Local Matters.

IMPROVEMENTS .- We understand that Mr. JEREMIAH CULP is about commencing the ed to the State of Illinois, where he was electerection of a large two-story brick residence, ed a Clerk of the Circuit Court, and filled the in York street, immediately in front of, and position when General Shields presided as to connect with, the building in which he now resides. This improvement (with a few coats he went to St. Louis and joined a volunteer of paint on neighboring houses) will add greatly to the appearance of that part of the town.

Mr. JACOB NORBECK has commenced operations on the Kerr building, across the way, with the view of an early removal of his Store into it. We have no doubt that before many a Probate Judge and a member of the Terridays, it will wear a vastly improved face.

.. The Messrs. Chritzman are pulling down the old buildings on the School-house lot, in High street, and when done will commence the large building recently contracted for.

The cellar walls are about being put up for the three-story brick dwelling and busifor the three-story brick dwelling and busi-ness-place of the Mesers. Jacons, in Chambers- es-of our citizens than Mr. Quinn.—Santa Fe

A Frightful Stabbing Case.

Lewis Hoffman, keeper of the public inn at the extreme end of S George street, was severely stabled on Thursday afternoon. - There had been, it is said, no other persons in his bar-room except himself, George Siechrist, Charles Hawk, and another individual. Sharp words ensued between Hoffman on the one side, and Siechrist and Hawk on the other, which terminated in a frightful stab on the person of Hoffman. The knife or instrument used entered about the middle of the cheek, on the right side of the face, and came out under the chin, cutting the tongue in its passage.

A large opening is presented. The victim bied so profusely that a vast quantity of blood came from the wound. He is in a very critical situation. This (Friday) morning he is that has attained the widest colebrity ever known as a remeunable to speak. Officers are on the look-out ! dy for Liver Complaints.
