

THE COMPILER.

LIBERTY, THE UNION, AND THE CONSTITUTION. GETTYSBURG, PENN'A.

Monday Morning, Jan. 19, 1857.

We are under obligations to Hon. A. G. BROWN, of the U. S. Senate, and Hon. J. GLASCOY JONES, of the House of Representatives, for Congressional documents; and to Hon. GEO. W. BREWER, of the State Senate, and W. S. PICKING, Esq., of the House, for Legislative favors.

The Approaching Inauguration.

The Democratic Review says: "The inauguration of JAMES BUCHANAN promises to be the most magnificent instalment of a Chief Magistrate of the United States that has ever taken place. The military and civic associations of the large cities are making preparations to visit Washington on the occasion. Among the rest, we notice the 7th regiment, National Guard, of the 1st division New York State militia of the city of New York; the Burgess Corps of Albany; the Keystone Club of Philadelphia; and the Young Men's Democratic Union Club of New York, who will be accompanied by Dodsworth's full band."

The U. S. Senate, on Monday, voted on the right of Mr. Harlan, (K. N. and Rep.) of Iowa, to a seat in that body, and refused to receive him, the resolution so declaring being adopted by twenty-eight to eighteen. The ground for his rejection was, that the Senate of Iowa had not participated, as a body, in the convention which elected him a United States Senator,—the law requiring a joint convention.

Delaware U. S. Senators.—On Wednesday the Legislature of Delaware elected, the Hon. James A. Bayard as U. S. Senator for six years, and Martin W. Bates for the unexpired term of the Hon. John M. Clayton, deceased. Both Democrats.

Massachusetts Senatorial Election.—St. Louis, Jan. 13.—The Legislature yesterday, on joint ballot, elected James S. Green, Dem., to the United States Senate for the short term. The vote stood Green 89; Benton 34; Keenett 32.

Corruption in Congress.

A sensation was created in the House of Representatives at Washington, week before the last, by the reading in that body of an article in a New York paper, charging corruption upon members of Congress.—The sensation was deepened by a statement made by Mr. PAINE, a Representative from North Carolina, to the effect that a member of the House had offered him $1500 if he would support a Railroad Land Bill which it was proposed to bring before Congress. Mr. PAINE expressed a willingness to sustain his statement by an oath, and to give the name of the member who had endeavored to corrupt him, if summoned before a committee of investigation. A committee was appointed to inquire into the matter. Whether one of a number of rescals now in Congress, will shortly get his deserts, remains to be seen. We hope the committee will probe the affair to the bottom and expose the culprit, whoever he may be.

On Monday last, Mr. Orr, from the select committee to examine the alleged corruption of members of Congress, reported a resolution enlarging the field of their inquiry from the commencement of the Congress, instead of confining them to measures now pending, and asking to be empowered to employ a clerk. The resolution was agreed to. The investigation will no doubt bring to light some facts which will startle an honest public.

In looking over the standing committees of the State Senate, we observe the name of Mr. BREWER upon those of Accounts, Estates and Escheats, and Education.

Maj. MUSSELMAN, (in the House,) is on the committee on Agriculture.

During the canvass before the October election, we told the people of this county that Maj. MUSSELMAN was in bad political company, and that if elected, his votes in the House would be influenced by the company he was in. His supporting of Simon Cameron, the great leading spirit of unprincipled Know Nothingism and political juggling in this State, proves our predictions to have been but too well founded.

The official vote of California is as follows:—Buchanan, 51,935; Fillmore, 35,113; Fremont, 20,339.

Prosperous Banks.—Col. H. S. Magraw, the State Treasurer of Pennsylvania, it is said, about instituting proceedings against the Chambersburg Bank, the Honesdale Bank, and a number of others, to recover the forfeiture for neglecting to keep their notes at par in Philadelphia.

Costly Living.—The St. Louis Democrat says that the price of board at Jefferson City, the capitol of Missouri, has been raised to $30 per week since the assembling of the Legislature. The members receive only $21 per week.

The President's message has at last been disposed of in the House, and it has been referred and ordered to be printed; but whenever the House shall be in committee of the whole on the state of the Union political speeches can be made, whatever may be the bill before it.

Mr. Pollock has allowed the bill to charter the Strasburg Bank to become a law without his signature.

ELECTION OF CAMERON.

Traitors in the House!—It is with shame and indignation that we announce the election of SIMON CAMERON to the U. S. Senate. The election took place on Tuesday, when CAMERON received the full vote of the Know Nothings and Black Republicans, and also the votes of the two Schuykill members, and one member from York, who had been elected as Democrats. By the treachery of these unprincipled scoundrels, the Democratic party has been deceived and Pennsylvania disgraced.

Messrs. Augustine, Babcock, Backhouse, Ball, Benson, Bishop, Brown, Chase, Claver, Crawford, Dickey, Dick, Eyster, Gibbon, Hamilton, Heistand, Hine, Hoffman, (Lebanon), Lebo, Manser, McCalmont, McWhorter, Kerr, Lebo, Manser, McCalmont, McWhorter, Munn, MUSSELMAN, Nichols, Penrose, Peters, Pownall, Purcell, Reed, Shaw, Sloan, Stevenson, Struthers, Thorn, Vanvorhis, Vickers, Voghtley, Wagonseller, Warner, Williston, Wittrude, Withrow and Wright, of the House of Representatives, and Messrs. Coffey, Crabb, Finney, Flouinken, Frazier, Gazzman, Gregg, Harris, Jordan, Killinger, Lewis, Myer, Penrose, Scofield, Sellers, Shuman, Southern, and Taggart, Speaker, of the Senate—67—voted for SIMON CAMERON.

Messrs. Abrams, Anderson, Arthur, Beck, Bower, Brandt, Campbell, Carly, Ent, Getz, Gilden, Hanel, Hancock, Harper, Heins, Hillegas, Hoffman, (Berks,) Imlis, Jenkins, Johns, Johnson, Knight, Leisinger, Longaker, Lovett, Maugle, Mellvain, Nunnemaker, Pearson, Petriken, Ramsey, (Philadelphia,) Ramsey, (York,) Rupp, Reauer, Roberts, Smith, (Centre,) Smith, (Luzerne,) Tolan, Vail, Walton, Westbrook, Wharton, Yearley, and Zimmerman, of the House; and Messrs. Brewer, Browne, Ely, Evans, Fetter, Ingham, Knox, Lauback, Steele, Straub, Walton, Welsh, Wilkins and Wright, of the Senate—58—voted for JOHN W. FORNEY.

Messrs. Backus, Calhoun, Folselt, Hill, Nicholson and Smith, (Cambridge,) of the House, and Mr. Crosswell, of the Senate—7—voted for HENRY D. FOSTER.

Mr. Foster voted for WILLIAM WILKINS. Whole number of votes polled 133 For SIMON CAMERON, 67 For JOHN W. FORNEY, 58 For HENRY D. FOSTER, 7 For WILLIAM WILKINS, 1

Three members elected as Democrats, and who participated in the proceedings of the Democratic caucus—LEBO and WAGONSELLER, of Schuykill, and MANSER, of York, voted for SIMON CAMERON. Six members, elected as Democrats, but who refused to go to caucus, voted for HENRY D. FOSTER. One member, elected as a Democrat, but who did not attend the caucus, voted for WILLIAM WILKINS.

A word or two in reference to the election of Cameron. It was but two years ago that the opposition, strong in numbers and possessing unlimited power, indignantly rejected Cameron as a man unfit for the place, and unworthy of their support. Twenty-eight of their representatives signed a protest against him, after their party caucus had declared in his favor; and five of those who signed that protest, viz: S. P. McCalmont, David Taggart, F. R. Jordan, James J. Lewis, and Gideon J. Ball, on Tuesday voted for Cameron! The protest was as bitter and as just a denunciation as was ever hurled against an infamous politician. Its bold and startling truths yet ring in the ears of all honest men, both of the opposition and the Democratic parties. It asserted that Cameron obtained his nomination from the Know Nothing caucus by corrupt means, that "corruption was behind the throne"—that Cameron was a man "who has despised all party obligations"—that "as a Statesman, fame has never associated his name with the word"—that he was merely a treacherous and corrupt "old political hack," who was remembered by the Democrats only as a "traitor," and who had never "disgraced" the Whig party by supporting its ticket. It declared that he was a "fit representative of nothing good"; and a fit exponent of no honorable principle;—and that their "constituents would repudiate with scorn and righteous indignation his election." They said, "what we say unto one we say unto all, INVITE US NOT IN THERE TO PARTAKE OF A BUZZARD'S FEAST. Ask us not to support a nomination brought about, as we believe, by the concentrated and 'cohesive power of public plunder,' and the superadded element of shameless and wholesale private bribery."

To the election of Cameron, (remarks the Pennsylvanian) five of those who signed that protest, on Tuesday contributed, and the unscrupulous portion of the opposition rejoice that a Democratic caucus nominee has been defeated, reckless of the means, or the character of the agents by which that result has been effected. They thus felicitate themselves upon the fact that their representatives have sent to Washington one who is "a fit representative of nothing good"; and a fit exponent of no honorable principle;—rejoice that they have disgraced "our native State," rejoice that they have partaken "of a buzzard's feast," and elected one, who, to paraphrase one of their own favorite expressions, is "the sum of all villainies." The people of Pennsylvania will not tamely submit to such a disgrace, nor fail to visit with scorn and indignation, the authors of it.

But it is not only the opposition members of the Legislature who are to blame for this result. The Democratic party possessed a majority sufficient to have elected their nominee, had all its representatives remained faithful to their trust. Three members, however, elected by the Democratic party and honored by its confidence, have earned an immortality of infamy by basely betraying their constituents and their party. They are WILLIAM B. LEBO, and G. A. WAGONSELLER, of Schuykill county, and SAMUEL MANSER, of York county. All these men attended the Democratic caucus on Friday night previous, and concurred in the resolution making the nomination unanimous. LEBO voted for the nomination of Col. FORNEY. The honest Democracy of York and Schuykill counties, who breathed political life into the nostrils of these miscreants, supposed they were electing honest men, Democrats, representatives who would be faithful to the great cause whose strength elected them. These just expectations have been disappointed. Upon what pretext and for what cause they have voted for Cameron is plain to all. They have betrayed the Democracy as Judas betrayed his master. They have made Mammon the God of their idolatry. The tortures of their own seared consciences may not be sufficiently pungent to force them, like Judas, to hang themselves, but a similar political fate will certainly be reserved for them by their indignant constituents, and their names become a hissing scorn and reproach throughout the whole Commonwealth.

That Simon Cameron owes his election to corrupt means no man doubts. The air has been poisoned for months past with rumors of his machinations. His emissaries of corruption have been despatched to many quarters of the State, and his friends have boasted repeatedly that he had purchased, as meat is bought in the shambles, enough miserable money-loving traitors to secure his election. The Democrats who voted for him could by no possibility have had any other than a corrupt motive to sustain him.—They knew the deep indignation their treachery would inevitably arouse among their constituents. It is impossible to conceive of any patriotic motive that could have urged them to vote for Cameron. There is nothing in his character, his principles, his abilities, to win the admiration or secure the support of any man. He has had no other attraction, and could have had no other inducement to hold out to these men, than a base pecuniary one. That Cameron has purchased his election, is the universal sentiment of all parties. How far the disgrace of admitting him to the Senate may be averted, as yet we do not know. If the plain fact, which all men instinctively know in regard to the means and agencies by which he secured his election, can be legally established, the United States Senate will owe it its own dignity to spurn him from that body.—Public opinion will demand that no legal means be left untried to balk this debauched political gamester, and snatch from his hands the ill-gotten prize which is dishonored by his possession of it.

Honest Indignation. We have never witnessed so universal an outburst of indignation among all honest classes of our citizens, and especially in the bosom of the Democratic party, as is manifested at the election of SIMON CAMERON to the United States Senate.

The Keystone Club of Philadelphia held an indignation meeting on Wednesday evening, and passed, among others, the following resolution: Resolved, That we have not a doubt of the utter, infamous, and irredeemable corruption of Wagonseller, Lebo, and Manser, who after approving Col. Forney's nomination in the caucus, gave their votes for Cameron in convention, from no possible motive but one which appealed directly to their pockets.—The circumstantial evidence of this fact is strong enough to carry conviction to every unprejudiced mind; and we urge it upon the Democratic representatives in the Legislature, as a duty they owe to themselves and their constituents, not to pause until the crime of these corrupt wretches be fully exposed and punished.

A resolution was also adopted denouncing the course of Henry D. Foster and those who voted for him, for not sustaining the regular caucus nominee.

We understand that the Democrats of York county have called an indignation meeting, to take some steps in reference to the traitor Manser. He deserves "to be handled without gloves."

A Protest has been made against the election of Cameron in both Houses of our Legislature. Because there was not a concurrent majority of each House in favor of the candidate declared to be elected.

Because the Senate did not comply with the requirements of the act of the 21 day of July, 1839, entitled "An act relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth," in this, that they did not appoint a Teller and make a nomination of persons to fill said office, nor give notice of said appointment and nomination at least one day previous to the meeting of said joint Convention.

How Cameron Goes to Washington. Simon Cameron goes to Washington the representative of no principles—he cares not for the Democratic party, the Republican party, the Whig party, or the Know Nothing party—he cares not for the interests or honor of Pennsylvania; but he takes his seat in the Senate of the United States to JOB—to trade and barter away his vote—upon Land Bills, and upon any corrupt scheme that will bring money into his purse. This has been the governing principle of his life, the power of which has kept in his train a faithful, corrupt band of followers.—Penn.

Charitable.—We have heard it charitably proposed to ask the present Legislature of this State, to pass a law, authorizing the trio purchased by Gen. Cameron, to change their names; because some of their honest relatives might be scandalized by being called by the same name on the same day!

A Literary Task.—Hon. Wm. C. Rives, of Virginia, has, it is said, undertaken to edit the Madison papers, or such of them as are in the possession of Congress and have not been fished. Among them is a letter addressed by Madison to his countrymen, with a request that it should not be opened until after his death. The document is said to be strongly for Union under all circumstances.

Local Matters.

GETTYSBURG RAILROAD ELECTION.—The annual election for President and Directors of the Gettysburg Railroad Company took place on Monday last, when the following gentlemen were chosen: President, CAPT. ROBERT MCCURRY. Directors, Abraham Krise, of P. Josiah Bonner, George Throno, Frederik Diehl, Dr. J. W. Hendrix, David M. Myers, Joseph Bailey, George W. McClellan, David Willis, J. B. McPherson, John Gilbert, Fuller Crane.

Messrs. J. B. Danner, S. R. Russell and D. A. Buehler were the judges of the election. Upwards of 1300 shares of stock were represented in the vote.

A meeting of the Stockholders took place (in accordance with custom) immediately previous to the holding of the election.—Capt. S. S. McCurry presiding, and Dr. E. G. Fahrenstock acting Secretary.—at which the Reports printed on the preceding page of this paper were received and read. The Report of the Engineer shows the work to be in a gratifying state of forwardness, and it is earnestly hoped that the subscribers of stock will be prompt in paying the instalments, so that it may be steadily continued.

LITTLESTOWN RAILROAD.—We learn that the following gentlemen were, on Monday last, elected officers of the Littlestown Railroad Company, for the ensuing year: President, WILLIAM MCSHERRY, Esq. Directors, W. W. Dallas, Joseph Barker, Dr. E. F. Shorb, Ephraim Myers, Joseph L. Shorb, John Shor, John Maring, David Schwartz, Samuel Gal, Samuel McNair, Jas. E. Dutera, and Col. Piper.

HOG-ODOLOGY.—A recent number of the Baltimore Sun contained the following item: "Forty Dollar Hog.—A dressed hog was sold last week in Chicago, Illinois, to go to Boston, which weighed 606 pounds. It was not only large but well fattened, and sold at the top of the market, at $50 per 100 lbs., making the round sum of $303 30.—Kilning hogs at $40 apiece would be profitable business."

"A forty dollar hog," sounds largely, but Adams can beat that. We are informed that JOSEPH P. McDIVITT, Esq., of Liberty township, recently disposed of a mammoth Hog for the round sum of fifty dollars!

Another item. H. D. WATLES, of the "Globe Inn," in this place, had three Hogs slaughtered on Monday last, the weight of which was, respectively, 414, 419, and 449 pounds,—their age being about 14 months.—The largest porkers for their age which we have heard of being killed this season in this meridian.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—Sheriff THOMAS sold, on Friday last, the following properties: The property of John Stall, in Huntington township, brought $275.—Peter Miller purchaser.

The property of James D. Taylor, in Butler township, brought $480.—Jacob B. Trostle purchaser.

The property of John Wertz, in Arendtsville, brought $1,650.—John Hartman purchaser.

The lot of Hugh Denwickie, in Gettysburg, brought $122.—John Hoke and D. McCosnaghy purchasers.

A Jolification Meeting, in honor of the election of James Buchanan, John C. Breckinridge, Wilson Reily, Geo. W. Brewer, &c., was held on Tuesday evening last, at Rider's School House, in Mountpleasant township, which organized by the selection of Joseph Fink, Esq., as President; Joseph Rider, Elias Sponsler, Wm. H. Lott, Jacob Knarbach, Charles Overder, and James Spalding, Vice Presidents; Moses C. Bonner and John Hartman, Jr., Secretaries. After the officers had taken their seats, in a crowded house, quite a spirit of acclamation was manifested in loud calls for Jesse D. Newman, Esq., who responded by appearing upon the stand and addressing the meeting at great length. He was followed by James H. Collins, John Orndorff, Joseph Fink, Esq., and Charles Overder.—Again Jesse D. Newman was called, and he again addressed the meeting at length, and then sang a song appropriate to the occasion. He concluded by an address to the younger class in his presence.

The Know Nothings and Black Republicans of this place fired their cannon ("SAM") on Thursday evening, over the election of Simon Cameron to the United States Senate. The same set fired the same gun over the PLUG UGLY victory at the Presidential election in Baltimore. Commendable "crowing" in both cases! In the first, "victory" was achieved by OUTRAGE and MURDER—in the other, by BRIBERY and CORRUPTION!

MR. MOUL'S Reaping Machine.

FREEDOM, Adams co. } Oct. 25th, 18 56. } MR. C. MOUL, Dear Sir:—According to my promise, I should have written to you long before this, respecting the Reaping Machine I got from you about the first of July last. I must say that I cannot express myself in terms high enough, as a Reaper for cutting grain, oats, grass and clover seed. I do not believe that there is any Reaper now in use, that will beat yours. I have seen McCormick's Reaper at work, and I can work your Machine as easy with two horses as he can his with four. I would not exchange my Machine for one of McCormick's, if any person would give me $100 to boot, so say I should make use of it; for I think your Reaper a perfect Machine both for durability and ease to work with. Yours, with respect, ABRAHAM WYBRIGHT. Jan. 19, 1857.
