A Family Newspaper---Deboted to Literature, Agriculture, The Markets, Local and General Intelligence, Politics, Advertising, &c.

39TH YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA: MONDAY, DEC. 29, 1856.

Torms of the "Compiler.". For The Republic in Compiler is published every Monday morning, by Henry J. Stance. at $1.75 personnya if paid in advance-$2,00 per armin if not paid in advance. No subscription discontinued, unless at the option of F. Frazer, in the borough of Gettysburg. on the publisher, until all arrearages are paid. Thirselay, the 1st day of January heat, the Advertisements inserted at the usual following valuable Personal Property, viz: rates. Job Printing done, neatly, cheaply, and with dispatch.

16 of Mice in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wampler's Tinning Establishment, one and a half squares from the Court-house, "Coverige" on the sign.

More New Stock.

RENCH Merinoes, all colors; fashionable Cloak Cloths; Fall Silks, the new styles; magmilicent new Delaines: best styles, Fall Calicoes; very large stock of new Snewls; Framels, Welsh, English and American; Cloths, Vestings, and all kinds Men's Wear; Sheetings, Table Linens, Towelings, &c. EYRE & LANDELL.

Forth and Arch stream, Pailadelphia. Tratorekeepers are invited to examine our New Goods. Families can be well suited in every kind of Dry Goods. We make Black Silks and Shawls leading articles for wholesaleing: P S .-- Jobs received daily from the Auctions in New York and Philadelphia. TERMS NETT CASIL

December 15, 1850. 6m

THE PERRY COUNTY MUTUAL FIRE Respersion done print,

CAPITAL $139 586 - effects insurances in any part of the State, against loss by fire; prudently adapts its operations to its resources; affords ample indemnity, and promptly adjusts its losses.

Advans county is represented in the Board of Managers by Hon. Muses McClean. WM. McCLEAN, Amut.

Office of M. & W. McClenn, Gettysburg.

Thewa for the People.

NAMNESTOCK BROTHERS have just recoved and are now opening a large and Hardware, &c., to which they invite the atten- | age, a broad-wheeled Wagon. Hay Ladders. to offer inducements to purchase from us, such and Oats, by the bushel. Also Household as cannot often be had. Come and examine and Kitchen Furniture, such as Beds and Bedour stock, and we know you will not leave ding, Tables, Chairs, Bureaus, Clock, Carpetwithout buying.

Oct. 6, 1856.

Recurrence : Recurrence : RNEY & BRO, have removed to their old said day, when attendance will be given and established house, No. 67 West Market terms made known by street, adjoiding Haniz, Frick & Co's Hardware Store, and directly opposite the residence of Gen. M. Dandel, where they will continue, as for RENT, at public outery, on said day. heretofore, the manufacturing of CONFEC-TIONARY, in all its branches -SYRUPS. &c., Ac , at the lowest city prices. Also, a careful-Iv selected stock of to sinc. Also - a superior article of TOMATO KETCHEP, in prime condition, made by us, and said by the gallon or in any quantity, very Is as represented, of superior flavor. We also land township. A rare chance, have a large lot of "CURED PICKLES," put December 22, 1876. have a large lot of "CURED PICKLES," out up under our own supervision and care, and off r them to families low. June 16, 1856.

Wines and Liquers,

Lindporint.

who desire to know where to find a large delphia. and handsome variety of Summer HATS and elegant White Beavers, and White Silk Hats. Panama, Canton and Braid; also, Soft French Hits, and a large stock of Gentlemen and Gatters of every style and price. Call and see the goods.

Call and see Pens, with pencil and silver holder, $1.00.

Gold Finger Rings, 374 cents to $80; Water the goods.
- June 16, 1856.

Spontiag!

CEORGE and Henry Wampler will make House Spouting and put up the same low, for cash or country produce. Farmers and all others wishing their houses, barns, &c., spouted, would do well to give them a call. G. & H. WAMPLER.

April 18, 1852. tf

Banover B. Rainoad.

TRAINS over the Hanover Branch Railroad now run as follows: First Train leaves Hanover at 9 A. M., with Passengers for York, Harrisburg, Columbia and Puladelphia. This Train also connects with the Express for Beltimore, arriving there

Second Train leaves at 3 P. N., with Passengers for Baltimore and intermediate places. and returns with passengers from York, &c.
April 21.

J. LEIB, Agent.

DRESS GOODS,

at SCHICK'S. Step in and examine the new stock for Fall and Winter. October 20, 1856.

Second Street Mouse,

No. 42 North Second Street, Philadelphia. CHAS, P. SWING, PROPRIETOR. TERMS-SI per day-Single Meals 25 cents. N. B. Pleasant rooms for ladies. June 19, 1856, tf

Flowel Flower

FESHE undersigned continues the Flour business as heretofore. He sells by the barrel or any smaller quantity. By taking SMALL PROFIES he can buy as high and sell as low as anybody else, and by always endeavoring to keep none but the best, he hopes to merit and Peccive a continuance of liberal patronage. Oct. 8, 1855. WM. GILLESPIE. At the Past Office.

There are a traditional to the first of the

LARGE SALE

Of Personal Property.

THE undersigned will offer at Public Sale,

A Chariotee Carriage,

a Rockaway Carriage, a Square Carriage, (all the above are new,) a second-handed Buggy: 1 Rockaway Body, trimmed: 1 Glass-door Rockaway Body, painted: 1 Boat Body, trimmed: 1 Chariotee Body, painted: 6 Buggy Bodies, 5 Glass-door do., 2 Double-door do., 2 Boat do., 2 Rockaway do., 3 Square do., 5 Buggy do., 6 unfinished do., 12 Running Parts, 4 sets of Wheels, Paints, Oil, Varnish, Iron, Steel, Patent Steps, 2,000 feet of PLANK, 2.500 Spokes, Trimmings, Lamps, Work Benches and Vices, Paint Mill, 2 sets of Blacksmith Tools, Drill, Stuffing Hay, 2 Stoves and Pipe, and Grindstone.

Also, an excellent Family HORSE, one of the best in the county: 2 Cows. 1 Steer, 3 sets of Harness, Saddle and Bridle, Ploughs. Harrow, Log Chain, Butt and Breast Chains. Double-tree, Leather Nets, Cradle and Scythe, Forks, Mattock and Shovel; Corn and Corn Fodder, 2 stacks of Hay, 5 acres of G ain in the ground, Fencing Boards, 500 Sningles, Corn Cib. with many other articles.

Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., on said day, when attendance will be given and terms made known by DANNER & ZIEGLER, ANDREW POLLEY, HENRY RUPP.

December 22, 1856.

PHIBLEU MALKE!

THE subscriber, Executor of the will of Samuel B. Patterson, deceased, will SAMUEL B. PATTERSON, deceased, will sell at public sale, at the late residence of said deceased, in Hamilton township, Adams county, 2 miles couth of Hampton, on the Turnpike, on Thursday, the 1st day of January west, the following valuable Personal Property, viz:

Three Blornes, Tho Costs. Cows and Heifets, Sheep, 2 Fat Hogs, Sows, varied assortment of Dry Goods, Queensware. | Shoats and Pigs : a first-rate Rockaway Carrition of those wishing cheap Goods. As our Horse Gears, Winnowing Mill. Cutting Box, stock has been selected with great care, from Ploughs and Harrows, Rakes, Forks, and other the largest wholesale houses of New York, farming implements. Also, Hay by the ton Philadelphia, and Baltimore, we are prepared a lot of Corn Folder; and Wheat, Rye, Corn ing. Corner Cuphoard, Stoves and Pipe, (one a Cooking Stone,) Copper and Iron Kettles together with quantities of Beef and Bacon, and many other articles too numerous to insert. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock, A. M., on to a billy branch and belge.

GEORGE EHREHART, Est. The Farm of the deceased will be offered December 22, 1856.

FE"ILE Sale of Real Estate advertised by Mr. DANIEL BEITLER has been postponed always on draught, and far sale in quantities on account of the weather, to Safarday, the 3d day of January next, at 1 o'clock, P. M .-The property consists of an excellent piece of Bronker's wife and children were gone to a Meadow, in this borough, and a tract of masked ball; and secure from fear of interlow -much tess than city prices. The article Cleared and another of Wood land, in Cumber- ruption, the two friends indulged in a conver-

Manifer & Mariev.

. Cheap Watches and Levelry, TITHOLESALE and Retail, at the Philadelphia Watch and Jewelry Store, No. 96 FINHE citizens of Gettysburg and Strangers North Second street, corner of Quarry, Phila-

Gold Lever Watches, full jeweled, 18 carat SHOES, are invited to call at W. W. PAX- cases, $28.00; Gold Lepines, 10 carat, $24.00; TON'S STORE, where they will find the most | Silver Levers, full jewel d, $12 00; Silver Lepines, jewels, 59 00; superior Quartiers, 87 00 Gold Spectacles, $7 00; fine Silver do. $1 50; Gold Bracelets, $3 00; Ladies' Gold Pencils, Lobes' and Children's Summer Snoes and $1 00; Silver Tea Spoons, set. $5 00; Gold

Gold Finger Rings, 37½ cents to $80; Watch Glasses, plain, 12½ cents; patent 18½; Lunet 25; other articles in proportion. All goods warranted to be what they are sold for. STAUFFER & HARLEY.

On hand, some gold and silver Levers and epines, still lower than the above prices. Oct. 29, 1856. ly have just received a splendid assortment (Iotilda. The serret of her refusal lies in of Wool Undershirts and Drawers, which a herring pie." will be sold low at SAMSON'S.

acep Warm.

To those who are Indebted to me. AVING now adopted the Cash system in Well, during the first year of my marriage, I my business, for the purpose of settling was a little—a very little—icalous of Clotilda my business, for the purpose of settling up my old business, all those indebted to me of long standing, either by note or book account, will please call and pay the same.

GEORGE ARNOLD. October 6, 1856.

TWO THOUSAND PIECES Wall Paper.

POR Ladies and Gentlemen, can be found in income than ever, observed as a south of Wall Paper, or to deprive more of the Government contracts: of every style and variety, from 121 to 40 cis. in other words to ruin me. After pondering a piece. Housekeepers and Paper Hangers are deeply on the subject, I decided on doing invited to call and examine the stock, which nothing until the danger should become immiis superior to anything heretofore offered in neut; all that was mecessary was to know how this market. Only 124 cents a piece, or 14 things really stood. Having just purchased cents a yard, for Wall Paper! Gettysburg, Feb. 25, 1856.

Jewelry! Jewelry!

L. SCHICK has now on hand a large and splendid assortment of Jewelry.comprising everything in that line -Breastoms, Ear-Rings, Finger-Rings, Chains, &c., &c.all of which he is selling at the lowest living profits. Call and examine for yourselves-no April 21. trouble to show goods.

FMANCY STATIONERY. - Schick keeps all kinds of Eancy Stationery and setts it as cheap, if not cheaper than anybody else in the

.

Choice Poetry.

From the Washington Union,

VICTORY. BY J. S. BENSON.

Bring out the hears cannon, and thunder to earth The news that now gladdens the nation Let mountain and valley respond to our mirth, an tones that shall startle creation For know ve. Oh freemen! of this happy land, That kings tremble o'er their dominums When you of "Columbia" join hand in hand, And echo united opinions.

Then sons of the South, and sons of the North, Come join in fraternal contourson. And hail the high chief that led proudly forth The conquering foe of disunion! The clouds so portentous of evil are o'er,

The enemy lives to dishonor no more The page of our history's story; But prostrate and blooding, he sinks now in death-The for of his race-as of reason. With pone to receive his last errorg breath.

And diskness gives place to new glory:

gave only the minions of treason.

Then sons of each state, come heartily forth, Unite in fraternal communion. And honor the name that crushed at the north THE FOR OF THE COUNTRY AND UMON! Let the North and the South, the East and the West, tionew and exince their devotion To States still existing, unsevered and blest, The cacked by the waves of composition! Come, natriots, forth ! ye faithful and true-Rejoice in the prospect before us-The Union reposes in safety anew,

. And eatls on her sons for a chorus! Then, sons of the South and sons of the North, Come join in traternal communion. And herald the name of Buchanan forth-The pillar and pride of the Umon ! Kirkwood House, December 6.

LETTERS.

TERR, scatter, burn, destroy -but keep thom not! I hate, I dread those living witnesses Of varying sell, of good or ill lorget, Of altered hopes and without kindnesses. Oh, call not up those shadows of the dead, Those visious of the past, tirrt idly blot . The present with regret for blessings fled: This hand that wrote, this ever teening head. This flickering heart is full of chance and change; I would not have you watch my weakness. Nor how my foolish likings roam and range, Nor how the mushroom friendships of a day Hastened in hot-bed ripeness to decay,

A Capital Story.

Nor how to mine own self I grow so stronge.

THE HERRING PIE; OR, A NEW CURE FOR JEALOUSY.

A TALE OF AMSTERDAM.

It was a cold winter's evening. The rich close to the corner of the stove, and sat smoking his long clay nine with great complaceacy; his intineste friend. Van Grote, employed in exactly the same manner, occupied the cpnosite corner. All was quiet in the house; for sation. "I cannot think," said Van Grote, "why you should refuse your consent to the marriage. Berkenrode can give his daughter a good fortune and you say that your son is desperately in love with her. "I don't object to it," said Bronker. "It is my wife who will not hear of it." "And what reason has she for refusing?" "One which I cannot tell you," said his

"Oh! a mystery! Come, out with it. You know I have been always frank and open with you, even giving you my opinion of your absurd jealousy of your wife."

"Jealousy of my wife! Nonsense! Have I not just sent her to a masked ball ?" "I don't wonder you boast of it. I should like to have seen you do as much when you were first married. To be sure you had reason to look sharply after her, for she was the prettiest woman in Amsterdam. Unfortunate ly she has become the better horse; and you refuse an advantageous match for your son, to gratify her caprice." "You are quite wrong, my friend, I never allow any one to be master here but myself and in the present instance I cannot blame a herring pie." "A herring pie?" exclaimed Van Grote, "Yes, a herring pie. You may remember it was a favorite dainty of mine, and that my wire could not endure even the smell of it .was a little-a very little-jealous of Clotilda. My situation obliged me to keep open house. and among the young sparks who visited us. none gave me such uneasiness as the handsome Colonel Berkenrode. The reputation that he had already acquired for galantry, was enough to create alarm, and the marked attention be paid my wife convinced me it was well founded. What could I do? It was impossible to this house. I caused a secret closet to be made behind the stove here. It communicates with my private 160m, and from it I could overhear everything that passed in this apartyears, and indeed I do not even know what though I promise you that some of the galhant speeches made me wince."

tyon showed a most commenda de patience. In your place, I should have contente l'inyself cheap, if not cheaper than anybody else in the this office of the country. If you don't believe it, with first bling my vite to receive his visits."

town-or the country. If you don't believe it, with first bling my vite to receive his visits."

There is no the bashelor. As I debut entermined to the land of the land another entreaty to deter him from the pur-

He began to lose hope in proportion as I threatening to blow out his brains if she would region are exposed. In his passage to one of was some three months ago found dead in his not show him some compassion. Moved at the rivers, he fell in company with a talkative bould. The physicians reported the cause of free-in short she gave him to understand that I was the obstacle to his happiness .-Berkenrode was too well skilled in the art of the gentleman about the man we met-in seduction not to see that he had gained a lown. point. He raved, cursed me as the cause of her in case she would become a widow. She an eye that night, and Clotilda, though she as myself. On the following day a circummor. On one occasion they had stopped at a stance occurred that increased her agitation. hotel in the interior, not of the most inviting and had only been lying in a trance, and had While at breakfast a message came from the his business in my wife's presence. When a report of licerus, proceeding from the end the man entered be was as pale as a ghost, of the hall occupied by their travelling comand scarcely seemed to know what he was panion. about. At last he told me he had received a first herring pie he should prepare for me own counsel. The honest fellow, who was much attached to me, said he was convinced there must be something wrong in the nilair. and should not be happy till the bottle and money were out of his hands. I poured a few drops of the liquid on a lump of sugar, and gave it to my wife's lop dog. It fell into convulsions, and died in a few minutes. The case was now plain-there had been an atweening into my arms. "Poison! A murder!" she exclaimed, classing me as it to shield me from danger. "Merciful Heaven, protect us] both!" I consoled her with the assurance the usual hour; but in vain did I take my seat was lying carelessly up in the bed, in my hiding place, he was not admitted. 1 afterwards found that she had sent him a let- landlord. ter threatening, if ever he came again, her husband-should be informed of all that had massed. He made several attempts to soften her resolution, but to no purpose, and a year ing back the covering said: afterward be married. No acquaintance has ever existed between the families, and now you know why my wife refuses her consent

"I cannot blame her," said Van Grote.-Who would have thought that Berkenrole, a soldier, a man of honor, could have been capable of such a rascally deed?" "Ha! ha! ha!" laughed Bronker, "and banker Bronker had drawn his easy chair do you really think it was the general who sent the poison?"

"Why, who else?" "Myself, to be sure. The whole was my contrivance, and it cost me three hundred my wife, and get rid of her troublesome lapdog at the same time." "Do you know, Branker, I think it was liere, and we shall get along well enough rather a shabby trick to leave Berkenrode un- now. der such an imputation; and now that your son's happiness depends on your wife being undeceived."

"I am aware of all that, but to undeceive her now is not so easy as you think. How can I expect her to dishelieve a circumstance in which for the last twenty years she has put implicit faith?"

He was interrupted by the entrance of Yrow Bronker; her cheeks were flushed, and she was saluted by Van Grote rather stally. . What, not at the ball, Ciotilda?" asked her

"No, I had a bad headache," she replied, and Maurice had promised to take charge of his sisters. But I have come to tell you that I have been thinking over his marriage with Mina Berkenrode, and altered my mind on that subject. In short, I shall withdraw my pposition to the match." The friends looked at each other in astonish-

"By-the-by," she continued, "here is a key found some time ago, I think it must belong to von."

"Well, Clotilda," said her husband, striving to hide his confusion as he took the key, "this is good news about the marriage." "Suppose you and your friend celebrate it by a supper. There is a herring-pie in the house, and you need not fear that it is poison-She left the room. Bronker looked foolish. and Van Grote rubbed his hands, as he exclaimed: "Caught in your own trap! He who digs a pit for his enemy shall fall into it himself."

"Nevertheless," exclaimed Bronker, "I think I have got well out of mine.

Select Miscellany.

Thrilling Incident .- A few days ago a Mrs. Suydam, of Granby, New York, hearing a shrick from the well, discovered her little boy sinking in the water, eighteen feet below the ground. She immediately sent for assistance, but before it came descended into the well. where she caught the drowning child by the arm, and held him out of the water. Another child, four and a half years old, went into the house, emptied the water out of the pail, hooked it on the pole and I wered it into the God I have had no use for it the last twenty well. This proving of no use the mother thought she must either drop the child or has become of the key. Satisfied with this drown berself; but making a desperate effort procaution. I did not he situte to leave Clotilda she climbed up the slippery stones and raised when any of her admirers paid her a visit, him over head, when Tranky, lying down on (Mass.) Eagle. the platform, caught his little brother by the arm, and eried out, "I've got him, ma: I've "Upon my word," interrupted his friend, got him!" The child and mother were saved.

Western Annoyances.

Judge J____, who recently returned from a tour in the West, relates an aneedote illusgained it, till one day he bethought himself of trating the horrors to which travellers in that this proof of the strength of his passion, she lady and gentleman, to whom he was rela-

burst into tears, and pleaded that she was not ting some of his sufferings from mosquitoes. "Husband," said the lady to the gentle man owning that title, "you had better tell

The hint was sufficient, and, "husband" prohis misery, and tried to obtain a promise from cooled to say that, in their travels farther west, they made the acquaintance of a stalstopped him peremptorily, but I never closed wart, rollicking, western hoosier, one of the genus who could "whip his weight in wild did not know I watched her, was as uneasy cats," but who possessed a fund of quiet huappearance. They were shown to their rooms. cook asking to see me alone. I desired him the hoosier at one end, and the lady and gento come in (as I was not in the habit of inter- theman at the other, of a long hall. About I understand that a relation of Mr. Shepard fering in domestic affairs.) and communicate midnight the drowsy couple were startled by denies the truth of the report, and asserts that Both started up in bed and began to specupacket containing a small bottle, a hundred late upon the probable cause of this untimely guilders, and a note in which he was requests alarm, when they heard a rushing of feet, and ed to put the contents of the former into the a confusion of voices in the hall. On going to the door, the gentleman found the whole house-He was assured be might do so without fear, hold, headed by the landlord, rushing in the as the contents of the bottle were quite harm- direction of the report. His curiosity led him loss, and would give a delicious tlavor to the to join this midnight procession, and he arrivpie. An additional reward was promised if of with the rest, in front of the hoosier's door. be complied with the request and kept his The landlord tried the latch, but found it fast whereupon, in a loud voice, he demanded instant admission.

"What do you want?" roared the voice

"Want to come in!" replied the landlord. "Can't do it!" was the response from with in. "It's my room, and I'm in bed; can't come

"Let me in!" shouted the landlord, in a temp' to poison me. Never shall I forget lander tone, at the same time shaking the Clotilda's pale face, as she threw herself door violently, "or I'll break the door down." "Hold on!" rejoined the voice within; "I'll men the door." The door was soon opened, when in rushed the whole party, expecting to find the floor that I was thankful to my caknown enemy covered with blood. What was their surprise the instrument of death planted in his breast. who was the means of showing me how much to find everything in its proper place, and the she loved me. That day Berkenrode came at hoosier culm and unconcerned. A revolver

"Who fired that pistol?" demanded the

"I did!" was the reply. "Why?" asked the landlord. The hoosier stepped to the bed, and throw-

"Look here! Do you see that?" The attention of the party was at once directed to the point indicated, and there over to our son's marriage with the daughter of the whole surface of the sheet, bedbugs were scampering in every direction, like a flock of sheep frightened by a dog. The landlord was chagrined and puzzled. and looked to his lodger for an explanation. "These," began the hoosier, straightening him off up to his full height, and gesticulating with his right hand in grandiloquent style "these are my friends; I have settled an armistice with them, and we are on friendly terms; but on the window-sill there, just outside, you will find two infernal big tellers that guilders in a present to my cook; but I saved I couldn't do anything with, and so I just put a bullet through 'em. But it's all right now, it's all understood between me and my friends

> It is needless to add that the landlord retired to his own bed visibly crest fallen. while the spectators enjoyed a hearty laugh.

"White Folks Blame Fools."

A friend of ours (says the U.S. Review,) number of New York mechanics to do a piece of work. It was a government contract, and emired particular disputch. The men worked as Northern mechanics know how to work. Old Jupe-one of their employer's slaves. watched them, out of the corner of his eye for everal days.

Something was evidently working in his mind which puzzled him badly. At last he came up to the foreman of the gang, and said -"Mass' Charles, what de debbil you all work crysipelas. - Cin. Times. for so, ch?" "To carn money, Jupe."-"Money!" said Jupe, "money great ting.—You work so up Norf, Mass' Charles?" "Yes, Jupe." "You make a great deal money?"fall we do well; but work is slack in winter time, and if we get around again to spring. and make both ends meet, and keep the wife a house to shelter them, we generally think we have done well."

"S'pose you sick, Mass' Charles, who takes care of you?" "Then work stops, and we get very poor, and suffer great privations."-"Dat'll do, Mass' Charles," said Jupe. tought white folks sensible people. Taint nuffin of de sort. Work, work, nuffin but work; get sick, and nobody take care ob 'em. White folks blame fools. Jupe work too.— Nebber hurt himself workin', though. Jupe get sick. Miss Sallie come down and nurse him. Mass' Bob send a boat schenty miles up de riber to get white doctor for him.-Norf good 'nough for white folks, but reckon delphis, he has remained in retirement at old Lane stay at home." And old Jupe went | Wheatland. He has a number of visiters and went off in a state of dignified disgust at the and receives and entertains them all with folly of white folks generally at the North, an urbanity that favorably impresses every and a particular determination to do as little one. work himself as possible—a determination which his master says Jupe was never known since two children of one of our physicians may have deposited with him, although the were attacked with scarlatina and during their latter, after the determination of the wager, illness had for pets a couple of kittens. Both had, by the order of the depositor, paid the the kittens subsequently had all the symptoms | money to the winner. This decision of the of scarlatina, one of them dying, the other court is destined to effect an entire revolution narrowly escaping. A canary bird whose in the betting world. cage hung in the room also died, with all the symptoms of the same disease.—Berkshire Old Gent.—"Waiter

Lotteries .- The Providence Journal is publishing a history of Lotteries in Rhode Island, from which it appears that there is searcety a church or religious society in that State which

NO. 14.

Harrible Story .-- The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writes: "It will be remembered that the late Corporation Attorney, Lorenzo B. Shepard, Esq., was some three months ago found dead in his health. The physicians reported the cause of his death to be congestion of the heart, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance therewith. The body of Mr. Shepard was placed in a receiving vault, preparatory to its final interment in the family burial ground. A few days ago Mrs. Shepard ordered the remains of her deceased husband to be taken from the vault, but those employed for the purpose, were horror struck on finding the body removed several feet from the coffin. the shroud torn into shreds, and covered with recovered after being placed in the vault. This seems almost too horrible for belief, and fact that the body was packed in ice for over two days previous to its being placed in the vault. On the other hand, there are those who contend that Mr. Shepard was not dead at the time of placing his body into the vault. and that certain facts are in possession of the family which go to show the truth of their as-

Shocking Result of Anger .- A heart rending occurrence took place, a few days ago in Stockport, Columbia county, New York, in which a child was killed wile in the arms of its mother, and by her seer. Mrs. Dickenham was sitting in a room with her child, a boy of about two years of age, upon her lap, engaged in dressing it, while at the same time her sister, a Miss Platner, was cutting the wick of a candle with a pair of scissors. The sisters were engaged in an angry conversation, when Miss Platner, in a fit of rage, threw the scissors at her sister with great force, the point striking the child upon his breast, penetrating to the heart. The innovent little one exclaimed, "oh, mother! mother!" and immediately expired. Mrs. Dickenham did not see her sister throw the seissors, and was not conscious of what had been done until she saw A coroner's jury was called, who, after a fail investigation of the affair, rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts. Miss Platner is now confined in the Hudson jail to await the action of the grand jury. -Interesting from Kansas. E. Hoagland, Esq., United States Commissioner, arrived in St. Louis on the 15th inst., on his way to Washington. He left, Lecompton on the 9th of December. Everything was quiet in the territory. Leavenworth land sales were progressing, but individuals threaten to file objections, alleging that many of the squatter claims that have been bought in at the assessed price were fraudulently claimed. Gov. Genry's policy elicits general commendation. The bands of robbers heretofere reported about the head of Ball Creek have been dis-

Commissioner Hongland and Marshal Jones were some time-since despatched by the Governor to the southern part of the Territory with two companies of cavalry, to make priests and quell the reported disturbances in that section. The object was accomplish-

The Hog Cholera .- A fatal malady has prevailed among hogs in the Ohio valley during the last six months. It is computed that he-tween 60,000 and 70,000 have fallen victims to the destructive distemper within radii of a hundred miles surrounding Cincinnati. The disease is considered incurable; having buffled the most critical investigation into its nature, and as steadily resisted all remedial agents. The malady has been vaguely denominated "cholera," from the failure to discover its true character, and upon the principle which a few years ago prompted mankind to apply the same term to all ills which resem-bled "cholera" in the human body, and which they did not comprehend. The distemper of which we treat is similar in some of its operations to cholera, and in others it resembles

Novel Estray .- The locomotive attached to the Central Ohio express train got away from the conductor, engineer, and all hands, on Not a great deal, Jupe; spring, summer and Tuesday evening, a short distance beyond Zanesville, and started on its "own hook" toward sundown. The accident occurred at a switch, where the hindmost car of a freight and baby in something to eat and drink, and train was just leaving the main track. The engineer and fireman, seeing that they must hit the car, sprang from the locomotive, and the collision broke the connection of the iron horse, leaving it "with the bit in its teeth" to run its race. A messenger returned to Zanesville, whence a dispatch was telegraphed to the station farther west, to "look out for the locomotive." It ran 12 or 15 miles before it was caught .- Wheeling Argus.

> The President elect is in the enjoyment of very good health and has endured the labors of the recent campaign remarkably well. With the exception of a recent visit to Phila-

Important to Betting Men.-The Supreme courts of Ohio and South Carolina have lately decided that the losing party in a wager may Scarlatina among Animals.-A few weeks recover from the stakeholder the money he

Old Gent .- "Waiter (hiccup) have you any hiccup) mince pie?" Waiter-"Yes sir-have some?" Old Gent-"Yes, bring me (hiccup) half a dozen (hiccun) on a chafing dish!"

Waiter-"Anything else?" Old Gent-Yes, (hiccup) a gin sling on a half shell." It may as well be mentioned that the old gent had been electioneering all day.

Les Dr. Pusey is not dead, but Dr. Hussey is-and Dr. Pusey is not Regius professor in