

Pittsburgh Gazette

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 27

The War Power of the Constitution is an admitted fact...

The principle is found operating in every department of animated nature...

No people under heaven are more jealous of their personal rights than those of Great Britain...

Lord Stansley, now Earl Derby, said: "I think that the Government has been misled by the House of Commons..."

Mr. DeWitt said: "I believe in my conscience that this measure is unconstitutional..."

Mr. DeWitt said: "I believe in my conscience that this measure is unconstitutional..."

Strategy - Grant's Next Movement. Two most inviting paths, it is clear, are presented to Gen. Grant...

The march upon Mobile would be the shorter of the two, and its fruits would be immediate and valuable...

On the other hand, if Gen. Grant declines to move upon Mobile, he will be directed toward the rear of Bragg's army...

Interesting from Louisiana. A correspondent of the New York Times writes as follows: Alexandria, La., May 13, 1862.

Gen. Hooker and the President. The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writes: "The conduct of Gen. Hooker has been severely criticised by his political friends..."

NO MORE CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE OF THE MARCH OF GEN. GRANT AS A COMRADE OF THE CONFEDERATE ARMY...

PUBLIC NOTICE. UNION COUNTY CONVENTION. The legal notice of the Union County Convention...

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. The undersigned, JAMES H. FULTON, of the County of Allegheny...

NOTICE. A public meeting of the Board of Directors of the Union County Convention...
