Copperhead Indignation

FRIDAY MOBNING, MAY 22.

Several thousand sympathizers with treason got together at Union Square, in loudest howl ever heard in America over the arrest trial and conviction of VALLAN-DIGHAM. The speeches, as reported in the World are more like the ravings of maniace than the utterances of sane men. The orators were all of the second and third class in the copportend school, for example, Rynders, Mulialy, McMasters, McConn. Tharin, and such like. Pernando Wood, the Brookes, O'Gormon, and other first class leaders had sagacity enough to stay away frem so absurd a demonstration. "Freemen," said one speaker, "how are you to save your libertica?" "By fighting," was the response. Wes, if necessary, by fighting." Every one of the acts of the Administration indicate the purpose of the Administration to terminate our liberties," roared another, the fool being unable to perceive that the very thing they were then doing was the exercise of unobstructed, un molested liberty, even to the yerge of licentioneness. The fellows seemed to be exceedingly anxious to be arrested; but their own utter insignification shielded them from all molestation. Their besotted followers yelled, and cursed, and hissed, and groaned, sail. The whole thing was mere hoise and clamer, and did not rise to the dignity of sedition. In spite of all they ocold do they were obliged to return to their homes or dens, as the case might be, without having been able to provoke either an arrest or a row.

Upon Mr. Crittenden.

We do not by any means agree with all his sentiments; yet old as he is, the prince of conservatives and compromisers as he is, he has kept relatively up with the progress of opinion, and now comes nobly forward to sustain the government in a vigorous prosecution of the war for the Union. It was a rebellion my the war of the rebellion without just cause; so I then thought and so I still think. The Administration up to that time, Mr. Lincoln having been insugurated, had done nothing of injustice to any section, or State, or individual. Throughout this great lead no single individual could be pointed only by whom the Government had done injustice; so man from whom the Government had taken property, or whose liberties had been encouched upon; so man who had been unjustly desprisoned.

decired to see all party feeling abandoned. It was a war of defence on your part. God had given you an inheritance greater than any venchasted to any other nation; and any voschiared to any other sation; and should you basely surrander it without a straiggle, saying to the rabels, "take it and do as' you please with it." That would have bless ignomintens—the like of which was never heard of in history. It was for the preservation of our Government and our territory, and we should pursue it, regardless of cost and scorifice. These were my sentiments, and I thought we should pursue the war as a national object, with no mean party scheming. I would have regarded any man who should attempt to divide the people on party questions as a malefactor, and treated him as such. In constituting Mr. Crittenders said. In concluding, Mr. Orittenden said :.

"The nation will get through its difficult is We have the power and will to do it, and we shall socsuplish it. That great Providence that has made us the standard-bearer of free that has made us has standard-bears of free-dem will not permit our Goyerment to go down and seave the world in gloom. I have faith; there is a Dirinity above that shapes all our bads, and He will shape the destiny of our nation. Its earest has only just be-singua; and Providence does not permit a half of his had be abandoned; and I trust in God that was the meaning of the learnd it. God the rant and se shandoned; and I trust in God that we, the people; do, not fained it. Our hearts must be filled with the neble determi-hation to maintain the integrity of our Gov-ernment, while we grow greater and greater, mightler and mightler, riober in civilization, grander in prosperity, until our glory shall cover the whole land.

but you must propose to fight the robellion through to the last, no matter whether England of France, or any other power make common desire with them or not. We must fight them all, in the defence of right. I don't want to extend the boundaries of this war-God knows I do not! I have tried to make passes, as long of piece was consistent with punce, as long of pence was consistent with national safety. How, I believe war alone can says us, and war it must be.

Whether Hooker has recrossed the Rappahannock or not; whether Richmond is taken or not; whether in defeat or victory, my determination is to stand by and maintain the Government, and do-all I can to promote a vigorous prosecution of the Those rebel sympathisers who make the support of the war secondary to their support of party, and who, with armed rebellion mensoing the life of the nation, clamor for peace and compromise, would do well to emulate the example which Mr. Crittenden has set them. Rebei Difficulties in Reinforcing The rabel papers inform us that heavy reinforcements have arrived near Jackson

The rabel papers inform us that heavy reinforcements have arrived near Jackson, Mississippi, from Charleston and from Georgia, whose co-operation with the rebel force at Vickaburg will render the destruction of Grant's army certain. But with Jackson in our possession, it is impossible for robel reinforcements to reach Vickaburg, and with their railread communication south and west out off, it is quite as difficult for troops to reach Jackson, or, indeed, to come within thirty miss of it, at least for some weeks to come.
