

The Republican Compiler.

By HENRY J. STAIBLE.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

A Family Newspaper—Devoted to Literature, Agriculture, The Markets, Local and General Intelligence, Politics, Advertising, &c.

39th YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA: FRIDAY, OCT. 31, 1856.

NO. 6.

DEMOCRATIC Electoral Ticket!

The BUCHANAN and BRECKINRIDGE Electoral Ticket for this State is annexed. All others not corresponding with it in every name ARE NOT GENUINE. And there no doubt will be those of a SPURIOUS character put in circulation by the Know Nothing Black Republican leaders, in order to cheat honest Democrats into the support of at least a part of some one of their Disunion Tickets. Therefore, Union-loving Voter, before you place your ballot into the Inspector's hands, EXAMINE IT, NAME FOR NAME!

BEAR IN MIND, that all who vote this Ticket,

VOTE FOR BUCHANAN, BRECKINRIDGE, THE UNION AND THE CONSTITUTION!

Electors.

- Charles R. Buckalew,
- Wilson McCandless,
- George W. Nebinger,
- Pierce Butler,
- Edward Wartman,
- William H. Witte,
- John McNair,
- John H. Brinton,
- David Laury,
- Charles Kessler,
- James Patterson,
- Isaac Slenker,
- Francis W. Hughes,
- Thomas Osterhout,
- Abraham Edinger,
- Reuben Wilber,
- George A. Crawford,
- James Black,
- Henry J. Stable,
- John D. Boddy,
- Jacob Turney,
- James A. J. Buchanan,
- William Wilkins,
- James G. Campbell,
- Thomas Cunningham,
- John Keatley,
- Vincent Phelps.

Reader, you might do a useful act by cutting out the above, and posting it up in some conspicuous spot in your residence or place of business, so as to familiarize others, as well as yourself, with the names.

VOTERS OF ALL PARTIES, READ!

Here is what the London Chronicle, one of Queen Victoria's organs, has to say in reference to our Presidential struggle:

"We would be sorry to see Mr. Buchanan elected, because he is in favor of preserving the obnoxious institutions as they exist, AND THE UNITY OF THE STATES. There is no safety for European monarchial governments, if the progressive spirit of the Democracy of the United States is allowed to succeed. ELECT FREMONT, & THE FIRST BLOW TO THE SEPARATION OF THE UNITED STATES IS EFFECTED!"

The London Star of July 22, a British Black Republican journal, says Col. Fremont's address upon accepting the nomination "ought to excite AN ARDENT HOPE THROUGHOUT ENGLAND FOR HIS SUCCESS."

The Bath Tribune says:

"Even the 'Pope,' that incorrigible Bonapartist, ANTI-AMERICAN, ANTI-REPUBLICAN sheet, declares that the man [Fremont] and the platform of the Philadelphia Convention are unobjectionable!! No doubt! And it is probable that the Emperor of Austria, King of Prussia, and the Czar of all the Russias, together with the whole horde of lesser despots, if the Old World, would be in a hurry to see the objects of the Black Republican party in this country, successfully accomplished in the election of Fremont, and why? Because they are keen sighted and understand precisely what is to be the inevitable result—a dismemberment of our glorious Union, and the way opened for the introduction of their rotten system of despotism into this country."

The London Times and Montreal Commercial, bitter anti-American sheets, utter the same sentiments. They evidently hope that the days of this Republic are numbered. But "old Back" will keep them at bay for the next four years.

WASHINGTON---JACKSON!

"Discouragement whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it [the Union] can be abandoned! And indignantly from upon the first hearing of every attempt to divide any portion of our Country from the rest, or to divide the sacred ties which now link together the various parts."—WASHINGTON.

"Patriotic citizens! Remember the great words of Andrew Jackson when he retired from public life:—'It is a daily necessity that the lives passed by the constitutional authorities should be faithfully preserved in every part of the country, and that every good citizen should at all times stand ready to put down with the courage, honor, or the nation, EVERY ATTEMPT AT UNLAWFUL RESISTANCE UNDER WHATEVER PRETEXT, IT MAY BE MADE, OR WHAT EVER SHAPE IT MAY ASSUME.'"

"ANOTHER RICHARD IN THE FIELD,"

AND "The Cry is, Still They Come!" The opposition have now no less than three Electoral Tickets in the field, in this State—the first, straight-out Fillmore; the second, fusion or "union" Fremont and Fillmore; and the third, unadulterated Fremont. We annex them for general information. The reader will observe how prominently Know Nothingism "sticks out" in all of them:

The Straight-out Fillmore Ticket.

- Jos. R. Ingersoll,
- Andrew Stewart,
- A. I. Flomerfelt,
- Henry White,
- J. S. Riley, Sr.,
- Henry D. Moore,
- Daniel O. Hittner,
- Isaac Newton,
- Stacy Brown,
- John C. Meyers,
- Samuel Kenney,
- W. W. Snyder,
- H. W. Cleaver,
- Kimber F. Clark,
- Robert F. Clark,
- Samuel Yoke,
- Samuel Yoke,
- C. F. Wells, Jr.,
- J. W. Youngman,
- J. W. Houshour,
- S. E. Duffield,
- C. W. Patton,
- J. H. Kuhns,
- Wm. W. Smith,
- Wm. M. Wright,
- Henry Phillips,
- J. M. D. Nesbit,
- J. M. Worthington,
- James Webster.

"Union" Fremont and Fillmore Ticket.

- Jno. C. Fremont, (or M. Fillmore),
- James Irwin,
- Joseph Edwards,
- Geo. N. Eckert,
- G. Sildenstricker,
- Wilson Jewell,
- Alb't G. Rowland,
- Caleb N. Taylor,
- Wm. Darlington,
- Wm. M. Baird,
- Michael H. Shirk,
- Simon Cameron,
- John McCormick,
- S. B. Thompson,
- Russell F. Lord,
- Fred'k E. Smith,
- Ab. Udegaff,
- J. D. Simpson,
- Hezekiah Easton,
- Edward Scull,
- Wm. M. Stewart,
- A. Patterson,
- B. C. Sawyer,
- Jacob Painter,
- L. L. McGuffin,
- Geo. W. Arnold,
- James Skinner.

Straight-out Fremont Ticket.

- Jno. Y. Crawford,
- Jac. G. Buckofen,
- John Thomas,
- Conrad Leibrich,
- J. Fletcher Budd,
- Charles Lennig,
- Zenas Bliss,
- W. D. H. Serrill,
- Geo. Lear,
- Jacob Hauffman,
- Henry Frank,
- John C. Ravin,
- Richard Jones,
- Charles Miner,
- C. F. Siegent,
- Edward Crandall,
- H. N. McAllister,
- L. Mere lith,
- D. A. Buehler,
- S. Steele Blair,
- Robert Craig,
- Virgil Elder,
- Russell Everett,
- John S. Mann,
- David J. Jones,
- Sam. Young,
- Gid. G. Ball.

—After all said and done, there is only one safe course for patriotic citizens to pursue in this crisis, and that is to vote the Electoral Ticket given in a previous column, which, if elected, will support that true and tried Statesman of whom all Pennsylvanians have so much reason to be proud, JAMES BUCHANAN.

Fremont to be Withdrawn.

While we are not surprised at the many open and secret attempts of the Black Republicans of Illinois to get rid of their candidate for governor, we confess we were unprepared for the stand taken by the Philadelphia North American, which boldly says that, in view of the division which exists between the opposition forces, it may yet be necessary to drop Fremont and take up another candidate. The Washington correspondent of that paper says:

"It must be clear to every intelligent observer that while those elements are distracted between divided preferences for the Presidency, and cannot be harmonized upon any one of the candidates named, the success of the Democratic candidate is inevitable. Nothing short of infatuation, can form a different estimate of the probability, so soon to be verified, unless there be a better concentration of opinion than now exists."

Neither a change of front nor a change of standard-bearers will save the Black Republicans from the overwhelming defeat that awaits them in November.—Washington Union.

The reason the Fremonters were beaten in Pennsylvania at the State election is the Black Republicans were on the mountains hunting the Government Coon, and did not get back in time to vote!

Where Henry Clay Would be Found if Living.

On the 15th day of November, 1850, Henry Clay delivered a speech at Lexington, Kentucky, upon the omens in the political horizon, in which he said:

"If the agitation in regard to the fugitive-slave law should continue and increase, and become alarming, it will lead to the formation of two new parties; one for the Union, and the other against the Union. Present parties have been created by divisions of opinion as to the systems of national policy—as to the finance, free trade or protection—the improvement of rivers and harbors—the distribution of the proceeds of public lands, &c.; but these systems of policy, springing out of the administration of the Union, lose all their interest and importance if that Union be dissolved; they sink into utter insignificance before the all-important, pervasive, and paramount interests of the Union itself. And the platform of that Union party will be the Union, the Constitution and the enforcement of its laws. And if it should be necessary to form such a party, and it should be accordingly formed, I announce myself in this place a member of that Union party, WHATEVER BE ITS COMPONENT ELEMENTS."

INSULT TO MR. CLAY.

When James B. Clay visited Pottsville a few weeks ago, the Fremont Abolitionists intended to insult him by enshrouding his father's monument in mourning; but several Democrats who contributed to its erection, interfered and prevented it. What next will these disunionists do, to vent their spite, and insult men who dare to have opinions of their own?

Gen. Lewis Cass.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, writing from Detroit, thus speaks of this veteran Senator:

Gen. Cass is juvenizing. He positively looks better than I have seen him for years past, though he is canvassing the length and breadth of the State, and speaking once or twice every day. He has just passed his 74th year, but appears as active and youthful as ever. All who hear him avow that he has never, on any previous occasion, been as eloquent as now. I was myself present when he drew a picture of the consequences of disunion, which would have made angels weep. The people shouted, while the old man eloquent was himself moved to tears by the picture his imagination had bodied forth.

RESULT OF THE PENNSYLVANIA VIA ELECTION—Official.

For Canal Commissioner.		Scott, Dem Maj.	Cochran, Fusion Maj.
Adams,		41
Allegheny,			4,235
Armstrong,			395
Bedford,		135
Berks,		6,061
Bucks,		656
Beaver,			642
Butler,			538
Blair,			596
Bradford,			3,976
Cambria,	1,227
Carbon,	653
Centre,	327
Clarion,	907
Clearfield,	650
Columbia,	1,431
Cumberland,	1,699
Chester,			416
Crawford,			1,586
Dauphin,			523
Delaware,			504
Elk,	239
Eric,			2,088
Fayette,	183
Fulton,	256
Franklin,			42
Greene,	1,089
Huntington,			28
Indiana,			1,817
Jefferson,	49
Juniata,	816
Lehigh,	1,001
Luzerne,	402
Lycoming,			2,444
Lancaster,			1,573
Lawrence,			532
Lebanon,			858
Mercer,			29
McKean,			19
Millin,			232
Montgomery,	1,941
Monroe,	1,519
Montour,	561
Northampton,	1,178
Northumberland,	2,320
Perry,	158
Philadelphia,	3,134
Pike,	561
Potter,			443
Schenck,	1,738
Schuykill,			167
Sullivan,			250
Snyder,			1,812
Somerset,			1,108
Susquehanna,			2,578
Tioga,			440
Union,	30
Warren,			492
Wayne,			137
Washington,			109
Westmoreland,	48
York,	610
	1,479
	35,515		29,771
	29,771
Dem. maj.,	2,774
Prv. Dem., majority for Auditor General,	3,207
Lowr. Dem., majority for Surveyor General,	3,735

—Judge Alex. McKinstry, of the Mobile City Court, has come out for Buchanan.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE BRANDS THE LAST CARD OF THE ABOLITION LEADERS.

TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

PHILADELPHIA, October 21, 1856. A communication signed by Charles Gibbons, Esq., the Chairman of the Republican Committee, in which an allusion is made to the Democratic State Central Committee, and to myself, appears in yesterday's North American and Daily Times. A few words will dispose of the whole subject so far as the Democratic Committee is concerned, and they shall be as frank and as plain as language can make them.

On the 9th of September last I received the following letter from the Hon. John P. Sanderson, Chairman of the American or Fillmore State Committee:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27, 1856. Sir—In obedience to the instructions of the Fillmore and Donelson State Committee, I submit to you, for the consideration and action of the Democratic State Committee of which you are Chairman, the following proposition:

That the Chairman of the Democratic, Republican and American State Committees unite in issuing a call for such a number of meetings, to be held at such times and places, as may be agreed upon by them, at which the issues involved in the present Presidential canvass shall be discussed by an equal number of speakers of each party, and that the Chairman of each Committee, shall have the exclusive right of selecting the speakers for his party, at such meetings, but that their names shall be announced in the call for the meeting.

You will oblige by giving an answer to this proposition in behalf of your Committee at your earliest convenience.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours, J. P. SANDERSON, Chairman of the American State Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21, 1856. To this communication the subjoined reply was forwarded the following day, the 10th of September, and by Mr. James B. Sheridan, placed in the hands of Mr. Sanderson.

To Hon. JOHN P. SANDERSON, Chairman American State Central Committee:

DEAR SIR—Your note dated the 27th of August, only reached me on the 9th of September, by private hand. I hope you will excuse the delay in answering it. The Democratic party differs widely from you and your candidate for President as to the Naturalization Laws, to secret political organizations, and to religious liberty. Now, as heretofore, (and on all proper occasions hereafter,) we will be ready to defend our position on these questions. But as your candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Fillmore, has substantially declared that the present national peril overshadows all other considerations—a sentiment in which we are happy to concur—we deem it quite useless to determine which of our views on mooted questions shall be maintained, until we have first ascertained whether the Union itself can be preserved. Assuming, therefore, that the friends of Mr. Fillmore will persevere in upholding the National doctrines of his Albany speech, and especially that portion of the platform adopted by the Convention which nominated him, relating to the rights of the States, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with you upon those Constitutional principles which he himself has asserted. Our object is to unite all the friends of this great Union in one common cause against the fanaticisms of a desperate and unscrupulous geographical and sectional party; and in this good work we shall be glad to have the co-operation of all true Americans, adopted and native born, in supporting James Buchanan, the only man who can defeat the adversaries of our free institutions. Should the friends of Mr. Fillmore, however, demonstrate to the country at the coming October election in Pennsylvania that they are willing to write with the advocates of the Union ticket, comprising the so-called fusion State ticket, composed of representatives of the doctrines of the Black Republicans, the triumph of which would be considered as the harbinger of the success of Abolitionism and John C. Fremont, and the election of which is openly advocated by Horace Greeley, W. F. Johnston, and Thaddeus Stevens, then, and in that case, we shall be ready and willing to meet them in defending the very principles to which we are happy to believe them to be now solemnly committed before the world.

I do not understand you to speak for the Black Republicans in your communication, but it may be necessary to add, that we are quite prepared to meet him or any other party hostile to the great Constitutional issues involved in the present momentous struggle.

Respectfully yours, J. W. FORNEY, Chairman Dem. State Central Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10th, 1856. This began and ended all communication between Mr. Sanderson and the Democratic Central Committee, and between Mr. Sanderson and myself. I have not conversed with Mr. Sanderson, or even met him, for more than a year; and he can truly bear witness, when he shall see this communication, that we have never had any correspondence, but that which is published above, and have never exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential election. Whatever may be the differences between the Republican and American Committees, or between Mr. Sanderson and Mr. Gibbons, the Democratic Committee, as proudly defies any man, or any set of men, to point to any act of word, which, by implication, or inference, can lead any honest citizen to believe that any clandestine arrangement of any kind has been entered into with either branch of our political opponents. We stand upon the Democratic platform and under the victorious flag of Buchanan and Breckinridge. We make no terms, and have made no terms with faction or fanaticism.—We resort to no fusion. And while we invite honest friends of Millard Fillmore to our support it is boldly and publicly done, because we believe that the true interests of all conservative men, and the sacred principles of the Constitution, can alone be protected and preserved by the Democratic party, its candidates, and its creed.

In the late campaign, which closed so brilliantly, and which reflected undying lustre upon the Democracy, no one issue was denied or overlooked. All the issues were alike repudiated and denounced. While our opponents appealed to all organizations, and courted every opinion, we followed the plain teachings of Democratic faith, and grappled with Error, whether it assumed the shape of the enemy of the Rights of the States, or the rights of the citizen; whether it sought to ostracise the South for its institutions, or the American for his religion; whether it denied suffrage, to the white freeman because of his birth-place, or sought to elevate the black to social equality. And for this severe consistency and noble courage, we have had our reward.

The letter in answer to Mr. Sanderson's communication, which he has had in his possession for six weeks, contains no line or syllable which will make a Democrat blush for the Democratic Central Committee. It stands out now as the full vindication of our course in the late canvass, and as such we give it to the people, content that they shall decide between our adversaries and ourselves. Among the thousands of national men who intend voting for James Buchanan in November, there is not one who will not endorse and approve the position taken in that communication. JNO. W. FORNEY, Chairman Dem. State Central Committee.

SOLD. The Republicans account for their defeat in Pennsylvania, by saying that they were voting for the "Mother Fremont" by mistake. One of them writes to the New York Journal of Commerce as follows:

There will be great growing over the defeat of Col. Fremont in Pennsylvania, and you ought to give the reason. The fact is, they have all been voting for the wrong Fremont. I told Mr. Greeley as soon as he said there were two Fremonts, that we should get mixed up, and I told my Pastor that we were misled. It is too bad, after sending ten dollars out of my small pay to Pennsylvania, and being promised an office too. One Fremont is enough any way. And now we must shoulder that "plaguy old Back."

He subscribes himself "Sold."

One More Fire, and the day is Ours! It is true that the great Democratic victory in Pennsylvania has virtually put an end to the Presidential contest; but it should also be remembered that the Austrian General Melas lost the battle of Marengo by quitting the field too soon. The Wayne county Herald well and seasonably remarks:

"After the smoke of the first engagement has blown away, we must prepare for the second struggle."

"One more fire, fellow Democrats! and the Presidential triumph of the 4th of November will be complete. The Fremont Know Nothing fusion party will be nowhere, and its fanatical and deluded followers will be scattered and defeated for all time to come, the Union saved, and the Constitution and flag of our country preserved from treason's despoiling grasp."

The above cut represents the animal which our Know Nothing Black Republican friends saw on the Fourteenth of October, in the States of Indiana and Pennsylvania, where the combined opposition to the Democracy was routed, horse, foot and dragons!

A Philosopher.—The editor of the Carlisle Herald takes the defeat of his party in the spirit of a true philosopher. He don't nurse his disappointment with the absurd idea of "fraud," but meets it face to face, and "acknowledges the corn" bravely. Hear him:

"It is not worth while to indulge in delirious whining. 'We have met the enemy and they are our conquerors!' The union may be safe, but the Union Tickets are gone to smash."

This man's moderation makes him a proper companion for Democrats, who have taught themselves to bear defeat with resignation, and victory with magnanimity.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21, 1856. A communication signed by Charles Gibbons, Esq., the Chairman of the Republican Committee, in which an allusion is made to the Democratic State Central Committee, and to myself, appears in yesterday's North American and Daily Times. A few words will dispose of the whole subject so far as the Democratic Committee is concerned, and they shall be as frank and as plain as language can make them.

On the 9th of September last I received the following letter from the Hon. John P. Sanderson, Chairman of the American or Fillmore State Committee:

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 27, 1856. Sir—In obedience to the instructions of the Fillmore and Donelson State Committee, I submit to you, for the consideration and action of the Democratic State Committee of which you are Chairman, the following proposition:

That the Chairman of the Democratic, Republican and American State Committees unite in issuing a call for such a number of meetings, to be held at such times and places, as may be agreed upon by them, at which the issues involved in the present Presidential canvass shall be discussed by an equal number of speakers of each party, and that the Chairman of each Committee, shall have the exclusive right of selecting the speakers for his party, at such meetings, but that their names shall be announced in the call for the meeting.

You will oblige by giving an answer to this proposition in behalf of your Committee at your earliest convenience.

I am, sir, very respectfully yours, J. P. SANDERSON, Chairman of the American State Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21, 1856. To this communication the subjoined reply was forwarded the following day, the 10th of September, and by Mr. James B. Sheridan, placed in the hands of Mr. Sanderson.

To Hon. JOHN P. SANDERSON, Chairman American State Central Committee:

DEAR SIR—Your note dated the 27th of August, only reached me on the 9th of September, by private hand. I hope you will excuse the delay in answering it. The Democratic party differs widely from you and your candidate for President as to the Naturalization Laws, to secret political organizations, and to religious liberty. Now, as heretofore, (and on all proper occasions hereafter,) we will be ready to defend our position on these questions. But as your candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Fillmore, has substantially declared that the present national peril overshadows all other considerations—a sentiment in which we are happy to concur—we deem it quite useless to determine which of our views on mooted questions shall be maintained, until we have first ascertained whether the Union itself can be preserved. Assuming, therefore, that the friends of Mr. Fillmore will persevere in upholding the National doctrines of his Albany speech, and especially that portion of the platform adopted by the Convention which nominated him, relating to the rights of the States, it would be unnecessary to enter into discussion with you upon those Constitutional principles which he himself has asserted. Our object is to unite all the friends of this great Union in one common cause against the fanaticisms of a desperate and unscrupulous geographical and sectional party; and in this good work we shall be glad to have the co-operation of all true Americans, adopted and native born, in supporting James Buchanan, the only man who can defeat the adversaries of our free institutions. Should the friends of Mr. Fillmore, however, demonstrate to the country at the coming October election in Pennsylvania that they are willing to write with the advocates of the Union ticket, comprising the so-called fusion State ticket, composed of representatives of the doctrines of the Black Republicans, the triumph of which would be considered as the harbinger of the success of Abolitionism and John C. Fremont, and the election of which is openly advocated by Horace Greeley, W. F. Johnston, and Thaddeus Stevens, then, and in that case, we shall be ready and willing to meet them in defending the very principles to which we are happy to believe them to be now solemnly committed before the world.

I do not understand you to speak for the Black Republicans in your communication, but it may be necessary to add, that we are quite prepared to meet him or any other party hostile to the great Constitutional issues involved in the present momentous struggle.

Respectfully yours, J. W. FORNEY, Chairman Dem. State Central Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10th, 1856. This began and ended all communication between Mr. Sanderson and the Democratic Central Committee, and between Mr. Sanderson and myself. I have not conversed with Mr. Sanderson, or even met him, for more than a year; and he can truly bear witness, when he shall see this communication, that we have never had any correspondence, but that which is published above, and have never exchanged words on the subject of the Presidential election. Whatever may be the differences between the Republican and American Committees, or between Mr. Sanderson and Mr. Gibbons, the Democratic Committee, as proudly defies any man, or any set of men, to point to any act of word, which, by implication, or inference, can lead any honest citizen to believe that any clandestine arrangement of any kind has been entered into with either branch of our political opponents. We stand upon the Democratic platform and under the victorious flag of Buchanan and Breckinridge. We make no terms, and have made no terms with faction or fanaticism.—We resort to no fusion. And while we invite honest friends of Millard Fillmore to our support it is boldly and publicly done, because we believe that the true interests of all conservative men, and the sacred principles of the Constitution, can alone be protected and preserved by the Democratic party, its candidates, and its creed.

In the late campaign, which closed so brilliantly, and which reflected undying lustre upon the Democracy, no one issue was denied or overlooked. All the issues were alike repudiated and denounced. While our opponents appealed to all organizations, and courted every opinion, we followed the plain teachings of Democratic faith, and grappled with Error, whether it assumed the shape of the enemy of the Rights of the States, or the rights of the citizen; whether it sought to ostracise the South for its institutions, or the American for his religion; whether it denied suffrage, to the white freeman because of his birth-place, or sought to elevate the black to social equality. And for this severe consistency and noble courage, we have had our reward.

The letter in answer to Mr. Sanderson's communication, which he has had in his possession for six weeks, contains no line or syllable which will make a Democrat blush for the Democratic Central Committee. It stands out now as the full vindication of our course in the late canvass, and as such we give it to the people, content that they shall decide between our adversaries and ourselves. Among the thousands of national men who intend voting for James Buchanan in November, there is not one who will not endorse and approve the position taken in that communication. JNO. W. FORNEY, Chairman Dem. State Central Committee.

SOLD. The Republicans account for their defeat in Pennsylvania, by saying that they were voting for the "Mother Fremont" by mistake. One of them writes to the New York Journal of Commerce as follows:

There will be great growing over the defeat of Col. Fremont in Pennsylvania, and you ought to give the reason. The fact is, they have all been voting for the wrong Fremont. I told Mr. Greeley as soon as he said there were two Fremonts, that we should get mixed up, and I told my Pastor that we were misled. It is too bad, after sending ten dollars out of my small pay to Pennsylvania, and being promised an office too. One Fremont is enough any way. And now we must shoulder that "plaguy old Back."

He subscribes himself "Sold."

One More Fire, and the day is Ours! It is true that the great Democratic victory in Pennsylvania has virtually put an end to the Presidential contest; but it should also be remembered that the Austrian General Melas lost the battle of Marengo by quitting the field too soon. The Wayne county Herald well and seasonably remarks:

"After the smoke of the first engagement has blown away, we must prepare for the second struggle."

"One more fire, fellow Democrats! and the Presidential triumph of the 4th of November will be complete. The Fremont Know Nothing fusion party will be nowhere, and its fanatical and deluded followers will be scattered and defeated for all time to come, the Union saved, and the Constitution and flag of our country preserved from treason's despoiling grasp."

The above cut represents the animal which our Know Nothing Black Republican friends saw on the Fourteenth of October, in the States of Indiana and Pennsylvania, where the combined opposition to the Democracy was routed, horse, foot and dragons!

A Philosopher.—The editor of the Carlisle Herald takes the defeat of his party in the spirit of a true philosopher. He don't nurse his disappointment with the absurd idea of "fraud," but meets it face to face, and "acknowledges the corn" bravely. Hear him:

"It is not worth while to indulge in delirious whining. 'We have met the enemy and they are our conquerors!' The union may be safe