We took up the banter, and answered it in such a way as to prevent the editor from repeating his "dare" on Friday last, nor will he do it agoin. But we cannot forbear adding the "testimony" of another LEADER. Fred Douglass, the black man, whose paper is the leading supportex of Fremont in western New York, has taken the stump for that candidate. # How Fremont is to Carry the North.

The Black Republican orators and presses here in Gettysburg, as well as elsewhere, are using every effort in their power to convince the people that the Democratic party is the author of many aggressions and outrages said to be committed in Kansas and hailed with joy by every Fremont orator and organ in the North. One of the "shriekers for Freedom," Dr. Cutter, recently "let the cat out of the bag," in the following style, in Montpelier, Vermont :

"IF YOU WOULD CARRY THE ELEC-TION NEXT NOVEMBER KEEP BLOODY OUTRAGES IN KANSAS BEFORE THE EYES OF THE PEOLLE. YOU HAVE NO OTHER PLANK. SETTLE THIS QUES-TION AND YOU ARE DEFEATED."

Mass Meeting at East Berlin.

Thousands of Democrats in Council !- Enthusiasm almost Unprecedented !-The Demoeratic Mass Meeting at East Berlin, on Thursday, was one of those immense assemblages House of John Busbey, Esq., in McSherryswhich cause the opposition to quake from the soles of their feet to the crowns of their heads. Delegations entered the town from various | ing that its erection on the day of the stated points, numbering hundreds upon hundreds, their vehicles and horses decorated in almost every conceivable style; and the town was eeived the idea of raising it on the preceding literally covered with banners, flags, wreaths, &c. The procession which received the Gettysburg and Straban delegation was a mile in length, the whole combined forming a most imposing spectacle. Truly, the right spirit is also abroad in that quarter-and the second Tuesday of October will show that our Democratic friends there are not to be gulled by Know Nothing Black Republican humbuggery and lies.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. D. S. Peffer, when the following gentlemen from York and Adams counties were chosen officers:

President, HENRY MYERS, Esq. Vice Presidents, Dr. David S. Peffer, Daniel Bender, Joseph Altland, George Julius, Col. James Lilly, George Geyer, Vincent O' Bold, Daniel Geiselman, Michael Geiselman, Tobias Beck, Dr. C. S. Picking, Abraham Hershey George Rohrbaugh, Franklin L. Myers, Jas. Clark, George Baker, David C. Brinkerboff, Philip Donohue, Peter Smith, John Julius, Emanuel Butt, Jacob Hartman, Lewis Chronister, Jacob Baker, Francis J. Wilson, Frederick Wolf, Jacob C. Pittenturf.

Secreturies, Adam Smith, Daniel Lynch, H. J. Stahle, V. C. S. Eckert, H. A. Picking, Dr. C. E. Goldsborough.

The meeting was addressed by Wilson Reilly, George W. Brewer, and Henry Reily, Esqs., and by Wm. A. Stahle, of York, the latter in German.

"Penelope Ann" was present, according to promise, and waked up the cohoes for miles around with a thundering voice. The Demoerats of Gettysburg-indeed, of theewhole county-are proud of that gun, and they well may be. The meeting concluded with the firing of the cannon, and all hands left with the most buoyant hopes of gloriously splendid victories in October and November.

Meeting at New Chester.

In the evening a meeting was also had at New Chester, large and enthusiastic, much more so, indeed, than the most sanguine looked for. It was organized as follows:

Prosident, JACOB RAFTIN SPERGER. Vice Presidents, Henry Koser, Sr., John ter, John Eicholtz, Martin Thomas, Jacob

A. H. Rether, Burkhart Wert and John Quickle.

Secretaries, Aaron Wisler, John Lauver, Daniel March, Jacob S. Grammer, Andrew McIlvaine and Israel Bricker.

H. J. Stahle, Wm. M. Clean and E. B. Buchler, Esqs., made speeches. The enthustasm manifested on the occasion augurs well. DEP Thus concluded the week's work. That it was laborious to those who went through the whole of it, may be true, but it is a source of high satisfaction to have reason to believe that great good to THE CAUSE OF THE COUNTRY has been done. The people have been aroused to the dangers which beset the Union, and we are firm in the conviction that, in the county a majority of hundreds will declare against Sectionalism, and its ally Bigotry.

> Communicated. Pole Raising at McSherrystown.

MR. STAHLE: One of the most enthusiastic and interesting little meetings that I had the pleasure of witnessing for a long time, came off on Monday evening last, at the Public town, on the occasion of a pole raising. The Committee that had the pole in charge, thinkmeeting, would interfere too much with the more important proceedings of the day, conevening, and therefore gave notice that about fifty of the "unterrified" should assemble on the ground, and plant the standard bearer of their whole country's flag on the evening mentioned.

Obedient to the call, they came at the "accepted time" from every point of the Compass, and in a few minutes the glorious work was completed; and the now perpendicular "Young Hickory" of one hundred and forty feet in the the clear, called forth the hearty and repeated cheers of the "little multitude;" after which an organization was called for, and effected by the unanimous appointment of the following officers, who took their scats amid immense and enthusiastic applause:

President, JOHN L. GUBERNATOR, Esq.

Vice Presidents, David Wortz, Thos. Me-Olaine, Adam Leonard, Nathaniel Gitt, Franis Krichten, Samuel Shorb, Geo. Frederick. Secretaries, John Busbey, Jr., Esq., Dr. Charles Hombzeh, Joseph Small, Thomas McKinney, Daniel Lawrence.

The meeting was addressed alternately by Messrs. John Bushey, Sr., Henry Reily and John L. Gubernator, in short but eloquent appeals which were well received and frequently interrupted with buzzas and shouts of applause. The maeting dispersed about 9 clock, and every person quietly returned to his home, evidently well pleased with the important part that he had performed in behalf of his country, in the sleverion of a Flag that embraces the whole Union in its ample folds, and that "knows no North, no South, no East and no West.?'

Of the large and enthusiastic meeting that took place the next day at the same place; I need say but little, as you yourself was present. Suffice it to say that the speeches of Messrs, Brewer and Wilson Reilly, far surpassed the most sangnine expectations of all. present. None heard but to praise, none saw but to esteem and love those liberal, eloquent and patriotic strangers and gentlemen. Conowago will show her appreciation of their noble sentiments on the 14th of Cotober next,. by a majority in their behalf, both overwhelming and unprecedented, and to which Pmust. heartily respond, "So more it be."

For the Obmiler.

FRIEND STARLE :--- Our country is cursed with a set of political tinkers. Their object is far from patriotic; it springs from a. ow desire of notoricty or a lust after office. Their impunity is constantly on the slert todiscover how they may most successfully pan-der to prejudices and passions, so as to gain. for a time, if it be but the applause of men. Hence Utopian schemes whereby wonders. are to be performed and miracles wrought aredaily, yea even hourly, possed forth by theglowing imaginations of men who, for the sake of office, would be willing to barter thedearest rights of their country. Even the people, the only true sovereigns of the land, bewildered by their unmeaning phrases and axiomatic truths, their only confession of faith, decked in high fown figures of rhetoric, are but too often deceived. Of this character are some of the American party. The towers of its strength and the soundness of its guards are painted in vivid colors. To the eye when afar off and not gazing upon it too critically it seems all powerful. But as you approa b how forcibly are you reminded of that out quoted line of Campbell:

"'Tis distance lends enchantment to the view."
