True Nobility.

But we must remember that there are degrees in nobility. The highest nobility is the nobility of heneticence. At honest man, says the poet, is the noblest work of God. We have no hesitation in extending the apothegus. The noblest work of God is the man who is not only honest, but who does the greatest good. The greatest of all temporal blessings is Health. And, as the mental condition is controlled by the physical, the effects of Health can hardly be regarded as terminating with a mere temporal

The fame of his Pills and Ointment has penetrated to the remotest confines of the earth, and their use has diffused health and all the happiness that fol--lows health over countless thousands.
