

The Presidential Election.

Mr. Editor:—In a conversation, a few days ago, a gentleman remarked that he could not feel as sanguine as some appear to feel, for the result of the coming election. He at the same time remarked, that there was a time at which he felt no doubt; and thought all safe—all secure. So it is yet. We need not fear the election of Mr. Fillmore, by the feeble party that espouses his cause; and as to Woolly-headed, Negro-worshipper Fremont, we could not fear, because we thought that the conservatism of the North and South would never yield to the more sectional pressure that seemed to, alone, favor Mr. Fremont's election; and more especially, because we are confident in the bravery, energy and invincibility of the Democracy of the country. In this latter, we are happy to state the fact that our fears are not excited, for the Democracy are up and doing. There is at this time no apathy, resting over our party, as some might suppose, and our success in November next appears certain. It is true, that we have no fears of the Fillmore party, further than the influence it seems to exert in the furtherance of Fremont's chances for an election. We believe that all the Fillmore managers, whether North or South, East or West, would tenfold rather see Fremont elected President than James Buchanan, and there is no doubt of the fact, that the opposers of Democracy perfectly understand each other, or at least so they pretend to make it appear; yet Stevens with his conservatism could not unite them, and now we are satisfied that this will not be the case, because the Fillmore oppose the Fremont and the Fremont the Fillmore—the papers of Philadelphia state. Now, Democrats, are you going to stand still and see your own party defeated, without doing anything to save yourselves and it from the mortification and disgrace of a defeat, brought about by our own neglect—if we are neglectful of our duty. We hope that our friends will GO TO WORK, and show to the world that they fight for principles and not for men. It is true, a noble state man and pure patriot was never before the country for the Presidency than James Buchanan; but one thing is certain, he cannot elect himself. Will those who did not vote at the October election again stay at home in November?—no, we hope not. Up and at them, Democrats, and a glorious victory will be the result. MAJOR.

The Greatest Political Meeting ever Held in Pennsylvania.—Fifty Thousand People at the Home of Buchanan.—The Sons of Clay and Webster Supporting the Democratic Nominees.

We have already briefly noticed, in our telegraphic column, the great Democratic demonstration at Lancaster—the home of Buchanan—and Lancaster papers, which have since come to hand, give full and glowing accounts of what was most assuredly the greatest political meeting ever held in Pennsylvania. To use the language of one of the reports, "the meeting was undoubtedly the monster demonstration of the campaign. It was such a spectacle as may never be witnessed again within the borders of Pennsylvania, surpassing in magnitude all former popular assemblages in our country, in the appointments of decorations, the variety of devices, and the long procession of distinguished individuals convened to give it its most august and striking characteristics. It stands out before the world as a unique event in our history. The number present is variously estimated at from thirty to sixty thousand! The material of which the meeting was composed renders this demonstration one of the most marked significance. The Pennsylvania says: What rendered the scene most significant was the fact that in every delegation were to be found many who for twenty years past have opposed Mr. Buchanan and his political friends. In some delegations from the county the two old parties were equally represented. On the one hand might be seen a prominent Wang, who had swayed his district during many years, leading his delegation into line, and on the other, the young and ardent Wangs who had stood up for Henry Clay in 1841, by Taylor in 1848, and by Scott in 1852, who, without assisting toward this magnificent triumph to the constitution. There, too, might be seen the rascals and the old sturdy and stern Democracy, who for forty odd years had stood up with the county of Lancaster as the very granite of the opposition. They saw that their long services, their persevering efforts in favor of their principles, their honest courage in the hour of peril, were about to be awarded that most acceptable consummation which, in elevating their own beloved Buchanan to the presidency, vindicated their own sacred and eternal principles. It is no wonder that those who have sought to arrest the tide of popular feeling which has been swelling in favor of Mr. Buchanan in Lancaster county for the last year should have stood appalled at this remarkable demonstration. Every thing conspired to make it worthy of the candidate, of the friends of the constitution itself.

During the day and evening speakers addressed the meeting from eight stands. Hon. James B. Clay, of Kentucky, Hon. Fletcher Webster, of Massachusetts, Col. Wm. Preston, of Kentucky, Hon. George R. Riddle, of Delaware, and Hon. R. K. Meade, of Virginia, spoke from the main stand, and among those who made speeches from the other stands, at the depot, and in the halls in various parts of the city, are the following named gentlemen: Hon. Charles J. Faulkner, of Virginia, Hon. John Appleton, of Maine, Gen. S. Parke Cook, of Wisconsin, Gen. Wm. H. Miller, of Dauphin county, Gen. William A. Stokes, of Greensburg, Josephus Snam, Esq., of New Jersey, Charles W. Carrigan, Esq., and Leah Eraser, Esq.

We call the attention of our readers to the notice of the Board of Directors of the Gettysburg Railroad Company, in another column. We learn that the work of gradation is progressing as rapidly as the means of the Company will justify. There is already one-half of the road graded, and the stone work of all the bridges completed, except one abutment of the bridge across Conowing creek, which is now in progress of construction. The Board of Directors have requested us to ask of the Stockholders to pay their installments promptly and thus save the Company the expense of sending out a collector to receive them. We understand that it is the intention of the Board to commence taking subscriptions for the Sale of Bonds next month, to raise money for the completion of the road, and that if they are as successful as they now confidently anticipate, they expect to have the road completed to Gettysburg, in one year from this time.—Star.

What a Hypocrite.—Joseph L. Gossler, one of the prime movers in the Know Nothing movement in Philadelphia, and one of the bitterest foes of the naturalized citizen, is the Chairman of the Black Republican Naturalization Committee! Comment on such hypocrisy is unnecessary.

Principal Morgan Discovers.—This great problem, which has for ages defied the researches of the most ingenious philosophers, has at length been solved. It may be seen in the endless rows of customers to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall or Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 23 and 207 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

Holloway's Pills are of infinite benefit to persons suffering from nervous tremors and general debility.—They renovate the nervous system, and brace the muscles, as well as give tone to the stomach. Their purgative action is unaccompanied by pain, and as they have powerful stimulative as well as aperient and purifying properties, they liberally exert on the work of invigorating the digestion, relieving the bowels, and regulating the secretions at one and the same time. This cannot be said of any other medicine in existence.

Diamond Tonsor. JOHN W. TIPTON, Fashionable Barber and Hair Dresser, can at all times be found prepared to attend to the calls of the people, at the Temple, in the Diamond, adjoining the County Building. From long experience, he flatters himself that he can go through all the ramifications of the Tonsorial Department with such an infinite degree of skill, as will meet with the entire satisfaction of all who may submit their chins to the keen ordeal of his razors. He hopes, therefore, that by his attention to business, and a desire to please, he will merit as well as receive a liberal share of public patronage. The sick will be attended to at their private dwellings. Gettysburg, Jan. 8, 1855. 1f

Hats, Hats. THOSE in need of the above article, would do well to give us a call, before purchasing elsewhere, for Samson cannot be beat in giving bargains. Hardware. OUR stock of Hardware has been very much increased, and persons building or requiring anything in this department, should first call and see FAINESTOCK'S Cheap Stock.
