

The Fusion Condemned.

The American Organ (Fillmore) at Washington City, of Wednesday last, is indignant at the Fusion, and thus cavalierly treats it: "The Stevens Convention at Harrisburg has, it seems, prepared another 'Union Ticket' in Pennsylvania, having refused to learn wisdom from the late defeat. A Fillmore electoral ticket was adopted and published some time since, and it was supposed when the Republicans saw the effect and result of the 'Union Ticket,' which was beaten on the 14th instant, and when they saw the overthrow of their party in Indiana, and the diminution of its strength in Ohio, they would at once rally upon the Fillmore electoral ticket, as the only means of defeating Buchanan. (!) The Republicans profess a holy horror of the principles and measures of the present dynasty—they have warred against it with all their skill and power, and yet, when it is obvious that, as a distinct organization, they are rapidly on the wane, and have no possible chance of success, they refuse to cast their suffrages for Millard Fillmore even to defeat this present dynasty and its nominated successors and assigns. * * * It is rank nonsense for any man to assume that Fremont's success is within the range of possibility. It is morally impossible."

The Clergy not all for Fremont.

The New York Journal of Commerce says: "Almost all the clergy in this part of the country are claimed for Fremont. The claim is, in a good measure, unfounded. We know that a number of our most distinguished clergymen are in favor of Buchanan. A minister of the Lutheran Church, also a pastor of a Reformed Dutch Church, have each, through our columns, expressed a belief that a majority of their clergy—in the case of the Lutheran—a very large majority—are for Buchanan and Breckinridge. "It is the political clergy that are for Fremont, and not the pious ministers of the Gospel."

THE LEGISLATURE.

The next Legislature of Pennsylvania will stand as follows:

| | Dem. | R. N. |
|-----------|------|-------|
| Senate, | 15 | 18 |
| House, | 54 | 46 |
| Dem. maj. | | |

Which secures a Democratic United States Senator!!!

"Meeting Kansas."—It is astonishing, remarks the Pittsburg Union, how rapidly "bleeding Kansas" has "dried up" since the Pennsylvania election. Can't the shriekers open another vein?

The political Preachers couldn't save the Black Republicans on the 14th. "The prayers of the wicked availeth naught!"

Perfectly Frantic.—The Know Nothing bullies and the Know Nothing press are alike frantic at the prospect of defeat.

How to Tell a Buchanan Man.—The Davenport (Iowa) State Democrat relates the following anecdote, showing that the Fremonters acknowledge they are disunionists:

"An officious Fremontier on the cars of the Chicago & R. Island R.R., a few days since, proposed taking a vote as to preferences for the Presidential candidates, and coming to T. H. Cutting, Esq., formerly a resident of this city, said to him: 'Who do you vote for?' To which Mr. Cutting replied, 'I vote for the Constitution as it is, and the right of the people to govern themselves.' To this Woolly replied, 'O, yes, sir, I see you are a Buchanan man.'"

A Veteran Mechanic.—A correspondent writes us that there is an instance of enduring activity in Fairhaven Village which is worthy of record. Mr. Hardy High, a very worthy citizen of that place, assisted sixty-four years ago in making the sails for the bark Maria, of New Bedford, which vessel our readers are advised, was the first that raised the American flag in the English Channel after the Revolution. A few days since Mr. High, now eighty-one years old, was at work on the sails of this same bark Maria.—New Bedford Standard.

Molasses made from Corn.—The Columbia (Pa.) Spy acknowledges the receipt of a sample of what it considers very superior molasses, manufactured by a gentleman near that place from the Chinese corn stalk.

Care for a Rattlesnake Bite.—A Mr. Kennedy was bitten by a rattlesnake near Wakulla, Florida; he applied the white of an egg and salt to the wound, drank abundantly of spirits, and the next day he was about his business.

A Hint on Butter Mixing.—Some people may not know, perhaps, that the cream should be stirred daily after it is put into the cream pot, so that it may be well mixed and soured alike. There will be much poorer butter, and of course, more butter, where this is attended to.

Farlic—is sent in large quantities from the interior of California to San Francisco, where it sells readily for three hundred dollars per ton.

Mr. Pescator keeps a tavern. Visitors have only one objection to Pescator—he is too clean. Before he cuts you a piece of steak, he always licks the knife, so as it may not have any taste of ham and "their eggs."

"What are you about?" said Pop, the other day, to Sharp, whom he saw blowing with all his might to inflate a long light, coinless purse; "What are you about?" "Nothing particular," replied Sharp, "I am only trying to raise the wind."

A young lady explained to a printer, the other day, the distinction between printing and publishing, and, at the conclusion of her remarks, by way of illustration, she said, "You may print a kiss on my cheek, but you must not publish it."

FANCY STATIONERY.—Schick keeps all kinds of Fancy Stationery, and sells it as cheap, if not cheaper than anybody else in the town or the county. If you don't believe it, call in and see for yourselves. Jan. 7.
