DIED:

On Monday last, at his residence, near this Borough, Mr. THOMAS JOHNS, aged 75 years and 2 weeks. The deceased resided in our vicinity for many years, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His life and conduct was that of so blameless and conciliatory a character, that he had few if any enemies. His disease was of several months continuance, and attended at times with much pain and suffering—which he bore with Christian resignation and fortitude. His loss will be long felt by his numerous relatives and friends; but they have the consoling hope that he has only exchanged a life of pain and cares and suffering for one of eternal bliss. His remains were conveyed to Ever Green Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon for interment, followed by a large circle of bereaved friends and neighbors. For the neighbors' kind attentions the family are deeply thankful. S.
