For the Compller.

Mr. Estronts-The Know Nathing Sumbo Republicans have, during the past week, been so'n dori itsly unsuccessful in getting up respectable deligations to their largely announcost meetings, that they have been reduced to the pitiable expedient of disparaging these of their opponents, and of vilitying and misrepresenting the speakers at those meetings. In pursuance of this plan, a well known whinper-in of the opposition party, one of the e anoany who first importe | Know Nothing-1 -m into the county-a sourcel and disap jointel office-hunter-an Abbottstown bully and a Gettysburg buffoon-las volunteered his little mite to help a kinking cause. This contribution, modestly signed "Janins," (God save the mark !) is a compound of malignity, more especially directed against yourself, and the Abditionists the hardest ; and this connoisseur of "ground and lofty tumbling," (well versed in such matters from sundry experiences of his own,) volunteers a statement which is known to be untrue by every one meeting.

I was at that meeting, and you did not say one word which could be torinred into a personal attack upon any of the candidates, much less upon Maj. Musselman and Dr. Horner. On the contrary, you hore testimony to the private worth and estimable character of both of these gentlemen.

But you did say, and truly, that they could claim no peculiar favor for themselves because they did not join the Know Nothing party, for they have now accepted a nomination at the hands of that party, and must be held responsible for its doctrines. They are within the shadow of the Know Nothing dark lantern, and they have been smutted over by the caressing, but none the less black hands of their Abolition friends and supporters. This is what you said-it is true, but doubtless unpalatable. If it be slander, why-"let them make the most of it."

The other insinuations, of a personal character, and directed against yourself, are of course perfectly harmless, considering the source from which they come. In case you stand in need of heing politically enlightened, you might occasionally borrow the dark lantern of "Junias ;" and if conviction of error is the result, get the loan of his elongated pedal extremities. They are used to political locamotion, having travelled at a two forty shamble from Democracy to Know Nothingison, thence to Black Republicanism, 'and finally to Abolitionism, upon which he is fast founded, at least until he sees the corncrib of office in another party, in which case be will again make use of his political legs, sprained and ring-boned though they be. Q. UNDER THE QUINCE BUSH.

For the Compiler.

Mr. EDITOR :-- I am glad to perceive that the easter of the Sentinel has partially recovered from his late and last attack of lethargy, and bids fair to be again the "little Giant" of a few years ago. The turn that his party took two years ago, seemed to have taken him by surprise, and he could not realize his position or regain his powers of speech for some time. The last Sentinel proves his convalescence, if not his total recovery, and should he containe to increase in wind and speech, as he has done for the last few months, we may expect wonders, if not modern miracles at his hands. He lost ground during the time of his slumbers, and he knows and feels that he is bound to spur up, in order to overtake the Stur, which has been "ballooing" it ever since at a furious rate. In his last sheet he desperately endeavors to give full indomnity for the past, by the most vigorous and unwarrantable attack on James Buchanan, as well as on the almost last words of Henry Clay. He seems to have no regard for the words or veracity of Mr. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, before James Buchanan was a candidate for the Presidency-he scenes to have no re-gard for the son of the lamented Sage of A suland, waile he declares that his father Tally examinated Mr. Buchanan from the least blams or reproach in connection with the "bargain and sale"-ne seems to pay no sciention to the fact that the conduct of this same Prentice towards the son of this same "Sage of Asaland," compelled the widow, the aged relies of Henry Clay, to appear in public, in order to vindicate her son, and the son of the Sage of Asigland, from the load of calumny and false nocusation that this same Prentice has been endeavoring to heap on this same son of the Sage of Ashland, since he has conceived it to be his duty to join the ranks of the Democratic party, in order to avert the evils that Know Nothingian and Black Republicanism are endeavoring to fasten on this the beloved country of his father and his own. Yes, this lately shundering, during Sentimel pays no attention to these facts-pays no attention to the fact that since Prentice has turned Know Nothing he has been openly and boldly charged with inciting riots; with aiding and abetting bloodshed even unto the death-and with having caused the desecration and ruin of his own city-pays no atten-tion to the fact that hundreds of Henry Clay's nearest and dearest political and personal frieads are now on the side of James Bachauan, testifying by word and deed, that his publie and private character is above reproach; and that the tongue of calumny and detraction is forced to resort to fiction, such as the Schtinel employs, in order to holster up something with which to feel the morbid appetites of such as are ashamed to acknowledge themselves Black Republicans and Know Nothings. The Sentinel should look around him a little, and see how one of his own friends, and ever had in this county, was treated two low, a remedy f short years ago, by an editor that now look for succor. joins the Sentinel in making a great hitabaloo about "bargains and sales." I allude to Col. Neely, in connection with the fact that the Gettyshurg Star advocated his election two years ago until the very day of the contest, and one week afterwards declared that the great mass of the Whig vote had passed over to ed them from a bed of suffering and sorrow to Wilson early in the canvass. The Sentinel new life and reanimated vigor ! should, to appear consistent, have this duplicity and apparent "bargain and sale" cleared of the human frame, or evinced by superficial up before he travels back to 1824, in his de- sores, by sure, but gentle means, he eradicates sire to appear learned and intelligent and pure the secret evil, and disperses to the winds the on this sensitive question. He should republish the manly, the open and the active part he took in exposing and denouncing the betrayers, the political murderers, the midnight assassing of the friend and admirer of Henry | the stern realities of long-tried practice and Clay, Col. Neely, after having duly nominate I and selected him as their standard bearer and their political leader. Let the Sentinel Holloway as the man, and his medicines as clear its own party on the subject of "bargains | the means that administer to the healing of and sales," and then it will be time enough to the nations from the "Orient" to the "Occiattack others.—"A word for the wise is suffi-cient." Mr. Epiron :-- The Whig Convention which has lately held its meeting at Balfimore has resulted exactly as every body supposed at would, and that was in favor of Fillmore and Doucloss. And indeed there was never any other object of that Convention than simply to render aid to the nomination of the Know Nothing Convention of last February.
