

THE COMPILER.
LIBERTY, THE UNION, AND THE CONSTITUTION.
GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.
Monday Morning, Nov. 17, 1856.

THE UNION SAFE!
TRIUMPHANT ELECTION OF BUCK AND BRECK.

The Democrats of Gettysburg intend celebrating the election of Buchanan's favorite son to the Presidency, on WEDNESDAY EVENING NEXT, Nov. 19th, by a grand DISPLAY OF FIRE WORKS, FIRING OF CANNON, &c. Good speaking may also be expected. No effort will be spared to make this demonstration worthy of the occasion.—The friends of Buchanan and Breckinridge throughout the county are invited to attend.

VICTORY!

The Democrats of HEIDELSBURG will celebrate the election of Buchanan and Breckinridge by a Procession, Firing of Cannon, Smoking, &c., on SATURDAY EVENING NEXT, Nov. 22d. "Penelope Ann" will be there. The friends of the cause are invited to be present, and participate in the demonstration.

The next step in the programme of President making, is the meeting of the Electors to cast their votes for the Presidential candidates. This is done on the first Wednesday in December, the Electors being called together by a notice given by the Governor of each State. On the second Wednesday in February, Congress will open the returns and count the votes.

Know Nothingism.
By giving heed to the general tone of the opposition here, before the election, one would have been led to suppose that Fillmore's vote in this county would amount to a few hundreds, including the fusion ticket. But what does the result show? Why, that of the fusion votes polled, Millard Fillmore (the distinct Know Nothing candidate) has 1225, to 1120 for John C. Fremont! The former beside has 21 straight-out votes, making his entire majority in the county over the candidate of the much talked-of "bleeding" in Kansas, one hundred and twenty-nine! The Know Nothingism of the opposition will "stick out" after an election, no matter how vehemently they may denounce it before.

And yet Catholic and Foreign-born citizens are abused by these Know Nothing lying CHEATS, because they would not be humbugged by them into voting against Mr. Buchanan. Could insidious presumption go further?

The Murderous Riots in Baltimore.
The election riots in Baltimore on the 4th inst., were as serious as any regular battle. The Republican reports that twenty-five persons were either killed or mortally wounded, twenty-seven dangerously, fifty-one severely, and thirty-four slightly wounded, making a total of one hundred and thirty-seven persons injured in the riots at this election.

Illinois.
After a long period of doubt and many conflicting reports, it seems now clearly ascertained that this State has cast her electoral vote for JAMES BUCHANAN. The Black Republican rejoicings over the overthrow of "the Dorelas in his hall" appear to have been premature, and the State of the little giant looms up proudly in the Democratic column. The battle in Illinois, as in Pennsylvania, was of the most desperate and animated nature, but her Democracy made a most gallant fight, and their success will add new earnestness to the general rejoicing over the grand victory we have gained. Illinois, Indiana, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and California give us 62 out of the 176 electoral votes of the non-slaveholding States. Ohio and New York, with their 60 electoral votes, have each given majorities of their popular vote against Fremont, so that, after all the boastings of his friends, he carries by a clear majority but 54 electoral votes! and is in a minority in the Union of upwards of a million of votes.

Temple of Independence Hall.—At a meeting of the City Councils of Philadelphia, on Thursday week, a resolution passed both branches tendering the use of Independence Hall to the Hon. James Buchanan, "President elect of the United States," for the reception of his friends, on the occasion of his visiting Philadelphia. It will be recollected that a resolution tendering the hall to Mr. Buchanan on his return home in April last was voted down by the then Know Nothing Councils.

Arctic Exploration.—The demand for Kane's Arctic Expedition, it is stated, is so great that the publishers have been unable until the present week to supply the booksellers. Twenty-five thousand subscribers have received it. The booksellers have been run down by demands for it. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, says, Ledger says, have ordered copies to the amount of $20,000; and Phillips, Sampson & Co., of Boston, to the amount of $25,000.

A contemporary suggests the propriety of using the surplus funds of the Black Republicans, if there be any, for the purpose of converting our political clergymen to the principles of Christianity.

The Pennsylvanians residing in Cincinnati are making arrangements for a grand supper in honor of Mr. BUCHANAN'S election.

The Union Safe.
A comparison of the most bitter and desperate contests in the history of our country, we have the unshakable gratification of announcing to our readers that our distinguished and greatly beloved JAMES BUCHANAN is the President elect of the United States. It was a fearful contest, and the Constitution and the Union were sorely tried and assailed on every hand by factions and unprincipled men; but, thank God, the people were competent to the task, and their verdict on Tuesday week has silenced, we hope forever, the infidel traitors who sought the destruction of our glorious Republic.

The inauguration of President BUCHANAN will form a new era in the history of the country. It will be the rainbow of peace to the Nation, and tend to strengthen and consolidate the bonds of the Union, and add to the glory and perpetuity of the Republic. A man of enlarged experience and great administrative abilities himself, he will rally around him, in Cabinet council, true and tried men who love the Union, and whose highest aspirations will be for the welfare and happiness of the whole American people.

His election to the Chief Magistracy is already hailed by the people every where—North, East, South and West,—as the harbinger of better days to the Republic, as the destruction of sectionalism and disunionism. Mr. BUCHANAN loves the Union and the Constitution with paternal fondness, and will devote all his great talents to their preservation and perpetuation. That he will encounter storms and tempests at the outset of his administration is altogether probable;—but (with truth observes the Lancaster Intelligencer,) that he is fully equal to the task of guiding the helm of the ship of State is beyond all peradventure.

"Straws Show!"
Now that the election is over, and Fremont defeated, the Philadelphia Star, Chambersburg Transcript, Gettysburg Star, and other of the earliest and most radical Know Nothing prints, but which for the last few months had dropped the subject of "Catholics and Foreigners," are resuming their foul abuse of these classes of our citizens. We suspected such would be the case, after they once discovered that "Republicanism" could not carry "Catholics and Foreigners" with it, and everything else before it. Their game now will be to unite an open and violent advocacy of Know Nothingism with Black Republicanism, and on these issues give the Democracy of the country battle. Let them come on. They will be worse beaten in the next, than they have been in the last, in the State or Union.—Proscription and Sectionalism never will be allowed to take root among an honest and intelligent people.

True as Preaching.
The New York Times says a literary lady of its acquaintance, who "reads the papers," recently remarked, that "the difference between the Democratic, Know Nothing, and Fremont papers, was as distinct as the difference between different classes of individuals."
"The Democratic papers," said she, "are bold, manly and honest in style and statement like honest men. The Fillmore journals are cautious, snaky, and uncertain, like men who want something which they are afraid or ashamed to take. The Fremont journals are insolent, audacious, and reckless—mean-like men who design to cheat their fellows and get all they can at any hazard which does not affect their self interest."
The result seems likely to prove the correctness of these ideas, according to the two old maxims, "honesty is the best policy," and "truth must prevail."

And each party, remarks the Erie Observer, has received its reward accordingly. The honest men have won the honest victory. The doubtful men have reaped the reward of cowardice, and won that renown which could only be won by the blind leading the blind, while the great and little villains have inherited the doom of political sinners, national traitors, and universal hypocrites. They have their reward. So mote it be.

Religious Election Excitement.
The religious feeling in the State of New York, at the late election, is illustrated by the statement that in Penn Yan, the Presbyterian Church, the Baptist Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Wesleyan Methodist Church, united, were to hold a prayer meeting at 4 o'clock A. M., on election-day to pray for the success of the Republican cause, followed by a procession of the male members to the polls, to vote for Fremont and Dayton. —Inland Daily.

It is said in the good book that "the prayers of the righteous availeth much." If this be so, and who dare dispute the saying of the inspired penman, then the inference is irresistible that the Church members above alluded to, so far from being "righteous," are a set of arrant hypocrites and pretenders, whose prayers are an abomination to high Heaven! —Lane, Intel.

We have a most capital commentary upon the "shrieks" set up by the Fremonters over the alleged "frauds" in Philadelphia, in the fact that a prominent Fremont-er in this town, not satisfied with voting once for his favorite, actually attempted to vote the second time. He deposited his vote in the morning, and in a few hours later, appeared at the window and offered his ballot again. Upon being told that he had voted before, he acknowledged the "soft impeachment," but excused himself upon the plea that he had forgot that he had voted.—Erie Observer.

Disgraced.—J. R. H., recently returned from Philadelphia, tells a good story of a disgraced Fremont-er, who, having been pretty well plucked by his party for "necessary election expenses" upon promises of political support, and on a full scale was approached last after the Penn Yan election by a committee of men with a number of "pork" over again "for the good of the party." "No, no!" responded the disgraced man. "What!—nothing for 'bleeding Kansas'?" "Nary red—let her bleed!"

Death of Senator Clayton.
The telegraph announces a fatal termination of the protracted illness of Hon. John M. Clayton, United States Senator from Delaware, which occurred at Dover, on Sunday night. He was a native of that State, and has always been intimately connected with the public affairs of that State. He has been elected three times to represent her in the United States Senate—first from 1829 to 1837, secondly from 1845 to 1851, and the last time for the term beginning March 4, 1853, which would not expire until March 3, 1859. Mr. Clayton was appointed Secretary of State by President Taylor, on the 6th of March, 1849, and continued to administer that office until General Taylor's death, July 9th, 1850, his resignation having been sent in on the succeeding day. By his death the new Democratic Legislature of Delaware will have a second United States Senator to elect.

In the city of New York, where the Black Republican candidate resided, temporarily—but long enough to be known—the voice of the people is, JAMES BUCHANAN 407,46, John C. Fremont 17,888. Buffalo, the residence of the Know Nothing candidate, gives a gain for Buchanan of 1032 votes, a loss for Fillmore of 668 votes. In Lancaster city, Buchanan has 1199 majority. In the county the majority against the Democratic ticket is reduced from the October election, when it was 2490, to 1492. In Wheatland district, which gave 29 or more against the Democratic ticket in October, there are now only 4 against Buchanan. Such extraordinary popularity and confidence has never been witnessed before. Dayton, the Black Republican candidate for the Vice Presidency, could not carry New Jersey—Dodge, the Know Nothing candidate, could not carry Tennessee, but glorious old Kentucky has declared her preference for her gallant son.

"The Young Guard."
Perhaps no County in the State has come more nobly or more generously to the support of the Union and the Constitution than Adams. A few years ago it was one of the strong pillars of the opposition, and never did they boast of less than from 600 to 800 majority. But times change with men; Stevens, Cooper, and their anti-Masonic and Abolition coadjutors in this vicinity, have departed, and all their influence with them. At the last Presidential election Buchanan and Breckinridge received 292 majority in the county.—All honor to the "Young Guard." Never before has the Union vote for a Democratic President, and may she never again throw it in any other direction. We hail her as one of our sister Democratic counties in the old Keystone Commonwealth. Her Democracy have always been sound to the core when in the minority—now may they enjoy all the pleasures of victory.—Pennysylvania.

Hon. Wilson Reilly.
The triumphant election of this gentleman as the next representative of the Seventh Congressional District, in the National Legislature, was one of the proudest achievements of the Democracy, during this ever memorable campaign. In no other section of the State, and against no other candidate, was a more determined hostility displayed—or a more bitter partisan warfare waged. The efforts of the opposition were stimulated by the energy of despair, and impeded by the zeal of a madened fanaticism;—but against these fearful odds, the industry, perseverance and popularity of Mr. Reilly, won a reluctant victory from a vanquished foe, in every county of his District. His triumph is not personal alone, but it is a party conquest, and will be the herald of the triumph of the Democracy in this District. Mr. Reilly has been the object of his own fortune, and it is his proud honor to have travelled the same common road, from obscurity to distinction, with all the other children of genius of this Republic, guided by no star, save the luminary of his own intellect. His style of oratory is impassioned, eloquent, and convincing. His energy is indomitable, and his industry untiring. The union of these qualities, has given him his prominent position at the Chambersburg bar, and will give him an enviable and exalted rank among the first men on the floor of Congress.—Pennysylvania.

Hon. Geo. W. Brewer.
We observe, among the crowd of guests at the Merchant's Hotel, who have come thither to celebrate the great victory of the Constitution, the young and gifted Senator elect from the Franklin and Adams district, Hon. Geo. W. Brewer. Selected by his party as a candidate, in a district long opposed to the Democracy, he greatly asserted his own party to success, and made hosts of friends for himself, and we do not doubt that the district will henceforward be with the Democracy.—This is the first time Mr. Brewer has ever occupied a representative position; but his career now commenced, with his past advantages as a popular orator, and his known habits of reflection and study, cannot fail to be most successful to himself and honorable to his constituents.—Pennysylvania.

"All is lost but honor!" says the Baltimore Patriot, in acknowledging the overthrow of his Know Nothing party throughout the Union! It is interesting, indeed, to know that the honor of the dominant party in Baltimore and in Maryland has been saved. It would have been deplorable if the "plug-uglies," "rip-raps," and that sort of people, had lost their honor, a quality for which they are so distinguished! "All is lost but honor!" Good Gracious!

Fremont in Jail.—A negro who gave his name as John C. Fremont was committed to jail day before yesterday for disorderly conduct. This makes the third Fremont.—Washington Spectator.

The Bloody 4th of November in Baltimore.
The Baltimore papers are filled with details of the riots and outrages perpetrated in that city, on Tuesday week, at the Presidential election. The monumental city was evidently given over on that day to the rule of the Know Nothing "Plug-Uglies," "Rip-Raps" and other bands of brutal blackguards, who set all law at defiance. The Know Nothing municipal authorities, says the York Gazette, not only refused to interfere to prevent their city from being disgraced, but actually declined to avail themselves of the aid of the military, which was freely offered them—and the inference is irresistible that they desired the outrages to proceed without interruption, in order that the Know Nothing candidate for President might have a "glorious majority" in Baltimore! In many of the wards, citizens who had voted there for 10, 20, 30 and 40 years, were driven from the polls with bludgeons, because they would not vote the Know Nothing ticket—in some instances persons who went to the polls to vote for Buchanan had their ballots torn from their hands by the brutes who had possession of the polls. Fillmore tickets placed in their hands, their arms thrust by force towards the inspectors, and with cocked and loaded pistols at their temples, forced to vote against their sentiments on pain of instant death! And so the infamous game was played, throughout the day, by the scoundrels who claim to be fitted to "rule America!" Having thus prevented thousands of citizens from voting, besides putting into the boxes thousands of illegal votes, many hundreds of which were deposited by boys from 16 to 20 years old, they secured in Baltimore as large a majority as they wished, and might have made it, without any greater unfairness, twice or thrice as large! Thus has been secured to Millard Fillmore the electoral vote of the ONLY STATE he has carried—and thus has been trampled under foot the most sacred franchise of an American freeman. But, thank God! the miscreants who perpetrated these outrages, and converted the election in Baltimore into a horrid mockery, have accomplished nothing but their own infamy and the destruction of their city's fame. The people of the United States have taken good care of the man who marched to the defence of BALTIMORE in HER HOUR OF NEED, although so basely wronged by the people of that same Baltimore!

From the Baltimore Republican.
At the 18th, 19th, 20th, 17th and 16th wards, only such Democrats as the crowd saw fit were permitted to vote. The holders of Democratic tickets in the three first named of these wards were early driven away from the ground, and in some instances had their tickets taken from them and torn up, or were compelled to conceal them. We saw Democrats at the 18th and 19th wards inquiring for tickets, without being able to obtain them. Worse than this! Democrats, in many instances, who had tickets and went to the polls to vote them, had them torn from their hands and were compelled under pain of a severe beating—perhaps maiming for life, or even death itself—to vote the Know Nothing ticket. This will surely not be denied, for yesterday it was the boast and glory of some of these bullies to tell of the feats of this character they had participated in.

At the 18th ward polls, a reporter of the Baltimore Sun, Mr. Joseph Paragay, who is known as a prominent Democrat, was driven from the polls, lest he should see and make public these outrages. We are not aware how severely he was injured, but during the remainder of our stay upon the ground, we saw but three Democrats, and they were under constant apprehension of danger. At each of the wards mentioned, the incidents of beating naturalized citizens, compelling them to vote the Know Nothing ticket, and other such minor outrages, were too numerous for us to take cognizance of.

At the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th wards, there was little disturbance. We did hear of some parties being beaten, and others severely injured, but for the most part quiet and good order were tolerably well maintained. Had the election in all the wards been conducted as it was in these, there is no doubt but that the majority in the city would have been Democratic.

A band of Know Nothings, armed with muskets, came from the 4th ward, and tried to drive the Democrats away from the 21st ward polls.
"There, says the Baltimore American, they were met and driven back. Further reinforcements were then received and the war renewed. A good proportion of both parties by this time was provided with muskets, whilst others used pistols, and others skinned with knives and clubs. Both parties fought with determination, and in many instances exposed themselves with the most reckless disregard of danger. The battle ground was spread over portions of Fawn, Stiles, Exeter and High streets, and Eastern Avenue, and the spectacle presented was a terrific and revolting one. As every party gained a temporary advantage, men would be seen running with others shouting at them, the wounded were limped off and being carried away by their companions, whilst others begrimed with smoke and powder, and in some cases covered with blood, still kept up the fight, now firing singly, and then again in volleys.
"In the surrounding neighborhood the utmost degree of excitement and consternation prevailed. Children were hastily gathered, the houses closed, and their occupants in many instances sought their garrets and cellars to be out of harm's way. The Democrats were finally overpowered, driven away from the polls, and retreated still fighting down Eastern avenue. In the neighborhood of the Causeway they again made a stand, and there a guerrilla warfare carried on for more than an hour. Of the number wounded in this riot it is almost impossible to give a full or correct list. They were generally carried away by their friends, and even when traced, every effort was made to conceal their names."
In the 3d ward there was but little fighting until 3 o'clock, when all naturalized citizens were beaten and driven from the polls.

At the 4th ward, where the Know Nothings had entire possession, there was no opportunity for a naturalized citizen to vote, and numbers of native Democrats were prevented from voting. One man was shot.

The Rev. D. P. ROSENTHAL, so long and favorably known as the Lutheran minister of this place, we regret to learn, is about moving to a distant field of labor. Having selected Lancaster City as his future place of residence, he goes thither with the best wishes of this community, who are loath to part with so kind and excellent a pastor.—Hanover Spectator.

A Victory worth Crowing Over!

The National Democracy again Gloriously Triumphant!

A union of States none may sever;
A union of hearts—a union of hands—
And the flag of our Union forever!"

The States have all been heard from except California, and we have the heart-felt gratification of announcing the following brilliant result. The doubts about Illinois, Tennessee and Louisiana have been cleared up—they are all for Buchanan and Breckinridge!

The reader will bear in mind that these footings do not at all show the relative strength of Buchanan and Fremont, because in half the States where Fremont has no vote, the comparison is between Buchanan and Fillmore. The true view as between Buchanan and Fremont, is exhibited in the following article:

A COMPARISON.
The Fremontians have been to say about the large majority of their candidates in a few of the States, particularly Massachusetts, New York, Maine and Vermont, but suppose we take a look at the whole field. We shall then find that Fremont is further behind in the popular than in the electoral vote; for it must be remembered that in fifteen States of the Union he has no votes at all, or so few that they are not worth naming. Therefore, the whole Buchanan vote of those fifteen States is so much majority against Fremont. We are inclined to think that the votes of the three candidates in the nation at large (counting South Carolina at 30,000 for Buchanan and none for either of the other candidates) will be in the neighborhood of what follows:

Buchanan	1,750,000
Fremont	1,250,000
Fillmore	750,000
Total	3,750,000

Buchanan over Fremont HALF A MILLION!!!

In the above Fremont is given the benefit of all the fusion votes in Pennsylvania and other States. Deduct Fillmore's share of them, and a much worse picture for the "gentle giant dealer" will be presented.

The Vote of the Cities.
The vote of the leading Northern Cities stands thus:

City	Buchanan	Fillmore	Fremont
Philadelphia	58,222	24,084	7,892
New York	49,793	19,957	18,275
Boston	5,538	4,330	7,649
Cincinnati	11,213	4,849	7,754
Total	95,692	53,220	51,567

Buchanan has in these cities a majority of 905 over the combined vote of Fillmore and Fremont, while the vote of Fremont is 107,345 less than the combined vote of Buchanan and Fillmore. Even in Boston, the very hotbed of sectionalism and fanaticism, Fremont is in a minority of the popular vote. In each and all these cities Black Republican presses have had a wide circulation.—Daily Pennsylvania.

Outside of New England, Michigan, Wisconsin, and perhaps Iowa, Fremont is in a decided minority in every State of the Union. He has a clear majority in but eight, including Iowa nine States, polling in all but thirty-six electoral votes out of 129.

Local Matters.
FIRE WORKS.—The Democrats of Gettysburg will celebrate the election of Buchanan and Breckinridge, on Wednesday evening next, by Fire Works, the firing of Cannon, etc.—An attractive display may be expected—one that will be worth travelling some distance to see. We trust our country friends will not miss it.

JOLIFICATION.—The Democrats of Littlestown and vicinity had a grand time of it, on Thursday evening last, celebrating the victory of the friends of the Union and Constitution in the election of Buchanan and Breckinridge. Early in the evening a procession was formed at Krebs's hotel, which marched down the Baltimore road some distance, and there met, and escorted to town, a large delegation, with music and banners, from Silver Run, Md. The whole procession then marched through the town, with transparencies, flambeaux, flags, &c., making a very imposing appearance. The crowd present exceeded our most sanguine expectations. At the west end of town a really beautiful display of Fire-works came off, interspersed with the music of "Penelope Ann," who seemed to know and appreciate the fact that she was in the midst of as sterling Democrats as can be found in the country.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—Sheriff Thomas sold, on Tuesday last, on the premises, a lot of ground, with two houses thereon, in East Berlin, (property of Daniel Spangler,) for $21 60.—John Skidmore purchaser.
Also an out-lot, property of the same, for $315 00.—John Hartley purchaser.
Also, on Saturday last, property of Hugh Danville, in this place, for $1,350.—William Walker purchaser.

PLANT TREES.—Two of the four sections of the circle around the Court-house "Square" are now planted with beautiful—European Linden Trees. Will not the property-holders on the other side follow the example? They would by so doing add greatly to the beauty of that part of the town. The Horse Chestnut and European Mountain Ash are among the most desirable of shade trees, and would afford a pleasing variety. The former can be had at Mr. Wagner's "Plumfield Nurseries," near York Springs, in this county, and probably elsewhere.

THANKSGIVING.—Thursday next has been set apart as Thanksgiving day in this State—as it has been in upwards of twenty States of the Union.

LARGE RAIBISH.—Our fellow-citizen, Mr. ANDREW POLLEY, sent to our office, the other day, a Raibish which measured twenty inches in circumference and weighed four pounds!

BURGLARY.—On Friday night week, the house of Mr. WM. HORN, near this place, was entered by some villain, and boots and shoes to the amount of $20 taken.

COURT.—The November Court commences to-day.
Messrs. IRWIN and TAYLOR, the Contractors for the construction of the Gettysburg Railroad, have, during the last two weeks, been surveying a Railroad line from Union Mills, through Westminster, to Owen's Mills, and have succeeded in finding a good route.

We are requested to announce that the Stores in Fairfield will be closed on Thursday next, Thanksgiving day.
T. B. Peterson has in press and will soon issue the pithy and laughable sayings of the late Jonathan Kely, known to the reading public as "FATHERLY ADVICE." Aside from its peculiar merit, this work, deserves a general circulation, as it is the sole dependence of a poor widow and fatherless children. Complete in one large duodecimo volume, illustrated and bound in cloth for $1.25, or in two volumes, paper cover, for $1.00. Address T. B. Peterson, 102 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

FREMONT'S VOTE.
Fremont is in a large minority—several hundred thousand—of the popular vote in the Northern States, and from present appearances will not have more than a majority of 100,000 in the non-slaveholding States over James Buchanan.

"Americans Must Rule America."
This cant phrase is becoming obsolete. Americans have always ruled America, ever since our national independence was declared, and we presume they always will, says the Pennsylvania Freeman.
The Native Americans, the political and religious proscriptionists, have never yet ruled America, and it is to be hoped they never will. How they would rule, if they could acquire the power, is seen in characters of blood in New Orleans, Louisville and Baltimore.—From such rule may America long be preserved.

The precious young men of the city of New York, have re-nominated Fremont a candidate for the Presidency. Which one?

The Democrats of Frederick city, Md., are to have a torchlight procession on the night of the 21st inst.

A Colt from a Male.—Sax Marco's Texas, Oct. 7, 1856.—I have a mule that I raised, three years old in June last, nor has a colt by her side. Please say what I must call it. Its ears are not like the male nor the female. In other respects it resembles the male. If any one disputes it, I have the male and her colt in my lot. The doubting Thomases can see for themselves.
