE ELECTION OF Buchanan and Bieckinridge--- All who favor the maintenance of the CONSTITUTION and the UNION as they are.

All who are opposed to the sectional and dangerous designs of the Black Republicans--- All who are opposed to the dark and proscriptive purposes and practices of Know Nothingism---and, in short, All who favor good government.

Are requested to assemble at the places and times herein designated, to hear the issues involved in the present campaign fearlessly, candidly and eloquently discussed.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills are administered with uniform success in inflammatory rheumatism. Warm applications should first be applied to the surface, in order to open the pores, and then the Ointment rubbed in as thickly as possible. The aperient action of the Pills has the happiest effect in aiding the fever, and it may be confidently asserted that any species of external inflammation will yield to the use of these two great remedies. The cases of scrofula, salt rheum, sore leg, contusion, tumor, cancer, fistula, piles, and external injury resulting from accident, that have been cured by Holloway's Ointment, may be numbered by tens of thousands.

ARRREST OF A CUT-THROAT.---A fellow was arrested on Tuesday morning for cutting a purse out of the pantaloons of a stranger. The latter complained much of the damage to his unmentionables, when Mayor Vaux, who is known as a man of taste, advised the sufferer to obtain a better pair at the Brown-Sachs Clothing Hall, of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 235 and 237 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

GALLAGHER'S SUN-RISE AIR-TIGHT, PATENTED, 1856. A new and splendid Large Oven, Flat Top COOKING STOVE.

For Coal or Wood. Four Sizes, Nos. 6, 7, 8, 9.

GALLAGHER'S Sunrise Air-Tight, a beautiful design of a new flat top Cooking Stove, just out. It is only necessary to say, that after very many years of experience, and being fully conversant with all of the various kinds of Stoves which have been invented on the down-draft principle, that I have taken advantage of every well known improvement that has from time to time been made, particularly in reference to the formation and construction of the flues, which are always necessary to be large, and I have fully applied every improvement and combined them all in the "Sunrise Air-Tight Cooking Stove."

This Stove is made very heavy and is a good substantial article; I have made them extra heavy in all parts where long experience has proved it to be important, and I can assure my customers, that I have spared neither pains nor expense in getting it up; and it will not be excelled by any stove now known, of a similar character. I am convinced that it will at once become a standard Stove.

I have fully tried them in every way, with WOOD and COAL, and strongly recommend them to the public. They operate in the most satisfactory manner. Patented by A. J. GALLAGHER, Philadelphia. Sold by ANDREW POLLEY, Sept. 15, 1856. 4m Gettysburg, Pa.
